Party at the clubhouse!!

Labor Day, September 2nd, about 70 residents were treated to a catered lunch from Sonny's BBQ. My source tells me there were ribs and chicken and baked beans and green beans and cornbread. And to top it all off, great homemade desserts!

Cribbage

Darlene Orvis is looking for some help. She would like to get Cribbage started for the season, and Jim and Chris Cook will not be down for a while. If anyone is familiar with how it is run, contact Darlene at 813-846-5154

Book Club

The newly-formed Honeymoon Book Club will resume October 18th at 1:00pm at theclubhouse. The book under discussion will be “Becoming” by Michelle Obama. “Where The Crawdads Sing” by Della Owens is the November selection. Contact Ann Marie Anthony at 609-792-5561 for more information.

According to my friend John -

Billy Bob and Luther were talking one afternoon when Billy Bob tell Luther, “Ya know, I reckon I'm 'bout ready for a vacation, only this year I'm gonna do it different. The last few years I took your advice about where to go. Three years ago you said to go to Hawaii. Well, I went to Hawaii and Earlene got pregnant! Then two years ago you told me to go to the Bahamas, and Earlene got pregnant again! Last year you suggested Tahiti and darned if Earlene didn't get pregnant again!” Luther asks Billy Bob, “So, what you gonna do this year that's different?” Billy Bob says “I'm taking Earlene with me.”

Also from my friend John – Best Smart-Aleck answers:

Smart-Aleck Answer #6

It was mealtime during an airline flight. 'Would you like dinner?', the flight attendant asked John, seated in front. 'What are my choices?' John asked. 'Yes or no,' she replied.

Smart-Aleck Answer #5

A flight attendant was stationed at the departure gate to check tickets. As a man approached, she extended her hand for the ticket and he opened his trench coat and flashed her. Without missing a beat, she said, 'Sir, I need to see your ticket, not your stub.'

Smart-Aleck Answer #4

A lady was picking through the frozen turkeys at the grocery store but she couldn't find one big enough for her family. She asked a stock boy, 'Do these turkeys get any bigger?' The stock boy replied, 'No ma'am, they're dead...'

Smart-Aleck Answer #3

The police officer got out of his car as the kid who was stopped for speeding rolled down his window. 'I've been waiting for you all day,' the officer said. The kid replied, 'Yeah, well I got here as fast as I could.' When the cop finally stopped laughing, he sent the kid on his way without a ticket.

Smart-Aleck Answer #2

A truck driver was driving along on the freeway and noticed a sign that read: Low Bridge Ahead. Before he knows it, the bridge is right in front of him and his truck gets wedged under it. Cars are backed up for miles.

Finally a police car comes up. The cop gets out of his car and walks to the truck driver, puts his hands on his hips and says, 'Got stuck, huh?'

The truck driver says, 'No, I was delivering this bridge and I ran out of gas.'

Smart-Aleck Answer of the Year

A college teacher reminds her class of tomorrow's final exam. 'Now class, I won't tolerate any excuses for you not being here tomorrow. I might consider a nuclear attack or a serious personal injury, illness, or a death in your immediate family, but that's it, no other excuses whatsoever!'

A smart-ass student in the back of the room raised his hand and asked, 'What would you say if tomorrow I said I was suffering from complete and utter sexual exhaustion?'

The entire class is reduced to laughter and snickering. When silence was restored, the teacher smiled knowingly at the student, shook her head and sweetly said, 'Well, I guess you'd have to write the exam with your other hand.'

Travel

Pat Gilliland is going to be very busy cruising in the next few months. October 18th she will be taking a group on a 9-night Greek Island cruise, boarding in Rome. Bon voyage, Pat and friends, that should be quite an adventure!

December 2nd she has a 4-night trip to the Bahamas lined up, stopping at Nassau and CocoCay. If there is any change in this trip due to Hurricane Dorian, Pat will advise. January 24, 2020, its all aboard Explorer of the Seas for a 9-night southern Caribbean cruise to Haiti, Bonaire, Aruba and Curacao. Contact Pat Gilliland 727-733-5202.

Recipes

Just finished making one of my favorite summer recipes – Garden Salsa. My Roma and grape tomato plants are doing very well this year (only 1 of each), and someone just gave me some Big boys. This is a tasty way to use all those tomatoes.

Ingredients:

- 6 medium tomatoes, finely chopped
- $\frac{3}{4}$ cup finely chopped green pepper
- $\frac{1}{2}$ cup finely chopped onion
- $\frac{1}{2}$ cup thinly sliced green onions
- 6 garlic cloves, minced (I use a garlic press)
- 2 teaspoons cider vinegar
- 2 teaspoons lemon juice
- 2 teaspoons vegetable oil (I use olive oil)
- 1 to 2 teaspoons minced jalapeno pepper
- 1 to 2 teaspoons ground cumin
- $\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoon salt
- $\frac{1}{4}$ to $\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoon cayenne pepper

Directions:

- Mix all together and refrigerate. Serve with tortilla chips.

This recipe came from A Taste of Home magazine, years ago. I have issues from 1998 through 2006!

Spanish Gazpacho

Another family favorite is Spanish Gazpacho, and I have no idea where this recipe came from, but I've had it for probably 30 years.

Ingredients:

- 1 cup finely chopped peeled tomato
- $\frac{1}{2}$ cup finely chopped celery
- $\frac{1}{2}$ cup finely chopped cucumber
- $\frac{1}{2}$ cup finely chopped green pepper
- $\frac{1}{3}$ cup finely chopped green onion
- $\frac{1}{4}$ teaspoon freshly ground pepper
- 2 – 2 $\frac{1}{2}$ cups tomato juice
- 2 teaspoons snipped parsley
- 1 small clove garlic minced
- 2-3 tablespoons wine vinegar
- 2 tablespoons olive oil
- 1 teaspoon salt
- $\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoon Worcestershire

Directions:

Combine all ingredients in a stainless steel or glass bowl. Cover and chill at least four hours. Serve in chilled bowls with croutons.

Carolyn Carr has this story to share about the Farmer and the Little Old Lady --

A farmer stopped by the local mechanic shop to have his truck fixed. They couldn't do it while he waited, so he said he didn't live far and would just walk home. On the way he stopped at the hardware store and bought a bucket and a gallon of paint. He then stopped by the feed store and picked up a couple of chickens and a goose.

However, struggling outside the store he now had a problem - how to carry his entire purchases home. While he was scratching his head, he was approached by a little old lady who told him she was lost. She asked, "Can you tell me how to get to 1603 Mockingbird Lane?"

The farmer said, "Well, as a matter of fact, my farm is very close to that house. I would walk you there, but I can't carry this lot.."

The old lady suggested, "Why don't you put the can of paint in the bucket. Carry the bucket in one hand, put a chicken under each arm and carry the goose in your other hand?"

"Why, thank you very much, he said, and proceeded to walk the old girl home. On the way he says, "Let's take a short cut and go down this alley. We'll be there in no time."

The little old lady looked him over cautiously, then said, "I am a lonely widow without a husband to defend me. How do I know that when we get in the alley you won't hold me up against the wall, pull up my skirt, and have your way with me?"

The farmer said, "Holy smokes lady! I'm carrying a bucket, a gallon of paint, two chickens and a goose. How in the world could I possibly hold you up against the wall and do that?"

The old lady replied, "Set the goose down, cover him with the bucket, put the paint on top of the bucket, and I'll hold the chickens...."

From the Editor's Desk

Susie Buckley

Even though it's the time of year I begin looking forward to returning to my second home in Dunedin, it is bittersweet because there are wrinkles in the universe. It happens every year – over the summer people pass away, others decide not to come back, still others move elsewhere. But, new people arrive to take up the empty spots. We make new friends, learn new fun things to do, yet have much of the familiar things to do.

So I will shed a tear for life that will never be the same, and raise a toast to all the new adventures! Life is good!!

"...I am so happy with my new windows...I'd like to commend your work crew. Earbie and Larry were fantastic! I couldn't believe the clean-up EVERYDAY! The whole job took just a week even with all the rain delays. I would and WILL highly recommend your company to my friends and neighbors. Of course I won't need to say a word - the house is doing all the talking! Thank you so much for my beautiful new house."

Don't cancel that credit card yet

C canceling a credit card can seem a fast and easy solution to your debt woes. In a Bankrate survey of 2,582 adults, of whom 2,301 have credit cards, 61% reported that they've canceled at least one credit card, and 37% said they've canceled more.

The older you are, the more likely you've done it: Seventy-two percent of baby boomers have canceled a card or two, more than the 61% of Gen Xers and 50% of millennials.

What reasons do cardholders give? Here are some answers:

- No longer needed after paying off debt 40%
- Didn't use it enough to keep it 36%
- Interest rate too high 36%
- Worries about overspending and debt 18%
- Insufficient rewards 17%
- Improve credit score 12%
- Other 11%

However, canceling a credit card doesn't automatically boost your credit score. Experts advise keeping an account open, even if you don't use it, because longstanding accounts with available credit typically have a positive impact on your overall credit score.

Eat blueberries to help your heart, says study

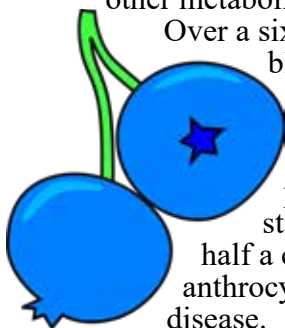

B lueberries are delicious, but can they aid your heart? Maybe, according to the Medical News Today website.

A study by a team of re- searchers from the University of East Anglia in the United Kingdom and Harvard University in the United States (at least partially funded, it should be noted, by the United States Highbush Blueberry Council), found that blueberries may indeed help with high blood pressure, high blood sugar, and other metabolic conditions affecting heart health.

Specifically, the team gathered 155 participants age 70–75 who were overweight or had other metabolic symptoms and split them into three groups.

Over a six-month period, one group consumed a cup of freeze-dried powdered blueberries per day, and another group had half a cup. The third group, used as a control, consumed a powder with dextrose, maltodextrin, and fructose.

The scientists found that those eating a full cup of blueberry powder showed improvement in vascular function and arterial stiffness. They saw no improvement in those who consumed just half a cup. They credit the improvement to the presence in blueberries of anthocyanins, which have been linked to a reduced risk of cardiovascular disease.

Ancient human skulls hint at early European arrival

Two skulls unearthed in Greece suggest that Homo sapiens arrived in Europe from Africa much earlier than previously thought. The Sci-News website reports that the partial skulls were discovered decades ago, in 1978, but a recent re-examination allowed scientists to virtually reconstruct them.

One skull, 170,000 years old, belonged to a Neanderthal, but the other is 210,000 years old and appears to be an early modern human. This means that Homo sapiens spread out to Europe some 150,000 years earlier than believed. Scientists speculate that Neanderthals originally displaced Homo sapiens, but over time they died out as more early modern humans made their way to southern Europe.

Giant squid sighted off New Orleans coast

For the first time, a giant squid has been sighted and captured on video in U.S. waters, the Popular Mechanics website reports. A research vessel grabbed video of the squid, Architeuthis dux, 100 miles from the New Orleans coast. It's only the second footage of a giant squid in the wild; the first was captured on video in 2012 off Japan's Ogasawara archipelago.

The video was taken with a camera called Medusa, designed to resemble bioluminescent prey in the deep sea and attract predators like the giant squid to obtain a close-up look that can be recorded and studied.

Three myths about creativity

People have lots of misconceptions about the nature and practice of being creative. Here are some common myths to ignore (from the Livemint website):

- Creativity is serendipitous. Don't wait for the proverbial light bulb to go off inside your head. Enhance your imagination by talking to people, immersing yourself in information, and focusing on the problem you want to solve instead of hoping you'll get an idea out of the blue.

- Creativity is lonely. We imagine the painter alone in a studio, or a poet shivering in a chilly garret. You won't get ideas, though, unless you get out into the world and explore. The more perspectives you can get from other people, the more fuel your imagination has.

- Creativity requires a team. Organizations rely on R&D teams for creative ideas. Although seeking input from others is useful—even essential—many great ideas come from people who weren't actively seeking solutions at the time. Teamwork is great, but don't ignore ideas from offbeat sources. They may be the most innovative.

Health insurance decisions can be confusing due to endless coverage changes and many policy types. Fortunately, there is someone who can work diligently to help and without cost to you – Michael Crotts, owner of Best Plan Choice.

Through his own healthcare experience Mr. Crotts learned the value of good health coverage and quality medical care. He dedicates his agency to helping people with Medicare and Medicaid needs. You can visit the office to learn about Medicare plan options or he will come to your home.

Every year your Medicare health plan coverage changes even if you do not change plans. Also, new products are introduced and many offer benefits beyond original Medicare and/or Medicaid plans. Baby Boomers had completely different insurance products during their working years. The indemnity and major medical policies are no longer the only choice and often do not meet the financial needs of consumers today.

Don't waste time trying to figure it out. Michael will sit with you and review all of the documents, and answer all of your questions. Most importantly, he will conduct a needs analysis to determine your individual needs – if you expect a hospitalization, use certain medicines, or want benefit like dental or vision – everything is taken into consideration.

Best Plan Choice is there to help you make the right choice and is available long after the policy is written. This means helping with doctor changes, plan questions, annual review of your benefits, and of course taking great care of any friend or family member you refer. At Best Plan Choice clients become friends, and friends become clients.

Monthly Mania: It Pays (Up to $100) To Patronize the Advertisers in Your Newsletter

THOUSANDS manufactured home residents have won over $149,600 since our contest began. It's simple to play ... when you patronize a current advertiser, ask for a Monthly Mania ticket (or a reasonable facsimile) and fill it out completely. Put the ticket in our Monthly Mania drop box in your community or mail your paid receipt to us at Monthly Media • 220 Bahama St. • Venice, FL 34285. That's all you do. At the end of the month the Publishers will pick up the tickets and hold a drawing. If your ticket is drawn, we mail you a check.

(Allow 4-6 weeks for mailing of check). This month's cash winners are:
