Homeowners of Oak Crest / Acorn Residents, Inc.

Diane Rice, President, Lot 636, 828-230-7249

November, a time for feasting and sharing with neighbors and friends, a time to reflect and be thankful for: your loved ones, your health, and your friends and neighbors. It was a great to see some of the events in the park and to see people having fun. October was a 'feel good' month.

From the Editor

HOA dues envelopes will be inserted in this month's messenger; the funds go towards our incorporation filing fees, and our legal fees, and our accountant fee. It is important that residents pay their dues; its $10.00 a year, {83 cents {83 and a third cents per month}. HOA MEETING SCHEDULED FOR MONDAY NOVEMBER 9, 7:00 PM, agenda: update of improvements made during summer months.

Club house. Social distancing and masks {as of this writing, Oct,10,}.

No refreshments, please feel free to bring your own.

Oak Crest / Acorn Residents' Club, Inc.

Annette Watts, President, Lot 504, 843-457-9599

I know we are all getting tired of being In limbo right now. Hopefully we will see some positive breakthroughs on the virus status soon. The Residents' Club is coming up with some creative things we can do outside of the clubhouse. As of right now we are not sure if we will have a Thanksgiving Dinner in the clubhouse or not. It is hard to plan right now for next month because things may change. We are only allowed to have 50 people in the clubhouse at one time. We are selling tickets for Thanksgiving Dinner as of right now but if we still can only have 50 people at a time we will probably cancel the dinner. We are planning on having to go orders also. If we have to cancel the dinner, everyone who purchased a ticket will get a refund. So please purchase your tickets so we can plan for the dinner in case things change.

Please check out Linda Galan's letter to see what the Residents' Club is planning. They are trying to come up with some creative things to do for everyone keeping in mind the safety of everyone.

We have to get our letters in on the 10th of each month so things may change between now and November. We just have to wait and see. We will be posting changes and activities on the windows and inside the clubhouse. Unfortunately, we cannot put fliers out all the time because of the cost, so please check at the clubhouse.

We are holding election of officers at the January meeting. I will be posting all the information on the bulletin board in November. We will be having a Residents' Club meeting on Monday,

November 2nd at 7:00 p.m. Social distancing will be adhered to if we are still mandated to do so.

The first pancake breakfast is Saturday, November 7th from 8:30 - 10:00a.m. You will be able to dine in or carry out. The price for breakfast is still $5.00. If you want carry out please bring containers.

Your district leaders will be delivering you new phone books with the November messenger this month. If you are not back yet please contact your district director when you return. The reason we don't deliver to the people that are not back yet is that we don't want them to get wet or stolen. You can find out who your district director is by looking on the inside cover of your messenger. It gives their name and down below the lot numbers of who they deliver to. For the NEW people and those of you who missed the deadline last years book contact Kathy Brady and give her your name, lot number, and phone number as she is working on next years book. Kathy's number is (727) 239-8726.

CHRISTMAS GOLF CART PARADE

MONDAY, DECEMBER 21ST

First, thanks to everyone who participated in the Halloween Parade, and to everyone who came out to watch! We had great fun, and the donated treats afterward were great - and extra thanks to those who donated them!

Now it's time to get out of the house and enjoy the Christmas Season! The Christmas Golf Cart Parade is on Monday, December 21st. It's lots of fun, so get a friend and put together a Christmas golf cart!

Line up at the clubhouse at 5:30; the golf carts are leaving between 6p and 6:30p.

For those who are going to watch, get some neighbors to join you, and some lawn chairs, and bundle up. Or, watch from the shelter of your screen porch. You'll know the parade is getting close when you hear the horns honking.

We'll end up at the clubhouse for coffee and cookies - that's for parador's and watchers! Everyone is welcome to bring cookies to share.

SIGN-UP SHEET is on the Clubhouse bulletin board. If you have questions, call Jill at 651-587-3789. See you there I

WHY DO WE EAT TURKEY?

Reggie "K"

As celebrated in the United States, the holiday of Thanksgiving usually revolves around a bountiful meal. Typical dishes include bread stuffing, potatoes, cranberry sauce, pumpkin pie and above all, turkey. How did turkey become the centerpiece of the feast?

It is often assumed that today's Thanksgiving menu originated in an event commonly referred to as the "first Thanksgiving." There is indeed evidence of a meal shared between Pilgrim settlers at Plymouth Colony, in what is now Massachusetts, and local Wampanoag Indians in late 1621. But there is no indication that turkey was served. For meat, the Indians brought deer, and the Pilgrims provided wild "fowl." Strictly speaking, that "fowl" could have been turkeys, which were native to the area, but historians think it was probably duck or geese. A letter written by Plymouth colonist Edward Winslow for the Pilgrims, giving thanks for the autumn harvest wasn't a new concept. As a tradition with roots in European harvest festivals and Christian religious observances, "days of thanksgiving" were fairly common among the colonists of New England. Throughout America's colonial era, communities held their own unofficial Thanksgiving celebrations, and few people associated them with the Plymouth settlers.

By the turn of the 19th century, however, turkey had become a popular dish to serve on such occasions. There were a few reasons for this. First, the bird was rather plentiful. One expert estimated that there were at least 10 million turkeys in America at the time of European contact. Second, turkeys on a family farm were almost always available for slaughter. While live cows and hens were useful as long as they were producing milk and eggs, respectively, turkeys were generally raised only for their meat and thus could be readily killed. Third, a single turkey was usually big enough to feed a family.

Nevertheless, turkeys were not yet synonymous with Thanksgiving. Some people have credited Charles Dickens's A Christmas Carol [1843] with bolstering the idea of turkey as a holiday meal. But another writer, Sarah Josepha Hale, played an arguable more important role. In her 1827 novel Northwood, she devoted an entire chapter to a description of a New England Thanksgiving, with a roasted turkey placed at the head of the table. At about the same time, she also began campaigning to establish Thanksgiving as a national holiday in the United States, which she believed would help unify the country as it teetered towards civil war. Her efforts finally paid off in 1863 with a presidential proclamation by Abraham Lincoln.

From a more practical perspective, turkey has also remained relatively affordable. Although the wild turkey was considered endangered in the 20th century, its population once again stands in the millions. In addition modern breeding practices have helped make turkeys both larger and cheaper than ever, thus ensuring their continued place on the Thanksgiving Table.

Wishing everyone an enjoyable and happy THANKSGIVING.

DUI: WHO WAS DRIVING?

Reggie "K"

State troopers pulled over a 2005 Nissan after spotting the auto being driven erratically on Interstate 95 outside Port St. Lucie Florida. When cops contacted the driver, they detected the “obvious and distinct odor” of booze coming from inside the vehicle. The motorist Scot Garrett, 56, was slurring his words, and had red very glassy and blood shot eyes. On the car’s front passenger seat was a bottle of Sailor Spiced Rum. Before performing a series of field sobriety tests, Garrett then sought to pin the dangerous driving on another party. “He then stated he was not driving the vehicle, but it was the DOG who was driving”. Despite Garrett’s alibi, he was arrested for drunk driving, his blood alcohol content was more than three times the .08 legal limit.

TOILET PAPER CAPER

According to a guard at a Marriott hotel in Orlando Fl., who was patrolling spotted a man pushing a trash can towards a Honda van. When the suspect reached the vehicle, he removed a bag from the can and placed it inside the van. Finding the man’s action suspicious, the guard peaked through the van’s window and noticed the bag was full of unused toilet paper rolls {66 rolls } that belonged to the hotel. The man was later identified as Angel Hernandez 31. The guard confronted Angel who admitted to taking the toilet paper. Cops arrived at the Marriott and questioned Hernandez regarding the toilet paper. Hernandez claimed that he knew a lady who was poor and had no job and was only taking the toilet paper to help her and her family.

Needless to say, that Hernandez was arrested for committing a crime.
Well his intentions were good.

LOTTORY TICKET [SCRATCH OFF]

Herbert McClellan, [27] was accused of swiping more than a dozen scratch-off lottery tickets from a local Speedway in Clearwater, after trying to cash in a winning ticket at the same store. Police say tat Herbert strolled into the store and while the worker behind the counter was caught up doing something else, Herbert reached over the counter and took 13 different scratch-offs worth just over a $100.00. McClellan slipped out of the store, but apparently could not wait to see if any of the tickets were winners. One was in the amount of $30.00 and so a few hours later he showed back up at the same Speedway to cash it in. The Clearwater police were waiting for him.
I guess it was not his lucky day after all.

BANK ROBBERS

Things did not work out too well for three Oklahoma City teenagers who allegedly planned to rob a bank using Uber as transportation. Police say the Uber driver who took the teens to the bank called authorities after hearing one of them say he had a gun and was going to “cap somebody” police say a gun was found on one of the teens after he tried to fight officers who arrived at the bank. The teens had apparently already arranged an Uber for their getaway. Driver Brandon Case said he was waiting outside the bank when he saw the teenagers being taken away in handcuffs and was told by the officer that there had been a robbery attempt. “they called me for a getaway car,” he said.

If you are going to do something like that, have your own car.

TERIYAKI LONDON BROIL

Ingredients.

- ½ cup vegetable oil
- 1/4 cup soy sauce
- 3 tbsp. honey
- 2 tbsp rice-wine vinegar
- 3 green onions chopped
- 1 clove garlic
- 1 tsp. grated ginger
- 1/2 lb. London broil.

Directions:

Place the vegetable oil, soy sauce, Honey, vinegar, onions, garlic and ginger in a large bowl and mix well. Add the beef to the bowl and coat well with the marinade. Cover and refrigerate for four hours, turning beef every hour. Preheat the grill to medium high. Add the beef and grill, brushing occasionally with the marinade until desired doneness, 6-8 minutes on each side. Cover and let rest in a warm place for 5 min. Meanwhile, place the remaining marinade in a small saucepan, bring to a boil, then simmer for 2 min. Slice the steak and spoon the warm marinade on top.

FRIED ZUCCHINI APPETIZER

Take a good size zucchini and cut into slices [not too thin but not too thick, use your own judgement] In a frying pan heat ½ cup of vegetable oil. Take a good portion of bread crumbs add some spices [to our liking] take the slices of zucchini and dip them in the bread crumbs on both sides one by one and place them into the frying pan. Fry until golden brown on both sides.

You can also do this with tomatoes, dill pickles, squash etc.

Beat the eggs and almond extract until blended and smooth. Pour the cream cheese mixture over the graham cracker base. Bake until firm around the edges, but slightly loose in center, 45-50 minutes. Turn off the oven and leave the cheesecake inside with the door slightly ajar for one hour.

JOKES

Reggie "K"

A small business owner was dismayed when a brand-new corporate chain much like his own opened up next door and erected a huge sign which read

BEST BLACK FRIDAY DEALS.

He was horrified when another competitor opened on his right and announced its arrival with an even bigger sign reading LOWEST BLACK FRIDAY PRICES.

The small business owner panicked, until he got an idea. He put the biggest sign of all over his shop,

MAIN ENTRANCE.

A man always wanted a parrot since he was a boy. His family knowing this decided to surprise him on Thanksgiving Day. Now the parrot was not raised in a Christian environment and it was mocking, insulting, and threatening the man. That Thanksgiving Day he got the man, so angry that he put the parrot in the freezer. After 3 minutes, he let the parrot out. The parrot says, "I take it by your attitude and behavior I somehow offended you." The man said, "You did." Then the parrot said, "can I ask you a question?" The man "Shure, what is it?" The parrot asked,

"WHAT DID THE TURKEY DO?"

An elderly man in Phoenix calls his son in New York and says, "I hate to ruin your day, but I have to tell you that your mother and I are divorcing: 45 years of misery is enough." "Dad what are you talking about?" the son screams. "we can't stand the sight of each other any longer I'm tired of talking about this too, so you call your sister in Chicago and tell her," and he hangs up. Frantic, the son calls his sister, who explodes on the phone. "like hell they're getting divorced," she shouts, "I'll take care of this." She calls Phoenix immediately, and screams at the old man, "you are NOT getting divorced. Do not do a single thing until I get there. I am calling my brother back, and we'll both be there tomorrow. Until then, do not do a thing, DO YOU EAR ME?" The old man hangs up the phone and turns to his wife "Okay" he says, "they're coming for thanksgiving. Now what do we tell them for Christmas.?"

One year at Thanksgiving, my mom went to my sister's house for the traditional feast. Knowing how gullible my sister is, my mom decided to play a trick. She told my sister that she needed something from the store. When my sister left, my mom took the turkey out of the oven, removed the stuffing, stuffed a Cornish hen into the turkey, and re-stuffed the turkey. She then placed the birds back in the oven.

When it was time for dinner, my sister pulled the turkey out of the oven and proceeded to remove the stuffing. When her serving spoon hit something, she reached in and pulled out the little bird. With a look of total shock on her face, my mother explained, “Patricia, you cooked a PREGNANT turkey!”

At the reality of this horrifying news, my sister started to cry.

It took the family two hours to convince her that turkeys lay eggs.
