In Sympathy

Condolences to the family and friends of Patty Shapert, Lot #2, who passed away in June.

Activities

As you can see, there are no activities planned at the clubhouse. However, the pool is open to residents, which must be a relief in the heat of the Florida summer.

According to Eddie, thirteen or so red-white-and blue decorated golf carts took to the streets of HMHP to celebrate July Fourth. Another parade is being planned for Labor Day. Hopefully someday soon we can get back to the cook-outs and pot lucks.

The Ladies Lunch outings are on hold. Barb is hoping by September the virus will loosen its hold on Florida and lunch can be served.

The really really good news is that I have not heard of any of our neighbors or friends that have become sick. Let's do our best to keep it that way!

FLORIDA ANCHOR AND BARRIER COMPANY

To our valued customers:

During the current times we wanted to let you know that we are taking as many precautions as we can to ensure not only our workers safety but yours as well. We check workers' temperatures each morning and have limited the amount of contact our crews have with each other. Our crews work in Tyvek suits with respirators which helps to ensure your safety as well as theirs.

As a company, we want your business and there is no need for any contact if you so choose. Our business is deemed an "Essential Business" and we are here for you when you need us. You can schedule your inspection by calling 1-800-681-3772.

WHEN TREATING A HEART ATTACK OR STROKE, TIME IS OF THE ESSENCE. EVEN DURING THESE TIMES.

Don't hesitate when it comes to getting emergency treatment.

Even during a pandemic, you still need to be treated immediately if you have an emergency. Debating whether or not to risk going to an emergency room during a heart attack, stroke or other health emergency—waiting even a few extra minutes—could be harmful. That's why in all BayCare hospital emergency rooms, patients who have symptoms of COVID-19 are isolated from other patients. This helps keep emergency room patients and our team members safe. So if it's an emergency, don't wait. For more information: BayCareEmergencyCare.org

Here are a few words of wisdom from folks wiser than me

No matter how educated, talented, rich or cool you believe you are, how you treat people ultimately tells all.

“I don't trust anyone who's nice to me but rude to the waiter. Because they would treat me the same way if I were in that position.” Muhammad Ali

In life, it's important to know when to stop arguing with people and simply let them be wrong.

Don't trust everything you see. Even salt looks like sugar.

A ship is always safe at shore but that is not what it's built for. Albert Einstein

A smart person knows what to say, a wise person knows whether to say it or not.

“Any fool can know. The point is to understand.” Albert Einstein

“I fear the day that technology will surpass our human interaction. The world will have a generation of idiots.” Albert Einstein

“America will never be destroyed from the outside. If we falter and lose our freedoms, it will be because we destroyed ourselves.” Abraham Lincoln

“When you see that in order to produce, you need to obtain permission from men who produce nothing – When you see that money is flowing to those who deal, not in goods but in favors – When you see that men get richer by graft and by pull than by work, and your laws don't protect you against them, but protect them against you – When you see corruption being rewarded and honesty becoming a self-sacrifice – You may know that your society is doomed.” Ayn Rand, Atlas Shrugged, 1957

Here's an interesting article from the June/July AARP Magazine about what to do when it gets too hot.

“As we age, our bodies become less efficient at regulating temperature. That puts us at greater risk of heat illness. Drink plenty of water before going outside, and eat a banana – it's rich in potassium, which helps regulate body fluid.

Save Your Loved One

Heat illness can be a life-threatening problem that arrives in stages. If you detect heat stroke, call 911.

HEAT CRAMPS Muscle cramps suggest dehydration. Move the victim into the shade and give him some water, even if he's not thirsty, says Shane Kerwin, a former medical sergeant in the U.S. Army's Special Forces and founder of Personal Survivor Solutions.

“Cramps mean their electrolytes are down, so give them gatorade cut with water, since sports drinks tend to be high in sugar,” he says.

HEAT EXHAUSTION “Profuse sweating is a big indicator of heat exhaustion, and this is serious,” Kerwin warns. Get him into a cooler place and take his hat off, then untuck and unbutton his shirt and sleeves to allow cool air to push his temperature down. “Have him sip water, not guzzle it; you want to avoid vomiting.”

HEATSTROKE A lack of sweating, bright red skin, a flushed face, lethargy and slurring are all symptoms of heatstroke. This is a serious emergency. Call 911. “Apply cool compresses to the groin and armpits to lower core temp” Kerwin says “Don't immerse the body in cold water, which can shock the heart out of rhythm.”

One more excerpt from : A Walk Thru Time Honeymoon Park 30th Anniversary

1968 – 1998

Residents rely on the monthly newsletter to get the majority of Park news. The first publication, the Honeymoon Dispatch, was started by Elizabeth Hartley in 1971. It folded in November 1972, when the owner, Voyager Village, decided the expense was too great

With support from the association board, Ted Alexander took on this task in 1975, and for 15 years wrote the monthly newsletter. In 1985 she re-designed the newsletter into its current format. Subsequent editors of the Honeymoon Herald were Maggie Fowler and Tommie Sowten, the current editor, who assumed responsibility for the Herald in December 1995. Editing the newsletter is a monumental task, but with help from street reporters and distributors, the Herald is compiled, printed and distributed to every home just like clockwork on the first of every month.

TA great teacher for Bill Gates

When Microsoft founder Bill Gates attended Seattle’s View Ridge Elementary, he was a typical nerdy 4th-grade introvert who kept to himself. However, a kindly librarian named Blanche Caffiere helped him into his own in a way that would one day change the world forever. Gates tells the tale on his blog:

“When I first met Mrs. Caffiere, she was the elegant and engaging school librarian at Seattle’s View Ridge Elementary, and I was a timid 4th-grader. I was desperately trying to go unnoticed, because I had some big deficits, like atrocious handwriting ... and I was trying to hide the fact that I liked to read—something that was cool for girls but not for boys ... Mrs. Caffiere took me under her wing and helped make it okay for me to be a messy, nerdy boy who was reading lots of books.”

Mrs. Caffiere encouraged Gates’ passion for reading by helping him explore it through introspective questions, such as what he liked to read and why. She went out of her way to find books that were progressively more interesting and challenging for him. Once he’d read them, she would ask him if he liked what he had read, and more importantly, what he’d learned and why. “She genuinely listened to what I had to say,” Gates recalls.

Blanche Caffiere passed away in 2006, shortly after reaching her 100th birthday—but not before Gates was able to thank her personally for the lasting impact her love and curiosity had on his life.

Problem

Two parents came to a counselor because they were having trouble with their 25-year-old son. The son had refused come to the counseling session with them. “He doesn’t think he has a problem,” the father said.

“Maybe he’s right,” the counselor said. “Tell me about it.”

The son was having trouble staying in school and finding a job. He was using drugs, keeping questionable company, and avoiding responsibility in general.

The parents said they’d tried everything: Always making sure he had everything he needed, giving him plenty of money at college so he wouldn’t have to work and he’d have plenty of time for study and a social life, and helping him find another college when he flunked out of his first one.

Finally, the counselor said, “I think your son is right. He doesn’t have a problem.”

The parents stared at him in shock. The father said, “Did I hear you right? You don’t think he has a problem?”

“That’s correct,” the counselor said. “He doesn’t have a problem. You do. He can do whatever he wants. You pay, you plan, you exert energy to keep him going. He doesn’t have a problem because you have taken it from him. Those things should be his problem, but as it now stands, they are yours.”

Lights began to go on in the parents’ heads.

The counselor said to them, “Would you like for me to help you help him to have some problems?”

August Daily

Lughnasadh, Aug. 1. A Gaelic festival marking the beginning of the harvest season.

Book Lovers Day, Aug. 9. An unofficial holiday observed to encourage bibliophiles to celebrate reading and literature. Put away your smartphone and pick up a book instead.

National Honey Bee Day, Aug. 15. An opportunity to celebrate honey bees, recognize their contribution to our everyday lives, and take steps to protect this important species for future generations.

World Orangutan Day, Aug. 19. This event is to help encourage the public to take action in preserving this amazing species.

National Dog Day, Aug. 26. National Dog Day celebrates all breeds and serves to help galvanize the public to recognize the number of dogs that need to be rescued each year.

What employees expect upon return

Seventy-two percent of employees are eager to get back to the office, according to the Human Resource Executive website. What do they expect when they walk through the door? Here's what they think employers might do:

- Seventy-nine percent expect their employer to provide disinfectant or hand sanitizer.
- Fifty-four percent expect employers to require masks and gloves in the office.
- Forty-five percent anticipate that employers will space workstations at least six feet from other co-workers.
- Thirty-eight percent expect their employer to check employees' temperatures upon arriving at work.

What exactly is mathematics? Many have tried but nobody has really succeeded in defining mathematics; it is always something else.

— Stan Ulam

August Monthly

Black Business Month. Black business owners account for about 10% of U.S. businesses and about 30% of all minority-owned businesses. According to the U.S. Census Bureau, that amounts to approximately two million companies owned by African Americans. Support these businesses in August and all year round.

Children's Eye Health and Safety Month. Sponsored by the American Academy of Ophthalmology, which encourages parents to take children for an eye examination as part of their back-to-school checklist. In addition to immunizations and school orientations, it is highly recommended that children receive an eye examination before going back to school.

National Water Quality Month. The average person uses approximately 80 gallons of water or more per day for bathing, cleaning, household waste, and drinking. Protecting our water resources and educating ourselves about water quality is an important goal of National Water Quality Month.

Psoriasis Awareness Month. An opportunity to educate and inform sufferers on a range of topics varying from treatment, causes, triggers, and management of this inflammatory and often irritating disease. The cause of psoriasis is still unknown, but specialists do know that it is largely affected by the immune system and genetics

Weekly

World Breastfeeding Week, Aug. 1-7. The WBW 2020 campaign will focus on the impact of infant feeding on the environment/climate change and the imperative to protect, promote, and support breast-feeding for the health of the planet and its people.

International Assistance Dog Week, Aug. 2-8. Created to recognize all the devoted, hardworking assistance dogs helping individuals mitigate their disability related limitations. Its goals are to recognize and honor assistance dogs; raise awareness and educate the public about assistance dogs; honor puppy raisers and trainers; and recognize heroic deeds performed by assistance dogs in our communities.

Safe + Sound Week, Aug. 10-16. A nationwide event held each August that recognizes the successes of workplace safety and health programs and offers information and ideas on how to keep America's workers safe.

National Aviation Week, Aug. 16-22. Always occurring during the week of August 19, the date coincides with National Aviation Day, which celebrates Orville Wright of the Wright Brothers, who made the first flight for 12 seconds and 120 feet at Kitty Hawk, North Carolina on December 17, 1903.
