Tom Lenard shares this story.....

A man spoke to each of his 3 sons when he sent them off to college...
"I feel it's my duty to provide you with the best possible education, and you do not owe me anything for that. However, I want you to appreciate it. As a token, please each put $1,000 into my coffin when I die."

And so it happened. His sons became a doctor, a lawyer and a financial planner, each very successful financially. When their father's time had come, and they saw their father in the coffin, they remembered his wish.

First, the doctor put 10 newly printed crisp $100 bills onto the chest of the deceased.

Then, the financial planner also put $1,000 there in 20 newly printed crisp $50 bills.

Finally, it was the heartbroken lawyer's turn. He reached into his pocket, took out his checkbook, wrote a check for $3,000, put it into his father's coffin, and took the $2,000 cash.

The lawyer is now running for Congress, possibly in your district.

Don't forget to book your next cruise with Pat Gilliland! She has one going to the Bahamas December 2nd – 6th, and a longer one going to the southern Caribbean January 24th – February 2nd. Fun, Fun, Fun!! Call Pat at 727-733-5205

Carolyn Carr sends her regards along with some wise words -

You know time has a way of moving quickly and catching you unaware of the passing years. It seems like yesterday that I was young, just married and embarking on my new life with my mate. Yet, in a way, it seems like eons ago, and wonder where all those years went.

I know that I lived them all. I have glimpses of how it was back then and of all my hopes and dreams. But, here it is... the winter of my life, and it catches me by surprise... How did I get here so fast? Where did the years go and where did my youth go? I remember well seeing older people through the years and thinking that those "older people" were years away from me and that winter was so far off that I could not fathom it or imagine fully what it would be like.

But, here it is...my friends are retired and getting grey... they move slower and I see an older person in myself now. Some are in better and some worse shape than me... but, I see the great change... Not like the ones that I remember who were young and vibrant...but, like me, their age is beginning to show and we are now those older folks that we used to see and never thought we'd be.

Each day now, I find that just getting a shower is a real target for the day! And taking a nap is not a treat anymore... it's mandatory! Cause if I don't on my own free will... I just fall asleep where I sit!

And so... now I enter this new season of my life unprepared for all the aches and pains and the loss of strength and ability to go and do things that I wish I had done but never did!! But, at least I know, that though the winter has come, and I'm not sure how long it will last...this I know, that when it's over on this earth... it's over. A new adventure will begin!

Yes, I have regrets. There are things I wish I hadn't done... things I should have done, but indeed, there are also many things I'm happy to have done. It's all in a lifetime.

So, if you're not in your winter yet.. let me remind you, that it will be here faster than you think. So, whatever you would like to accomplish in your life, please do it quickly! Don't put things off too long!! Life goes by quickly. So, do what you can TODAY, as you can never be sure whether this is your winter or not!

You have no promise that you will see all the seasons of your life... so, LIVE FOR TODAY and say all the things that you want your loved ones to remember.. and hope that they appreciate and love you for all the things that you have done for them in all the years past!!

"Life" is a GIFT to you. The way you live your life is your gift to those who come after. Make it a fantastic one.

Remember: "It is Health that is real Wealth and not pieces of gold and silver."

~Your kids are becoming you.....but your grandchildren are perfect!

~Going out is good.. coming home is even better!

~You forget names... but it's OK, because other people forgot they even knew you!!!

~You realize you're never going to be perfect at everything.... especially golf and fishing.

~The things you used to care to do, you no longer care to do, but you really do care that you don't care to do them anymore.

~You sleep better on a lounge chair with the TV blaring than in bed. It's called "pre-sleep."

~You miss the days when everything worked with just an "ON" and "OFF" switch..

~You tend to use more 4 letter words ... "what?"..."when?"...???

~Now that you can afford expensive jewelry, it's not safe to wear it anywhere.

~You notice everything they sell in stores is "sleeveless?!"

~What used to be freckles are now liver spots.

~Everybody whispers.

~You have 3 sizes of clothes in your closet.... 2 of which you will never wear.

~But "Old" is good in some things:

Old Songs, Old movies ..

and best of all, our dear ...OLD FRIENDS!!

Neighborhood "Watch Talk"

Greetings from your Neighborhood Watch Rep. I hope you are all enjoying the dog days of summer, but fall is just around the corner.

REPAIRS AND SCAMMERS:

Many of you will be looking to get things repaired on your units. Make sure that you use reputable contractors. Ask to see their contractor's license and make sure that they are a listed company. Someone who wants payment in advance of the work should raise a RED FLAG! If it's someone who's driving through the neighborhood knocking on doors looking for work DO NOT HIRE THEM! Call the Sheriff's Office immediately after they leave @ 727-582-6200. Try to get a description of the vehicle and plate number (taking a picture if possible) and the individual. Do not alert them that they are trespassing!

SCHOOL IS BEGINNING:

Students are heading back to school, and summer vacation is over. As you know, our roadways will see a significant increase in pedestrian and automobile traffic, including bright yellow school buses carrying school kids. Remember to slow down for school zones as Law Enforcement will be out to make sure that vehicles are following the proper speed requirements.

Take a look at the pictures below to make sure you're on the right side of the law this school year.

Two Lane Highway: Drivers moving in either direction must stop for a stopped school bus picking up or dropping off children and remain stopped until all children are clear of the roadway and the stop arm is withdrawn.

Divided highway: Painted lines or pavement markings are not considered barriers. Drivers moving in either direction must stop for a stopped school bus and remain so until all children are clear of the roadway and the stop arm is withdrawn.

Multi-lane highway: If the highway is divided by a raised barrier or an unpaved median at least five feet wide, you do not have to stop if you are moving in the opposite direction of the bus.

Remember to avoid any form of confrontation relating to suspicious activities. Your job is to observe and report only.

Be Safe.....Be Aware; Honeymoon Park Matters, You Matter, Getting Involved Matters

If you have any questions, please feel free to contact me at 727-492-8872 or stop by Lot 62 on 1st Street.

According to an article in the May issue of AARP Bulletin, even for those who've been couch potatoes for much of their lives, getting into a regular exercise routine after 50 can stave off premature death and add significantly to the quality of life.

Researchers examined data from a National Institutes of Health-AARP Diet and Health study that began in 1995 and has tracked the exercise habits of more than 315,000 people 50 to 71 years old.

The research shows that those ages 40 to 61 who begin exercising after years of physical inactivity can still extend their longevity. They had a 32 to 35 percent lower risk of mortality. The odds of death from cancer and heart disease also decreased. Compared with those who never exercised during the multiyear study, those who exercised their entire lives had a 29 to 36 percent lower risk of death.

“What is so terrific about this study is that it proves it is never too late – you can still reap the benefits of exercise,” say Charlotte Yeh, M.D., AARP Service Inc.'s chief medical officer.

From the Editor's Desk

Susie Buckley

I hope everyone is having a great summer! School has just started, which kind of puts a stop to those lazy hazy days. Here in northern Indiana, though, there is still hot weather in the forecast.

We watch the news and weather for our Florida home, and are very thankful that so far it's been a quiet hurricane season. Must be getting lots of rain, because there seems to be flood watches at this time. But that makes the flowers grow! Or weeds!

Ya'all keep on keepin on – stay safe and healthy and happy! Life is good!
