On the Cover

Oktoberfest trip 2012

Harold & Donna Wurtz enjoy the travel club excursion to Helen Georgia for Oktoberfest. See the travel club article to join us for this year's trip. Everyone has a great time – just ask anyone who has gone with us previously.

From the Editors

By Harold & Donna Wurtz (#938, 812-2670 bigchees99@aol.com)

July - - the month we celebrate our nation's independence. This Fourth of July, we might find ourselves barbecuing at home, congregating at the clubhouse with our neighbors & enjoying the meal served by the resident's club, or just enjoying our precious free time. But July Fourth is also a time to step back, take stock and appreciate the deep freedoms we enjoy every day.

In honor of Independence Day, here is a bit of inspiration to take you through the month. The freedom we enjoy makes a huge requirement of every one of us. The person who is unwilling to grow up, and the person who does not want to carry his own weight, will find this to be a frightening prospect. Remember that freedom is not overcoming what you think stands in the way of your own happiness. It is understanding that what is in your way is part of the way to happiness.

We as seniors need to remember that freedom is never more than one generation away from extinction. We didn't pass it to our children through blood. It must be fought for, protected, and handed on for them to do the same. We need to be sure we have passed on the concept that there is a difference, and a delicate balance, between freedom "to" and freedom "from."

We all might wish we lived in a more peaceful world, but we don't. And if our times are difficult, remember they are also challenging and filled with opportunity.

If freedom and liberty means anything at all, remember it means the right to tell people truth, even if they do not want to hear.

God Bless America

Harold & Donna

From the Desk of the President

By Brian Sliter (#574, 812-7903)

Hello to All from Canada. We are still waiting for the weather to become more summer-like up here. Neither Ellie nor I have been in our community swimming pool, although it has been open for about a week at this time. I hope that you are enjoying good pool weather in Lincolnshire.

I hear that 50 people enjoyed the Memorial Day celebration, and at the time of writing this article about 75 residents are planning to attend the Luau. Don't forget about the July 4th Independence Day party. I hear burgers and hot dogs are on the menu.

Harold tells me that there will also be a karaoke on July 25. Please plan to attend and join in the fun.

Take care of yourselves and your neighbors.

That is all for now. Enjoy your summer wherever you are and however you spend your time.

Brian

Dial Directory and Database

By Donna Wurtz(#938, 812-2670)

The "yellow Book" 2015-2016 edition has been distributed to the block Captains, and they in turn have distributed them to those who are here in the park year-round. If you are away from Lincolnshire in your summer vacation home up north, you will receive your new one when you return in the fall. They will be distributed at coffee hour at that time. If you are new to the Park and do not see your name or number listed, then we did not have your information at the time of publication, or do not have it at all. This also means we do not have your birthday or anniversary information for publication in the voice either. If have not seen your birthday or anniversary listed, or see a listing with an error in the Voice, please contact me with your information. If we have not received your information in time for publication, please still remember to send us a note, or e-mail for new additions or corrections so we can at least add them to notations in the monthly Voice. A lot of time & effort is involved in trying to update the book each year. We do not always have all the updated information. Mistakes may be made. Please help us out by letting us know of any mistakes, or omissions. Remember however that we must have first-hand information for publication if we do not hear from you directly for verification we will not make a change.

Please make the following addition to your new yellow book:

Lot #483 Frances Byrne (333-7878)

Remember, the Dial directory is only published once each year. If you have changed your number, or are new to the park and have not been contacted to be listed properly, please call Donna to give them an update. The directory is not produced by the office. It is a resident's club function, so don't expect the office to update your information for you. If you do not wish to have your birthday or anniversary listed, please let me know but we still need a phone number as we need to let the Block Captains notify you during emergency situations like water shut-off notices or other emergencies. Thank you for your cooperation.

How can I thank so many people who have been so nice to me since my knee surgery? I have received many, many cards, flowers and phone calls I can't keep track of the numbers. So many of you have brought us dinners, deserts, candies, fruit, etc., we were overwhelmed by the love shown to us.

So to all our Lincolnshire family, Gino and I want to let you know how loved we feel. - -

Crape Myrtles: Low Maintenance and Lovely!

By: Bev Helbing (947, 754-2245)

Crape myrtles, or Lagerstroemiss, are native to China, introduced to the U.S. in late 1700s, they arrived in England, whose cooler temperatures and high rainfalls were not conducive.

Southern Florida's heat, humidity and drought may not seem like the most hospitable environment, but crape myrtles love US!

Undeniably show-stopping as they are, flowers are not the crape myrtle’s only attribute. Autumn leaf color is vibrant, ranging from red, orange and yellow to purple. As a bonus, the leaves are small enough that they don’t require raking. Both beautiful and striking, the exfoliating bark provides prominent winter interest in the landscape.

Let’s review. Crape myrtles require very little pruning, watering or fertilizing. Hmmm....Well, now that you know how easy it can be to enjoy crape myrtles, just sit on your lanai and sip that mint julep. The good news is you are perfectly within your rights to do so!

Annual Luau

By: Harold Wurtz (938, 812-2670)

Our annual Luau was held on June 20 in the clubhouse. This article of course had to be submitted prior to the actual event to make the deadline, but I think you will get the idea. Dinner was at 5:00 PM, with entertainment following. Hawaiian music filled the hall throughout the evening, and of course we had our special guest Hawaiian dancer “Miraj” who entertained & tried to teach Hawaiian dance to our menfolk. With constant reminders to watch “The hands” telling the story, it seems that their eyes were always elsewhere, and the story they got was different than the one being told by the dance. The menu included Hawaiian style grilled chicken on a fresh baked Kaiser roll, topped with bacon cheese & pineapple slice, or some preferred the Hawaiian style pulled pork BBQ on the Kaiser roll with pineapple. Each plate also had a sample of the Wild Boar, courtesy of a few park residents who hunt Florida’s Wild Boar. And of course it wouldn’t be a Hawaiian feast without lots of fresh tropical fruit.

Tropical garb, (grass skirts were allowed) and décor were all part of the evening. More details of participant’s actions and reactions will be published next month and on the Lincolnshire Facebook Page. Photos and videos will be uploaded as they are submitted to us.

Movie Night

"Sir" Jack Meyer (lot#1506, 581-0014)

A diner whose name was Carew
 Found a rather large mouse in his stew
 Said the waiter "Don't shout
 Or wave it about
 Or the rest will be wanting one too."

Hurricane Preparedness

Hurricane season is once again upon us here in Florida. Lincolnshire is fortunate to have a lot of new residents living with us year round. Many however have not experienced a hurricane season. This article is just a reminder with some helpful hints for those who may need it. We have been enjoying a 10 year calm, but don't be fooled. While we have seen many quiet storm seasons and minor glancing blows, remember it is always a possibility here. 2004 started off slowly with the first storm not even named until July 31, but shortly after came 6 weeks of Charley, Frances, Ivan, and Jeanne. Let's stay prepared here.

Know your evacuation zone and shelter. Lincolnshire is not in an evacuation zone based on water, surge, however all mobile homes, regardless of their elevation above ground must be evacuated. This means evacuation at a category 1 storm. Remember it is illegal to stay in a home under a mandatory evacuation order. Therefore it is important for everyone to have an evacuation plan. If you plan to use a shelter, make sure you know where it is, and give yourself time to be sure to get there. If you have a pet, only certain shelters are equipped to handle your needs. The closest to Lincolnshire is Oak Grove Elementary School on Belcher Road. You must register your pet in advance. This shelter is also equipped for the handicapped

In the event that evacuation is not necessary, and also after the storm has passed, electrical service and other service problems may arise due to the storm. Have a plan in place for your everyday needs during this time. Stay current with news & information using radio (cell towers may be out), be sure to have plenty of batteries, water, and non-perishable food supplies. You may not be able to travel around to purchase these things after the storm.

More information will be in our next issue, or go to www.Pinellascounty.org/emergency for further assistance.

Voice Articles Needed

(From: your editors)

For over a year Donna and I have been "Ghost Writing" many of the articles that appear here in the voice. Each month we spend hours reviewing what has gone on in the community, and often simply repeat articles from one month to the next. We plan to discontinue this practice, as it does take up too much time in preparation, and may not always be exactly what might be said by the person who is actually responsible for an activity.

Beginning with the July edition of the "voice" this will no longer happen. If you are a chairperson of a committee, or if you direct an activity in the community, please note that an article will be required to be written by yourself or a member of your group, and delivered by the 13th of the prior month in order to be included in the publication. We will not simply re-print your previous month's article, as this is simply a waste of print. There is no reason to continue to re-print an article month after month without change.

There are so many things that go on in the park that could be included. In the summer months, while there may not be any regular sports to report on, there may be individual scores that may be of interest. Craft information, computer knowledge reports, music events attended, bingo winners, group dinners, library news, community volunteer news, fitness news, family travel, news from the Homeowners, - -- all are good articles to be included in the voice, so others in the community are aware of what may be happening with our neighbors.

Use your imagination, people are interested in what goes on, and often the only thing we here about are rumors about negative things. Be positive! Write an article and submit it!!

Thanks to Bev Helbing for her contribution this month.

2015 -2016 Calendar

Just a reminder to all committee chairpersons: The calendar of events and activities for this next season is not yet complete. We have received very few reserved dates for the calendar. If you expect your event or activity to be listed on the calendar, or have a day that you thought is “always been” – this is not the case. If we get a request for a day of the week, or a time, or a specific date for any event, if that date of time is not already reserved, it will be given to the first group to request it. Don't wait. Even if you have “Always met at that time” it may not continue to happen if you do not reserve it on the calendar.

Lincolnshire Facebook Page

By Harold Wurtz (938, 812-2670)

Like us on Facebook!! Did you know we have a facebook page for the Lincolnshire Resident's Club? Like us & follow us for updates, and share your thoughts and pictures with others here at Lincolnshire. It's simple to do. Just go to your facebook page, and search Lincolnshire Residents Club, then click like and you are in. More & more of our residents are: “liking” the page. As of this writing we are up to 158 likes. That's only 1 more than last month. We can do better! Tell your friends, and don't be afraid to share your positive thoughts on the page too.

Also, you can share your e-mail address with us to be “in the loop” as we try to expand our info sharing with additional electronic media. Just send your e-mail address to bigchees99@aol.com to be included. And don't forget to send any possible articles or pictures to us too. The “voice” is your tool here at Lincolnshire to spread news to all our residents.

A Letter from: Rep. Chris Latvala

FLORIDA HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES: DISTRICT 67

(This is an excerpt from a letter from our state representative sent May 27th, 2015)

"I am writing you today to let you know about a piece of legislation which has passed both the House and Senate and will hopefully be signed into law by the Governor shortly.....Legislation regarding mobile homes.....adversarial topic....has support from mobile home...residents like yourself....."

House Bill 307 updates definitions.....creates language that involves home owners associations and educational programs, clarifies code enforcement and creates changes.....made by the homeowners who reside in the parks, not the park/land owners."

Editor' note:

There are some 38 pages involved in this bill. Changes included that are especially interesting include educational programs that are required to be created by the department especially aimed at members of Home Owners associations. Everyone should be aware of this bill which will take effect July 1, 2015. It can be read in its entirety on-line.

The Collect and Scripture Readings for July 2015

5th – The Collect: O God, you have taught us to keep all your commandments by loving you and our neighbor: Grant us the grace of your Holy Spirit, that we may be devoted to you with our whole heart, and united to one another with pure affection; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.
Scripture Readings: 2 Samuel 5:1-5, 9-10, Psalm 48, 2 Corinthians 12:2-10, Mark 6:1-13

12th – The Collect: O Lord, mercifully receive the prayers of your people who call upon you, and grant that they may know and understand what things they ought to do, and also may have grace and power faithfully to accomplish them; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.
Scripture Readings: 2 Samuel 6:1-5, 12b-19, Psalm 24, Ephesians 1:3-14, Mark 6:14-29

19th – The Collect: Almighty God, the fountain of all wisdom, you know our necessities before we ask and our ignorance in asking: Have compassion on our weakness, and mercifully give us those things which for our unworthiness we dare not, and for our blindness we cannot ask; through the worthiness of your Son Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.
Scripture Readings: 2 Samuel 7:1-14a, Psalm 89:20-37, Ephesians 2:11-22, Mark 6:30-34, 53-56

26th The Collect: O God, the protector of all who trust in you, without whom nothing is strong, nothing is holy: Increase and multiply upon us your mercy; that, with you as our ruler and guide, we may so pass through things temporal,

Lincolnshire Kennel Club

By: "Wickett" Wurtz

I know how many of the residents here at Lincolnshire rely on us canine friends to help them stay in touch with others in the community. Here is a story I ran across that shows how some of the humans can help each other while also helping a canine friend gain a life-partner. I call it The Gift of Raising a Puppy

It started off just like any other day—Jeff LoParo sat down to breakfast and opened the paper, but Jeff didn't realize that reading the paper that morning in 2013 was going to change his life. "I think I'm one of the only people that still reads a printed paper!" laughs Jeff. "That is how I first heard about Canine Companions for Independence; I read a story in the paper about puppy raising."

Jeff had been around dogs all of his life. His family raised show dogs and his dad was an American Kennel Club judge. "I love training dogs in obedience and I liked the idea of having a buddy for my black lab, but didn't want a 14-year commitment," Jeff says. Raising a puppy for a year and a half appealed to him, so he applied online. Three months later he received Gordo. Gordo was the first puppy that Jeff raised for Canine Companions. Now in professional training, Gordo will be meeting several people with disabilities this spring to hopefully find his match and change their life forever.

Jeff, a former marine fighter pilot and self-described big guy, says "Even thinking about Gordo graduating makes me want to cry, because I'm so happy for him and what he'll go on to do." While raising Gordo, Jeff attended a few graduation ceremonies. "At the first graduation I went to, a mother with a son with autism was receiving a Canine Companions assistance dog. The mother explained to the audience that her son's autism was very severe. Doctors had told her that if they couldn't get her son to come out of his shell and connect. His behavior would likely worsen as he got older and he'd be in danger of self-injurious behavior. Now the boy has made a connection with his assistance dog. He has a buddy now. That dog potentially saved this kid's life. And as a puppy raiser we have the ability to make this possible."

Now Jeff is raising his second puppy, Waylon. "The time I spend with the dogs and the other puppy raisers...this process and these connections I have with these dogs is life-changing—the dogs do so much more for us than we do for the dogs," says Jeff. "And the impact is so far reaching. Not just one life, but many lives. It just makes you feel so good about what you are doing." Wickett

Ancient bones offer clues to evolution

Scientists may have discovered a new human ancestor to go along with “Lucy,” the 3.2 million-year-old Australopithecus afarensis female from eastern Africa. Dubbed “Little Foot” because of his small bones, this specimen was unearthed in South Africa in the early 1990s. His skeleton was almost completely preserved after falling down a narrow cave shaft and dying there. Whether Little Foot was a relative of Lucy’s or a different pre-human species has been a subject of debate among anthropologists, but a new dating process suggests that Little Foot lived and died some 3.67 million years ago, close to the same time as Lucy.

Although some scientists dispute the accuracy of the dating technique, if it holds up it suggests an evolutionary link between different species of Australopithecus in ancient Africa, as well as evidence of where in Africa modern humans began to develop.

Birds do it, bees do it, and so do amorous mice

From time immemorial, men have wooed their lady loves with romantic (if sometimes off-key) music. Now scientists from Duke University believe that love songs aren’t just for humans. Mice also sing to females they hope to attract, although they aren’t likely using Barry White.

Instead, mice rely on high-pitched sounds outside the range of human hearing, using specific tunes when they smell a potential mate and different ones when they finally set eyes on her. The songs are louder and composed of more complex sounds when they smell a female scent, and get simpler—but longer—when they finally meet face to face. The complex songs seem to attract females, although what specifically draws them close is still uncertain.
