LETTER FROM THE PRESIDENT

Kerry Ellis

After almost 2 months as President of the social Club, I have to say it has been quite interesting. It feels good to help with the planning for this years future events and activities. It is a challenge but also rewarding. With the changing of Saturday Coffee to 9:00 we consistently have 60 plus attending. With our Northern friends slowly heading home for the summer, I am sure we will drop those numbers, but lets get our full time neighbors to start coming! We have many Summer events coming up and I hope we have excellent attendance at these functions also. I am going to put an events calendar on the bulletin board so everyone will know what is coming up and when. I want to thank Steve and Park owners for a wonderful Chicken Picnic! It was a lot of fun and lots of great food.

Paper Tole

We completed our 2015 season this past Saturday, March 28th at Koffe Klatch. A great display of pictures from the tolers' works was on display for all the people to see and to ask any question they might have. It was decided to leave the display up for the chicken picnic crowd to view also. A 10 minute video of the Paper Tolars at work during the past year was presented which the audience seemed to enjoy. Elke and I thank the tolers for a great year, and we hope to see everyone back in January, 2016. We also hope the enjoyment you see from this year's students will entice others to join us.

Elke and Gene

Japanese Garden Bowling League

We have completed our 2014/15 bowling season. It was a slow start but we managed to get a good year in anyway. We had 27 full time bowlers, and 3 spare bowlers competing for the prize money ($1300.00 ), and the bragging rights for 1st place. The banquet was held at Kally-K's restaurant in Dunedin. A 12 minute video was played with the bowlers as the stars doing their routines and antics at the bowling alleys. A lot of laughter and joking was had by all watching themselves have fun in the film. Our goal for next year is to have 8 complete teams at the start of the season which is the last of October or the first of November, exact time yet to be finalized. Kathy Currie and myself were re-elected to the league offices for the coming year. Anybody with an interest in have fun and making some $$$, please call Cathy or myself.

RESIDENTS CORNER

(BEHIND THE SCENES...Do you really know your neighbors)

We are so busy welcoming the new residents, how about some info on BECKY AND DAVE COLLINS.... I am sure you have seen them about the neighborhood with BO riding right along beside peacefully guarding by the bay..

They moved here from Xenia, Ohio in 1986 and have two children ages 44 and 43. They have been married 46 years and have 2 grandchildren... Three years ago, the oldest grandson won a second degree black belt.... I'm sure you have seen Dave riding around cutting lawns for the neighbors, stogie in hand.

Their positive aspect of Japanese Gardens are the view of the gulf, the friendly nice Tampa, he retired and then began his second position. Becky has been a lifelong domestic engineer ...not an easy task by any one who been one...or been without one....

Watch for next months surprise interview

(suggestions gladly accepted)

Thanks for your patience in my first edition, and moving towards improvement

Congratulations to Jay and Dorothy Ravener, who will be celebrating their 65 th Wedding Anniversary, with family and friends, May 28.
