From Gloria!

Hi everybody- I hope that you are all having a great summer. Us "full timers" have been keeping busy with cookouts, shuffleboard, corn hole, movies, pizza etc. We wanted to let everyone know that we WILL ALL have New Year's Eve fun. We have scheduled the clubhouse to hold "LAKE HIGHLANDERS BIGGEST HOUSE PARTY". It is open to all. Residents, renters, guests and family.

Here's the plan.

You get your group together, bring your own drinks and food/munchies. We'll have a contest for the most festively decorated table (we'll discuss more when you snowbirds get back here). We have lots of CD's that were donated by Ron Work and Don Runnells, so there will be music plus some of us have wireless speakers which means we can play ANY kind of music using Pandora.

It might make it more fun to have some sort of a theme-pajama party, tropical, thrift store duds, dress up or down. Think about it and come back ready to start 2017 off with a lot of smiles, fun and friends.

This is not a Social Club event, it is simply all of us getting together and doing our own "thing".

Lakeside Lassie sharing "IT'S ALL ABOUT ATTITUDE!"

By: Loche Kline

I'd like to share a thought provoking article that I read awhile back. The author is unknown as is the original source, however I feel that it's very worthwhile. It's amazing how we can look at and feel differently about the same situations. There is a good lesson here.

A famous writer was in his study. He picked up his pen and began writing:

Last year, my gall bladder was removed. I was stuck in bed due to this surgery for a long time.

The same year I reached the age of 60 and had to give up my favourite job. I had spent 30 years of my life with this publishing company. The same year I experienced the death of my father.

In the same year my son failed in his medical exam because he had a car accident. He had to stay in the hospital with a cast on his leg for several days. And the destruction of the car was a second loss.

His concluding statement" "Alas! It was such a bad year!!"

When the writer's wife entered the room, she found her husband looking dejected, sad and lost in his thoughts. She carefully and surreptitiously read what he had written, and silently left the room and came back shortly with another piece of paper on which she had written her summary of the year's events and placed it beside her husband's paper.

When her husband saw that she had written something in response – he read her "take" on the year's events.

She Wrote:

Last year I finally got rid of my gall bladder which had given me many years of pain.

I turned 60 with sound health and retired from my job. Now I can utilize my time to write better and with more focus and peace.

The same year my father, at the age of 95 without depending on anyone and without any critical conditions, met his Creator.

The same year, God blessed my son with life. My car was destroyed, but my son was alive and without permanent disability.

At the end she wrote: This year was an immense blessing and it passed well!!

See!! The same incidents but different viewpoints.

Moral: In daily lives we must see that it's not happiness that makes us grateful, but gratefulness that makes us happy. There is always, always, always something to be thankful for.

This is Lakeside Lassie agreeing that ATTITUDE IS EVERYTHING.... And attitude is the one thing that we always, in every circumstance, have control over.

Keep “em Laughing AI!

Wrong Number

A woman was getting swamped with calls from strangers. A billing service had launched an 800 number that was identical to hers.

When she called to complain, she was told to get a new number. "I've had mine for twenty years," she pleaded. "Couldn't you change yours?"

The company refused, so she said, "Fine. From now on, I'm going to tell everyone who calls that their bill is paid in full."

The company got a new number the next day.

LAKE HIGHLANDER GOLF

The PGA might be coming to the end of the season, but LHGL is getting ready to start. Our opening day is Friday, Nov. 4, but, unofficially, we will start playing on Oct. 7. We play our matches at Countryway Golf Club on Waters St. in Tampa. Dues will remain the same, $20.00 annually. We have several tournaments during the season. You must play at least four times during the year in order to play in the final tournament in March. All ages and all levels welcome. So, ladies and gentlemen, if you plan on returning to the league or you would like to join us, please e-mail me at jgramjoan@aol.com or call me at 727-286-7344. Hit 'em long, hit 'em straight, but don't hit them often!! Joan Bernier Amateur in charge.

ART AND CRAFT FAIR

SUBMITTED BY LYNN MARRO #256

Just a reminder that our next Art and Craft Fair is Friday, November 18. There is a sign up sheet in the Clubhouse. There is no fee for Lake Highlander residents.

Food for thought

THE AUTHOR IS NOT KNOWN. IT WAS FOUND IN THE BILLFOLD OF COACH PAUL BEAR BRYANT, ALABAMA, AFTER HE DIED IN 1982

The Magic Bank Account

Imagine that you had won the Following PRIZE in a contest: Each morning your bank would deposit $86,400 In your private account for your use.

However, this prize has Rules:

The set of Rules:

1. Everything that you didn't spend during each day would be taken away from you.
2. You may not simply transfer money into some other account.
3. You may only spend It.
4. Each morning upon awakening, The bank opens your account with another $86,400 for that Day.
5. The bank can end the game without warning; at any time, it can say, "Game Over!" It can close the account And you will not receive a new one.

What would you personally Do?

You would buy anything and Everything you wanted right? Not only for yourself, but for all the people you love and care for. Even for people you don't know, because you couldn't possibly spend it all on yourself, right?

You would try to spend every penny, and use it all, because you knew it would be replenished in the morning, right?

ACTUALLY, This GAME is REAL ..

Shocked ??? YES!

Each of us is already a winner Of this PRIZE.

We just can't seem to see it.

The PRIZE is

TIME

1. Each morning we awaken to Receive 86,400 seconds As a gift of Life.
2. And when we go to sleep at Night, any remaining time is Not credited to us.
3. What we haven't used up that Day is forever lost.
4. Yesterday is forever Gone.

5. Each morning the account is Refilled, but the bank can dissolve your account at any time WITHOUT WARNING...

SO, what will YOU do with your 86,400 seconds?

Those seconds are worth so much More than the same amount in dollars. Think about it and remember to Enjoy every second of your life, because time races by so much quicker than You think.

So take care of yourself, be Happy, love deeply and enjoy life!

Here's wishing you a wonderful And beautiful day.

Start "spending"....

"DON'T COMPLAIN ABOUT GROWING OLD...!"

SOME PEOPLE DON'T GET THE PRIVILEGE!

Happy 100th Birthday

Some of you will remember Fran Gower! She will be celebrating her 100th birthday in October!

Fran met with friends a few years back at Spring Mill State Park in Indiana.

Fran's 100th birthday is October 30th of this year. She spent 28 winters in the park and loved every minute of it.

She is in assisted living now. She goes to lunch and dinner at the main dining room pushing her walker with a Lak Highlander plate on the front of it. She would enjoy Birthday cards from her friends in the park.

Our Granddaughter

Being that Ella was our Lake Highlander “Pin-up girl” for 2011, we thought you might like an up date. As a lot of you know, Ella is our only grandchild. So on April 6, 2011, when Ella was born, we were “over the moon with joy!” These past five years have been such a blessing, as those of you with your own grandkids know!! All the firsts we have enjoyed with her have made our retirement so wonderful. Words can’t describe our feelings. To all our neighbors and friends who have been on this journey with us, thanks. Now that the Kindergarten milestone is here, we can’t wait for the next chapter to begin. Let us leave you with these words. Any day with a grandchild in my arms, on my lap, in my home, or on my mind, is a very good day!

Love to all. Pat and Bob Reynolds

From our family to your family

Morton Plant Hospital got its start in 1914 when several local women asked railroad magnate Morton F. Plant to fund a hospital. He agreed, if the community would also make a substantial contribution. They took the challenge and the hospital opened in 1916. Throughout the years, the hospital and its physicians served the community, and the community gave back, ensuring that generations of families would be able to count on the compassionate, quality care provided by Morton Plant Hospital.

One of the most noteworthy hospitals in the nation, Morton Plant Hospital was founded because a community cared. And 100 years later, one thing remains the same — our commitment to caring for your family.

The new Doyle Tower at Morton Plant Hospital, scheduled to be completed in 2017. Another example of how the community gave back.

HALLOWEEN

Evolving from the ancient Celtic holiday of Samhain, modern Halloween has become less about literal ghosts and ghouls and more about costumes and candy. The Celts used the day to mark the end of the harvest season and the beginning of winter, and also believed that this transition between the seasons was a bridge to the world of the dead. Over the millennia the holiday transitioned from a somber pagan ritual to a day of merriment, costumes, parades and sweet treats for children and adults.

Thanks Bob Greer!

A husband and wife are shopping in their local supermarket. The husband picks up a case of beer and puts it in their cart.

“What do you think you’re doing?” asks the wife.

“They’re on sale, only $20 for 24 cans,” he replies.

“Put them back, we can’t afford them,” demands the wife.

They carry on shopping.

A few aisles farther on, the woman picks up a $40 jar of face cream and puts it in the basket.

“What do you think you’re doing?” asks the husband.

Her husband retorts: “So does 24 cans of beer, and it’s half the price.”

That’s him, there in Aisle 5.

1. Columbus was likely not the first European to cross the Atlantic Ocean. That distinction is generally given to the Norse Viking Leif Eriksson, who is believed to have landed in present-day Newfoundland around 1000 A.D., almost five centuries before Columbus set sail. Some historians even claim that Ireland's Saint Brendan or other Celtic people crossed the Atlantic before Eriksson. While the United States commemorates Columbus—even though he never set foot on the North American mainland—with parades and a federal holiday--Leif Eriksson Day on October 9 receives little fanfare.
2. Columbus didn't set out to prove the earth was round. Forget those myths perpetuated by everyone from Washington Irving to Bugs Bunny. There was no need for Columbus to debunk that the earth was round—the ancient Greeks had already done so. As early as the sixth century B.C., the Greek mathematician Pythagoras surmised the world was round, and two centuries later Aristotle backed him up with astronomical observations. By 1492 most educated people knew the planet was not shaped like a pancake.
3. Three countries refused to back Columbus' voyage. For nearly a decade, Columbus lobbied European monarchies to bankroll his quest to discover a western sea route to Asia. In Portugal, England and France, the response was the same: no. The experts told Columbus his calculations were wrong and that the voyage would take much longer than he thought. Royal advisors in Spain raised similar concerns to King Ferdinand and Queen Isabella. Turns out the naysayers were right. Columbus dramatically underestimated the earth's circumference and the size of the oceans. Luckily for him, he ran into the uncharted Americas.
4. Nina and Pinta were not the actual names of two of Columbus' three ships. In 15th-century Spain, ships were traditionally named after saints. Salty sailors, however, bestowed less-than-sacred nicknames upon their vessels. Mariners dubbed one of the three ships on Columbus's 1492 voyage the Pinta, Spanish for "the painted one" or "prostitute." The Santa Clara, meanwhile, was nicknamed the Nina in honor of its owner, Juan Nino. Although the Santa Maria is called by its official name, its nickname was La Gallega, after the province of Galicia in which it was built.
5. The Santa Maria wrecked on Columbus' historic voyage. On Christmas Eve of 1492, a cabin boy ran Columbus's flagship into a coral reef on the northern coast of Hispaniola, near present-day Cap Haitien, Haiti. Its crew spent a very un-merry Christmas salvaging the Santa Maria's cargo. Columbus returned to Spain aboard the Nina, but he had to leave nearly 40 crewmembers behind to start the first European settlement in the Americas. When Columbus returned to the settlement in the fall of 1493, none of the crew were found alive.

So when we take time to celebrate Columbus Day, make sure you tell your grandchildren of these little known facts about this American Holiday!

Well gang we did it again!

The Labor Day Gala was a huge success with lots of fun, friends, food and music. We had a cornhole tournament put together and run by the infamous Bob Bernier and his beautiful wife Joan- Dave and Dianna Caudill are the newest CHAMPIONS to be crowned- big congrats to them and thanks to all of you who braved the Florida sun and played. And thanks to everyone who came out and filled the spectator gallery.

At 5 PM we had the clubhouse set up as a wedding venue with assigned seats but alas the fake bride and groom "chickened" out so we all went ahead and ate the catered BBQ Chicken and pulled pork sit down dinner (no waiting in line this year). Bob and Joannie Bernier were the food committee chair and did an OUTSTANDING JOB from hiring the caterer to serving the 102 dinner guests. We had a family style setup on all 13 tables of cornbread, baked beans, pulled pork and cole slaw. Once seated, we served each guest with a baked potato and the chicken (everyone got a half of a chicken).

After dinner, Bandstand entertained us and lots of folks tried to dance off the pounds they had just put on. It was a fabulous event and evening!

It would not have gone off so well without ALL the volunteers and to them all my deepest gratitude. Here's a list of those wonderful people: Bob and Joan, Billy and Sharon, Pat and Bob, Rita and JP, Butch and Pat, Patsy and Larry, Bev and Leon, Karen Larrimore and Steve Schultz (Karen made to go dinners for the folks who could not make it and Steve delivered them in a rain storm), Nancy Pachalis, Kathy Hartwell, my brother and his wife Bill and Maureen, Anne Riley, Cathy Q and Millie. If I have forgotten anyone please forgive me and thank you.

Lake Highlander is indeed the best place to live- summer and winter!

Monthly Mania: It Pays (Up to $100) To Patronize the Advertisers in Your Newsletter

THOUSANDS manufactured home residents have won over $135,000 since our contest began. It's simple to play ... when you patronize a current advertiser, ask for a Monthly Mania ticket (or a reasonable facsimile) and fill it out completely. Put the ticket in our Monthly Mania drop box in your community or mail your paid receipt to us at Monthly Media • PO Box 1023 • Venice, FL 34284. That's all you do. At the end of the month the Publishers will pick up the tickets and hold a drawing. If your ticket is drawn, we mail you a check.

(Allow 4-6 weeks for mailing of check). This month's cash winners are:
