PARADISE ISLAND UPDATE

Pat Walker, Association Secretary

A warm welcome back to our seasonal residents, hope your summer was not as hot and humid as ours and that you had an opportunity to spend lots of quality time enjoying activities with family and friends. All things considered, the summer months zoomed by and we were fortunate to be able to host several events for the permanent folks.

The October Hot Dog Night morphed into a mini Oktoberfest with bratwurst and sauerkraut added to the menu. Cheers, Prost and Oompa-pa! Sorry, could not locate an accordion player – much to everyone’s delight, I must say. We did not have a Halloween party but we did have a fun Pre-Halloween Trivia Night. Questions about ghosts, goblins, evil creatures, monster movies and things that go bump in the night kept everyone entertained. Many thanks to everyone who helped to make it a creepy evening.

So, what’s on the schedule for November, you ask....well several events – hope you will attend all of them. The Hobby Club has scheduled their 9th annual Arts & Crafts sale Saturday, November 16, from 9AM-1PM in the Paradise Island Clubhouse – come check it out. There are a variety of fun and practical items for your viewing and shopping pleasure. Don’t miss it. Next, “Special Bingo” on Thursday, November 21. At this twice-annual event, the games are crazy, the prizes higher, and the treat table is overloaded. Come try your hand – you may even find that you enjoy it. How about a pre-Thanksgiving Day Dinner? We thought it would be a good idea, so sign up to attend on Saturday, November 23, for a traditional dinner with turkey and all the trimmings.

And, last but not necessarily least, we gotta decorate for Christmas, so please join us on Saturday, November 30, at 9:30AM and lend your talents to decorate the clubhouse and the pool area. Many hands make for easy work – see you there!

Speaking of Christmas, the Paradise Island Christmas Dinner Party will be held on Saturday, December 14. Tickets will be available for purchase at the November meeting and all social events – or see Pat Walker #53. The cost for Association dues-paid members is $10.00 and tickets for non-members and visitors are $20.00. LAST DAY TO PURCHASE TICKETS: NOVEMBER 30.

I am disappointed to report that Steve Ray has resigned as 1st Vice President of the Paradise Island Association. In compliance with our bylaws, a special election to fill this position will take place no later than the January meeting. If you would like to nominate yourself or someone else for consideration, please contact President Lei Crance.

As a heads-up, the Park Office has traditionally been closed Thanksgiving Day and Friday following Thanksgiving Day which precludes any trash pickup.

Even though the world seems to be chaos, there is much to be thankful for. As the song lyrics advise: Count your blessings one by one.” The Association Executive Board extends wishes for a Happy Thanksgiving – enjoy the day with family and friends.

Treasure Cove Going Ons

Hello Treasure Cove,

My how time just passes by... November already!

And now that we have had a very successful Halloween Party, we move on to Thanksgiving. Treasure Cove will, of course, be having a Thanksgiving Celebration, watch your tube for details. Our Thanksgiving Celebration last year had quite the spread, and was so fun.

Until then, enjoy this beautiful weather and hope to see you out around the hood. If your new, please consider joining us at our festivities, we would love to have you.

Until then....

Written by Terri Salzburg, President

“GOINGS ON IN GUANA”

Ralph Crance, (acting President)

It's November – almost hard to believe! So let the games begin...

First of all, let's mark our calendars with the season's starting events:

Wednesday, November 6, 2019, 10:00 am is our first meeting and membership dues collection. Chickie and Lisa will make it as painless as possible. Please be nice to the Board.

Monday, November 11, 2019, 6:00 pm Pot Luck Kickoff Dinner. Glo Biggs in charge. Details to follow.

Saturday, November 23, 2019, 8:00 am – 1:00 pm, our Annual Pre-Christmas and Bake Sale. Now's the time to help Kay Tupper make this a special day. All of your White Elephant Treasurers are welcome, no clothes. Please bring them to the clubhouse (tables provided by the back door) all the way up to Thursday the 21st. News alert – Don Tupper, Baker Extraordinaire, would appreciate all baker volunteers. Don's efforts are responsible for dramatic sales revenue. Call Don at 319-530-4510.

Thanksgiving Day Dinner at 2:00 pm. This is a sign-up dinner. Details from our Entertainment Chairperson (Glo Biggs) will follow.

Just a “heads up” about early December. The Christmas Dinner Dance will be a Tuesday night, December 3rd (details to follow). The normal meeting date will be changed to Wednesday, December 11th. There will not be a separate Pot Luck Dinner in December.

The Usual, Uniform but Uncontrolled, Underwater-Undulations will be Ushered by Richard Lilley every Monday and Thursday – except Thanksgiving – at 9:30 am. U are welcome.

We all welcome “back” our temporary neighbors, but permanent friends. They make this next six months the party period!

I look forward to seeing all of you and welcoming new neighbors with hopes you join. Once again, let's break all sales records on the 23rd AND:

“Happy Thanksgiving”
We have a lot to be thankful for!

Ditch these financial bad habits

Want to handle your money better? Most of us do. The Motley Fool website advises breaking these three bad habits:

- Paying bills late. A few days or weeks may not seem to matter, but you'll be hit with late fees, interest, and damage to your credit rating. Do your best to pay all your bills on time. Set up reminders so you're always on schedule. Automatic payment is one reliable option.
- Accumulating too much debt. Not all debt is bad, as long as you manage it sensibly and pay it off in a reasonable time. If you can't pay off your credit cards and other debt by the end of the month, set up a budget that helps you monitor and control your spending before debt gets out of control and hurts your credit rating.
- Not saving. Putting money away can be difficult, but not saving any money is a mistake. You should have a reasonable cushion in case of emergencies—at least three months' worth of living expenses. Look for ways to cut costs, and set up a separate savings account so you're able to keep track of savings and spending money easily.

When and where to pay cash

Credit and debit cards are convenient, but sometimes you're better off using cash. The Reader's Digest website suggests keeping your card in your wallet in these situations:

- Tipping. Tipping in cash instead of adding it to your bill ensures that your server gets the full amount.
- Farmer's markets. Many vendors have credit card machines nowadays, but not all of them. And the machines can always go down because of a power outage or spotty Wi-Fi. Keep cash handy so you don't miss out.
- Minimum purchases. Coffee shops and other venues frequently have a $5 or $10 minimum for credit card purchases. Paying cash ensures you don't buy more than you need in order to meet the minimum.
- Private transactions. You want to buy a special gift for your spouse, but you don't want him or her seeing it on a credit card statement. Use cash to keep the transaction secret.

Money and beauty are defenses against the sorrows of this world, but neither can undo the past. Only time will conquer time. The way forward is the only way back to innocence and to peace.

Health insurance decisions can be confusing due to endless coverage changes and many policy types. Fortunately, there is someone who can work diligently to help and without cost to you – Michael Crotts, owner of Best Plan Choice.

Through his own healthcare experience Mr. Crotts learned the value of good health coverage and quality medical care. He dedicates his agency to helping people with Medicare and Medicaid needs. You can visit the office to learn about Medicare plan options or he will come to your home.

Every year your Medicare health plan coverage changes even if you do not change plans. Also, new products are introduced and many offer benefits beyond original Medicare and/or Medicaid plans. Baby Boomers had completely different insurance products during their working years. The indemnity and major medical policies are no longer the only choice and often do not meet the financial needs of consumers today.

Don't waste time trying to figure it out. Michael will sit with you and review all of the documents, and answer all of your questions. Most importantly, he will conduct a needs analysis to determine your individual needs – if you expect a hospitalization, use certain medicines, or want benefit like dental or vision – everything is taken into consideration.

Best Plan Choice is there to help you make the right choice and is available long after the policy is written. This means helping with doctor changes, plan questions, annual review of your benefits, and of course taking great care of any friend or family member you refer. At Best Plan Choice clients become friends, and friends become clients.

Brainstorming isn't the only solution

Fun fact: The man who popularized brainstorming in the 1940s also touted the benefits of solitude when searching for creative ideas. Alex Osborn's book, Your Creative Power, described how he brought a practice he'd seen in a previous job to the advertising firm BBD&O (he's the "O").

"The early participants dubbed our efforts 'Brainstorm Sessions,' and quite aptly so," the book says, "because, in this case, 'brainstorm' means using the brain to storm a creative problem—and do so in commando fashion, with each stormer attacking the same objective."

But he also advised solo thinking. "A good long shower or a hot tub often induces ideas. One reason is that while we bathe we are shut off from distracting influences." And he describes one particularly fruitful effort:

"Once when I faced a hard creative task, I went to an inn over 100 miles away. Not only was I uninterrupted—not only did I get away from routine—but, because I had made such effort to go so far solely to engage in creative effort, my imagination seemed to work far better. The very taking of that trip tended to sharpen my imagination."

Brainstorming can be useful, but it's not the only tactic for sparking your creativity.

An alphabetical guide to inspiration

Is creativity as simple as ABC? Harvey Mackay thinks so. The businessman and bestselling author shared his formula for innovation and inspiration in a column on the Daily Herald website. Here's how his list begins:

- A: Advertising. "Expand your brand beyond media-generated advertising. For example, we painted our company name and phone numbers on top of our delivery trucks so they were visible to people who worked on upper floors of tall buildings."
- B: Bold. "People are not inspired by ordinary messages, so give them a reason to remember you."
- C: Curious. "Curiosity may not have been good for the cat, but it's a winning formula for people."
- D: Different. "Don't be afraid to do things that have never been tried before. You have to have enough faith in yourself to trust your instincts."
- E: Everyone. "I firmly believe that everyone has the capacity to be creative, if only they allow themselves to be."

(For the full list, go to https://www.heraldextra.com/business/harvey-mackay-the-creativity-abcs/article_f3703366-1c06-5178-9225-cb821c1a054e.html.)

Add more plant-based foods to your diet for better heart health

Even if you're not a vegetarian, this information may come in handy. According to the Science Daily website, a new study suggests that cutting back on animal-based foods and eating more plant-based foods may lead to a healthier heart.

Researchers analyzed data on food intake from more than 10,000 middle-aged adults in the United States who participated in a study from 1987 through 2016. None of them had any cardiovascular disease at the outset of the study. The researchers looked at the proportion of plant-based food the participants ate compared to animal-based foods. Those who ate the most plant-based meals had a 16% lower risk of cardiovascular disease (heart attack, stroke, heart failure, and other conditions), a 32% lower risk of dying from a cardiovascular disease, and a 25% lower risk of death in general compared with those who ate the least amount of plant-based food.

Meanwhile, another study reported on the Harvard T.H. Chan School of Health website suggests that a plant-based diet may help ward off type 2 diabetes. Researchers looked at data from nine studies that included health data from more than 300,000 participants, of whom 23,544 had type 2 diabetes. Their review of adherence to an overall predominantly plant-based diet found that people with the highest adherence had a 23% lower risk of type 2 diabetes than those with weaker adherence to the diets.

You may not have to go completely vegan, but cutting out meat and eating more fruits, vegetables, legumes, and whole grains can have a positive effect on your physical well-being.

Top states for top health care

Where you live can affect the quality of the health care you receive. The WalletHub website analyzed the 50 states and the District of Columbia, measuring cost, accessibility, and outcomes. Here are the top 10 states for good health care:

1. Minnesota
2. Massachusetts
3. Rhode Island
4. District of Columbia
5. Vermont
6. New Hampshire
7. Hawaii
8. Maine
9. North Dakota
10. Iowa

The bottom five: Arkansas, South Carolina, Mississippi, North Carolina, and Alaska.

Monthly

November. An annual event featuring the growing of moustaches to raise awareness of men's health issues, such as prostate cancer, testicular cancer, and men's suicide. The charity event is run by the Movember Foundation, on the web at Movember.com. The goal of Movember is to "change the face of men's health."

National Epilepsy Awareness Month. One in 26 people will be diagnosed with epilepsy. National Epilepsy Awareness Month in November is an annual event that teaches people about epilepsy's causes and symptoms. During this month, many organizations join together to provide information about prevention, treatment, research, and resources to fight epilepsy.

National Family Stories Month. With Thanksgiving just around the corner, many of us will be reconnecting with family members and listen as grandma and grandpa talk about "the good old days." All the stories that get passed around this time of year give us a great opportunity to learn about our heritage.

National Novel Writing Month. National Novel Writing Month (NaNoWriMo) is a fun, seat-of-your-pants approach to creative writing. On Nov. 1, participants begin working toward the goal of completing a 50,000-word novel by 11:59 p.m. on Nov. 30. Emphasizing enthusiasm, determination, and a deadline, NaNoWriMo is for anyone who has ever thought about writing a novel.

Weekly

National Animal Shelter Appreciation Week, Nov. 3–9. National Animal Shelter Appreciation Week recognizes shelters that provide care and bridge the gap to adoption for many abandoned and stray animals. Get to know your local animal shelter, and learn the types of support it needs to continue to provide services to the animals and community it serves.

Geography Awareness Week, Nov. 10–16. National Geographic magazine created Geography Awareness Week to raise awareness about the deficiency in geographic knowledge among Americans and excite people about geography as both a discipline and as a part of everyday life.

Global Entrepreneurship Week, Nov. 18–24. Connect with a vibrant ecosystem of entrepreneurs, investors, researchers, policymakers, and other startup champions in 170+ countries. Tens of thousands of events, activities, and competitions take place during Global Entrepreneurship Week each year. Find one near you.

American Education Week, Nov. 18–22. American Education Week presents all Americans with a wonderful opportunity to celebrate public education and honor individuals who are making a difference in ensuring that every child receives a high-quality education. 2019's theme will be reflected in special observances each day of the weeklong celebration.

Reading makes people better, study suggests

Do you read a lot? If so, chances are you're more kind and empathetic than most people, according to a study reported on the Peace Quarters website.

Researchers in Great Britain asked 123 people about their reading or television watching habits. Then they analyzed participants' social skills, asking questions like, "How often do you consider other people's points of view versus your own?" and "Do you go out of your way to actively help others?"

The results showed that the book readers, usually considered introverted and antisocial, displayed more empathetic traits than people who primarily watch TV. The genre of books seemed to make a difference, with readers of romance and drama showing more empathy and skill at seeing things through another person's eyes.

Of course, it could be that empathetic people tend to read more, instead of reading creating more empathy. Either way, it's good news for bookworms.

Have a safe Thanksgiving

When you fire up the oven to roast your Thanksgiving turkey, you're probably not thinking about tragedy. But home fires are the most common disaster in the United States, and cooking is the leading cause of those fires. Thanksgiving Day is the unfortunate host to about 4,000 fires each year. Here are some safety tips to keep your Thanksgiving fire-free:

- Stay in the kitchen and keep watch while you are cooking.
- Use a timer if you have something in the oven or are boiling or simmering something on the stove.
- Don't wear loose sleeves or loose clothing when cooking.
- Keep anything that can catch on fire—pot holders, oven mitts, towels, etc.—away from your stovetop or oven.
- Turkey fryers are extremely dangerous, and most safety organizations do not recommend their use.
- Make sure you have a smoke alarm installed with working batteries. Push the button to check that it's working every month, and install new batteries at least once a year.
- After your guests leave, do a home safety check to make sure that all candles are extinguished and all of your cooking appliances are turned off.
