HOW TO CELEBRATE A BIRTHDAY DURING THE CORONAVIRUS

1. Have a virtual celebration. Create a Zoom account or use Google Hangout. Both will allow a number of people to be online together at the same time. I have heard of people having dinner “together” while on Zoom. So why not celebrate your birthday that way? Just send out invitations for the date and time.
2. Order take out food from your favorite restaurant. Or have it delivered. Then set a beautiful table with candles.
3. If celebrating a friend’s birthday, organize a drive-by event. Have everyone honk their horns as they drive by.
4. Send a donation to your favorite charity in honor of your birthday. Charities are really hurting for money right now.

HOW TO CELEBRATE AN ANNIVERSARY DURING THE CORONAVIRUS

1. Having been through this, here’s what Steve and I did [instead of being on a sunset dinner cruise in Hawaii as we had planned]. We spent the day driving around to see places we had not been before and then ordered dinner in and watched a DVD movie.
2. Put on some music and dance.
3. Write a letter to each other.
4. Remember other anniversaries. See which of you can remember more anniversary celebrations than the other.

Lake Highlander free of this virus and to support one another when we need spirits lifted or some other gesture of kindness. Another positive aspect of this experience is to see how the human spirit can soar in times of difficulty. It's amazing to read and see what people have done, both individually and collectively, to create something new, teach others and themselves something new, stay connected to others, and to share time and resources with those in need.

Speaking of lifting spirits, the pool resurfacing project has been completed and by now I'm sure those residents who enjoy the pool have been doing so on a regular basis. The road seal coating project is also completed. The board appreciates the cooperation given from the residents during this project, which helped things to proceed efficiently. Now that these two projects are over, the property of Lake Highlander is truly in excellent shape. Our Reserve Fund was sufficiently prepared to pay for these two projects and the fund continues to be appropriately funded to handle future anticipated needs. This is reassuring for Lake Highlander's financial future.

Lastly, I would like to thank our employees. Both the office staff and the maintenance guys have continued to work on a regular basis. We are so fortunate to have these individuals who not only do excellent work, but truly value and care about this community. Next time you happen to have the opportunity, please extend a thank you. In the same manner, the board extends a thank you to all residents who are volunteering time and effort to keep the community running smoothly. We appreciate each of you!

We will get through this difficult time and knowing we are doing so together is a blessing. Take care and stay strong.

RULES AND REGULATIONS 6-2

This process is to help assure all parties involved are aware of the parameters of the requested project and to oversee the final result. If you should have any questions regarding this process, please contact the office. Thank you.

MANAGERS UPDATE:

You all know as well as I do that the past couple of months have been both stressful and worrisome. Since we were going to be shut down until further notice we decided to use the time and get some projects completed. The first was the resurfacing of the pool and the second is the sealcoating scheduled for the week of May 18th.

While all of this was going on you have all remained patient, caring, and cooperative and it has been much appreciated.

The office will continue shut down throughout May and then reassess the situation.

Thank you for your understanding and humor. We are hoping life will get back to normal soon, but we also hope to maintain the positive changes that the past few months brought out in all of us.

Beth

PINELLAS COUNTY PARKS

By Jan Schultz

With the beaches and our pool closed most of March and April, Steve and I, in search of exercise, began exploring Pinellas County parks. I am constantly amazed at how many green spaces Pinellas County has. The good thing is, they can be explored at any time of year and not just in times of “safer at home.” So, here is a list of our favorite parks:

- A. L. Anderson Park – This park has hilly vistas overlooking Tarpon Lake and Salmon Bay. We visited in for the first time in early May and were pleasantly surprised. Here you will find picnic pads, and elevated boardwalk, and a nature trail among they cypress trees along the Salmon Bay shoreline. The park has a boat launch for those who enjoy kayaking and fishing piers. You will see alligators here. The park is east side of 19 and north of Klosterman.
- Brooker Creek Preserve – This 8,700-acre preserve has trails which meander through a wetlands area. You can find it east of 19 on Keystone Road. (Tarpon Road becomes Keystone.) You can also access the preserve if you take McMullen Booth north (it will turn into Lake Road) and go east on Keystone Road.
- John Chestnut Senior Park – This is the first park we were told about when we first moved to Lake Highlander. We were told it was the place to go to see alligators. Well, we have been there many times and have never seen alligators, but we have observed small deer on many of the occasions. There is a boardwalk along Tarpon Lake and the trail extends into the woods from there. We usually access the trail from picnic shelter 9 or 10. To find the park, go east on Main Street or Curlew to McMullen Booth. Go north on McMullen Booth, which becomes East Lake Rd. north of Tampa Rd. It is on the west side of East Lake Rd.
- Eagle Lake Park – This 163-acre park once belonged to the Taylor family, one of the original pioneer families in Pinellas County. This park has trails and wetlands and is home to many water turtles. You can see all sizes of them in the lake. The trail is a 12-foot wide paved path, with boardwalks over the wetlands. Eagle Lake Park is on the west side of Keene, just south of Bellaire.
- Fort Desoto – The largest park within the Pinellas County Park System, Fort DeSoto is 1,136 acres and made up of five interconnected islands (or keys). Trip advisor named Fort DeSoto beach America’s Top Beach in 2009. In addition to the beaches there is a seven-mile paved path connecting North Beach, East Beach, a boat ramp, and the camping area. If you enjoy history, Fort DeSoto is also home to a historic fort and sits on the section of the park on Mullet Key. The fort was built during the Spanish-American War to help protect our shores from Spanish invasion from Cuba. It was given its name upon its completion in April 1900. In 1948, Mullet Key was sold to Pinellas County.
- Fred Howard Park – While known for its quiet beach, Howard Park is also a great place to picnic overlooking the water or to walk a sandy trail which skirts the picnic areas.
- Lake Seminole – We first discovered Lake Seminole when we went to visit Bob Weinkauff in his assisted living facility nearby. The park has a 2-mile long trail that winds through a pine fatwoods forest. A 1-mile cut-off is available if you need to shorten your walk. You can find Lake Seminole on the north side of Park Blvd.

- Moccasin Lake Nature Park – This a city of Clearwater park/preserve. Moccasin Lake is a 51-acre nature preserve with trails and boardwalks under a canopy of mature oaks and across ponds and creeks, with an array of wildlife including gopher turtles, raccoons, and many birds. It is home to several injured birds of prey. It's a great place to take your younger grandchildren to see the rescued birds and animals. And it's free. You may see alligators as you walk around the lake. The park was not open during the COVID-19 shut-down, but the Clearwater website indicated its opening in early May. The park is east of 19 and north of Drew. Turn left at the Grand Villa of Clearwater.
- Philippe Park – Many of you are already familiar with this park just north of Safety Harbor, as we have held our annual park picnic here for many years. It is the oldest park in Pinellas County and sits on north Tampa Bay. A one-mile shoreline path is suitable for strolling. A focal point of the park is the temple mound, built by the Tocobaga Native American tribe. Archaeologists believe there was a town plaza at the base of the mound. The park bears the name of Count Odet Philippe who introduced cigar making and citrus to Florida. Philippe was the first permanent non-native settler on the Pinellas County peninsula. If you explore the areas of the park away from the water, you can eventually find a memorial to the Count. He is buried within the park but his grave site is unknown.
- Cliff Stephens Park – This is a city of Clearwater Park and boasts trails for biking, hiking, and inline skating. There is also a disc golf course and a 19-station exercise course. The park is on Fairwood Ave., north of Drew and east of 19. The park trail connects to Kapok Park which is a 1-mile loop trail. Kapok Park can also be accessed from McMullen Booth.
- Wall Springs Park – This park has a boardwalk skirting around an historic natural spring. There is also a paved path which goes back to an observation tower overlooking the Gulf. It is west of 19-A, north of Alderman.
- Weedon Island Preserve – The preserve is a natural area on Tampa Bay, north of St. Petersburg. It is a habitat for many kinds of animals including oysters, stingrays, and small sharks. The indigenous people – the Weeden – first occupied this area. It is a well-known birding and fishing site. The trail winding through the preserve is a boardwalk. Also on the site is the Weedon Island Preserve Cultural and Natural History Center. To find the preserve, go east on Gandy from 19. Before you get to the Gandy Bridge, turn south onto San Martin Blvd.

In addition to these wonderful walking parks, be sure to visit the Florida Botanical Gardens and the Heritage Village. They are located west of Starkey on the east side of Ulmerton Road at the Pinellas County Extension Office grounds. Explore the beautiful gardens or delve into history by walking through the living history museum which is made up of many historic homes and buildings.

All the above parks are free except Fort DeSoto and Fred Howard Park. They require a $5 per-car use fee. (The walking path and picnic grounds of Howard Park are free, but a parking fee is needed at the beach parking.)

As we journey together through the uncharted territory of COVID-19, remember these words of strength:

Peace I leave with you; my peace I give you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled and do not be afraid.

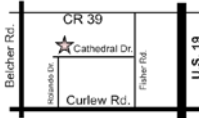

John 14:27

VIEWS FROM AROUND THE PARK

At this date, May 11, COVID-19 is still a threat and very much in the news and on our minds. I can hope that by the time you read this, the threat is much diminished, but I don't hold out much hope for that. Lake Highlander residents are still keeping a safe distance between themselves and those they meet while staying isolated indoors as much as possible, as evident from our vacant streets. We are looking forward to the re-opening of the pool which has new tile and a fresh sealer.

As Bud and Pat Howell make their rounds of the park on their golf cart they frequently stop to chat with Marilyn Hale. They sit in their golf cart and Marilyn sits on her porch. Karen Judson, Becky Holender, and Judy Walling can frequently be found on the east side of the lake looking west toward the sunset. Don Hansen still does his daily walk around the lake. Oscar and Dot Leger are usually found on their carport in the early evening chatting with their daughter and son-in-law, Lisa and Jack LaPointe. Mike and Kathy Bergan have found a way to play a social distance game with Susan and Richard Zerbe. I saw them playing a game called Codenames on their computers. Each couple were on opposites of a table on the Bergan's carport. The game can be found online at Horsepaste.com.

Eye Test answer:

There are 6 “F”s.

Read it again and try to find all 6 F’s. The brain doesn’t process the word “of.”

HEALTH TIPS

Submitted by Margaret French

How old would I be if I didn't know my age?

Something to think about. It might be good to look at some tips to help us perceive our age and challenge ourselves. You might have some positive thoughts about yourself . . . "I think I look and feel pretty good for my age " or, not so positive thoughts . . . "I really think I am 'over the hill' – with no returning! How we perceive ourselves has a huge influence on how we present ourselves and how we conduct our lives.

A few months back in a Piper article, I mentioned that I thought it was a helpful idea to give some thought as to how we want to develop our lives for the next 5 years.

This exercise seems to embrace and encourage us to make the "Most of our age."

Being Retired now gives us opportunities to try some new challenges. Trying something new is always exciting and usually very fulfilling, and, also has a beneficial effect on the brain. Something that you might not have done well years ago, may now come easier to you. As we age, we become more centered on seeing patterns. Research shows that older people report being more emotionally stable, happy, and content after they tackle and accomplish a task. (Don't forget to celebrate your successes!)

Take time now to spend more time on healthy eating. Take time to move more. Staying physically active keeps your energy up and your brain sharp. These 2 things – healthy eating and moving physically are difficult to begin but they are so important to focus on.

The age we feel we are can greatly impact our future. I hope we all can say . . . "I look and feel pretty good for my Age"

QUIZ FOR PEOPLE WHO KNOW EVERYTHING

(Answers at the end of the quiz)

1. Name the one sport in which neither the spectators nor the participants know the score or the leader until the contest ends.
2. What famous North American landmark is constantly moving backward?
3. Of all vegetables, only two can live to produce on their own for several growing seasons. All other vegetables must be replanted every year. What are the only two perennial vegetables?
4. What fruit has its seeds on the outside?
5. In many liquor stores you can buy pear brandy, with a real pear inside the bottle. The pear is whole and ripe, and the bottle is genuine; it hasn't been cut in any way. How did the pear get inside the bottle?

AN EMERGENCY IS STILL AN EMERGENCY. EVEN DURING THIS EMERGENCY.

Don't hesitate when it comes to getting emergency treatment.

Even during a pandemic, you still need to be treated immediately if you have an emergency. Debating whether or not to risk going to an emergency room during a heart attack, stroke or other health emergency—waiting even a few extra minutes—could be harmful. That's why in all BayCare hospital emergency rooms, patients who have symptoms of COVID-19 are screened and treated in a separate area. This helps keep emergency room patients and our team members safe. So if it's an emergency, don't wait. For more information: BayCareEmergencyCare.org

LIVING IN A COVID-19 WORLD:

Submitted by Al Szynski

- 2019: Stay away from negative people. 2020: Stay away from positive people.
- The world has turned upside down. Old folks are sneaking out of the house, and their kids are yelling at them to stay indoors!
- You think it's bad now? In 20 years, our country will be run by people homeschooled by day drinkers.
- This virus has done what no woman has been able to do ... cancel all sports, shut down all bars, and keep men at home!!!
- Do not call the police on suspicious people in your neighborhood! Those are your neighbors without makeup and hair extensions!
- Since we can't eat out, now's the perfect time to eat better, get fit, and stay healthy. We're quarantined! Who are we trying to impress? We have snacks, we have sweatpants – I say we use them!
- Day 7 at home and the dog is looking at me like, "See? This is why I chew the furniture!"
- Does anyone know if we can take showers yet or should we just keep washing our hands???
- I never thought the comment "I wouldn't touch him/her with a 6 foot pole" would become a national policy, but here we are!
- Me: Alexa, what's the weather this weekend? Alexa: It doesn't matter – you're not going anywhere.
- Can everyone please just follow the government instructions so we can knock out this coronavirus and be done?! I feel like a kindergartner who keeps losing more recess time because one or two kids can't follow directions.
- I swear my fridge just said, "What the heck do you want now?"
- When this is over ... what meeting do I attend first ... Weight Watchers or AA?
- Quarantine has turned us into dogs. We roam the house all day looking for food. We are told "no" if we get too close to strangers, and we get really excited about car rides.

ANGEL PENNIES

Submitted by Olive Bly

I found a penny today
Just laying on the ground,
But it's not just a penny,
This little coin I've found.
Found pennies come from Heaven,
That's what my Grandpa told me.
He said Angels toss them down.
Oh, how I loved that story.

He said when an angel misses you
They toss a penny down,
Sometimes just to cheer you up
To make a smile out of your frown.
So, don't pass by that penny
When you're feeling blue,
I may be a penny from heaven
That an angel has tossed to you.

ORDERING PIZZA IN 2020

Submitted by Joyce Huntley

CALLER:
Is this Gordon's Pizza?
GOOGLE:
No sir, it's Google Pizza.

CALLER:
I must have dialed a wrong number. Sorry.
GOOGLE:
No sir, Google bought Gordon's Pizza last month.

CALLER:
OK. I would like to order a pizza.
GOOGLE:
Do you want your usual, sir?

CALLER:

My usual? You know me?

GOOGLE:

According to our caller ID data sheet, the last 12 times you called you ordered an extra-large pizza with three cheeses, sausage, pepperoni, mushrooms and meatballs on a thick crust.

CALLER:

OK! That's what I want ...

GOOGLE:

May I suggest that this time you order a pizza with ricotta, arugula, sun-dried tomatoes and olives on a whole wheat gluten-free thin crust?

CALLER:

What? I detest vegetable!

GOOGLE:

Your cholesterol is not good, sir.

CALLER:

How the heck do you know!

GOOGLE:

Well, we cross-referenced your home phone number with your medical records. We have the result of your blood tests for the last 7 years.

CALLER:

Okay, but I do not want your rotten vegetable pizza! I already take medication for my cholesterol.

GOOGLE:

Excuse me sir, but you have not taken your medication regularly. According to our database, you purchased only a box of 30 cholesterol tablets once, at Drug RX Network, 4 months ago.

CALLER:

I bought more from another drugstore.

GOOGLE:

That doesn't show on your credit card statement.

CALLER:

I paid in cash.

GOOGLE:

But you did not withdraw enough cash according to your bank statement.

CURE FOR A LAWYER

Submitted by Szynski

A Chinese doctor opens a clinic and puts a sign outside that reads: “GET TREATMENT FOR $20 – IF NOT CURED GET BACK $100.”

An American lawyer thinks this a great opportunity to earn $100 and goes to the clinic.

Lawyer: “I have lost my sense of taste.”

Chinese: “Nurse, bring medicine from box no. 22 and put 3 drops in patient’s mouth.”

Lawyer: “Ugh. This is kerosene.”

Chinese: “Congrats, your sense of taste is restored. Give me $20.”

The annoyed lawyer goes back after a few days to recover his money.

Lawyer: “I have lost my memory. I cannot remember anything.”

Chinese: “Nurse, bring medicine from box no. 22 and put 3 drops in his mouth.”

Lawyer (annoyed): “This is kerosene. You gave this to me last time for restoring my taste.”

Chinese: “Congrats! You got your memory back. Give me $20.

The fuming lawyer pays him, and then comes back a week later determined to get back $100.

Lawyer: My eyesight has become very weak. I can’t see at all.”

Chinese: “Well, I don’t have medicine for that, so take this $100.

Lawyer (staring at the money): “But this is $20, not $100!!!”

Chinese: “Congrats, your eyesight is restored. Give me $20.”

"...I am so happy with my new windows...I'd like to commend your work crew. Earbie and Larry were fantastic! I couldn't believe the clean-up EVERYDAY! The whole job took just a week even with all the rain delays. I would and WILL highly recommend your company to my friends and neighbors. Of course I won't need to say a word – the house is doing all the talking! Thank you so much for my beautiful new house."
