Der Spring is sprung

I wonder where dem boidies is?
Der little boids is on der wing
Ain't that absoid?
Der little wings is on de boid!!

Happy Spring! On the first day of Spring every year that I can remember, my mother used to wake me up for school singing this little ditty. Throughout the years, my mother continued our tradition until she passed away. This always puts a huge smile on my face! Springtime is here and we will soon see the departure of our northern friends, I wish you all a wonderful Summer! Just because half of our park is leaving does not mean we will slow down on our activities. As we speak, our activities committee is preparing some exciting events for all of us "year rounders" to enjoy. Keep a lookout on our bulletin board for upcoming events as well as the save the date flyers delivered with your Domei. Again, a very happy Spring and take the time to listen to our boidies sing us their beautiful songs.

Rat Pack/Pot Luck March 7, 2016

Jim and Gail Connell

Outstanding duo! The Rat Pack really delivered a wonderful evening of entertainment for all of us. We all enjoyed a great variety of food, from salads to subs and everything in between, including such things as Polish spaghetti, meatballs, cheese tortellini salad, a delicious rice dish just to name a few.

One of our highlights was a Congo line, led by Valerie Smith. Many people said that this was the first Congo line that they had ever seen in Japanese Garden.

Let's sum it up to say that it was wonderful to see 132 of our neighbors having such a great time, which included 20 door prizes. A special thank you to Tampa Yankees, Clearwater Phillies/Threshers, Cheddars, Brighthouse, Papa Johns and Keri at the Village Inn!

We would like to thank our committee and friends who we could not have done this without. To include, Bill Ziegler, Ray Wynn, Selma Aronson, Janet Episcopo, Mark and Sandy Rassmussen, Karen and Paul LaRosa, Pat Pimm, and Kathy and Paul Troll!!

Job well done!!

MISCELLANEOUS RESIDENT INFO...

We have a lovely Clubhouse with unused services. Lots of people play a variety of card games. That's great for wrist/hand dexterity, but we have other body parts to get in shape before the holidays and our New Years Resolutions.

When was the last time you and a group of friends played a rousing competitive game of POOL. Remember those days??!!

How about the exercise equipment, so we can all stay in shape, doing more than walking around the park and visiting. Hey, it's one of my favorite pastimes. But we have to start getting in shape for those holiday festivities and outfits. Now, where is that battery???

Texas Holdem

By Jim Connell

For those of you who have even a passing interest in the card game Texas Hold'em, which we play every Wednesday and Saturday, you will like this story.

During one of our recent games Paul LaRosa was proud of his straight flush and bet it big like a true gambler should.

Now, getting into Paul's mind, I know he was thinking he had a guaranteed "winning hand" and when Victor Medeiros "called him" he was thinking even happier thoughts.

O.K. Gentlemen time to show your hands!

Paul flopped a straight flush proudly, as Victor, even more proudly, presented the highest hand you can get in this game - A Royal straight flush. This hand is a ten, jack, queen, king and ace all of the same suit!

Now, if this happened in one of the many casino's anywhere in the U.S. It would be referred to as a "bad beat" because the odds of it happening are thousands to one.

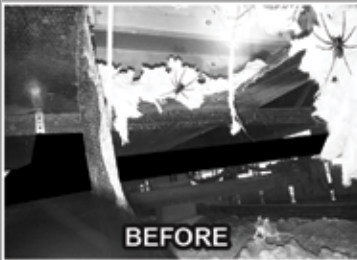

Many casinos reward players who have a bad beat with thousands of dollars. I personally have seen bad beats that paid $80,000 to be split between the winner and the loser.

Because we play our games here at Japanese Gardens, mostly for fun and camaraderie, Victor's winnings amounted to about $7 and a handful of quarters.

As for Paul, well, his reward was that he got to play on, but we all did feel his pain for the remainder of the game!

Sorry guys, wish we could have given you 80 Gs. Hahahaha.

Life Is Just A Baseball Game

By Jim Connell

Life is just a baseball game!

It is how you play the game that makes the difference.

As Yogi Berra once allegedly said, "Baseball is 90% luck. It's the other half that is skill."

Those of us who make it to a happy retirement are also in the World Series of life. Sadly though, many never even get to come to the plate, others strikeout in their brief appearances and others never even reach first base.

Many of us are lucky enough to turn on a 100 mph fastball and drive it deep in to the stands of life which leaves us astounded, while we should be thanking GOD.

Then five minutes later we let a "slow nubbler" roll between our feet and are jeered by an outburst of boos.

We all like to claim we are playing the game upfront, and by the rules, but many times we have put a little dirt, or even spit, on the ball to get a better grip on it and make our pitch react the way we want. How many of us have slid hard into second base with our spikes in the air hoping to disrupt a play and "take out" a frail defender?

Well, my wife/favorite teammate, and I, have made it to the world series but what makes that feeling more rewarding than being there ourselves, is that we like to believe we have helped countless teammates get there also, especially those who really needed our help.

Now you might be tempted to say, "The ballgame is over," but that is not the case!

You don't win the world series until St. Peter opens that pearly gate. Then you might see a grade school girl leaning over the fence hoping to get her first major league autograph. Next to her is a disheveled adult male sitting in his wheelchair, obviously he is special needs. He's just hoping a player might acknowledge that he even exists and you might even show him some respect. Then there is the lady whose favorite player is the same age as her great-grandson. "He can't hit a lick, but I love him because he is so cute," she yells to you. "I just want to give him a big kiss maybe that will get him started."

Then you realize what you have in common with the three of them and countless others is "a priceless love for the game of life."

As St. Peter slowly waves you on, you hear someone loudly singing,- off key, "Take me out to the ballgame. Then you hear the words, "Holy Cow." You immediately realize you are hearing Chicago Cubs and New York Yankee legendary announcers Harry Carey and Phil Rizzuto.

Then you see "Big number 7," Mickey Charles Mantle, launch one into the right field stands followed by Lou Gehrig saying he is the luckiest man on the face of the earth.

Then Ted Williams removes his Boston Red Sox uniform at the height of his career and replaces it with that of a United States Marine Co.Pilot to help save the world from the the horrors of Adolph Hitler.

Then, speaking of horrors, it's 1947 and you see Jackie Robinson courageously, standing there on the field in his Brooklyn Dodgers uniform while fans, opponents, and even teammates deluge him with the most hateful, racial abuse they can create.

You cry, but your pain is short-lived, because, GOD has welcomed you among the winners!

Reminder To Snowbirds

Florence Miller

As you pack up for the season to return to your other home, remember to donate your unexpired, unopened, nonperishable packaged and canned goods to the RCS Food Bank so that they can be used by those persons in need. DO NOT DISCARD THEM INTO THE TRASH. Bring items to the clubhouse and place them in the bin located on the stage or call Florence Miller at 727-210-7360 to schedule pickup. Thank you.

Don't Pay For Your Hot Water Heater

Dorothy Ravener

Recently, we had an unusually cold winter. When was the last time you remember it being in the 30's and 40's at night....IN FLORIDA?? This is not why we moved here. How about those balmy breezys ... where did they go. I may have to move to a warmer clime, like Belize, or Ecuador...bones and all.

Humor aside, let's be practical. The world seems to be on a budget.

Please, please, remember to check the thermostat on your water heater when the temperature plummets, it can cause damage to the thermostat. Replacing a thermostat or water heater can be costly. Ask a neighbor or friend, or even Call Duke Energy and they will check it out in advance for you. You are not alone.

Time Out

Dorothy Truemner

Even the best, need a break every now and then. And so it is with Line Dancing. Although I have GREAT looking legs from so much dancing and training, the time has come for some "me time". It's time to sit by the pool and become one of the bronze goddesses. Times and interest may change, and if so, I will be here for those who wish to learn the finer elements of line dancing, once called, "Congo Dancing".

In the meantime, I look forward to seeing you by the pool or at the clubhouse events, especially if you need to polish up your line dancing technique. Enjoy!

FRIENDSHIP MULTIPLIES THE GOOD IN LIFE AND DIVIDES THE EVIL

Dial Directories/ Community Directory 2016

Anita and Gene Francouer

Any day now, they should be arriving. We have thoroughly enjoyed renewing old friendships and meeting new neighbors, as we work to update the names, addresses, and phone numbers in our community.

Our involvement with the directory and the bowling league has enhanced our enthusiasm for volunteer participation on all levels. We have enjoyed meeting and working with all the new residents, and look forward to seeing everyone, next year.

It's A New Year

Noreen

After the first board meeting of our newly elected officials, many events have been scheduled for the upcoming year. With that comes a conundrum. We are in desperate need of NEW volunteers.

We don't want to wear out the dedicated ones who are always here for us and pitch in no matter what. But, like a paid employee, volunteers also suffer from burn-out, even the strongest most enthusiastic. We want to avoid that. We want people to have a good time and enjoy our community, but not at the expense of losing them to exhaustion.

So, in an effort to resolve the possible problem that could develop, please contact President Kathy Troll. She will be posting a sheet on the clubhouse bulletin board, so that you can list your name as a possible volunteer for any upcoming event of interest. Even if you only pick one over the next year, it will help.

We are looking forward to working with you soon... and having fun while we do it.

Kahoots

Myrna Whitehead

I have been in many places, but I have never been in Kahoots. Apparently, you can't go alone. You have to be in Kahoots with someone.

I've also never been in Cognito. I hear no one recognizes you there.

I have, however, been in Sane. They don't have an airport; you have to be driven there. I have made several trips there, thanks to my children, friends, family and work.

I would like to go to Conclusions, but you have to jump, and I'm not too much on physical activity anymore.

I have also been in Doubt. That is a sad place to go and I try not to visit there too often.

I've been in Flexible, but only when it was very important to stand firm.

Sometimes I'm in Capable, and I go there more often as I am getting older.

One of my favorite places to be is in Suspense! It really gets the adrenalin flowing and pumps up the old heart!

At my age I need all the stimuli I can get!

I may have been in Continent, but I don't remember what country I was in. It's an age thing. They tell me it is very wet and damp there.

Life is too short for negative drama and petty things. So laugh insanely, love truly and forgive quickly!

From one unstable person to another.

I hope everyone is happy in your head - we're all doing pretty well in mine!

Office on Aging's - Community for a Lifetime Activities

Communities for a Lifetime

Communities for a Lifetime is a statewide initiative, begun in 1999, that assists Florida cities, towns and counties in planning and implementing improvements to benefit their residents of all ages. Communities use existing resources and state technical assistance to make improvements in housing, health care, transportation, accessibility, business partnerships, community education, employment, volunteer opportunities and recreation.

In 2002, the City of Clearwater affirmed its support of the State of Florida's Communities for a Lifetime initiative and issued a resolution to make Clearwater "Elder Ready". In 2002, Clearwater established a diverse, interdisciplinary Community for a Lifetime Committee and completed the "Report Card for Well and Frail Elders".

To effectively address the needs of our older residents, the Clearwater Office on Aging implemented multiple initiatives contained in the Communities for a Lifetime Committee Recommendations and additional projects. The completed activities are summarized below:

- Needs Assessment

The Aging Well Telephone Survey completed in 2006, measured the needs of Clearwater's older adults. Conducted by the Florida Survey Research Center, the project surveyed 500 Clearwater residents age 60 or older. Survey topics included: housing and transportation; health and health care; financial services and employment issues; preparation for emergencies; leisure, recreation, volunteering, and senior services; and demographics.

- New Transportation Option

Neighborly Care Network, Senior Citizens Services, and the Cities of Dunedin and Clearwater worked together to launch a new transportation option for area seniors. Neighborly's EZride service is a membership program, providing seniors with trips at an affordable rate. The EZride service began in 2007 and utilizes two hybrid vehicles.

- Aging Well Publication

The City launched the Aging Well magazine in 2006. The publication promoted city programs, services, initiatives and volunteer opportunities for older adults. It also promoted the Area Agency on Aging of Pasco-Pinellas' Senior Helpline linking seniors to supportive services. As of January 2009, this publication is consolidated within a new, all-city magazine entitled MyClearwater Dot Com.

- File of Life Program

The Office on Aging and the Clearwater Fire Department worked with area partners to implement the File of Life program in 2007. A File of Life provides critical information to first responders in the event of an emergency. Packets are available at Clearwater recreational facilities and libraries or by calling the Office on Aging. Partners include the American Red Cross, the Area Agency on Aging of Pasco-Pinellas and the Alzheimer's Association. More than 6,500 Files of Life have been distributed to Clearwater residents.

- Senior Programs Expanded

The Office on Aging worked with other City departments (i.e. Police and Fire Department, Emergency Management and Therapeutic programs) to expand senior life safety programs at Clearwater recreation centers. Programs offered included hurricane awareness, senior crime prevention, safety phone program and the File of Life program.

- Health and Wellness Initiative

In 2008, the Clearwater Healthy Choices initiative and the Office on Aging implemented the Better Body Bingo program, an eight-week citywide health and wellness initiative for residents age fifty and older. Funded through an Area Agency on Aging of Pasco Pinellas and the Department of Elder Affairs' grant the program expanded opportunities for residents to pursue healthy lifestyles, improve their physical health and increase timely access to community healthcare education, disease screening and prevention services. The "healthy bingo" program's success resulted from many community partnerships including Morton Plant Mease Health Care and the YMCA of the Suncoast. The program attracted a very diverse group of 322 participants ranging in age from 50 to 99.

- Crime Prevention Forums

The Office on Aging and Area Agency on Aging provide crime prevention forums on an ongoing basis. Programs are designed to help prevent older adults from becoming victims of fraud and exploitation. Featured speakers include experts from the Florida Department of Financial Services, Pinellas County Justice and Consumer Services, Senior Medicare Patrol and the United States Department of Postal Inspection.

- Aging Well Center

In 2008, the City of Clearwater received a Department of Elder Affairs' capital outlay grant to establish a multi-service senior center at the Long Center. In August 2008 the city and UPARC amicably agreed that UPARC would return 8,000 square feet of its leased space to the city. The city used that space for the Aging Well Center and, in exchange, provide replacement for the aging roof and air conditioning system. The Aging Well Center opened in June 2010 and promotes health and wellness, education, recreation, socialization, creative expression and access to resources for residents age 55 and older.

- Aging Well Master Plan

In 2009, Clearwater implements the Aging Well Master Plan. This multi-year, comprehensive plan provides Clearwater with a roadmap to further enhance the quality of life for current and future older adults. Goals of the plan include: increase access to essential services; maximize older adult's independence; promote older adults' health and wellness; encourage older adults' social and civic engagement; and maximize resources that serve older adults.

- National Center for Creative Aging Collaboration

In late 2008, the Clearwater/St. Petersburg area was selected as a site for creative aging activities. Clearwater's Cultural Affairs and Office on Aging will participate and represent city's interest in the National Center for Creative Aging's Creative Aging Symposium. Pioneering research by Dr. Gene Cohen found professionally conducted community based cultural programs had a dramatic, positive impact on physical health, mental health, and social activities of people age 65 and older. The National Center for Creative Aging received a national grant to facilitate four work groups in four United States' areas for this issue. Clearwater/St. Petersburg was selected as one of the areas, which also include Cleveland, OH, Milwaukee, WI, Seattle, WA.
