VETERANS DAY, SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 11, 2018

Veterans Day originated as “Armistice Day” on November 11, 1919, the first anniversary of the end of World War I. Congress passed a resolution in 1926 for an annual observance, and November 11 became a national holiday beginning in 1938.

According to the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs, Veterans Day continues to be observed on November 11, regardless of what day of the week on which it falls. The observance of Veterans Day not only preserves the historical significance of the date, but helps focus attention on the important purpose of Veterans Day: A celebration to honor America's veterans for their patriotism, love of country, and willingness to serve and sacrifice for the common good.

VETERANS DAY

By Cheryl Dyson

On Veterans Day we honor all,
Who answered to a service call.
Soldiers young, and soldiers old,
Fought for freedom, brave and bold.
Some have lived, while others died,
And all of them deserve our pride.
We're proud of all the soldiers who,
Kept thinking of red, white and blue.
They fought for us and all our rights,
They fought through many days and nights.
And though we may not know each name,
We thank ALL veterans just the same.

Some of our Lake Highlander veterans who received Quilts of Valor in June

TRAVELOGUE

CROSSING MACHU PICCHU OFF OUR BUCKET LIST

by Tracy and David Enscoe

In September we were blessed to travel to Peru with the tour company, Alexander & Roberts. Join us on our journey:

September 14th: We arrived one day early and explored the historic district of Lima, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, on our own. We watched the changing of the guard at the Presidential Palace and toured the Convent of St. Francis. There we descended into its catacombs where an estimated 75,000 bodies are buried.

Dave and Tracy at El Beso

September 15th: A walking tour of Miraflores, an upscale district in Lima, took us through John F. Kennedy Park and the Park of Love. El Beso (the kiss) is a large sculpture in the park that depicts the sculptor, Victor Delfin, and his wife kissing. The park is located cliff-side to the Pacific Ocean, where paragliders take off and land continuously.

Later that day we toured the Larco Herrera Museum. The extensive pre-Columbian collection of this world-famous museum included ancient gold and silver objects, as well as pottery dating back to 2000 BC and a tapestry from 1200 BC.

September 16th: We flew from Lima to Cuzco and journeyed down into the Sacred Valley to visit the Cochahuasi Animal Sanctuary, dedicated to the rescue and preservation of indigenous Andean wildlife. Next up was a visit to Awanacancha, a pioneering initiative with a mission to preserve the traditional arts of the region. We saw native weavers create beautiful textiles using techniques passed down for generations. There are about eight different varieties of llamas and alpacas, all providing different grades of fiber for their textiles.

September 17th: A local Andean shaman performed a traditional Tribute to the Earth for us. Their word, Pachamama, represents Mother Earth and is depicted visually by the condor, puma and serpent. We then visited the monumental fortress of Ollantaytambo, built by the Incas with enormous stones and strategically positioned to successfully defend against the Spanish in 1537. It's important to note that all Incan architecture and daily living was done without the use of the wheel, and boulders were honed to fit together perfectly without any mortar! Ollantaytambo's location in a narrow mountain valley framed by rugged peaks is truly breathtaking.

Medicare has very strict rules prohibiting the enrollment into most products via door-to-door sales. Still many seniors are experiencing unsolicited calls and visitors. Making a decision about your health coverage is important and should be done every year, but not by someone who shows up on your doorstep or is cold calling you. At Best Plan Choice, we encourage you to find out how good a full-service health agency can be for you. We work directly with individuals, groups and communities to bring our services to you, at your request.

During the annual enrollment season for Medicare health coverage (Oct 15-Dec 7) we host seminars with free coffee and dessert (see our enclosed insert or call 855-BOOMER65). Throughout the year, we are available to present every available plan, assist you with customer service issues or become your agent if you need one.

Are you debating if you need Medicare Part B? We can show you how to save money on your Part B premium each month. Do you need financial assistance? We can help you apply for Medicaid or extra help for the high pharmacy costs you may have. Is your spouse still working to provide health insurance for you? We may have options which will start their retirement sooner. We will provide a complete needs analysis during a personalized appointment so you can make the best plan choice for you. As always, our services are without charge or cost to you. Call us at Best Plan Choice, where Clients become Friends, and Friends become Clients!

Ollantaytambo

*David and Tracy

Ollantaytambo*

September 18th & 19th: Our two-day visit to Machu Picchu began with an unforgettable rail journey through the Urubamba River Valley, a region of snow-capped Andean peaks, quiet villages and terraced fields that have been cultivated for centuries. Machu Picchu is often referred to as the "Lost City of the Incas". Most archaeologists believe that Machu Picchu was constructed during the reign of Inca Emperor Pachacutec (1438–1472). It was declared a Peruvian Historic Sanctuary in 1981, a UNESCO World Heritage Site in 1983 and one of the New Seven Wonders of the World in 2007. Although known locally, it was not known to the Spanish during the colonial period and remained unknown to the outside world until American historian Hiram Bingham brought it to international attention in 1911. Machu Picchu officially opened for tourists in 1948. Little can be written here that would do justice to the breathtaking grandeur of its mountain setting, the enigmatic power and aura that permeate this ancient citadel and the unforgettable experience of standing among these ancient stones! Our guide said it's believed that when Manko Inka rose in arms in 1536, orders might have been given to abandon Machu Picchu and move on to the Amazon jungle.

Machu Picchu

The limestone blocks of Sacsayhuaman

September 20th: We visited Sacsayhuaman, also built in the 1400's by Pachacutec. The massive limestone blocks of this temple, built like a fortress, were cut with such precision that they fit together like the interlocking pieces of a jigsaw puzzle! With some individual stones towering more than 10 feet tall and weighing several hundred tons, Sacsayhuaman is a monumental achievement of architecture and masonry. It was partially disassembled by the Spanish in 1535 to build the Cusco Cathedral.

September 21st: Oropesa is celebrated across Peru for its generations-old bread-making traditions, and we visited a local bakery to taste some hot out of the oven – yummy! Locally known as pan chuta, the round loaves are made from traditionally-grown local wheat with a hint of sweetness and other spices including cinnamon and anise. Baked in traditional ovens, special woods and eucalyptus leaves are burned to impart more flavors and a delicate texture to the crust. Our final trek in Peru took us to the remote mountain village of Cuyuni with an elevation of 14,000 feet! Being our guide speaks Quechua, their native tongue, we were able to join the villagers in their fields and homes to learn about their traditions and way of life that has changed little over the centuries. In the picture below, we bid farewell to the villagers and gave them some bread from Oropesa to thank them for their hospitality.

We came away from our Peru adventure with a new appreciation of how truly advanced the Incan civilization was!

WANTED

New Chairperson for the New Comers Committee. Liz Longhurst will be retiring AFTER the next New Comers Reception to be held on Jan. 17, 2019. Please contact Liz at 253-732-0866 if you are interested.

OCTOBER LHRO BOARD MEETING – UNOFFICIAL NOTES

The LHRO board meeting was held on Thursday, October 11 in the clubhouse. Present were board members Kathy Hartwell, Karen Larrimore, Fuzz Haynes, and Warrant Bowman with Gerry Killham and Susan Zerbe present by phone.

During the residents' open forum there was a question about the generator which was installed near the multi-purpose building. Is it strictly for the multi-purpose building or does it include the clubhouse? It will only power the multi-purpose building. Susan encouraged all residents to take advantage of the open forum for answering questions, diffusing rumors, and giving kudos where appropriate.

- Beth Carroll's manager's report included the following:
- Rental documents are making headway. Most owners who offer their coaches for rent are being cooperative.
- The generators are installed. We are now waiting for the inspector and for the gas hook up.
- Don Hanson has been in contact with Duke Energy and they are working on our questions regarding the electrical lines.
- RFP's will go out to pavers in December. Beth anticipates paving will begin in March.
- The chicken wire is gone from around the pond with positive feedback. Please take care when fishing that you stay clear of the fountains. A couple of fishermen have gotten their lines snagged on the fountains.
- The chair committee has met and have begun their search of replacement chairs for the clubhouse. The committee consists of Carol Gardinier, Grace Hughes, Cathy Quast, and Liz Longhurst.

Karen Larrimore encouraged residents to update their profile sheet when it is mailed or emailed to you. It will come with the notice of the election of officers. Please make sure the office has the vehicle license number for any of your overnight guests.

Treasurer's Report

- At the end of September, we were approximately $31,000 to the good, though there are bills to come in such as the payment of the generators of $13,000.
- The transfer from Center State Bank to First Citrus Bank is going well. We will be keeping a minimum account open at Center State Bank until February. We still have a CD at Center State which will mature in February 2019.
- The draft 2019 budget was submitted to the board. The budget includes some increase in some budget lines due to inflation plus a 10% increase in the mowing contract. It is the first increase our mowers have asked for in 13 years. There is no proposed increase to the residents' month maintenance fee. Kathy proposed that the budget be approved and sent to the resident owners. The board approved the draft budget.

Sales and Marketing needs a new chair. There are other volunteer positions or jobs which need volunteers, including three positions on the board. Karen implored residents to consider stepping up to help.

Unfinished business:

- As of October 14, the new rules and regulations will be in force. They will be sent out to all resident owners and will be included in the 2019 phone directory.
- The large-capacity washer issue is still tabled. It was suggested that the Long-Range Planning Committee be asked to prepare a survey to go out to the resident owners regarding this and other issues.

New business:

- Kathy Hartwell was approached by a couple of residents to change our swimming pool from chlorine to a saltwater pool. Beth has done some research and found out it is not too expensive to change over. The pool company would have to monitor the pipes for corrosion. There would be no net savings, but it is not a big deal to change. It was suggested that this would be another good item to put on the survey.

The meeting was adjourned at 11 a.m.

TIPS FOR LIVING WITH MACULAR DEGENERATION

Low-vision consultant, Judith Hawley, will be a guest speaker on Thursday, November 1 in the clubhouse at 10 am. Judith was diagnosed with macular degeneration at the age of 11 and has been steadily losing her vision during the last 66 years, going from low vision to legally blind to blind. She has many tips for those losing their vision from first-hand experience and from her time working for an ophthalmologist as a low-vision consultant. If you would like tips on how to live with a loss of sight, please join us.

BUNCO NIGHT

On Friday, September 14, George and Liz Longhurst hosted a Bunco Night in the Lake Highlander Clubhouse. Bunco is a dice game similar to Yahtzee. Players sit at tables of four. Everyone paid $10.00 to play and 100% of the money paid in was given out in prize money. Twenty-eight individuals participated that night. Refreshments were served at half time.

The big winners were Bev Hallwood for Most Bunco's, Bev Hansen for Most Wins, Gracie Hughes for most Baby Bunco's, Warren Bowman for Biggest Loser, and Judy Walling for Last Bunco of the night.

SUNDAY NIGHT CARDS

Some of the "31" players

The Lake Highlander Library has been the site of a rousing game of "31" each Sunday evening during the summer. The object of the game is to obtain a hand with a total value as close as possible to 31. The players keep track of their score by folding the corners of a dollar bill. The summer card players have enjoyed the game immensely. Thanks to Terri Lucas who organized the game.

TAMPA FESTIVAL OF READING 2018

Each year the Tampa Bay Times sponsors a free Festival of Reading at the University of South Florida – St. Pete. It is an opportunity to meet and listen to authors as they share their latest works. Among this year's lineup of authors is crime novelist Ace Atkins. Several Lake Highlander residents attended last year's festival and thoroughly enjoyed it. The event this year will be on Saturday, November 17 from 10 am to 5 pm. If you are interested in carpooling, see the sign-up sheet in the library.

BOOK DISCUSSION

There will be a book discussion at the Lake Highlander Library on Sunday afternoon, November 11 at 2:00 p.m. We will discuss The Perfect Comeback of Caroline Jacobs. A copy of the book is in the library. If you borrow it, please return it as quickly as possible so others may read it.

Here is a synopsis of the book: Caroline Jacobs has lost herself. She's a wife, mother (to a tattooed teenage daughter she avoids), Sears Portrait Studio photographer, and wimp. Asserting herself, taking the reins, or facing life head-on are not in her repertoire. So, when Caroline suddenly cracks and screams a four-letter-word at the PTA president, she is shocked. So is her husband. So is the PTA president. So is everyone. But Caroline soon realizes the true cause of her outburst can be traced back to something that happened to her as a teenager, a scarring betrayal by her best friend Emily. This act changed Caroline's life forever. So, with a little bit of bravery flowing through her veins, Caroline decides to go back to her home town and confront Emily. She busts her daughter Polly out of school, and the two set off to deliver the perfect comeback, which is twenty-five years in the making. But nothing goes as planned. Long buried secrets begin to rise to the surface, and Caroline will have to face much more than one old, bad best friend. The Perfect Comeback of Caroline Jacobs is a deceptively simple novel about the ways in which our childhood experiences reverberate through our lives, and the bravery of one woman trying to change her life and finds true understanding of her daughter, and herself, along the way.

COLUMBUS DAY ITALIAN DINNER

Columbus Day gave Lake Highlander residents an opportunity to gather together and enjoy good food and music. A committee consisting of Terry Lucas, Millie Beaulieu, Lisa Howell, Amy Haynes, and Loche Kline, prepared and served the meal to the hungry guests. The ladies were adorned with aprons that looked like the Italian flag. They worked hard to present the fine meal to us. The menu consisted of house salad, bread, rigatoni, Millie's special pasta sauce, meatballs, and Italian sausage. Dessert was a choice of tiramisu or cannoli.

THANKSGIVING DAY

Thanksgiving Day in the United States is observed on the 4th Thursday of November. In Canada, it is celebrated on the 2nd Monday in October. It began as a harvest festival and has been celebrated in the U.S. off and on since 1798. It has been celebrated as a national holiday since 1863.

The following information has been gleaned from an article by Andrew Lane in New American:

Many descendants of the Pilgrims follow a custom, begun on the first Thanksgiving Day in Plymouth, of placing five grains of corn beside each plate at the dinner table. Five grains of corn was the daily ration during those desperate days before the harvest when food was scarcely to be had. At each subsequent annual feast, the Pilgrims placed the grains at the table so that the reason for their rejoicing might not be forgotten. But the grains of corn would remind them of more than hardship and disaster. They would also recall that proudest fact of Pilgrim courage: that when spring came, and the Mayflower sailed home to England, every Pilgrim who survived the winter chose to remain in this new free land.

Each of the five grains of corn has special significance. The first grain reminds us that the earth is still good. This free land of our fathers yet pours forth its rich fruits and harvests into the hands of those who labor in it; it holds within its bosom vast reservoirs of power; it is a provident parent.

The second grain of corn should remind us of the Indians who befriended the Pilgrims and provided them with corn and squash that first dreadful winter and taught them to gather clams and to catch fish. Without their help and guidance, it is unlikely the new settlers would have survived. In listing our blessings, among those we would surrender last would be the love we share with our friends.

The third grain of our Thanksgiving corn reminds us of courage. Courage, we know, is a part of the armor of every great person. The winter had been severe, death a frequent visitor, and from England family voices called. But when the Mayflower returned to England, the colonists remained.

The fourth grain of corn reminds us that the Pilgrims came "to lay a foundation for the kingdom of Christ in these remote parts of the world." Freedom of conscience and religion was not simply a motto to them; they exercised their conscience to practice their religion. They prayed in their homes ... and their schools. They saw their freedom to do so as far more important than their physical comforts -- or even food and shelter.

That last grain of corn in the Pilgrim's Thanksgiving pentad represents the most compelling reason to be grateful. It is the fact that at the center of our universe, Creative Love still holds all life together.

AN IROQUOIS THANKSGIVING PRAYER

We return thanks to our mother, the earth which sustains us.

We return thanks to the rivers and streams, which supply us with water.

We return thanks to all herbs, which furnish medicines for the cure of our diseases.

We return thanks to the moon and the stars, which have given to us their light when the sun was gone.

We return thanks to the sun, that has looked upon the earth with a beneficent eye.

Lastly, we return thanks to the Great Spirit, in Whom is embodied all goodness, and who directs all things for the good of Her children.

PARKING LOT HELP

Wayne was returning home from a business trip, bags in hand, and slowly making his way to his vehicle in the crowded airport garage. Suddenly a large dark car screeched to a stop in front of Wayne, and the driver pointed menacingly at him. "Get in," the driver ordered. "I'll take you to your car."

Startled, Wayne took a step backward. "Ah...no thanks," he answered. "I can get there myself."

"No!" the man barked back as he threw open his passenger side door. "Get in!"

Wayne's eyes now darted around the garage, hoping to find a security guard.

Just then, the driver's face softened. "Please," he said, "I've been driving up and down for two hours. I can't find a space to park, and I want yours."

THIS HISTORY OF THE WORKIN' MAN

My first job was working in an orange juice factory, but I got canned. I couldn't concentrate. Then I worked in the woods as a lumberjack, but just couldn't hack it, so they gave me the axe.

After that, I tried being a tailor, but wasn't suited for it – mainly because it was a sew-sew job.

Next, I tried working in a muffler factory, but that was too exhausting.

Then I tried being a chef – figured it would add a little spice to my life, but I just didn't have the thyme.

Next, I attempted being a deli worker, but any way I sliced it – I couldn't cut the mustard.

My best job was as a musician, but eventually found I wasn't noteworthy.

I studied a long time to become a doctor but didn't have any patience. continued on page 37

Next was a job in a shoe factory. I tried hard, but just didn't fit in.

I became a professional fisherman but discovered I couldn't live on my net income.

I managed to get a good job working for a pool maintenance company, but the work was too draining.

So, then I got a job in a workout center, but they said I wasn't fit for the job.

After many years of trying to find steady work, I finally got a job as a historian – until I realized there was no future in it.

My last job was working in Starbucks, but I had to quit because it was the same old grind. So, I tried retirement and I've found that I am perfect for the job!

GUARD DUTY

The new army recruit was serving his first guard duty. He did his best for a while, but about 5 a.m. he went to sleep. When he opened his eyes, he found the day officer standing before him. Remembering the stiff penalty for being asleep on guard duty, this clever young man kept his head bowed for another moment, then looked upward and reverently said, "A-a-a-men!"

BIG HOLE

Old Ms. Robinson went out into her backyard to do some gardening when she heard some noise coming from the yard next door. She peered over the fence and saw that her neighbor's little daughter was digging a hole. "Sally, what are you doing with the shovel?" asked Ms. Robinson. "My goldfish died, so I'm burying him," replied young Sally. "Oh, that's tragic! I'm very sorry for your loss. But why are you digging such a big hold for your goldfish?" asked the woman. "Because your stupid cat ate it!"

CONCERNED CUSTOMER

The speaker at the bank's drive-through window had been broken for weeks, and the tellers had to resort to writing notes to communicate with the frustrated customers. One day a sweet elderly lady who came to the bank every week pulled up to the window, leaned out of her car, and smacked the glass in front of the teller's face. "Hope this is bullet proof," she yelled. There had just been a robbery at another bank nearby, so the teller was touched by her concern. "It is," the teller yelled back. "Good," the elderly lady continued, "because someone is going to shoot you if you don't get that speaker fixed!"

CLOSE TO HIM

An older couple was asking for a room with a king, queen, or double bed. The clerk apologized and said that the only rooms available had twin beds. Disappointed, the man remarked, "I don't know. We've been sharing the same bed for 44 years." Could you possibly put them close together?" the wife asked. Several people nearby smiled, and someone commented, "How romantic." Then the woman finished her request with, "Because if he snores, I want him close enough to be able to punch him."

SORRY FOR THE DELAY

A minister waited in line to have his car filled with gas just before a long holiday weekend. The attendant worked quickly, but there were many cars ahead of him in front of the service station. Finally, the attendant motioned him toward a vacant pump. “Preacher,” said the young man, “I’m sorry about the delay. It seems as if everyone waits until the last minute to get ready for a long trip.” The minister chuckled, “I know what you mean. It’s the same in my business.”

WE’VE GOT THE POWER

The little boy was greatly excited when informed by his mother that the liveliness of her hair as she combed it was caused by electricity. “Oh, my!” he exclaimed. “Ain’t we a powerful family! Mama has electricity on her head, and grandma has gas on her stomach.”

HILLBILLY FIRE

A hillbilly who lived far back in the hills walked twelve miles, one way, to the general store. “Heya Wilbur,” said Sam, the store owner. “Tell me, are you and Myrtle still making fires up there by rubbing stones and flint together?” “You betcha, Sam. Ain’t no ‘tother way. Why?” “Got something to show you. Something to make a fire. It’s called a match.” “Match? Never heard of it.” “Watch this. If you want a fire you just do this,” Same says, taking a match and striking it on his pants. “Huh. Well, that’s something, but that ain’t for me, Sam.” “Well, why not?” “I can’t be walking twelve miles to borrow your pants every time I want a fire.”

GOLDEN ANNIVERSARY

An aged farmer and his wife were leaning against the edge of their pigpen when the old woman wistfully recalled that the next week would mark their golden wedding anniversary. “Let’s have a party, Homer,” she suggested. “Let’s kill a pig.” The farmer scratched his grizzled head. “Gee, Ethel,” he finally answered, “I don’t see why the pig should take the blame for something that happened fifty years ago.”

"...I am so happy with my new windows...I'd like to commend your work crew. Earbie and Larry were fantastic! I couldn't believe the clean-up EVERYDAY! The whole job took just a week even with all the rain delays. I would and WILL highly recommend your company to my friends and neighbors.
