Honeymoon Updates

As always, get the latest info on activities by going to Kaffee Klatch on Thursday mornings and checking the bulletin boards at the pool, in the clubhouse, and at the laundromat.

May 27th a big party was held at the clubhouse. Honeymooners celebrated Memorial Day and the 60th anniversary of Bob and Carol Eggebeen.

About 70 people joined in prayer to remember those who made the ultimate sacrifice for our freedom, and those who are currently serving in all branches of our military.

Then it was food and fellowship, celebrating Bob and Carol's anniversary, and wishing them a fond farewell as they are moving from the park. Best wishes, we will miss you!

Best Wishes Bob and Carol

To all Honeymooners -

Thank you to Pat, Ruth, Marti and all the volunteers involved in our very special 60th Anniversary Celebration at the Memorial Day picnic. The cake was delicious and extra-ordinary. Only Honeymooners could be so thoughtful.

We will miss y'all. Be blessed in all you do for others!

Sincerely, Bob and Carol Eggebeen

Clubhouse Kitchen

The clubhouse kitchen has a new look! Doug Hendricks did a great job of painting all the drawers and cabinets blue, and Jody Gramley, #104, made new valances! It looks fabulous! Thank you, Doug and Jody!

Sympathy

Maggie and Don Nowers lost their little grandson, Grady. He was born November 15th with Hypoplastic Left Heart Syndrome. Grady put up a good fight, but passed away July 6th.

Don and Maggie wish to thank everyone for their prayers, kind wishes and donations on Grady's behalf.

Carolyn Carr is sharing Five Secrets To a Perfect Relationship

1. It's important to have a man who helps at home and knows how to cook, clean and has a job.
2. It's important to have a man who can make you laugh.
3. It's important to have a man you can trust and wants only you.
4. It's important to have a man who is good in bed and enjoys being with you.
5. It's absolutely vital that these four men don't know each other.....

Auto Correct

A friend on FaceBook told me that it helps if you imagine “auto correct” as a tiny little elf in your phone who’s trying so hard to be helpful but is in fact quite drunk.

Travel

Pat has booked yet another cruise for our enjoyment. Nine night Southern Caribbean Cruise, January 24th to February 2nd, 2020 on Royal Caribbean's Explorer of the Sea sailing round trip from Miami to Haiti, Bonaire, Aruba and Curacao. Price includes transportation to the port, 9 night cruise, port taxes and government fees, and travel protection.

The cruise of the Greek Isles is no longer available – it is sold out! However, December 2nd - 6th you can still get to the Bahamas aboard Royal Caribbean's Mariner of the Seas.

Contact Pat Gilliland at 727-733-5202.

Fraud

In perusing the July/August issue of AARP Bulletin, I found an interesting article on the “Fraud Watch” page.

First off, Florida ranks No. 1 among U.S. States in terms of scams reported in 2018.

Losses totaled $84 Million!

Question for the fraud team – Should you play with phone scammers and lead them on or just hang up?

Answer – We hear often about people who like to waste scammers' time by messing with them. But that's risky. These guys are pros and might be using the call to fish for info on you, trying to find out if you have a computer, for example, or figure out your birth date or other personal information. Also, scammers sometimes use dialing systems that track the length of conversations. If it's more than a few seconds, you might be tagged as a top target – meaning lots more calls.

Best advice: Don't pick up unless you know who is calling. And if you do pick up and it's a scam call, hang up.

Also, on the Fraud Watch page, FCC Takes Big Step to Halt Robocalls

In a victory for harassed call recipients across the U.S., the FCC has given phone companies the green light to block aggravating robocalls, including the billions that target older Americans.

Phone companies don't have to do anything if they choose not to. Still, the FCC says it believes the option will lead to widespread use of blocking tools. The FCC action allows phone companies to stop suspected robocalls without asking customers first, or block all calls not on a verified callers list if a customer prefers. AARP'S survey, “Who's Really on the Line?,” found that 1 in 10 people have been victimized by robocall scams, which the FCC says cost Americans $429 million in 2018.

My friend John sent me some “funnies” I must share.

Be careful when you follow the Masses – sometimes the “M” is silent!

I'm not lazy! I just really enjoy doing nothing!

When you're dead, you don't know you're dead. It's only difficult for others. It's the same way with stupid.

I speak my mind because it hurts to bite my tongue all the time.

Sometimes I wonder why I'm not in a mental asylum...then I take a look around and think maybe I am!

I'm not saying you're stupid, I'm just saying you've got bad luck thinking.

No matter how big and bad you are, when a two year old hands you a toy phone, you answer it.

I've learned two very important lessons in my life. I can't remember the first one, but the second one is that I need to start writing things down.

If you stir coconut oil into your kale it makes it easier to scrape into the trash.

The best thing about being over 60 is that we did all our stupid stuff before the invention of the internet, so there's no proof!

So when is this “old enough to know better” supposed to kick in?

From the Editor's Desk

Susie Buckley

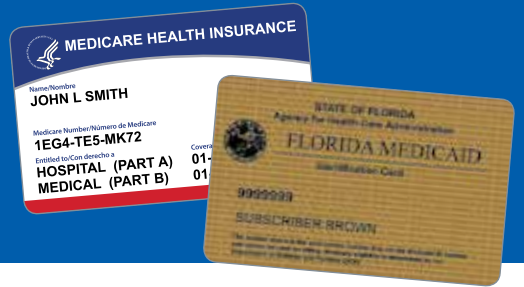

In my case - “old enough to know better” hasn't kicked in yet at 74! Went riding my bicycle with the grandkids a few days ago. All was well until I tried to get off my bike.

Somehow, my foot got tangled up and down I went, twisting my foot in the process. I couldn't figure out how I could be such a klutz. Dave asked me if I was wearing flip flops, and of course I was. HmMMM. You don't suppose? After a trip to the clinic where I was issued a humungous “boot” to wear through July and August, the hottest months of the year, I might know better next time! Don't wear flip flops when riding a bicycle!!

August 12th is the deadline for sending me photos and articles for the September Newsletter. I really appreciate your help!

"...I am so happy with my new windows...I'd like to commend your work crew. Earbie and Larry were fantastic! I couldn't believe the clean-up EVERYDAY! The whole job took just a week even with all the rain delays. I would and WILL highly recommend your company to my friends and neighbors. Of course I won't need to say a word - the house is doing all the talking! Thank you so much for my beautiful new house."

Carol Zapiecki, Clearwater, FL

"Just a short note to express my appreciation for the work done on my mobile home. The crews that worked here...were gentlemen at all times, efficient, knowledgeable and prompt. You can be sure if I run into anybody who needs your type of work, I will surely recommend your company. It has been a very satisfying experience!"

Hey, bartender

A duck walks into a bar and asks, “Got any grapes?”

The bartender says no, and the duck thanks him and leaves.

The next day the duck returns to the bar and asks, “Hey, got any grapes?”

The bartender says, “No. We don’t serve grapes here.”

The duck thanks him and leaves, only to return the next day. The bartender sees him walking through the door and says, “Look buddy, I’m not sure why you keep coming in here. We don’t have any grapes, never did, and never will, and if you ask me about grapes one more time, I’m going to nail your beak to the bar.”

The duck is quiet for a few moments, and then asks, “You got any nails?”

“No,” the bartender replies.

“OK,” the duck says. “Got any grapes?”

Know the difference

A guide took a group of people for a hike in the woods. They soon encountered a snake on their path. One of the hikers said to the guide, “Look there’s a snake. Do you think it’s poisonous?”

The guide looked over at the snake and replied, “No. That snake isn’t poisonous.”

Upon hearing this, the hiker walked closer to the snake to take a picture of it. The snake bit the hiker and slithered away. The hiker fell to the ground and began to moan in pain as the others in the group came to his aid.

“I thought you said that snake wasn’t poisonous,” someone said to the guide.

“That snake wasn’t poisonous,” the guide replied. “Poison is ingested or absorbed. That snake was venomous. Venom is injected.”

Skepticism about electric cars

Are you ready for self-driving cars? How about vehicles powered by electricity, not gasoline? The AAA took a look at public sentiment about both possible transportation futures.

As the Green Car Reports website reports, 50% of survey participants said they expect most cars will drive themselves by 2029, but only 40% thought most vehicles will be electric by that year.

AAA explains the lower figure for electric cars by citing other survey results indicating that 59% of drivers aren't sure that their range on the highway and in the city is as good or better than that of gas-powered vehicles, although Green Car Reports says that EVs are more efficient and have more range in the city. Consumers said gasoline would have to reach $5 gallon before they'd consider buying an electric car.

Parents risk retirement to help kids

Most parents want to help their children financially when they're just starting out, but the costs can be substantial: A Bankrate survey found that many U.S. parents are risking their retirement savings to support their children as they begin their careers.

Asked, "Would you say you have sacrificed/are sacrificing your own retirement savings in order to help your adult children?" 17% of respondents answered, "Yes, a lot," and 34% answered, "Yes, somewhat." On the other hand, 41 percent responded, "No, not at all." (For 9%, the questions didn't apply because they hadn't started or aren't saving money for retirement.)

At what age should parents stop footing their kids' bills? Here's what they said:

Car payments	20
Car insurance	20
Subscription services	20

Know the two types of creative thought

Creativity comes in two types of thinking—divergent and convergent. You’ll get more out of your brain by recognizing the two so you can deploy them appropriately. Here’s how the London Business School website defines both:

Divergent thinking

Imagining
Creating
Challenging
Dreaming

Convergent thinking

Testing
Judging
Deciding Evaluating

Use divergent thinking for generating ideas; practice convergent thinking to implement them.

Get back into the creative habit

All of us are born with creative minds, but some of us lose the habit. The Entrepreneur magazine website offers these tips for getting your creative mojo back:

- Practice mindful observation. You look, but do you really see? Make a practice of observing and appreciating the details of your surroundings. You may see, hear, smell, or feel things you never noticed before, which can give you new ideas and insights.
- Rev up your curiosity. Make a point of asking questions about everything you see and do, even if you think you already know the answers. Exploring situations more deeply can yield fresh insights into everyday problems.
- Free your mind. Forget limitations. When you brainstorm, think beyond boundaries and the conventional wisdom. Don’t accept the tried and true—instead, teach yourself to look at what seems impossible. You could find a way to make the impossible come true.
- Practice being creative. Don’t wait until a problem erupts to flex your creative muscles. Your mind will be in better shape if you look for opportunities to be creative every day. Set yourself a small problem, and spend a few minutes thinking of new and different ways to solve it. You’ll be ready when you really need a spark of inspiration.

A creative man is motivated by the desire to achieve, not by the desire to beat others.
—Ayn Rand
