UPDATE FOR "WE CARE"

by Chris Green

Our hardworking friend Annette Wilson has given up the IMPORTANT position as representative of our Social Club.

I believe that WE CARE is what we are all about and Annette has done an amazing job.

A big Shout Out and THANK YOU, Annette.

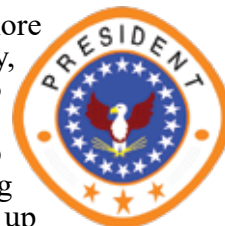

PRESIDENT'S LETTER

by Chris Green

Update on Spring Clean up:

For 4 hours these unselfish people worked to make our clubhouse more pleasant - Gene & Warren emptied the storage room while Wendy, Becky, (smiling) Pat, Carolee, Joanne, Diane & Lou worked fearlessly to clean, organize, and label ALL of those totes. Then Gene, Warren, Diane & Lou reorganized those totes by holiday/event. Sandy & Anita showed up to scrub & organize the kitchen with Becky while (smiling) Pat kept labeling everything she could get her hands on. Meanwhile Joanne & Wendy cleaned up the mess in the supply closet.

Not to be outdone by any of us: our HERO was Mark who treated everyone to pizza !!!
The Social Club does not slow down in summer!

PARK DIRECTORIES

by Gene & Anita Francoeur

Finally the Directories have arrived on April 16 and are being distributed as I write this article.

If you don't receive your directory, your DOMEI block captains have extra copies for you. Last resort, extra copies are in the office.

SOCIAL CLUB MEMBERSHIP

by Carolee Kingsbury

I am in Connecticut for the summer. Becky Collins [(727) 459-5185] is the contact person for membership in the Social Club. I will be returning the last weekend in October. Have a great summer!

FATHER'S DAY

by Dorothy Ravener & Charlotte Thompson

We invite ALL our guys (father or not) to celebrate Father's Day on Sunday June 17 at 1:00pm with Pizza & Beer. There will be ice, soda & water, too.

Doors will open at 12:30pm.

Of course no charge for Men but $5 for Ladies!

Tickets are available from Becky Collins.

ATTN: RESIDENTS OF JAPANESE GARDEN

by Steve Lyle

Just a reminder of our "Wonderful Rules"...
These are to protect us and to make sure all is going well. These are rules for EVERYONE not just a few. "Oh, does that mean me?" Yes – YOU!

What would it be like if there weren't any? Can you imagine? Park Rules cover basic things like speeding, respecting neighbors, the mobile home and the mobile home site (keeping them clean & neat) and even registering all of your visitors! By the way, registering your guests is very easy – this can be done via a phone call to the office, a note in the check drop box, email, or a stop in the office. You all know when they are arriving – SO PLEASE REGISTER YOUR VISITORS!

If you don't like the Park Rules – then you are in the wrong place!

If you do not have a copy of the "RULES FOR PARK LIVING" you can go to the Park office to get a copy – or you can ask to have them emailed to you. Some of you need to read them!!

I have been your Park Manager now for over 12 years – and it has been awesome. I plan to retire and live here because Candy and I believe that there is no better place to live. Maybe Hawaii – lol – but here is the best.

And by the way (gossip gossip...) – This place is NOT FOR SALE! So enjoy your stay here at the awesome Japanese Garden with all the wonderful people who make it so special. Thanks for listening.

Why live with pain or limited mobility if you don't have to? Our extensively trained medical teams offer the latest advancements in minimally invasive orthopedic treatments while maintaining the highest standards of safety and patient care. The orthopedic specialists and physical therapists at Morton Plant Hospital handle everything from sports injuries and arthritis to joint problems and replacements. We also have total joint nurse navigators—specialists who guide patients through the entire process of joint replacement so they have a better recovery and experience. If you want to spend more time doing what you enjoyed doing 10 years ago, we can help. WELCOME WAGON

by Sandy Rassmussen

April 2018
On Wednesday April 25 at 5pm, we had 78 folks who came to enjoy the concert and show with Joe Franchio, with lots of fun and laughs. We then enjoyed a delightful meal of turkey sandwiches and goodies. Then we did the introductions of 13 new residents to Japanese Garden.

If an opportunity presents itself, please feel free to say hi and welcome them to the park. A big shout out to all folks who donated goodies to share.

Greg & Anne Schmidt	2628 Sumo Dr
Kenny Costello	2677 Rickshaw Dr
Gary & Marilyn Williamson	2687 Rickshaw Dr
Wanda Mooney	1284 Teahouse Dr
Lucy & Paul Singer	2644 Butterfly Dr
Deanna & David Stang	2676 Shinto Dr
Alex Scanda	2680 Shinto Dr
Walter (John) & Vicki Ritzan	1243 Pekinese Dr

Welcome!

All residents are welcomed to participate, goodies to share are always appreciated. Look for posters regarding June and July Welcome Wagon gatherings including free music and other fun activities. Any questions, please feel free to contact Sandy Rassmussen (612) 432-7874.

PARK SERVICES DIRECTORY

by Chris Green

Many of us have wondered what services are offered by our residents, so we thought about a Service Directory.

Do you sew, bake or cook?

Would you teach?

Would you offer a mani, pedi, massage or perhaps dog grooming?

The services needed are endless - including clean up after our events.

You can contact me. PLEASE leave a message (774) 454-7684

KARAOKE

by Bill Roberts

Come out every 2nd Saturday of the month and enjoy music with "Mr. Bill" at the Clubhouse. You can show your musical talents by singing songs accompanied by Karaoke music and lyrics. No need to be a pro to sing - just bring your snacks and beverages. Enjoy the company of friends and have a good time. There will be a 50/50 with half going to the winner and the other half going to "Mr. Bill" to pay for his time, music and equipment. Starts at 7:00pm and ends when the evening ends.

ANNUAL RUMMAGE SALE – 2019

by Marcelle Rouse

I know it seems a long way off but please don't forget about our rummage sale when cleaning out your cupboards or buying new furniture. We have now gone back home until the end of October. Before we left we took in quite a lot of donations. During our absence, please call our president Chris Green at (774) 454-7684 to make arrangements to pick up your donations. Chris still works so please kindly leave a message so that she can contact you at her earliest convenience.

Here is a guideline for you to keep in mind as to items that we can or cannot accept:

ACCEPTED ITEMS include: kitchen wares, small appliances, home decor, knick knacks, linens, furniture and more. When donating linens, please indicate sizes for sheets, blankets, tablecloths etc. In addition, we will accept clean clothing in excellent condition BUT not until the fall.

ITEMS NOT ACCEPTED are bed pillows, large heavy items such as sofa beds, mattresses/box springs, washers/dryers, refrigerators, stoves, computer monitors, PC towers, big old TV's and unframed mirrors.

Remember - only certain items will be accepted. This is not a dumping ground for unwanted items listed above. Please make sure all donated items are in good working order, clean and bagged securely. Our goal is to make money for the club so in order for our sale to be a success, we must offer desirable items!

Let's make this the best rummage sale ever!

MY HEP-C ADVENTURE - PART 2

by Mel Moen

I n Part 2 of my Adventure, I am going to tell you about how I found out that I had Hep-C. It started with an application for health insurance.

At that time, I usually worked thru a consulting firm. They would bid on contracts and I would be assigned to those contracts. I got paid whether or not I was working and they took care of my benefits (life and health insurance, vacation pay, etc.). But they also kept 60% of my billing rate, when I was working. (Which was most of the time!)

I had an opportunity to bid on a contract, myself, as an independent sub-contractor. My bid was accepted, so I gave a month's notice to the consulting firm that I was working thru, and I had to make arrangements for my own health insurance. (I already had an individual life insurance policy, above what the consulting firm had been providing to me.)

The company that I applied to for Health insurance sent a nurse to my home to do a health exam, which included a blood test. A week later (2 weeks before I started my new job), I got a letter stating that my application for health insurance had been rejected due to “attached test results”.

I checked out the attached test results and found that everything was negative, except Hepatitis-C. (I had no idea what Hepatitis-C was all about.) I told my wife, “I have Hepatitis-C” and she said, “No you don’t! You may have Hepatitis-A or Hepatitis-B, but you DO NOT have Hepatitis-C! Hepatitis-C will kill you! Let me see that!”

She took the test results, looked at it and got a really strange look on her face. So, I was thinking that I had better go online and check into this Hepatitis-C thing. Online, I found a warning that, if you get a positive result from a blood test by the Red Cross or most insurance companies, don’t over-react. They informed me that there are two different tests that can be given to check for Hep-C. One of the tests is much cheaper than the other, and so that is the one that the Red Cross and most insurance companies use. However, the cheaper test gives a lot of false positives.

So, they suggested that, if you are in that situation, you should definitely make an appointment with your regular doctor and have the more expensive test run to verify whether or not you actually have the Hep-C virus. If I remember correctly, that test cost me $300. Anyway, the test came back positive. So, it looked like I actually did have Hepatitis-C.

Back to the internet for more information!

Online further advised that even if turns out that you definitely have Hep-C, don’t freak out. There are different “Types” of Hep-C and some Types are easier to cure than other Types. I also found out that no matter which Type it is, it may or may not actually be causing any damage to your body. As I discussed in Part 1 of this series, Hep-C can quietly sit in your body for years causing no symptoms and no damage. If and when it does attack, it attacks your liver. So online advised that I needed to identify which Type of Hep-C I had and arrange for a Liver biopsy to check for any damage the Hep-C might have caused. Bear in mind that, at this time, I had started my new job and I had no Health Insurance. I knew that something was definitely wrong, because I was sick all the time. But I was managing to work regularly and keep my situation a secret from my new place of employment.

I don’t remember what type they said I had, but I do remember that it was the type that is the hardest to cure. My doctor seemed to agree with everything that online had said. He referred me to a specialist named Dr. Fern, who arranged for a Liver biopsy. The biopsy revealed that it was definitely damaging my liver. I had Stage-III Liver Disease. Dr. Fern told me that Stage-IV is considered to be full-blown Cirrhosis of the Liver. So, I was only one Stage below having full-blown Cirrhosis of the Liver! IS IT TIME TO FREAK-OUT YET? No, not really... because that wouldn’t help fix the problem. What I needed was a plan to fight back against this virus!

At this time, I had begun to dip into my retirement fund to cover some of these expenses.

In the next Part of my adventure, I will get into the treatments that I endured on my path to the eventual destruction of the Hepatitis-C virus and the damages that were left after this struggle.

YESTERDAY...TODAY AND TOMORROW

by Author Unknown

There are two days in every week about which we should not worry, two days which should be kept free from fear and apprehension.

One of these days is YESTERDAY with its mistakes and cares, its faults and blunders, its aches and pains. Yesterday has passed forever beyond our control.

All the money in the world cannot bring back YESTERDAY. We cannot undo a single word we said. YESTERDAY is gone.

The other day we should not worry about is TOMORROW with its possible adversities, its burdens, its large promise and poor performance. TOMORROW is also beyond our immediate control.

TOMORROW'S sun will rise, either in splendor or behind a mask of clouds - but it will rise. Until it does, we have no stake in TOMORROW, for it is as yet unborn.

This leaves only one day - TODAY - Any man can fight the battles of just one day. It is only when you and I add the burdens of those two awful eternities - YESTERDAY and TOMORROW that we break down..

It is not the experience of TODAY that drives men mad - it is remorse or bitterness for something which happened YESTERDAY and the dread of what TOMORROW may bring.

Let us, therefore, live but one day at a time.

$5.37!

by Judy MacAskill

That's what the kid behind the counter at Taco Bell said to me. I dug into my pocket and pulled out some lint and two dimes and something that used to be a Jolly Rancher.

Having already handed the kid a five-spot, I started to head back out to the truck to grab some change when the kid with the Elmo hairdo said the hardest thing anyone has ever said to me. He said, "It's OK. I'll just give you the senior citizen discount." I turned to see who he was talking to and then heard the sound of change hitting the counter in front of me.

"Only $4.68" he said cheerfully.

I stood there stupefied. I am 56, not even 60 yet !

A mere child!

Senior citizen?

I took my burrito and walked out to the truck wondering what was wrong with Elmo.

Was he blind?

As I sat in the truck, my blood began to boil.

Old? Me? I'll show him, I thought.

I opened the door and headed back inside. I strode to the counter, and there he was waiting with a smile. Before I could say a word, he held up something and jingled it in front of me, like I could be that easily distracted! What am I now? A toddler?

"Dude! Can't get too far without your car keys, eh?"

I stared with utter disdain at the keys.

I began to rationalize in my mind!

"Leaving keys behind hardly makes a man elderly!

It could happen to anyone!"

I turned and headed back to the truck.

I slipped the key into the ignition, but it wouldn't turn. What now?

I checked my keys and tried another. Still nothing.

That's when I noticed the purple beads hanging from my rear view mirror. I had no purple beads hanging from my rear view mirror. Then, a few other objects came into focus: The car seat in the back seat. Happy Meal toys spread all over the floorboard. A partially eaten doughnut on the dashboard. Faster than you can say ginkgo biloba, I flew out of the alien vehicle.

Moments later I was speeding out of the parking lot, relieved to finally be leaving this nightmarish stop in my life. That is when I felt it, deep in the bowels of my stomach: hunger! My stomach growled and churned, and I reached to grab my burrito, only it was nowhere to be found. I swung the truck around, gathered my courage, and strode back into the restaurant one final time.

There Elmo stood, draped in youth and black nail polish.

All I could think was, "What is the world coming to?"

All I could say was, "Did I leave my food and drink in here?"

At this point I was ready to ask a Boy Scout to help me back to my vehicle, and then go straight home and apply for Social Security benefits.

Elmo had no clue.

I walked back out to the truck, and suddenly a young lad came up and tugged on my jeans to get my attention. He was holding up a drink and a bag.

His mother explained, "I think you left this in my truck by mistake."

I took the food and drink from the little boy and sheepishly apologized.

She offered these kind words:

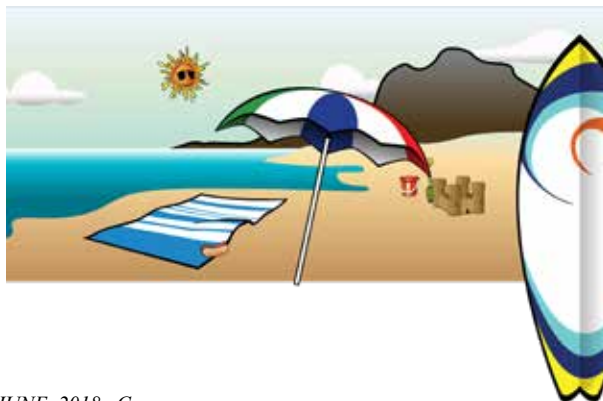

"It's OK. My grandfather does stuff like this all the time."

All of this is to explain how I got a ticket doing 85 in a 40 mph zone.

Yessss, I was racing some punk kid in a Toyota Prius.

And no, I told the officer, I'm not too old to be driving this fast.

As I walked in the front door, my wife met me halfway down the hall. I handed her a bag of cold food and a $300 speeding ticket. I promptly sat in my rocking chair and covered up my legs with a blanket. The good news was that I had successfully found my way home.

Monthly Mania: It Pays (Up to $100) To Patronize the Advertisers in Your Newsletter

THOUSANDS manufactured home residents have won over $139,600 since our contest began. It's simple to play ... when you patronize a current advertiser, ask for a Monthly Mania ticket (or a reasonable facsimile) and fill it out completely. Put the ticket in our Monthly Mania drop box in your community or mail your paid receipt to us at Monthly Media • 220 Bahama St. • Venice, FL 34285. That's all you do. At the end of the month the Publishers will pick up the tickets and hold a drawing. If your ticket is drawn, we mail you a check.
