Just for Today

Submitted by Gene Ecker, #145, 727-797-6058

During my business career, I referred to the following message frequently:

Just for today, I will try to live through this day only, and not tackle my whole life problem at once. I can do something for twelve hours that would appall me if I felt that I had to keep it up for a lifetime.

Just for today, I will be happy. This assumes to be true what Abraham Lincoln said, that “Most folks are as happy as they make up their minds to be.”

Just for today, I will adjust myself to what is, and not try to adjust everything to my own desires. I will take my “luck” as it comes, and fit myself to it.

Just for today, I will try to strengthen my mind. I will study. I will learn something useful. I will not be a mental loafer. I will read something that requires effort, thought and concentration.

Just for today, I will exercise my soul in three ways: I will do somebody a good turn, and not get found out; if anybody knows of it, it will not count. I will do at least two things I don’t want to do – just for exercise. I will not show anyone that my feelings are hurt; they may be hurt, but today I will not show it.

Just for today, I will be agreeable. I will look as well as I can, dress becomingly, talk low, act courteously, criticize not one bit, not find fault with anything, and not try to improve or regulate anybody except myself.

Just for today, I will have a program. I may not follow it exactly, but I will have it. I will save myself from two pests: hurry and indecision.

Just for today, I will have a quiet half hour all by myself, and relax. During this half hour, sometime, I will try to get a better perspective of my life.

Observations From a Resident

Okay everybody, I am sure there are a lot of things I am about to say that are things many of you have thought about. Why are there so many irresponsible pet owners? Yes, I am speaking to the owners of the dogs who let them poo and pee on the residents lawns, destroying their hard landscaping efforts, you do know that it is you not following the park rules and not your dog? And by the way, hold onto the leash and don't let them drag it behind them and say, "we'll they are on a leash". Park residents need to report those offenders or take a picture with your phone and turn them in. Oh yeah, I saw an extremely large dog jump on someone today and if that resident had been elderly...down they would have gone.

Next, don't take shortcuts (trespass) in between our homes, if you trip, turn your ankle or frighten a resident that isn't a smart move, oh yeah...it is against the park rules too.

Next, you are not supposed to have children living in the park, oh, you know who you are... and guess what! We know who you are too! And the office will know also! Don't try to hide them by keeping your blinds closed. Also, if you want to babysit your grandkids every day, why not move to a family park? And we do know who is keeping their college bound students here, oh yeah...another rule broken.

How about cleaning up around your home! You might not mind the bugs, rats and wild animals, but we do!

Those who are sub-letting your second bedroom, you do know that the office requires the information on your new tenant so they can do a background check so we all feel safe. Don't forget, once they are in, it is hard to get them out.

Why do some residents have three cars? Okay you both work, that is understandable, I think the park rules are two cars maximum and by the way, park in the street but not in a spot where your neighbor can't get into or out of their driveway.

Now, the parking lot for golfcarts! Why are some of the residents parking in the auto lot and not in the golf cart lot? Some of you wanted the golf cart parking lot built and just wouldn't let up about the need for it. Don't get me wrong, I think it's great and most of us use it, but there are a few who insist on parking where they want to. You know who you are! I realize some of the residents have trouble walking, if that is the situation, drop them off at the front door and continue to the proper lot. Even if there aren't a lot of cars in the parking lot, why not get into the habit of doing the right thing?

I certainly hope Julie continues checking homes using the 4 side check, we all need to give our community a good first impression to all those looking for a new home. And by the way, ratio of homes for sale to homes occupied is common because of residents our age, not because of rumors from certain residents...we know you too!

Barking dogs are a no no!

Hopefully the pool rules will fall in place this winter for residents. Parents visiting don't seem to control their children... they let them jump in, use rafts and get in the hot tub..anything happens! It is our responsibility to make our guests aware of the rules while using our facilities. Oh, and by the way, people using the pool were seen walking out of the park carrying their towels and walking home, which wasn't in the park. Something needs to be done about that!

Let's support the rules of the park, it is our community folks...let's act like it. If you are not happy here, improve it and don't criticize it!

From an upset, concerned and "respectful of park rules" resident.

Spotlight on Residents – Dick Tilton

Submitted by Pat Henderson Lot #266

Article on Dick Tilton #273 Bermuda

Dick Tilton is a soft spoken, big man, with a laid back demeanor. He is very quiet until you get him going, and then he is full of laughter and stories.

Dick was born and raised in a little town named Fulton, in upstate New York. Fulton lies between Rochester and Syracuse. While in high school, he drove a cab part time. He was very active in sports. He was on the football team until he and some of his friends got caught smoking, and the coach threw them off the team. Then he made the soccer team, but after being struck by a puck, he suffered a broken foot and that ended his soccer career. He also spent some time playing softball.

A lot of the boys in Fulton became friends with Dick as he is a quite likeable fellow. He referred to this group as a "gang", but not like the "gangs" of today. They were all Boy Scouts and just hung out together, but sometimes got into a bit of mischief, not to hurt anyone or anything, but just to have fun. His grandmother owned some acreage in Fulton and leased part of it to a man who raised cantaloupe. Dick and his buddies used to go into the field and steal some of the melons. A railroad had been built through town and right through the middle of his grandmother's property. The boys used to get up on a bridge and when the engine passed they would throw cantaloupes on the train. Often they were seen, but never caught. They also threw snowballs in the wintertime. This spot was up on a hill and you could see the town and the police station from that spot. They watched and laughed as the police made their way up the hill, but by the time they got there, all the boys had disappeared. Dick got quite a chuckle telling me about this.

After graduation, he joined the navy in 1941. The attack on Pearl Harbor was over so he felt this would be a good time to enlist. He was in Samson, New York for boot camp, then his group was sent by train to Philadelphia and then on to Rocky Mount, North Carolina. Upon arriving in North Carolina about 30-40 of the men saw a neon sign that said "Beer", so they went hustling over to the little dive to get some beer. Dick was smart enough not to follow them and it's a good thing because the bus left without them and to this day, Dick does not know what happened to those guys left behind. Dick and the others went on to Miami and then Key West where they attended "sound school" where they learned about sonar. Dick chased submarines with a sonar machine while in the Navy.

Dick was an only child and his parents were in bad shape, so the Navy gave him an honorable discharge so he could go back to Fulton. His folks had a little cottage right on the lake so he did lots of fishing and swimming. Dick drove a bakery truck and Shirley, the girl he married, worked in a bakery for the same company. They did lots of roller skating growing up and later did lots of camping in an RV in New York, after their marriage. They married in 1950 and had two daughters and a son. Their son died quite young. Tragedy struck again years later when their oldest daughter passed away in Oregon and her son's death followed. Dick's wife passed of a heart attack six years ago in 2009 after 59 years of marriage. His youngest daughter, Sherrie is married and is "head" of the Bay Care corporate office located on Drew behind the park. Her son works at Mease Countryside. Sherrie comes once or twice every week to visit Dick and check

Spotlight on Residents- Shirley Fennell, 249, 727-799-8326

Submitted by Pat Henderson Lot #266

At lot #249 lives a petite little blue eyed lady, with a bubbly personality, whose name is Shirley Fennell. She is a fascinating lady with many interests and stories to tell. I was enthralled talking to her about her life, family and interests.

Shirley was born and grew up in Vandergraft, PA. In 7th grade she met Dave, the boy whom she later married. They graduated high school and she attended Carnegie Institute of Technology with a degree in Home Economics. She went to work as a County Home Economist for Penn State in New Castle, PA. She married after she completed her education. Her husband got his Master's degree and taught elementary school many years.

Dave and Shirley had two daughters that kept Shirley busy, but after they got a bit older, she began substitute teaching part time while they were living in Grove City, PA. Later they moved to New Jersey as teacher's salaries were better there.. Shirley taught Home Economics to middle school girls and taught sewing classes at night school. Dave was quite a workaholic. He drove a school bus in the morning, taught school, drove the kids home after school and then drove part time in the evenings for a charter bus company. He became so fond of buses that he formed his own bus charter company and had 22 buses running 24/7. That lifestyle took its toll on him and after 41 years of marriage, while driving an empty bus, he steered the bus into a parking lot and succumbed to his death in 1997. Shirley continued the business for a couple years before closing it.

Shirley and Dave had two daughters, seven grandchildren and three great granddaughters. The oldest granddaughter moved to Florida, then one of Shirley's daughters and some other family moved here, so Shirley followed them to the sunshine state. One daughter remains in New Jersey. Once she became active in the Presbyterian Church on Gulf to Bay, Shirley made many friends in church and several lived in Island in the Sun. One of them encouraged her to move here, so in 2005 she became a year round resident.

Shirley is quite a busy lady. She loves to shop at thrift stores, she knits scarves, hats and blankets, and quilts and makes many Christmas presents. She is a social butterfly too.

She attends Quester Antique group, several church functions, plays cards, bingo, has book study and belongs to a social group and a Friday night dinner group. This is her usual weekly schedule of activities. She attends many activities in Island in the Sun as well.

One thing I found most interesting is the wide variety of collections that she has accumulated over the years. She collects old post cards, dolls, doll houses, all kinds of toys such as little girl tea sets, figurines of various kinds of dogs, buttons and thimbles.. She has lots of older style ladies hats, purses, necklaces, vintage clothing. I think every piece of furniture in her home is an antique and she can tell an informative story about each one.

Each month Shirley pulls out one of her collections and decorates for the appropriate holiday. Right now she has all kinds of "Back to School" things displayed. She is also a very good cook. She was baking a cake for potluck while I was there and it smelled divine. I got to taste it at the potluck at the clubhouse, and it was delicious. Visiting in Shirley's home is like visiting a museum and I thoroughly enjoyed my time spent with her.

America has been waiting to know who would be voted for the first woman portrayed on the $10 and $20 bills.

The $10 bill is Eleanor Roosevelt and the $20 is Harriet Tubman, replacing the portrait of Andrew Jackson. I decided to include quotes by both for my "Favorite Quotes Corner".

Eleanor Roosevelt Quotes (She is great!)

"A Woman is like a tea bag, you never know how strong she is until she gets in hot water."

"Great minds discuss ideas. Average minds discuss events. Small minds discuss people."

"No one can make you feel inferior without your consent."

“Friendship with one’s self is all important because without it, one cannot be friends with anyone else.”

“I once had a rose named after me and I was flattered. But I was not very pleased to read the description in the catalogue: No good in the bed but fine up against a wall.” (Love this one!)

Harriet Tubman (What a great American!)

Harriet Tubman maternal grandmother arrived on a slave ship from Africa. When she was a teenager she suffered a head injury from an overseer. As a result of the injury she had visions and dreams she considered were signs from God. Religion and faith were the reason she spent her life guiding slaves to freedom. In ten years conducting the Underground Railroad she made 19 trips and rescued over 300 slaves.

Harriet Tubman Quotes

“Every great dream begins with a dreamer, you. Always remember you have within you the strength, the patience, and the passion to reach for the stars to change the world.”

“I grew up like a neglected weed – ignorant of liberty, having no experience of it”

Saturday October 24th we will be having a Crafters Faire in the clubhouse from 9-5. It is open for all our crafters and residents who have items they have created to come and sell them. This will be open to the public as well as Island in the Sun residents.

We have four residents right now who are signed up to sell their handmade items.

This will be advertised in the Tampa Bay times, Craig’s list, Pinellas County FB page and other places. If you are interested in selling what you make, please let me know so we have a count of how many tables to set up and how many tables you will need.

Price is $5.00 per vendor to help pay for the advertising. Refunds will be given if the final costs for the advertising comes is less.

Food will also be available for sale in the kitchen.

You can get ahold of me at 574-276-3306, waterfallcrafts@gmail.com or Lot 312.

Any questions let me know

Thank you

New Activity after Pot Luck..... Quarter Bingo

Submitted by Helen Dennison

After our Pot Luck Dinner on Sept. 15th, you are invited to stay about a half hour to play QUARTER BINGO. It is very simple. For one quarter (25 cents) you will receive one bingo card. We will play one game on that card, and the winner receives everything that was collected. Then we proceed to do it again. Someone will walk around and collect your quarter and give you a new card. Another game is played and the winner receives all. After a few games have been played we will proceed with the jackpot. One card will cost one dollar, one game is played, and the winner takes all. This is a lot of fun, it doesn't take a lot of preparation on anyone's part and it gives you something to do instead of going home to the TV.

Remember the date and come prepared to join in!

Beautiful Lessons From Our Nature Area

Submitted by Helen Dennison

Here is a photo of a huge Pileated Woodpecker that is often seen pecking away in the area around the dog park. He pecked large chunks of wood out of this dead tree until it finally fell down. It's kind of hit and miss whether or not you'll see him, but if you keep watching as you walk by, you'll eventually spot him or one of the otters who often frequent the dog park area. Almost all of Florida's beautiful birds show up at one time or another, including the Wood Stork and Roseto Spoonbills, with their beautiful pink plumage. Ed and I feel so privileged to be able to sit in our lanai and watch these beautiful creatures as we have breakfast every morning.

Ladies Breakfast Bunch

Submitted by Karen Custy, #229, 727-729-3441

This past month 12 ladies attended that Ladies Breakfast Bunch at The Wildflower Café. If you have never been to the café, you really should go. The meals were very good and tasty and fairly priced. The place is really cute and the service was excellent. This little spot is tucked away on 1465 S Harrison Avenue; a little drive but fully worth it. The presentation of the food stands out and the portions size is more than adequate. They do also have outdoor sitting which is also pet friendly. This is a busy place so plan to get there early. Their homemade biscuits, which accompany most dishes, are served up with honey butter and homemade strawberry preserves. You won't be disappointed.

Lunch Bunch

Submitted by Rose Montgomery Oliver
301-332-9358 or 727-726-0637

On July 26th, our Lunch Bunch gathered at Chili's for a fun filled luncheon, our thoughts were filled with the following:

Mary Jane Baxter, #180, was enjoying a two week visit from her grandson, Eric. She explained it was always lively to have him visit with her and his mom, Kim. It is always fun to see Eric since he is liked by so many in our park.

Helen Dennison, #210, told us that she was so thankful for the many prayers that had been answered for her husband, Ed, as he is recovering from that terrible fall last month.

Marcy Shiels, #133, shared with us that her new pacemaker was working well and has given her back her good health.

Rose Leduc, #160, is always so happy as she shared with us how thankful she is for her family and friends.

It was so good to hear that Sally, #214, is as happy as ever. Sarah, Janet, Nancy were all glad to be with friends.

We sincerely invite all the ladies (and gentlemen) in the park to join us next month for good food, good laughs, and good company.

Our signup sheet is in the clubhouse.

Men's Breakfast

Submitted by Richard Oliver, #184, 727-726-0637

The "Men of the Hood" met on July 16th for their monthly breakfast. The restaurant of choice this time was Bob Evnas. The attendees were Larry, Jim, Gene, Wayne, Ed, John, Bill and Dick.

The restaurant was very clean, bright and sunny. The menu was the standard Bob Evans breakfast offerings. The food was good, well prepared and well served.

This time, there was no need to look for a hacksaw to cut my waffle as there was at Lennys. It was done to perfection.

The conversation centered around our well beings. The major topic was the progress Larry was making after his fall. He said the progression was slow and that he expected that it would be quite some time before he'll be firing on all eight cylinders. We all wished him luck and a speedy recovery.

We marveled at Ed's quick recovery after his fall. You couldn't tell that his face had been cut and bruised. We said that Helen was one heck of a nurse and plastic surgeon.

I asked him when I could get an appointment with her to do some plastic work on me. The hoots and peals of laughter could be heard all the way back to IITS! The consensus of opinion was that I was too far gone for any help.

Our next breakfast is scheduled for September 17th. The restaurant has not yet been chosen. Please join us for some fun and camaraderie. The signup sheet is in the clubhouse.

See ya!!!

Remembrance and Concerns

Submitted by Rose Montgomery Oliver, #184
301-262-3057 or 727-726-0637

Our hearts are heavy with the news from Wayne and Terry Cleveland, #183, And Mari Sorrell, #289. Wayne and Mari lost their father on August 1st. Their dad was 96 years old and had been in ill health recently at his home in North Carolina.

On the same day, Charlie Babb, #152, had a heart attack and died at home here in the park. Our thoughts and prayers go out to his wife, Dottie.

Liza Crane, #193, took a bad fall down the steps in her Florida room. Get well soon Liza.

Curtis Juffs, #132, had a short stay in the hospital. He was treated for an infection. Curtis is now recovering at home.

Larry Taylor, #257, our HOA president is still recovering from the fall he took when he tripped over a garden hose. Please take it easy Larry and get well soon.

A special prayer is sent to all of those in our park with health problems that we are unaware of. Please let us know if we can help.

September Is...

Baby Safety Month. Drowning, falls, chemicals, and other hazards can endanger the life and health of any small child. During September, take a good look around your house and eliminate any threats to babies' safety that might be hiding in plain sight.

Library Card Sign-Up Month. A time to remind parents and children that a library card is the most important school supply of all. If you don't already have a library card, get one in September; if you do, visit your local library and use it.

National Bourbon Heritage Month. A celebration of bourbon as America's "Native Spirit." The U.S. Senate declared September National Bourbon Heritage Month in 2007, calling on those who enjoy bourbon to do so responsibly and in moderation.

National Campus Safety Awareness Month. College campuses are not immune to destructive behaviors and violence due to high-risk drinking, drug abuse, sexual assault, fire safety, and more. As your kids head to college this month, talk to them about safety and investigate the resources their school offers.

Week to Week

National Suicide Prevention Week, Sept. 8-14. An annual campaign to inform and engage health professionals and the general public about suicide prevention and warning signs of suicide. Awareness events are held throughout the week around World Suicide Prevention Day, Sept. 10.

National Truck Driver Appreciation Week, Sept. 13-19. Sponsored by the American Trucking Associations, a federation of state associations, affiliated conferences, and individual members committed to developing and advocating policies that promote highway safety, security, environmental sustainability, and profitability.

Pollution Prevention Week, Sept. 21-27. The best way to protect the earth and its people is to stop creating pollution in the first place. Less waste and pollution means fewer hazards to public health and the environment. Pollution Prevention Week highlights the efforts of the EPA, its state partners, industry, and the public in preventing pollution right from the start.
