PRESIDENT'S LETTER

by Chris Green

Hello from behind the (diminishing) elephant's ear. I just figured out that I enter a time warp when I compose my letter. Right now it is January 10th but this letter will go into the February DOMEI!!! (yay me)

I have always enjoyed the diversity in the park. So many different experiences and opinions. This is such a caring community. And talk about ready to party at a moment's notice!!! Right now I'm amazed at how quickly you have come together to help Marcelle and Cal (the shed master) put together the most important event - the Rummage Sale.

Everyone working so hard - yet smiling and laughing (a little). SUCH COMMUNITY PRIDE !!

That being said, I have enjoyed representing you as the president of your social club - the rudder of this great ship. I have learned so much and grown personally with the help of my supporters and the nay sayers.

Sincerely thanking you for this honor
Chris

WELCOME WAGON WEDNESDAY

by Sandy Rassmussen

Welcome!

We have been so busy the past couple of months, with the fundraiser in November, then a Christmas Concert in December. A loud shout out to all who volunteered and contributed to both events. We met new residents, listened to beautiful music, indulged in many delicious cookies and hot chocolate. Money was raised totaling $380.00 for Park decorations including lights, blowups and memorial plaque. Extra cookies from the November WW was packaged up and sold at the Craft sale that week. All proceeds went to the Social Club. The January 30th Welcome Wagon had a representative speaking on resources

ARTS & CRAFT SHOW AND SALE

by Charlotte Thompson

This is a note to all the wonderful people who participated in and/or volunteered for the different jobs for our December 1st 2018 Arts & Crafts Show and Sale.

It is impossible to adequately thank all of you for your help. The whole day went quite smoothly because of people like Wendy & Warren Duplex who set up tables and helped artists bring in their art work and in general, helped out and made sure things were running smoothly.

Lea & Reid selling at the Bake Sale; Mark & Sandy selling artwork and working in the kitchen, setting up tables, etc. Pat Pimm took care of the raffles and Norm Pimm went around and chatted with people making a lovely impression on the artists (personal expressions of feeling very welcome came from the artists); Yvonne who came in the kitchen for Koffee Klatch with Mark starting the day off just right with coffee and donuts; Jim Connell, our local artist and his wife Gail who took take of the Bake Sale, thank you; Sharon Blankenship and her husband, our new artist in the park. Sharon along with Sandy Rasmussen helped organize the whole day. Bet LeBrun had a beautiful display of crafts; Segrid and her niece who had beautiful original jewelry; Kay & Jeanne Steigerwald and their outstanding furniture - beautiful; sue Doyle's plants and inspirational plaques; artist Marge Murphy, Dorothy Ravener and Mary Lou - another new artist with lovely art work. I'm so glad she was able to sell a few paintings. There were many artists that participated from other parks in the area. I hope you had a chance to meet them. Many of the artists from other parks called me after the show thanking me and the people they met during their time here,, for a very positive experience. They hope to come back again next year.

All I can say is, family came through again. Okay all you awesome people, hugs to you. Thank you for a terrific day.

THANKS JOHN

by Dorothy Ravener

On my way home from Koffee Klatch, I decided to take the long way home. As I rounded on to Rickshaw Drive, I ran "out of gas". Luckily Steve and John were outside on the deck. Without hesitation, John came and "towed" me back home. Not only that, Steve helped him push it up my driveway and connected it to the battery charger. Thanks again John and Steve.

RUMMAGE SALE 2019

by Cal and Marcelle Rouse

Our annual rummage is over! We want to thank everyone for making this sale a huge success. Our sales totaled a little over $4,600! An event like this requires many helping hands and we had many - at least 75 in all. You all worked so hard and so well together.

We needed to rent two storage units at U-Store when our park storage container started bursting at the seams. Our guys unloaded the "U-Store" storage units Wednesday afternoon. Thanks to Grant MacAskill, Jim Henemann, Rob Lloyd with his trailer, and Cal Rouse with Mark Rassmussen's trailer (thank you Mark), for the use of your vehicles both Wednesday and Thursday. And thank you to their helpers Marshall Giles, Terry Densmore, Gaeten LePage and Ed LaGree. That was hard work! Thank you to Phyllis LePage and Bet LeBrun who worked in the kitchen, getting our coffee and donuts ready early in the morning and having lunch ready for all the hungry volunteers. Thank you to the people who donated soup, beans, sandwiches, salads and desserts for those lunches and thanks also to the bakers for the bake sale table. I have mentioned these few people but there were dozens of other wonderful people who generously volunteered their time and effort to unload the items as the vehicles arrived at the clubhouse, to sort through everything, to deliver the items to the various departments and to look after each department. There were quite a few people who simply came ready to work wherever needed. Some stayed for a day, some stayed for the whole four days but they were needed and they worked and we appreciate their help. Thanks also for those who stayed to help clean up after the sale. Steve was amazed, he said "WOW, I can't believe this!" Thank you for all the donations for the sale and thank you to our shoppers, without you there would be no rummage sale!

Connie Hobbs was the happy winner of $92.00 in the 50/50 draw!

We were blessed with perfect weather all four days. And we had awesome volunteers; you are the best! Our heartfelt thanks to everyone who participated. We said in the spring "let's make this the best rummage sale ever". You succeeded. THANK-YOU ALL!

GOLF CART PARADE

by Carolee Kingsbury

Iwant to thank everyone who participated in the parade. There were way too many carts that were done beautifully. It would have been impossible to pick one. Also, thank you to everyone who watched us go by and cheered us on. A thank you to Marty, Jim, Sandy and others who helped me clean up. I hope everyone enjoyed the parade!

ALUMINUM CANS = DOLLAR$

by Bet LeBrun

Things are starting to come together!

On January 3/19, we brought 8 large trash bags full of crushed cans to the recycling depot.

We had a total of 97 lbs of aluminum cans which paid .35¢ per pound and that gave us $34.00.

If you were to find $34 on the sidewalk with no one around for you to find the rightful owner, you would pick it up right? So would I!!! It's free money right? Right!

Same thing applies for aluminum cans. If you throw out your cans in the recycling dumpster here in the park, SOMEONE ELSE GETS THE MONEY. In our case, the money ($34) goes to YOUR Social Club.

In order to minimize the risk of ants, insects, rodents, etc., PLEASE RINSE THE ALUMINUM CANS BEFORE HE PICKS THEM UP.

Call TERRY at 727-365-7760 to arrange a pick-up for your cans. (He will crush and bag them.)

LEMONGRASS

How to store:

Store lemongrass loosely wrapped in the fridge for up to several weeks. Or, wrap it well and freeze it. If you're going to freeze it, consider chopping or mincing it and then freezing it in 1-tablespoon bits (an ice cube tray is useful for this—freeze until hard and then transfer to a sealable plastic bag for longer-term storage), so it's ready to use and you can simply throw it into marinades, dressings, and stir-frys right from the freezer.

How to cook with lemongrass:

Lemongrass is most often used in 1- to 2-inch pieces in soups, stews, and teas. Just add the trimmed pieces of lemongrass stalk and leave them in the soup or stew until it imparts as much flavor as you want. Be kind to your diners and remove the pieces before serving since they tend to be woody and don't make for the best eating.

Lemongrass can also be minced and added to stir-frys or rubs for grilled or roasted meats or seafood. Use only the bottom few inches for mincing and remove the tough, woody outer layer of the stalk, since that is the most tender part of the lemongrass stalk and will keep your dish from having woody-seeming bits in it. You'll also need to truly mince it into teeny tiny pieces because even that more tender core can be quite fibrous.

Whichever way you use it, know that the longer you cook lemongrass the more intense its flavor becomes. For a flavor that is as light and delicate as its scent, add lemongrass towards the end of cooking

Health benefits:

When used medicinally, lemongrass may be taken by mouth, rubbed on the skin, or inhaled as an aromatherapy treatment.

Taken orally, lemongrass is often used to calm stomach discomfort and other gastrointestinal issues including cramps and vomiting. Lemongrass may also be consumed to treat:

- Hypertension
- Epilepsy
- Musculoskeletal pain
- Cough
- Rheumatism
- Fever
- Common cold
- Diabetes
- Sleeplessness
- Anxiety
- Cancer prevention

Applied to the skin, lemongrass or lemongrass oil is used to treat a headache and musculoskeletal pain. As an aromatherapy treatment, lemongrass oil extract may be inhaled to treat muscle pain, infections, cold, or flu symptoms.

COMMUNITY DECORATIONS

by Sandy Rassmussen

Thank you for coming out for our first Annual Cookie Stroll. We sold all 50 tickets and ornaments made. We will be having a fundraiser yearly, so residents will be able to have a voice in any area of the park that may need a touch of beautifying. The Park does a great job on the upkeep of the grounds but there are pieces, that as residents, we need to step up and participate in. Christmas decorations this year were minimal but the park does have pieces of decor that need to be refurbished to display in our park. Throughout the year, I would like to focus on certain pieces to work on such as the metal reindeer that needs lights and paint as well as plastic pieces in need of paint. So, if you find you have extra time this summer or you like to tinker, please contact me and I'd love to talk about how to share your talents on refurbishing our Christmas decor.

We will be purchasing a plaque for the Memorial Garden. I just wanted to share with those who wondered and who care for the garden. Steve said anyone who wants to, can. So again, another opportunity to share your talents.

Our flags around the pool are also apart of this fund, rotation will continue until July 4. Any new ideas would be appreciated, within our means. Please look for upcoming meeting in March to compile a team of volunteers for refurbishing, brainstorming and implementing decorations.

EZ PIANO LESSONS

He is offering 6 weeks of lessons for 20 dollars, you receive a starter book and all that is offered at Fletcher Music Center as in workshops, concerts and more lessons. You will be able to play a song at the end of your first lesson, without having to do years of lessons. Please feel free to join us on Thursdays at the Clubhouse 10-11:30 am. Contact Sandy Rassmussen 612-432-7874 with any questions.

CHRISTMAS PARTY 2018

by Jeanne Steigerwald

I just wanted to say Thank You to everyone who came to the Christmas Party this year. Although I chaired the event, I was unable to attend due to my family's last minute plans to come here for the holiday.

I understand the party was a huge success and everyone had a wonderful time. The pictures I've seen proves just that!!

A special and very sincere "thank you" goes to Kathy Troll, Kate Steigerwald, Sandy Rassmussen, Margaret English, the people who pitched in last minute and a very special thanks to Santa Claus!! Thank you all very much for all your help!!

I look forward to chairing another event, one that I can actually attend!!

I hope everyone has a great New Year, may it be filled with a lot of laughter, good health and a boat load of love! THANKS SO MUCH AGAIN!!!

NEW YEARS EVE PARTY...

by Gail & Jim Connell

...WAS A SUCCESS!!!

Jim and I would like to thank all of those that attended the New Years Eve party, we think everyone enjoyed themselves.

However, most of all we would like to thank all of our committee members: Sandy and Mark Rassmussen, Karen and Paul LaRosa and Jim and Marty Rupinski. We could not have accomplished this party without each and every one of you!

Special mention to Bill Ziegler and Ray Wynn who were on our committee but were sick and couldn't make it to the party.

Special thanks to Sandy and Mark as they went back up the next day, finished the clean-up and took all of the decorations down!

Also, thanks to Mr. Bill and Holly for the entertainment!

Happy New Year

Thank you, thank you, thank you!

If I have forgotten anyone, please accept my apologies!

Happy 50th wedding Anniversary to BECKY & DAVE COLLINS

Let's face it, all of us have birthdays and some of us also have anniversaries. Some people like to celebrate their birthdays and anniversaries with a huge crowd, others not so much.

None of us likes getting old but it's a fact of life and there's nothing we can do about it - so we may as well make the best of it and have fun.

If you wish to participate, send me your name, event date of birthday or anniversary at jgdomei@hotmail.com - you can send it now even if your special day is celebrated in another month as I have started compiling a list.

OLD GUY AND BUCKET OF SHRIMP...

by Gail Connell

(This is a true story.)

It happened every Friday evening, almost without fail, when the sun resembled a giant orange and was starting to dip into the blue ocean.

Old Ed came strolling along the beach to his favorite pier. Clutched in his bony hand was a bucket of shrimp. Ed walks out to the end of the pier, where it seems he almost has the world to himself. The glow of the sun is a golden bronze now.

Everybody's gone, except for a few joggers on the beach. Standing out on the end of the pier, Ed is alone with his thoughts...and his bucket of shrimp.

Before long, however, he is no longer alone. Up in the sky a thousand white dots come screeching and squawking, winging their way toward that lanky frame standing there on the end of the pier.

Before long, dozens of seagulls have enveloped him, their wings fluttering and flapping wildly. Ed stands there tossing shrimp to the hungry birds. As he does, if you listen closely, you can hear him say with a smile, 'Thank you. Thank you.'

In a few short minutes the bucket is empty. But Ed doesn't leave.

He stands there lost in thought, as though transported to another time and place.

When he finally turns around and begins to walk back toward the beach, a few of the birds hop along the pier with him until he gets to the stairs, and then they, too, fly away. And old Ed quietly makes his way down to the end of the beach and on home.

If you were sitting there on the pier with your fishing line in the water, Ed might seem like 'a funny old duck,' as my dad used to say. Or, 'a guy who's a sandwich shy of a picnic,' as my kids might say. To onlookers, he's just another old codger, lost in his own weird world, feeding the seagulls with a bucket full of shrimp.

To the onlooker, rituals can look either very strange or very empty. They can seem altogether unimportant maybe even a lot of nonsense.

Old folks often do strange things, at least in the eyes of Boomers and Busters.

Most of them would probably write Old Ed off, down there in Florida. That's too bad. They'd do well to know him better.

His full name: Eddie Rickenbacker. He was a famous hero back in World War II. On one of his flying missions across the Pacific, he and his seven-member crew went down. Miraculously, all of the men survived, crawled out of their plane, and climbed into a life raft.

Captain Rickenbacker and his crew floated for days on the rough waters of the Pacific. They fought the sun. They fought sharks. Most of all, they fought hunger. By the eighth day their rations ran out. No food. No water. They were hundreds of miles from land and no one knew where they were.

They needed a miracle. That afternoon they had a simple devotional service and prayed for a miracle. They tried to nap. Eddie leaned back and pulled his military cap over his nose. Time dragged. All he could hear was the slap of the waves against the raft..

Suddenly, Eddie felt something land on the top of his cap.
It was a seagull!

Old Ed would later describe how he sat perfectly still, planning his next move. With a flash of his hand and a squawk from the gull, he managed to grab it and wring its neck.. He tore the feathers off, and he and his starving crew made a meal - a very slight meal for eight men - of it. Then they used the intestines for bait.. With it, they caught fish, which gave them food and more bait...and the cycle continued. With that simple survival technique, they were able to endure the rigors of the sea until they were found and rescued after 24 days at sea.

Eddie Rickenbacker lived many years beyond that ordeal, but he never forgot the sacrifice of that first life-saving seagull. And he never stopped saying, 'Thank you'. That's why almost every Friday night he would walk to the end of the pier with a bucket full of shrimp and a heart full of gratitude.

Cave drawing of bull is earliest of its kind

Archeologists have discovered the oldest known drawing of an animal on the wall of a cave in Indonesia, according to the U.S. News & World Report website. It's some 40,000 years old, about five feet wide, and it depicts a bull-like creature in a red silhouette.

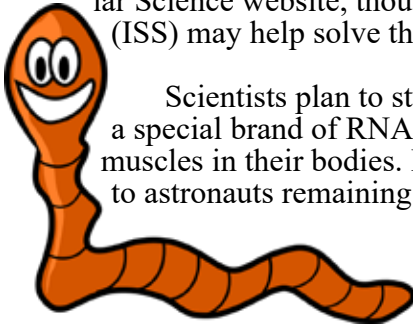

Along with similar drawings on cave walls in Borneo, the drawing sparks renewed debate about the role of art in ancient times. Similar cave paintings have been found in France and Spain, though they're just 33,500 to 37,000 years old.

Cave dwellers began sketching humans engaged in hunting activities and dancing some 14,000 years ago in both Europe and Asia. The findings raise the possibility that humans migrated from Africa to Europe and then Asia, bringing their artistic sensibilities with them.

Invasion of the space worms

Long-term space travel poses many challenges, but one of the most daunting is the loss of muscle mass in a zero-gravity environment. On a voyage to Mars, for example, space travelers could arrive on the red planet too weak to stand. Now, reports the Popular Science website, thousands of worms headed to the International Space Station (ISS) may help solve the problem.

Scientists plan to study muscle atrophy in the worms and then treat them with a special brand of RNA designed to stop the breakdown of protein and preserve the muscles in their bodies. If all goes according to plan, this could alleviate one danger to astronauts remaining in space for long periods of time.

Science is simply common sense at its best, that is, rigidly accurate in observation, and merciless to fallacy in logic.
