From the IITS Media Editor:

June 14, 2018 –

Welcome to the July edition of your ‘Island in the Sun Sentinel’. With the quieter summer months, there is less physical activity around the community. Too hot to golf cart ride, bike, walk, etc. during these hot, hot months, so there are fewer people out and about, until it cools down (slightly), in the evening. Then it usually is still too hot to sit outside and chat (unless we get a cooling rain shower), so most people go inside their houses/porch if they want to visit. Remember also it is hot for our pets as well, so be careful of the hot asphalt when walking your dogs, and keep in mind that they can get heat stroke also.

Editorial notes:

If you notice something that is incorrect, whether on the calendar or in any of the media articles, please let me know, and we will find the correct information and rectify ASAP. Our goal is to send you, our IITS residents, the most updated and correct information pertaining to activities and articles of interest to our community.

I am STILL looking for people to submit articles of interest to our IITS community – humor, current events around our area, perhaps a review of an exceptional restaurant you may have attended, etc. We need volunteer writers for the July media, so feel free to step up, as otherwise I will be randomly roaming the community asking for contributions.

Keep in mind that when we do not meet our minimum of 5,000+ words a month, the media company fills in with their own stuff, ads, etc. In my opinion we have lots going on, and many interesting people who can write about various topics, so there should be no need for ‘filler’.

Please submit articles to: iits.media.magazine@gmail.com or if you prefer to submit via handwritten articles, please place them on top of the chest by the slider door in the carport, or hand to Jim or me personally.

Thank you to those who continue to contribute articles for the monthly media.

President’s Corner

Kenn Brody, Lot #84

For three years now, I’ve been agitating for the Board to address the lot rent issue. The zigzag route from “designated curmudgeon” to HOA President was not one I anticipated. The old label is stuck, somewhere.

This is the second time in six months that Board members have elected a partial exodus. It highlights the stress of changing from a group of event planners to a group that exercises legal authority over the financial well-being of 500+ residents. We hope for a pleasant rocking-chair retirement. Instead we see controversy and argument.

Negotiation with Cal-Am is unavoidable. Florida Statute 723.037 provides the framework for rent negotiations. It is, by definition, adversarial. There may be anger, frustration and stress., but there are also rules of decorum to be followed. It is not everyone’s idea of a rocking-chair retirement.

Event planning, on the other hand, is a win-win situation. We all love events. The MHP advertises them as community attractions and subsidizes our entertainment. Event planning may start with some Facebook postings, but the heavy lifting is done by participants at the monthly Activities Meeting. These meetings are open to all residents

Events require short-term volunteer services for cooking, decoration, serving and clean-up. Each major event has a Host, the person who has volunteered to organize that activity. Given a predicted turnout, tickets are printed (thank you Karen Custy) and flyers put up. We hire the DJ or band. On the Thursday before the event we have a ticket count. One of the Board members assists in the purchasing of the food, plates, and decorations to meet that ticket count. In the following two days, the food is cooked, the tables set up, the volunteers come in and welcome the residents. We eat, we dance, we take pictures. We socialize in the best traditions of the community.

We have more than a dozen routine activities, from pickle ball to rummikub, from yoga to Mah Jongg, every day of the week. These are listed in the Monthly Calendar and there are more on the sign-up sheets in the Clubhouse.

Every day I see neighbors cleaning up someone's weeds, taking out their garbage, sharing rides and meals, helping with home projects. This is the visible humanity of IITS. This is why we endure the controversy.

RECAP OF PRIOR EVENTS

Note that we usually cover events that occur after the publication date of the previous month's media through to the publication date of the current month's media. We have to submit each month's articles approximately a month prior, so we are currently writing for the July media magazine. Therefore, we are covering events from mid-May through mid-June.

magazine. Therefore, we are covering events from mid-May through mid-June.

The activities committee and others who volunteer do an excellent job of bringing different kinds of entertainment to our community, but we do need others to step up and bring new/different ideas and be willing to chair and support events.

June events after the publication date of the media will be shown on the July media.

April 21st – 1st ever Lip Sync Party – We neglected to include this in the June media – see related articles and photos. One of the most successful parties we have had, hopefully we will see others of this caliber – thanks Karen/Keith and team for organizing!

May 19th – Monthly trivia – Come and show your knowledge of useless information and have a chance to win $$$ while having a great time! May's winner was the 'Ball busters'. Anyone want to take them on for June's trivia challenge???

May 28th – Memorial Day party – Thanks, Eneida and team for organizing. See related photo collage.

Buena comida en Carmelitas en Dunedin!!! (Great food at Carmelitas in Dunedin)!!!

If you love food with a Hispanic flair you must visit this restaurant. From beginning to end it was a delight. Don't pass it by because you fear spice...the food is mildly seasoned, but they will turn the heat up if you prefer.

When we arrived, we were escorted to the back room...all six of us. Obviously, our reputation for good times had preceded us. Our naughty selves had the liberty to enjoy great girl time without disturbing the other guests.

Our server was attentive and started us off with the world's best salsa and chips. The salsa was presented in small carafes. Honestly it was soooo good you just wanted to tip it up and drink it. Not ladylike, I know.

No real surprises on the menu although they did offer tamales which I have found hard to get here. I took some home to Jerald who gave them a thumbs up! The quality of the food was excellent, and everyone seemed to enjoy their choices.

Janet Coates won our door prize which was donated by Cindy Allen-Jarskey (Jan Gardy's sis). Thank you to all who donate and make our door prizes possible.

As our numbers dwindle during the summer months consider bringing a friend. As always guests are most welcome!

Please sign up for our monthly event in the Activities Book at the Clubhouse. If you have questions or need a ride please give me a call @256-399-7478 or stop by #145.

Happy summer everyone!

Spotlight article: Clay Bowlen, Lot 141

Submitted by Nancy Erhardt

If you leave Morgantown, WV and get as far as Fairchance, PA, there will be a “fairchance” you will reach Uniontown, PA by 4:00 p.m. Fairchance, PA is the birthplace of Clay Bowlen.

Clay’s father worked in the coal mines in Fairchance to support his family. When the mines dried up, his father moved the family to Youngstown, Ohio, for opportunities in the steel mills.

At 16, Clay joined the Pennsylvania National Guard. After the Guard was brought under the direction of the Federal Government, Clay was called for basic training to Indiana with possible deployment to Korea. That career was short-live, however, after his mother informed the National Guard that her son was only 16 years old.

When Clay was 19, he joined the U.S. Air Force. He married Dolores Crager before leaving for basic training and his wife remained in Youngstown, pregnant with their first child.

His Air Force career took him to New York, Mississippi and Georgia. Once his hitch was completed, he headed back to his family in Youngstown. As his family grew and with no work in his hometown, Clay took a job with the Army Signal Corps in Cleveland, Ohio, making the 150-mile round trip journey every day. He worked with the Signal Corps until 1973.

In 1975, tired of the Ohio winters, Clay’s wife asked him if he would like to move to Florida. At that time, Clay was selling jukeboxes, pinball machines and other types of vending machines in Cleveland He sold his business and moved himself, his wife and 5 children to Tampa, Florida. Once in Florida Clay received his commercial radio license where he worked with a marine electronics company fixing the electronics on ships, boats and barges. In order that he might be able to receive a pension from the Federal Government, Clay also went back to work as a Civil Service for the Gainesville Veterans Administration Hospital repairing their equipment.

Tragedy struck the Bowlen Family when his wife was killed in a head-on collision with a log truck on her way to Gainesville for treatment of breast cancer.

With his children grown, Clay married again in 2003 in Trenton, Florida. His second wife passed away in 2009. Shortly after her death, Clay received a 50% share of her home in Trenton which he sold. From there he moved to Crystal River.

In Crystal River, he met his fiancé Joan Ottinger, a retired St. Petersburg school teacher in Weeki Wachee. As their romance blossomed, and with Clay’s children in Tampa and Joan’s in St. Petersburg, they began to explore moving to the Clearwater area to be closer to them. They discovered Island in the Sun and Joan said that the more they learned about it, the more they were drawn to it. In November 2017, they took residence in the home on Lot 141.

When asked what hobbies he was interested in, Clay answered “Joan – she is my only hobby.” Both Joan and Clay take turns walking their miniature Schnauzer, Jack, on daily treks up and down Caribbean. And you will easily recognize Clay because he is often confused as Colonel Sanders. If you see Clay, Joan and Jack, introduce yourself and get to know them. You will be glad you did.

First Ever Lip Sync Party at Island in the Sun

Submitted by Karen Custy #229

On Saturday, April 21st we held our first ever Lip Sync Party at the clubhouse. The attendabce if over 50 residents showed their interest and curiosity. We had residents lip sync to some of their favorite songs. We had appearances by Seymour Swine with a fun rendition of "Blue Christmas", Patsy Cline, Dolly Parton and Kenny Rogers, Joan Jett, and much more. We do plan to have another lip sync party in the near future so get your songs ready. We also enjoyed a great meal prepared by Larry and Kris Taylor. Thanks to all who attended and made this party a success. If you are interested in participating in the next lip sync, there will be a sign-up sheet at the clubhouse where you can indicate your song choice.

Why do they lock gas station bathrooms? Are they afraid someone will clean them?

We have a turkey season, a deer season, and now a tourist season. How do I get a tourist tag?

Long ago, when men cursed and beat the ground with sticks, it was called witchcraft. Today it's called golf.

Bingo.....under the G

Submitted by Karen Custy #229

Every Thursday night Bingo is held at the clubhouse. In the past, we have had great turnouts and of course since the northerners have returned home for the summer, the attendance is down. So, let's try and boost the attendance by bringing a friend or neighbor or a new resident who would like to get out for an evening of fun. We always have refreshments and snacks available. And the chance to win big bucks, well maybe that is a bit of an exaggeration, but you can win money. Anyway, it's a great night out and we are trying to promote it so give it a try.

Neighbor Helping Neighbor

We need someone to take over this activity, as Larry and Kris are no longer able to do so. If you would like to assume responsibility for this important activity in our community, please see Larry or Kris - Lot #296, 727-286-7740

Barbara Oeffler, #120, was hospitalized for several days while tests were done to determine Barbara's problem. She was finally allowed home diagnosed with congestive heart failure, a serious, but very treatable condition with appropriate medications. So, good luck and stay well, Barb.

Helen Straka, #316, had knee replacement surgery. She is home and doing well. Now it's rehab time and that's probably the most important part after that kind of surgery. So, do your exercises and soon you'll be walking better than ever. Good luck to you also.

NOTE: I do not participate on any social media (my choice), so I depend on friends, family and neighbors to alert me to a resident's passing or sickness so that an appropriate card can be sent. Please contact me the old fashioned way by calling me @ 724-6283 or the more up-to-date way of emailing @ pcfriar64@yahoo.com or dlnewman823@gmail.com.

“Pooch Patrol” Spotlight on Dogs in Island in the Sun

Submitted by Karen Custy #229

“What A Beautiful World It Would Be, If Humans Had Hearts Like Dogs”

Elizabeth and Todd Hart at #111 have the cutest twin Shiba Inu dogs. I am sure you have seen these adorable boys on their walks with their owners as the merrily prance down the street looking this way and that looking for an adventure. This Japanese breed gets its name from the Japanese words ‘brushwood’(Shiba) and ‘dog’ (Inu). Statistics and analysis shows that through their DNA, this breed is one of the oldest dog breeds and genetically closest to the wolf. It is the smallest Japanese breed originally used to hunt rabbits and birds.

The Harts’ dogs have Japanese names: Shinobi (Ninja) and Saskay (Warrior). They found the pups at eight weeks old from a breeder in Ocala. They are two and a half years old. They were born three minutes apart. They come from championship pedigree. They are so identical, the only means to distinguish them is the tips of their tails, one being a darker shade of brown than the other. But the dogs have different personalities when it comes to certain things; for instance, Shinobi loves the water and Saskay will walk around puddles.

The things that make their owners smile are the way they chase each other around how they love to lie turned upside down and just stay there. Their favorite thing to do is to go to Enterprise Dog Park where they can run in the wide open and burn up their energy. They love to go for car rides too. Saskay leans with him as Todd turns the wheel while Shinobi rests his paw on Elizabeth’s’ arm while she drives. The boys love to sit in the window of their home and watch what’s going on outside and hope to spot a squirrel. Their favorite toys are squeaky ball and frisbee.

They love to take Elizabeth’s’ socks off her feet and run and hide them. They also love to hide their mail. They will go into their bedroom and steal an item off the dresser and then come into the living to show what they have done. Shinobi and Saskay have beautiful, luxurious fur which is double coated. They are good natured dogs who love other dogs and people. They have cute cuddly faces and are always alert.

Elizabeth and Todd take their precious boys on several walks each day. They can tell just by the way the dogs look at them when they want to go out for a walk. Of all the dog breeds that I have encountered, these two dogs are certainly among my favorites. Don’t forget to say hello to Shinobi and Saskay when you see them.

Kleei

Submitted by Kenn Brody, Lot #84

The salt tides rolled in and rolled out.

Jacob, the stranded sailor, picked at a piece of cooked fish and watched the tip of his mast out across the bay. It was an accusing finger, all that remained above water over the invisible hull being ground to pieces on the reef below. He had watched it for many, many tides.

Kleei waved her lacy tail fin in the water of the tide pool. She occasionally picked at her fish, raw, of course, and finished combing her hair. Her comb was a piece of abalone shell that Jacob had carved into smooth teeth and beautiful filigree. It was a work of love.

From time to time, Kleei splashed water on her gill covers to keep them from drying out. Jacob watched her breathe like any mammal, her pert breasts rising and falling slightly. He had eyes for Kleei, and the wreck was best forgotten.

"I am very attached to you, Jacob. My people are far away and you are all I have now." Her speech was full of breathy sibilants but Jacob understood her by now. He leaned forward and kissed her wet hair.

"Kleei," he pronounced it Klee-eye, "I'm so much in love with you, but I cannot leave this island. You are my only company, and even this fish is food you provide. Why stay here with a doomed man?"

"Love is not something we understand. It is a legend, Jacob. But I am here with you and the legend is real."

"I have no gills or fins. You cannot live ashore and you lack legs. We are together only on the margins of each other's world."

"Is that so unusual, Jacob, my love? Isn't love always one world touching another world?"

Jacob was silent.

"You can swim, you can dive, even if you must be filled with air. I've seen you dive on the wreck of your boat."

"Yes, I suppose so. How I wish I could hold you in my arms as we slept together. Feel your skin against me in the morning. How..."

"We can sleep in this tide pool, Jacob. Together."

Jacob plucked a sea louse from her back, where she could not reach, and threw it on the sand. “We try, sometimes, Kleei. We try.”

“Let’s dive on the wreck and see if we can find the things you need to be underwater.”

“The mask and snorkel? We looked before.”

“Let’s look again.”

It was a short swim out to the reef. At the lowest point of the ebb tide the broken hull was not too deep. Kleei led the way, and Jacob took several deep breaths and followed her as best he could.

The tiger shark had been trapped in the reef by the tide and it was hungry. Kleei did not see it behind her and Jacob had no way to tell her underwater. Kleei’s graceful form dove on the wreck, a poem of descending elegance. Jacob thrashed and made as much noise as he could.

The shark turned.

Tiger sharks are not known to play with their food. Jacob felt it tear out a piece of his torso, but it did not hurt. The water reddened. The last thing he saw was lovely Kleei rising, graceful as only a mermaid can be.

WHY SHOULD YOU COME TO YOGA?

Submitted by Katrina Lingenfelter, Lot #264.

I am writing to you, YES, EVERYONE OF YOU, to invite you to yoga class on @ 6:00 p.m. This class has saved my life! Read on and I’ll explain . . .

Why am I asking you to be part of my class with Coach Kathy Bowen, you ask? She is a phenomenal instructor of hatha yoga. Kathy is aware of each and every person’s strengths and weaknesses. Many people think that yoga is just stretching. Yoga does involve stretching; it also is about creating balance in the body to develop both strength and flexibility. In our class there are some who cannot sit on the floor. Kathy takes time to show them how to use a chair. The mental benefit includes: increased body awareness; relief of chronic stress patterns in the body; refreshing the body by relieving muscle strain; relaxing the mind and body; sharpening concentration and freeing the spirit.

So, here’s my short story.. (Husband Dave says “I have no short stories”...) We sold the big house! I’m still downsizing, isn’t everyone who lives in this village? We were moving. Financing took forever. So far so good. Then a hurricane hit. (No air conditioning for 5 days). We had a yard sale to get rid of STUFF! Only to find out I did not down size properly/enough. We continued packing; cleaning; painting and remodeled the master bath so we could put our home on the market. Hubby and Son went to Spain, which meant I stayed and dealt with boxes. My crazy mind never stopped working during this turmoil. I have experienced hair loss and made myself physically sick due to stress. Did I mention that I am a worrier about everything?! My life is precious, and I deserve better. My dream was that Island in the Sun would have a yoga class. Guess what folks, Santa Claus is real. We have yoga class!

Yippee, that’s where YA’LL come in. We need more students to participate in yoga, so we may all gain strength in our bodies and souls. I promise you will make new friends and learn how to enjoy your life on this earth.

See you @ 6:00p.m on yoga day. Remember, it is only an hour a week, and the benefits greatly outweigh the time spent!

June Potluck

Submitted by Karen Custy #229

On Tuesday, June 12th, we held our monthly community potluck dinner. There were twenty-four residents in attendance, which is not a big crowd, but it was a really nice dinner. We had an assortment of delicious salads, main dishes and plenty of dessert.

Eneida Lopez chaired the potluck this month for the first time and she did a splendid job. The tables had centerpieces and tablecloths and as usual we set our real silverware to make it more like a dinner you might have at home. Thank you Eneida for stepping up and handling the potluck.

Although at this time of the year we usually do have fewer attendees, it's surprising because we still have so many residents here. So, let's pass the word around to the newer residents and neighbors who might not attend. Reach out to a friend and bring them along. It's always a great time for sharing a meal and having some quality time to talk with our friends and neighbors. Hope to see you at the next one!

Island in the Sun

Did you know that July is also...

National Blueberry Month. This yummy fruit is packed with antioxidants and in season during July. They're great in muffins, pancakes, and pies, or on their own as a low-calorie snack. Head to a farmer's market or you-pick, and take some home today.

National Cell Phone Courtesy Month. For the next 31 days, exercise common sense when it comes to cell phone use. Keep your phone turned off when you're having dinner, taking a yoga class, or at the theater. If you are in a workplace or public setting, move to a more private location if you need to take a call.

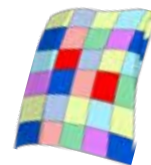

National Recreation and Parks Month. There are 417 parks in the National Park System, as well as a multitude of historic landmarks and places, rivers, trails, and heritage areas. Go to NPS.org and find one for camping, hiking, and exploration.

Social Wellness Month. Now is the time to take stock of your quality of life. Develop daily practices that support your health and well-being. Commit to having loving and supportive relationship with family, friends, and colleagues. Make your home a clean, organized, and peaceful environment.

Everybody Deserves a Massage Week, July 15-21. The third week of July has been designated to promote the benefits of therapeutic massage and bodywork. Find a licensed professional, and book your next appointment.

Quilt Odyssey Week (Pennsylvania), July 19-22. Quilters from across the country will gather to learn techniques from the pros, network, and show off their creations.

International Plastic Bag Free Day, July 3. Only 1 percent of the 100 billion plastic bags Americans consume are recycled during the year. The rest add to the pollution of our planet and threaten all sorts of ecosystems. Let today be the day you become part of the solution to ending the waste.

National Fried Chicken Day, July 6. We will never agree on which fast-food joint does it right, but one thing is certain: Anyone who loves fried chicken will tell you that "momma" makes the best. If you're lucky, she's in the kitchen right now and the cast iron skillet is on the stove.

Simplicity Day, July 12. Celebrated on the birthday of Henry David Thoreau, this day is observed to raise awareness regarding the need for sustainable living. Find ways to live in harmony with your environment and reduce your ecological footprint.
