Homeowners of Oak Crest / Acorn Residents, Inc.

By Donna Tope, President. Lot #648 727-474-3443

I am writing this near the end of August. I am hoping (and praying) that by now the weather is a bit cooler than it has been. Still, I have enjoyed the summer and the busyness. We have been doing some redecorating at home, so I have painted walls, furniture and anything I can get my hands on. Fun, fun, fun.

Our friends from up north are probably returning already and will continue to multiply thru January. Things should be hopping soon. I hope we can greet them with a positive and grateful attitude regarding the place we live.

As a reminder, the first step of a maintenance request is to take it to the office. Get it WRITTEN down on the office form, get a copy and follow up with a phone call if not taken care of in 2 weeks. If you believe it is a reasonable request, see a board member for one of our forms so that we can track it as well. I have found the office to be quite cooperative with reasonable requests and when they are approached in a noncombative manner.

Remember, if you plan to change or add something outdoors on your lot (other than planting flowers), we must get office approval.

Check the wiring on the outside AC unit to be sure nothing is hanging out, especially lying on the ground. You may need to add a row of bricks around the unit to keep the weed eater from catching the wires. As a point of interest, the office can notarize documents and will do it for free. I did not know this.

Hope to see you at the HOA meeting OCTOBER 23.

Per Article II of the By-Laws of the HOA, all owners are members and are to pay a $10.00 annual fee as a part of ownership. If your home number appears below, you have paid the current year fee. If it doesn't show, you can drop off $10.00 at Lot 291 (Ed Hahn, treasurer). Ed is also willing to come pick up the fee from you, just give him a call at 727-519-3023: 2,3,14,15,21,24,29,30,33,41,48,54,63,65,67,68,72,76,82,84,85,88,89,92,94,98,101,103,107,108,115,127,128,133,134,136,137,142,149,152,154,166,167,170,172,178,181,186,187,188,192,194,206,218,222,224,232,233,234,239,241,247,249,250,258,259,260,261,262,263,270,272,273,274,277,281,283,284,285,290,291,292,295,297,298,305,308,312,313,314,315,318,322,328,329,330,331,332,333,334,

Did you know that October is also...

Adopt a Dog Month. Each year an estimated 3 million to 4 million animals waiting in shelters never find someone to give them a safe, loving home and are euthanized. If you're thinking about getting a dog, be a hero and consider adopting from your local shelter.

Down Syndrome Awareness Month. Approximately one in every 700 babies in the United States is born with Down syndrome, making it the most common chromosomal condition. During October you can celebrate people with Down syndrome and make others aware of their abilities and accomplishments.

National Cyber Security Awareness Month. The internet touches almost all aspects of our daily life. National Cyber Security Awareness Month is designed to engage and educate public and private sector partners through events and initiatives to raise awareness about the importance of cyber security, provide them with tools and resources needed to stay safe online, and increase the resiliency of the nation in the event of a cyber incident.

National Protect Your Hearing Month. Hearing loss is a growing health issue among young adults and older Americans alike. Forty-eight million people nationwide suffer from hearing loss. National Protect Your Hearing Month is an important reminder to take steps to preserve your hearing health.

Mental Illness Awareness Week, Oct. 1-7. During Mental Illness Awareness Week, join the National Alliance on Mental Illness in shining a light on mental illness and replacing stigma with hope.

World Space Week, Oct. 4-10. More than 2,700 events in 86 countries celebrated the benefits of space and excitement about space exploration in 2016. This year's theme, "Exploring New Worlds In Space," aims to inspire even more events around the world.

National Business Women's Week, Oct. 15-21. The purpose of this observance is "to recognize women who have been the cornerstone of working in business in the United States in the past and to examine how far women in business have come."

Thoughts to ponder

Thoughts and observations that might or might not be true:

- Do not argue with an idiot. He will drag you down to his level and beat you with experience.
- The last thing I want to do is hurt you. But it's still on my list.
- If I agreed with you, we'd both be wrong.
- I asked God for a bike, but it turns out God doesn't work that way. So I stole a bike and asked God for forgiveness.
- We never really grow up. We only learn how to act in public.
- A bus station is where a bus stops. A train station is where a train stops. On my desk, I have a work station ...
- I thought I wanted a career. Turns out I just wanted a paycheck.
- Whenever I fill out an application, in the part that says, "In case of emergency, notify _____," I put "DOCTOR."
- You do not need a parachute to skydive. You do need a parachute to skydive twice.
- I used to be indecisive. Now I'm not so sure.
- You're never too old to learn something stupid.
- I always take life with a grain of salt. Then a slice of lemon and a shot of tequila.
- When tempted to fight fire with fire, remember that the fire department usually uses water.

Two busy parents

Billy ran into the house shouting, "Mom! Mom! Come quick! I just knocked the ladder over outside!"

"I'm very, very busy," his mother said. "Why don't you get your father?"

"I can't! Come on!"

"What's he doing now that's so important?"

"He's hanging from the roof!"

Man of the house

Before he left on a business trip, the father took his young son aside.

"Son," he said, "I'm trusting you to take care of the family while I'm gone. You're going to be the man of the house."

Comprehending the gravity of the situation, the child replied soberly, "In that case, I'm going to need the remote."

Find your creative style

Whatever you want to achieve on the job or in your life, you need creativity to do it. That doesn't mean you have to have the scientific genius of Einstein or the artistic vision of Georgia O'Keeffe. You can unleash your creative mind by finding your own creative style. Here's how entrepreneurial expert Esther de Charon de Saint Germain describes styles on The Huffington Post website:

- Watchmakers. Some people are highly structured and detail oriented. They like to polish their ideas until they're as close to perfect as possible.
- Wave makers. These folks are more intuitive. They don't dive into details, but think in big-picture concepts. They're apt to lose interest, though, once the hard work of hammering down their ideas starts.
- Acrobats. These thinkers can go both ways. They think outside of the box, but they're also able to hone their ideas into something practical. Try to be this kind of creator.

Improve your brain with these tips

Do you want to think more clearly, experience more insight, and have more creative breakthroughs? Take a look at a few tasks (from the Inc. website) that you can put into practice today for a more productive and imaginative brain:

- Seek out new environments. Don't stay in your rut. Go to a concert by a band you've never heard of. Visit a museum you've never been to. Travel somewhere completely new. You'll shake up your mind and nudge it in new directions.
- Let your mind wander. Don't focus all the time. Give your mind permission to soar from time to time, just exploring anything that pops in. A relaxed mind is more open to new ideas and different ways of thinking.
- Have more fun. All work and no play makes ... well, you know the rest. Take time for fun. Play a new game, take up a fresh hobby, meet new people who share your interests and can introduce you to new ones. Playfulness can lead to great ideas.
- Stop multi-tasking. When you're working on a problem or an idea, put away all distractions and focus. If you're constantly shifting from one task to another, your brain will get tired, and you won't have the perspective you need to zero in on what you're looking for.

Dinosaurs may have been big softies

The popular image of dinosaurs is one of tough, ferocious creatures, but they may have been more sensitive than previously thought—at least their faces.

According to the Science News website, paleontologists at the University of Southampton used advanced X-ray and 3-D imaging to examine the skull of a large carnivorous land-based dinosaur found on the Isle of Wight and found that its snout may have actually been very tender—more like that of an aquatic creature. The dinosaur, a Neovenator, may have possessed pressure receptors in the skin of its snout, similar to those enabling crocodiles to forage in murky water.

Because scientists don't believe the Neovenator was a water feeder, they speculate the receptors may have been useful for picking meat from bones while eating and also stroking other dinosaur faces during mating.

What caused a massive extinction of sea life?

Most people know about the mass extinction of the dinosaurs millions of years ago, but paleontologists are hot the trail of another catastrophic event: the dying off by large marine animals 2-3 million years ago.

The extinction claimed the lives of up to one-third of marine megafauna, including water-based mammals, which lost 55 percent of their species. Forty-three percent of sea turtle species also died off, along with 33 percent of sea birds and 9 percent of sharks.

A team at the University of Zurich studying the event theorizes that a sudden loss of the productive coastal habitats combined with altered sea currents caused or contributed to the extinctions. The evidence suggests that large marine animals were more vulnerable to environmental changes than was previously believed.

A new trend: Traveling in search of good food

Traveling to see the wonders of world is always popular, but these days more and more people are heading out to try exotic foods. A survey by the American Automobile Association found that 22 million Americans are planning to take a food-based vacation in the next 12 months, and 75 percent of Americans say that food and drink are an important part of their travel experiences. Four out of five say they've traveled to visit wineries and distilleries, along with taking hands-on cooking classes and eating with local families.

Younger travelers are leading the trend: Eighty-eight percent of millennials say they've participated in food-related activities while traveling

Credit card debt growing in the U.S.

Americans added $89.4 billion to their credit card debt in 2016, according to the WalletHub website, and although they repaid $31.5 billion during the first quarter of 2017, that's still 9 percent less than they did during the first quarter of 2015 (but 14 percent higher than in 2016).

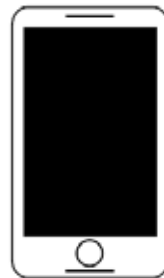

People tend to pay down credit card debt early in the year thanks to year-end bonuses and New Year's resolutions. WalletHub projects that Americans will finish 2017 with more than $60 billion in new credit card debt, for a total of more than $1 trillion overall.

Men, women, and smartphones

Here's more evidence that we're addicted to our smartphones: A survey from Decluttr.com revealed the following factoids:

- Men are four times more likely than women to use their smartphones during a wedding.
- Sixty-seven percent of men check out their devices during a romantic evening, but only 13 percent of women do.
- Twice as many women than men would rather give up sex than give up their phone.
- Smartphone owners look at their phones more when they're with friends than with their family, but men do so more than women on either occasion.
- Eighty-three of men say the worst part about not having their smartphone with them is not being able to watch videos or stream movies and TV shows, although just 17 percent of women say the same.
