INDEPENDENCE DAY CELEBRATION AT LAKE HIGHLANDER

The 4th of July was a typical hot July day with some rain. But it didn't stop Lake Highlander residents from enjoying the day.

We had a golf cart parade of one with Bob Frazier's decorated cart. Thank you, Bob, for starting our day off right!

Bob Frazier's Parade of One

In the afternoon a small group of residents participated in a corn hole tournament. The event started in the pool area but due to rain was moved to the covered shuffleboard court to complete the tournament. After a sweaty competition the winning team was Gloria MacMillan and Warren Bowman.

Shuffleboard organizer Bob Bernier

Amy Haynes, Gloria MacMillan, and Pat Reynolds

George Longhurst, Dean Reynolds, J P St. Laurent, and Fuzz Haynes

Gloria MacMillan and Jan Schultz compete during the elimination round

At 4:00, a potluck dinner – with fried chicken provided by the Social Club – was enjoyed by all. Those who had served in the military were recognized for their contribution in keeping our country free. You are never alone on a holiday at Lake Highlander unless you choose to be!

Amy Haynes, Tanya Lewis, Jill Musgrove, Riley “Junior” Musgrove, Jack Enberg, Millie Beaulieu, and Fuzz Haynes

A photograph of a person wearing a red cap and a plaid shirt, fishing on a boat. The sun is low on the horizon, creating a warm, golden glow over the water. The person is holding a fishing rod that is curved, suggesting they have caught a fish. The background shows a calm body of water and distant hills under a clear sky.

LAKE HIGHLANDER NIGHT AT SPECTRUM FIELD

The 4th of July is synonymous with fireworks. The 3rd of July at Spectrum Field is an annual early showing of a spectacular fireworks display in honor of our country's founding. Sharon Shedd has been kind enough to secure tickets to this annual Threshers ballgame for several years so Lake Highlander residents can enjoy the event. For $15 we enjoyed food, comradery, a ballgame, and fireworks. Thank you, Sharon!

FLORIDA TRAVELOG – KENNEDY SPACE CENTER

By Jan Schultz

In our desire to see the wonderful sites of our adopted state, we visited the Kennedy Space Center two years ago. From its humble beginnings which showcased NASA and the space program, it has become a world-class tourist destination. The facility is operated by an outside vendor and no tax dollars go toward its operation. It is open 365 days a year. Senior admission is $50, and parking is $10.

If you plan on going to the Space Center, please be aware that there is a lot of walking involved if you wish to see the entire facility, but it is wheelchair accessible. Be prepared to spend the whole day to see the Center in its entirety. A bus tour to the launch pad is included with the admission price.

The park is organized into Mission Zones. In the Heroes & Legends Zone you will learn the stories of NASA's space pioneers. The Race to the Moon Zone reviews the Apollo and Saturn programs. You will relive that exciting time when Americans reveled in the accounts of the race to the moon. This zone takes you from the days leading up to the first launch to the moon landings which followed. The Saturn V rocket, the largest rocket ever flown, is displayed here.

The next area is the Shuttle Zone. See the permanent home of the Space Shuttle Atlantis, remember the crews of the fatal Space Shuttle Challenger and Space Shuttle Columbia, learn about the Hubble Space Telescope and the International Space Station. For the young-at-heart, participate in the Shuttle Launch Simulator or slide down the re-entry slide.

In the NASA Now + Next Zone, find out about current missions to the International Space Station and upcoming missions to explore deep space. View the earth like an astronaut in 3D films at the IMAX Theater. Children will enjoy testing their skills as a recruit and seeing the Mars Rover Vehicle Navigator concept vehicle. Food vendors can be found in each zone, though during busy times you may have trouble finding a place to sit down.

The drive to the Kennedy Space Center on Merritt Island is approximately 150 miles. That's quite a distance to drive to and from Dunedin plus see the exhibits in one day. Plan on making this a several-day getaway and stay nearby. It is a fairly short distance from Orlando or Daytona. We chose to combine our visit to the Space Center with a visit to Daytona Beach. I really enjoyed this glimpse into our space program's history.

"...I am so happy with my new windows...I'd like to commend your work crew. Earbie and Larry were fantastic! I couldn't believe the clean-up EVERYDAY! The whole job took just a week even with all the rain delays. I would and WILL highly recommend your company to my friends and neighbors. Of course I won't need to say a word - the house is doing all the talking! Thank you so much for my beautiful new house."

Carol Zapiecki, Clearwater, FL

"Just a short note to express my appreciation for the work done on my mobile home. The crews that worked here...were gentlemen at all times, efficient, knowledgeable and prompt. You can be sure if I run into anybody who needs your type of work, I will surely recommend your company. It has been a very satisfying experience!"

TRIVIA QUIZ

Where is the world's least populated city?

Answer: Vatican City With a paltry population of 842, the city-state of Vatican City is the smallest city and state in the world.

Where is the world's wealthiest city?

Tokyo, Japan. Tokyo tops the charts with a GDP of $1,520 billion, beating New York City by a mere $310 billion.

Where is the world's poorest city in the poorest country?

Kinshasa, Congo. It is the poorest city in the Democratic Republic of the Congo, which is also the poorest country in the world, at a GDP of $55 billion. Many of its residents live on less $1 a day.

What is the highest point in the world?

Mount Everest. Towering 29,029 feet in the air, the top of Mount Everest is the closest you can get to touching outer space while still standing on Earth.

Where is the lowest point in the world?

The Challenger Deep Trench It is the lowest known natural point in the world at 35,797 ft. below sea level at the bottom of the Mariana Trench. Only three people have ever made it to the bottom in a submersible, one of which was filmmaker James Cameron.

What is the most photographed place in the U.S.?

The Guggenheim building in New York. Photos have always told stories, but in today's world of cell phone cameras and social media, that story is relayed as data to companies who monitor everything we do. Geotagged data was culled by Sights map using a Google-based image sharing software and can show us the most photographed places in the world, right down to this landmark. The strange winner is this building in New York City. Guess it impresses a lot of visitors.

Where is the wettest spot on Earth? (and it's not the Amazon!)

Mawsynram, India. In this city in India, it rains an average of 467.35 inches per year, and has a record of 1000 inches in 1985...much more than any rain forest!

Where is the driest spot on Earth? (It's not the Sahara!)

The Atacama Desert. The 600 miles of South America's Atacama Desert is recorded as the driest place on Earth, no contest. This desert has an average of only 4 inches of rain every hundred years. Incredible, but true.

What city claims to be the sunniest place in the U.S.?

Yuma, Arizona. In this city in Arizona, the sun shines for an average of 11 hours a day. The usual forecast is sun for 90 percent of the year, averaging a total of 4015 daylight hours each year.

HISTORICAL INFORMATION ABOUT PINELLAS COUNTY

This information has been gleaned from It's No Bull: The True Story of the Taming of Northeast Pinellas County by Arthur F. Olds. [Note: This book can be found in the Lake Highlander Library in the General Interest section.]

- Spanish Conquistador, Panfilo de Narvaez, landed in the area on April 15, 1528. The land was covered with lush greenery and large pine trees which prompted its name, “Punta Pinal” which means point of pines.
- Narvaez’s expedition consisted of five large ships carrying 400 soldiers, 60 horses, and packs of fierce dogs to chase Indians. The natives fiercely resisted them and often drove the explorers back to their ships as they defended their homeland.
- Eleven years later Hernando DeSoto landed here, bringing six ships into what is now known as Tampa Bay. He named the bay La Bahia del Espiritu Santo, meaning Bay of the Holy Spirit. The specific area where he landed is now known as Safety Harbor.
- DeSoto’s group camped around a spring and found that it seemed to have restorative powers for the weary and ill. It became known as Espiritu Santo Springs and is now Safety Harbor Spa.
- In the late 1800’s, Madame Curie found that the waters of the springs had radioactive properties.
- DeSoto reported seeing buffalo in the northern region of Florida.
- In 1832, Odet Phillippe introduced the grapefruit-like “shaddock” to the area. He was the first to cultivate citrus in rows. The shaddock had the flavor and texture of grapefruit but was the size of a basketball.
- Phillippe founded the first permanent white settlement in the area which is now known as Safety Harbor.
- In 1842 the Seminole Wars had ended, and the U.S. Government passed the Armed Occupation Act to help rid the area of hostile Indians. The act allowed pioneers 160 acres of land if they were the head of a household, were armed and had enough ammunition to protect their family and property, and would live on and improve it for five years.
- James Stephens, the Father of Clearwater, was awarded the first deed on the Pinellas peninsula in 1848. His homestead was to include the lands and buildings of the old Fort Harrison.
- Fort Harrison was established by the U.S. Army in 1841 as a place for wounded soldiers to recover since the area was known to be so healthful.
- During this time, to go across the bay from Pinellas to Hillsborough County was difficult. Travelers had to go around the north end of the bay. The jungle-like landscape would regrow between trips making each passage difficult. Crossing by boat was not a good option due to the lack of navigational aids. A sudden thunderstorm or nightfall made travel by water treacherous.

HE'S A KEEPER

At my grandparents' 50th wedding anniversary, I was looking through a photo album of their marriage ceremony. "Grandma, so many of these styles have come back over the years," I commented.

Grandma never hesitated. "That's why I've kept Grandpa all this time," she said. "I know he'll be back in style again one of these days."

HAPPY BIRTHDAY GREETINGS

After much convincing from my husband, I finally agreed to call an old family friend and sing 'Happy Birthday' to her. It was only after I finished singing that the voice on the other end of the line informed me that it was the wrong number.

"Oh, I'm sorry," I said, embarrassed.

"It's okay," the voice said. "You can use all of the practice you can get."

IT'S ONLY A SPOT

My mother, a meticulous housekeeper, often lectured my father about tracking dirt into the house. One day he came into the house to find her furiously scrubbing away at a spot on the floor and launching into a lecture.

"I don't know what you've brought in," she said, "but I can't seem to get this out."

He studied the situation for a moment and, without a word, moved a figurine on the windowsill where the sun was streaming in. The spot immediately disappeared. Not a word was said!

DEAR DIARY

Wife's Diary:

Dear Diary, Tonight I thought my husband was acting strange. We went to a nice restaurant for dinner. I thought he was upset by the fact that I was a bit late, but he said nothing about it. I asked him what was wrong. He said, 'Nothing.' I asked him if it was something I had done. He said he wasn't upset, that it had nothing to do with me, and not to worry about it. On the way home, I told him that I loved him. He smiled slightly and kept driving. I can't explain his behavior. I don't know why he didn't say, 'I love you, too.' When we got home, I felt as if I had lost him completely, and again he said nothing. He continued to seem distant and absent. Finally, I decided to go to bed. About 15 minutes later, he came to bed. He fell asleep – I cried. I don't know what to do. I'm sure his thoughts are with someone else. My life is a disaster.

Husband's Diary:

Dear Diary, Boat wouldn't start. Can't figure it out.
