Health insurance decisions can be confusing due to endless coverage changes and many policy types. Fortunately, there is someone who can work diligently to help and without cost to you – Michael Crofts, owner of Best Plan Choice.

Through his own healthcare experience Mr. Crofts learned the value of good health coverage and quality medical care. He dedicates his agency to helping people with Medicare and Medicaid needs. You can visit the office to learn about Medicare plan options or he will come to your home.

Every year your Medicare health plan coverage changes even if you do not change plans. Also, new products are introduced and many offer benefits beyond original Medicare and/or Medicaid plans. Baby Boomers had completely different insurance products during their working years. The indemnity and major medical policies are no longer the only choice and often do not meet the financial needs of consumers today.

Don't waste time trying to figure it out. Michael will sit with you and review all of the documents, and answer all of your questions. Most importantly, he will conduct a needs analysis to determine your individual needs – if you expect a hospitalization, use certain medicines, or want benefit like dental or vision – everything is taken into consideration.

Best Plan Choice is there to help you make the right choice and is available long after the policy is written. This means helping with doctor changes, plan questions, annual review of your benefits, and of course taking great care of any friend or family member you refer. At Best Plan Choice clients become friends, and friends become clients.

President’s Corner – Kenn Brody, Lot #84

We welcome back our residents who migrate North to escape the summer heat, or maybe the hurricanes. The pace of activity will pick up, conversations and drinks in our lanais will restart and friends will be reunited.

Ghosts and goblins will roam the streets, perhaps a few angels and oversized kittens as well. The frost will be on the pumpkin (well, maybe not in Florida). Activities Committee will take note and plan events accordingly.

We are also engaged in negotiations for a long-term agreement with the Park for several things, primarily rent. That occupies a great deal of time and attention.

Personally, I’ve had many ruminations on the nature of the rental mobile home park as a community-based business and how this model may evolve. I’m not alone in this. Our state and Federal governments are drafting proposals, the park owners are sending out their lobbyists. Change is coming.

You can share your thoughts on this subject when I’m out walking my doggie.

Men’s Breakfast/Ladies Luncheon

Terry Cleveland, #183, passed away Sept. 5th. Terry had been sick for more than a year and a half. She suffered greatly during that time, but her devoted husband, Wayne did his very best to make his best friend as comfortable as possible. He never left her side whether she was at home or in the hospital. Rest in Peace, Terry.

Loretta Quimby, #175, who had recently been hospitalized for nine days after back surgery, passed away on Sept 3rd. Loretta loved the Tampa Bay Rays and loved living in IITS. Her sister Marion Plavchak still lives in the community and can be seen walking their dog Blue Boy on most days. Rest in peace Loretta.

Bill Shiels, #133, lost his son at age 54 to lung cancer. Marcie and Bill attended his funeral in Michigan. Our condolences.

NOTE: I do not participate on any social media (my choice), so I depend on friends, family and neighbors to alert me to a resident's passing or sickness so that an appropriate card can be sent. Island in the Sun HOA Upcoming Activities and Events

The Activities Meeting will be held the last Saturday of every month at 10:00 in the morning, in the clubhouse. We want to assure the following months' events have sufficient coverage and support.

October 2019

October Activities

19th – monthly cookout, a sign-up sheet will be available to assure we don't run out of food.

26th – Halloween party hosted by Kay Siudzinski. See flyer for details and start getting your costume ready.

November Activities

8th & 9th – Community yard sale, 8:00-2:00 both days. Debbie will provide yard signs and balloons so sign up in the clubhouse if you are participating so sufficient balloons are purchased. HOA will advertise. The monthly cookout will be held on the 9th beginning at noon, hot dogs and a soft drink for $2.00.

28th – Thanksgiving dinner at 1:00 for all residents; please keep us informed of residents who may need dinner delivered to them. Cal-am will again purchase the turkeys, HOA will provide the rest of the meal. Ken will carve the turkeys; a host/hostess is needed – please notify me if interested.

30th – POSSIBLE craft and bake sale. We are aware that several of our crafty residents have relocated and we need to know if there are sufficient interested and talented neighbors to hold a craft sale. As far as a bake sale, the past year or two there were too few who volunteered to bring something to sell, plenty of buyers but short on bakers. Please let Ken Brody know if you would like to setup a table to sell your crafts as well as if you can provide something to sell at the bake sale. This has the potential of providing unique Christmas gifts to those on your

Monthly

Adopt a Dog Month. American Humane celebrates “Adopt a Dog Month” each October to help the estimated 3-4 million animals waiting in shelters every year get the loving, forever homes they deserve. Be a hero this month and adopt a dog from your local shelter or rescue group. You’ll be saving his or her life and greatly improving your own.

Eye Injury Prevention Month. Experts say that more than 90% of eye injuries can be prevented by wearing protective eyewear and taking other simple precautions. The American Academy of Ophthalmologists sponsors Eye Injury Prevention Month every October to reinforce the importance of preventing accidents and injury.

National Bullying Protection Month. Every day thousands of young people experience bullying from their peers while at school, after school, and at home through social media. There are many ways to support bullying prevention as an individual, with friends and family, and with your school or community. Go to the National Bullying Prevention Center for information and resources: <https://www.pacer.org/bullying/>

Weekly

National Walk Your Dog Week, Oct. 1–7. Forty percent of dogs—about 17 million in the United States alone—are overweight. If you walk your dog just 30 minutes a day, you (and your dog) will meet national recommendations for heart health. Make the pledge to start walking your dog at least 30 minutes a day for a week—and beyond.

Fire Prevention Week, Oct. 6–12. In a typical home fire, you may have as little as one to two minutes from the time the smoke alarm sounds to escape safely. Escape planning and practice can help you make the most of the time you have, giving everyone enough time to get out.

Earth Science Week, Oct. 13–19. The American Geosciences Institute has organized this national and international event to help the public gain a better understanding and appreciation for Earth sciences and to encourage stewardship of the Earth. This year’s Earth Science Week will celebrate the theme, “Geo-science is for Everyone.”

National Massage Therapy Awareness Week, Oct. 20–26. Years of research support the efficacy of massage therapy for the treatment of many health issues. These include massage therapy for chronic pain management, behavioral health treatment, rehabilitation/physical training, and acute medical conditions.

Don't cancel that credit card yet

Canceling a credit card can seem a fast and easy solution to your debt woes. In a Bankrate survey of 2,582 adults, of whom 2,301 have credit cards, 61% reported that they've canceled at least one credit card, and 37% said they've canceled more.

The older you are, the more likely you've done it: Seventy-two percent of baby boomers have canceled a card or two, more than the 61% of Gen Xers and 50% of millennials.

What reasons do cardholders give? Here are some answers:

- No longer needed after paying off debt 40%
- Didn't use it enough to keep it 36%
- Interest rate too high 36%
- Worries about overspending and debt 18%
- Insufficient rewards 17%
- Improve credit score 12%
- Other 11%

However, canceling a credit card doesn't automatically boost your credit score. Experts advise keeping an account open, even if you don't use it, because longstanding accounts with available credit typically have a positive impact on your overall credit score.

Eat blueberries to help your heart, says study

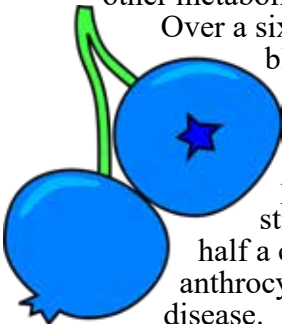

Blueberries are delicious, but can they aid your heart? Maybe, according to the Medical News Today website.

A study by a team of re-searchers from the University of East Anglia in the United Kingdom and Harvard University in the United States (at least partially funded, it should be noted, by the United States Highbush Blueberry Council), found that blueberries may indeed help with high blood pressure, high blood sugar, and other metabolic conditions affecting heart health.

Specifically, the team gathered 155 participants age 70–75 who were overweight or had other metabolic symptoms and split them into three groups.

Over a six-month period, one group consumed a cup of freeze-dried powdered blueberries per day, and another group had half a cup. The third group, used as a control, consumed a powder with dextrose, maltodextrin, and fructose.

The scientists found that those eating a full cup of blueberry powder showed improvement in vascular function and arterial stiffness. They saw no improvement in those who consumed just half a cup. They credit the improvement to the presence in blueberries of anthocyanins, which have been linked to a reduced risk of cardiovascular disease.

Ancient human skulls hint at early European arrival

Two skulls unearthed in Greece suggest that Homo sapiens arrived in Europe from Africa much earlier than previously thought. The Sci-News website reports that the partial skulls were discovered decades ago, in 1978, but a recent re-examination allowed scientists to virtually reconstruct them.

One skull, 170,000 years old, belonged to a Neanderthal, but the other is 210,000 years old and appears to be an early modern human. This means that Homo sapiens spread out to Europe some 150,000 years earlier than believed. Scientists speculate that Neanderthals originally displaced Homo sapiens, but over time they died out as more early modern humans made their way to southern Europe.

Giant squid sighted off New Orleans coast

For the first time, a giant squid has been sighted and captured on video in U.S. waters, the Popular Mechanics website reports. A research vessel grabbed video of the squid, Architeuthis dux, 100 miles from the New Orleans coast. It's only the second footage of a giant squid in the wild; the first was captured on video in 2012 off Japan's Ogasawara archipelago.

The video was taken with a camera called Medusa, designed to resemble bioluminescent prey in the deep sea and attract predators like the giant squid to obtain a close-up look that can be recorded and studied.

Three myths about creativity

People have lots of misconceptions about the nature and practice of being creative. Here are some common myths to ignore (from the Livemint website):

- Creativity is serendipitous. Don't wait for the proverbial light bulb to go off inside your head. Enhance your imagination by talking to people, immersing yourself in information, and focusing on the problem you want to solve instead of hoping you'll get an idea out of the blue.

- Creativity is lonely. We imagine the painter alone in a studio, or a poet shivering in a chilly garret. You won't get ideas, though, unless you get out into the world and explore. The more perspectives you can get from other people, the more fuel your imagination has.

- Creativity requires a team. Organizations rely on R&D teams for creative ideas. Although seeking input from others is useful—even essential—many great ideas come from people who weren't actively seeking solutions at the time. Teamwork is great, but don't ignore ideas from offbeat sources. They may be the most innovative.

Collateral

During the Depression of the 1930s, an old farmer went to a bank to apply for a $500 loan.

“What are you going to do with the money?” the banker asked as he pulled out the loan application.

“Plant more soybeans,” the farmer responded.

“What have you got for collateral?”

“What’s collateral?”

“That’s something of value that would cover the cost of the loan. Have you got any vehicles?”

“Yes, a Model T Ford,” replied the farmer.

The banker shook his head, “How about livestock?”

“I have a horse.”

“How old is it?” the banker asked.

“Don’t know. It’s blind and doesn’t have any teeth,” the farmer said.

It didn’t seem like a good idea, but the banker liked the old man, so he decided to make the $500 loan.

Several months later the farmer was back in the bank. “I’m here to pay.” He handed the banker $500.

“What are you going to do with the rest of the money you made?” the banker asked.

“I’ll hide it in my mattress,” replied the farmer.

“Why don’t you deposit it in my bank?”

“How does that work?”

The banker smiled. “You put the money in our bank, and we take care of it for you.

Whenever you want to use it, you can withdraw it.”

The farmer leaned across the desk. “What you got for collateral?”

One-liners

Try these zingers at your next party:

- My dog used to chase people on a bike a lot. It got so bad. I had to take his bike away.
- I’m so good at sleeping, I can do it with my eyes closed.
- My boss told me to have a good day. So I went home.
- A woman walks into a library and asks if they have any books about paranoia. The librarian whispers, “They’re right behind you!”
- What did the pirate say when he turned 80 years old? “Aye matey!”
- Why did the old man fall in the well? Because he couldn’t see that well.
- A blind man walks into a bar. And a table. And a chair.
- I know a lot of jokes about unemployed people, but none of them work.
- My wife accused me of being immature. I told her to get out of my pillow fort.
- I ate a clock yesterday. It was time consuming.
