Neighborhood "Watch Talk"

Have you ever opened the door to a person or persons claiming to be from the utility; or a contractor offering repair services; or a sales representative canvassing the neighborhood? We all have. But here are some points the National Crime Prevention Council suggests you consider.

A stranger is anyone you do not know.

Think twice before opening the door to people you do not know, no matter how well-dressed they are, or how kind they appear to be, or if they appear to know you. Even strangers can know your name, or drop a neighbors name.

Talk to the person through the door. If you don't know the person and don't feel comfortable with the situation, don't open the door!

Partially opening a door equipped with a door chain is a practice that should be discouraged. The door is not secured. A door chain cannot withstand physical force.

If someone says they have been sent by the Park Manager, your Neighborhood Watch Association; the Utility Company; or anything else, you may want to leave them standing outside until you've called that entity to vouch for them.

Utility personnel, law enforcement personnel, all carry identification. A uniform or name tag is not enough.

Be careful allowing anyone such as servicemen or sales representatives into your home without proper identification and verification. Any reputable representative will understand your precautions and should have the phone number readily available for you to call and verify. Reputable contractors will make an appointment.

Honeymoon Park has a "No Trespassing, No Solicitation" policy. Park Management will never give permission for solicitation within the Park.

Consider keeping valuables and money out of sight when strangers are working in your home. If possible, have more than one person at home when work is being done.

Never allow a stranger into your home when you are alone. Ask a neighbor to join you.

If you make an appointment with potential buyers have them provide their name and phone number, and then call them back to verify the number.

If a stranger asks to use your telephone in an emergency, don't let them in. Instead you could offer to place the call for them.

If you come home and believe a break in has occurred, do not go inside. Go to the nearest telephone and call the Sheriff's Office.

Get to know your neighbors -- someone you can turn to if you're worried.

Be Safe.... Be Aware!

P.S. When you see a Deputy Sheriff in the Park, give a big wave and a thank you. After all....

Honeymoon Park Matters, You Matter, Getting Involved Matters

FYI

Please note, there is going to be a Thanksgiving Dinner. The time is not yet set, so watch the bulletin boards for further information.

Carolyn Carr shares this story.....

A 15-year-old Amish boy and his father were in a mall. They were amazed by almost everything they saw, but especially by two shiny silver walls that could move apart and then slide back together again.

The boy asked, "What is this, Father?"

The father (never having seen an elevator) responded, "Son, I have never seen anything like this in my life. I don't know what it is."

While the boy and his father were watching with amazement, a fat old lady in a wheel chair moved up to the moving walls and pressed a button. The walls opened, and the lady rolled between them into a small room. The walls closed and the boy and his father watched the small numbers above the walls light up sequentially.

They continued to watch until it reached the last number, and then the numbers began to light in reverse order.

Finally the walls opened up again and a gorgeous 24-year-old blond stepped out.

The father, not taking his eye off the young woman, said quietly to his son..."Go get your Mother."

Health insurance decisions can be confusing due to endless coverage changes and many policy types. Fortunately, there is someone who can work diligently to help and without cost to you – Michael Crotts, owner of Best Plan Choice.

Through his own healthcare experience Mr. Crotts learned the value of good health coverage and quality medical care. He dedicates his agency to helping people with Medicare and Medicaid needs. You can visit the office to learn about Medicare plan options or he will come to your home.

Every year your Medicare health plan coverage changes even if you do not change plans. Also, new products are introduced and many offer benefits beyond original Medicare and/or Medicaid plans. Baby Boomers had completely different insurance products during their working years. The indemnity and major medical policies are no longer the only choice and often do not meet the financial needs of consumers today.

Don't waste time trying to figure it out. Michael will sit with you and review all of the documents, and answer all of your questions. Most importantly, he will conduct a needs analysis to determine your individual needs – if you expect a hospitalization, use certain medicines, or want benefit like dental or vision – everything is taken into consideration.

Best Plan Choice is there to help you make the right choice and is available long after the policy is written. This means helping with doctor changes, plan questions, annual review of your benefits, and of course taking great care of any friend or family member you refer. At Best Plan Choice clients become friends, and friends become clients.

Jokes

The Pillsbury Doughboy died yesterday of a yeast infection and trauma complications from repeated pokes to the belly.

Doughboy was buried in a lightly greased coffin with the grave site piled high with many flours.

Numerous celebrities turned out to pay their respects, including Mrs. Butterworth, Hungry Jack, Betty Crocker, the California Raisins, the Hostess Twinkies and Captain Crunch.

Aunt Jemima delivered the eulogy and lovingly described Doughboy as a man who never know how much he was kneaded.

Born in 1965 and bread in Minnesota, Poppin' Fresh rose quickly in show business, but his later life was filled with turnovers. He was never considered a very smart cookie, wasting much of his dough on half baked schemes.

A little flaky, he was known as a crusty man, but still considered a positive "roll" model to millions.

Doughboy is survived by his wife Play Dough; three children – John Dough, Jane Dough and Dosey Dough...plus, they had a bun in the oven. He is also survived by his elderly uncle, Pop Tart.

The funeral was held at 3:50 for about 15 minutes.

May he Rest in Pies,

Tom Lenard

Florida, look out!! The snowbirds are coming! Fall is definitely in the air. Don't want to be "up north" when the snow starts flying.

Looking forward to greeting friends, feeling the sea breeze and sunshine on my shoulder, walking on the beach....well, you get the picture.

All y'all take care! See you soon! Life is Good!!!

EIGHT OLD WIVES' TALES THAT ARE ALL TOO TRUE

From the January, 2014 issue of Readers Digest

By Shana Ecker who got it from Huffingtonpost.com

1. Ice removes carpet dents. Place a cube in the stubborn hole and let it melt. To make the fibers come back to life and look as good as new, fluff the damp spot with a fork.
2. Walnuts fix furniture scratches. Rub a shelled nut over marks in wooden tables, chairs or flooring. The oils will penetrate, condition and smooth the unsightly nick.
3. Newspapers clean windows. Newspaper fibers are denser than those in paper towels and absorb more liquid without falling apart.
4. Alka-Seltzer unclogs drains. If you've got a mild clog, drop four tablets and a touch of vinegar into the sink or shower drain, and flush with boiling water to clear any obstructed pipes or possible blockages.
5. Soap fills holes in the wall. To plug a small nail hole before painting, rub a bar of white soap in a circular motion over the hole until it's filled in. Then cover the entire surface with a coat of primer.
6. Aluminum foil reduces laundry wrinkles. Place a sheet of foil under the ironing board. It will help you iron both sides of the garment at once by reflecting heat onto the creases on the back of the fabric.
7. Sponges get squeaky-clean in the microwave. Put your dirty scrubbers in a shallow dish with a mixture of water and lemon juice, and zap them at high power to kill bacteria.
8. Plants are air purifiers. The best air-cleaners are bamboo palm, ficus, and philodendron.

Ditch these financial bad habits

Want to handle your money better? Most of us do. The Motley Fool website advises breaking these three bad habits:

- Paying bills late. A few days or weeks may not seem to matter, but you'll be hit with late fees, interest, and damage to your credit rating. Do your best to pay all your bills on time. Set up reminders so you're always on schedule. Automatic payment is one reliable option.
- Accumulating too much debt. Not all debt is bad, as long as you manage it sensibly and pay it off in a reasonable time. If you can't pay off your credit cards and other debt by the end of the month, set up a budget that helps you monitor and control your spending before debt gets out of control and hurts your credit rating.
- Not saving. Putting money away can be difficult, but not saving any money is a mistake. You should have a reasonable cushion in case of emergencies—at least three months' worth of living expenses. Look for ways to cut costs, and set up a separate savings account so you're able to keep track of savings and spending money easily.

When and where to pay cash

Credit and debit cards are convenient, but sometimes you're better off using cash. The Reader's Digest website suggests keeping your card in your wallet in these situations:

- Tipping. Tipping in cash instead of adding it to your bill ensures that your server gets the full amount.
- Farmer's markets. Many vendors have credit card machines nowadays, but not all of them. And the machines can always go down because of a power outage or spotty Wi-Fi. Keep cash handy so you don't miss out.
- Minimum purchases. Coffee shops and other venues frequently have a $5 or $10 minimum for credit card purchases. Paying cash ensures you don't buy more than you need in order to meet the minimum.
- Private transactions. You want to buy a special gift for your spouse, but you don't want him or her seeing it on a credit card statement. Use cash to keep the transaction secret.

Money and beauty are defenses against the sorrows of this world, but neither can undo the past. Only time will conquer time. The way forward is the only way back to innocence and to peace.

—Dean Koontz
