The meeting of the Board of Directors in mid-June continues to be the subject of a lot of conversation.

Here are some facts regarding a few of the things being discussed:

One of the things mentioned most frequently is that only four of the members of the nine-member Board were present.

Some are suggesting that the Board can't legally do business under those circumstances.

It is a fact that the Board can, indeed, carry out business at such a meeting, provided that a sufficient number of members not physically present are connected by telephone .

At the June meeting, four of the five members not physically present were connected by telephone.

The telephone connection seemed to fail at times for one Board member or another, and business was delayed while the connection was reestablished.

That made it difficult for the assembled Shareholders to know with certainty just which Board members were participating in the Board's process at any given moment.

Nevertheless, it is a fact that while the meeting was less than calm and business-like, it met legal requirements, along with the actions taken.

The physical absence of a majority of the Board members prompted some suggestions that only full-time Palm Hill residents be allowed to serve on the Board.

It is a fact that any such stipulation would be a violation of the legal document that governs the Palm Hill legal entity, the Homeowners of Palm Hill, Inc.

Every Shareholder has the right to stand for election to the Board. It is irrelevant from a legal standpoint whether the Shareholder resides in Palm Hill full-time or spends part of the year elsewhere, either in a northern U.S. state or in Canada or in any other location.

The Board members currently serving did, indeed, stand for election, and they were chosen in a process in which every Shareholder was free to participate.

It is a fact that fewer than half of the eligible voters usually take part in the annual election in which Board members are chosen.

It is a fact that in the most recent election, about 40 percent of the eligible voters cast ballots. The participation number has been ever lower in some prior elections.

An oft-cited truism is: We get the government that we deserve. Meaning, of course, that if we vote and then are unhappy with those elected, it's our own doing; and if we don't vote and are unhappy, then it's also our own doing.

On another -- but related -- subject:

John Degrassi, 29 Thatch Palm West, contacted The Link to express dismay at the disorder displayed at the June Board meeting, and other recent meetings, and suggested the following as a "thought worth thinking:"

"When you move into a suburb you're surrounded by strangers. When you move into a mobile home park you're living with family."

MANAGER'S CORNER

Richard Thomas, LCAM 727-581-8729 managerpalmhill@tampabay.rr.com

There's no Manager's Corner this month. For possible updates: Palm Hill's TV Channel 732, the Palm Hill e-mail system, the Palm Hill website and announcements at coffees.

ON THE COVER:

The Kentucky Derby watch party is a major event in Palm Hill. It draws both enthusiastic race fans and creative hat designers to the clubhouse to see the race and all the pageantry on the big TV screen.

A highlight of the event is the hat contest. This year's winners, pictured on the cover, were Marilyn Moutvic for funniest hat, Sheila Pratt for most color coordinated hat, and Carolyn Charles for prettiest hat.

BOARD MEETING SCHEDULE

Here's a tentative schedule of upcoming meetings of the Board of Directors. For possible updates: Palm Hill TV Channel 732, the Palm Hill e-mail system, the Palm Hill website, and announcements at coffees.

Wednesday October 2 a workshop meeting at 4 p.m. in the South Clubhouse.

Wednesday October 16 a business meeting at 2 p.m. in the South Clubhouse.

Wednesday November 6 a workshop meeting at 4 p.m. in the North Clubhouse.

Wednesday November 20 a business meeting at 3 p.m. in the North Clubhouse

REFLECTIONS

An occasional presentation by a Palm Hill resident of a memory involving our community. Submissions are welcome. The following is by Mary Ellen Cole.

Since Phyllis Beckwith recalled for us the beginning of the Palm Hill Players (in The Link for June), I thought that I would tell about some of the little things that happened along the way.

We called the first show held in the South Clubhouse "A Dream Come True." Connie Martin and Bob Thomas played the leading roles.

Because the stage was small, the set consisted of a box-like platform that held two rocking chairs, a small telephone table and a phone.

One of the scenes was a wedding. The bride (me) and the groom (Woody Peltz) were out on the platform, the bride seated and the groom standing behind her. The Hawaiian wedding song was being sung.

Suddenly I felt the platform shaking. I was sure that an earthquake was happening. Woody confessed to me after the performance that he was so nervous he was shaking like a leaf. Poor Woody! He had a wonderful voice and sang in other shows through the years.

Some of the men formed a group and sang harmony for Easter sunrise service in the park. I recall that the group included Carl Shaw, Bob Thomas, Mike Hopstock, John Summerville and my dad, Mike Finochio. When we did a segment from "The Music Man" they sang Lida Rose and it was great.

Bill Mutart played the lead in "The Music Man." Bill was wonderful. He lip-synched Lili Marlene as Marlene Dietrich; he also lip-synched Kermit the Frog. He and Bob Backman did several skits together. I remember them dressed as Italian ladies doing the tarantella. What a funny sight that was!

No matter what I asked Bill to do, he always came through with a stellar performance.

We also did a segment from "The Sound of Music." The Palm Hill Players as the von Trapp kids were hilarious. Connie Martin was Maria von Trapp and Bill Beveridge was Captain von Trapp. Lois Vollmer was Mother Superior and sang "Climb Every Mountain" beautifully.

We also did a segment from "Fiddler on the Roof." My husband, Irv Cole, was Tevye. On the day before the first performance, Irv became sick with the flu and had no voice. I rushed him to the doctor's office. She gave him a shot and a Z-Pac which brought his voice back, although it was in a much lower key!

In the performance, Irv was supposed to fill the cups of the other actors with milk but he could not get the lid off the milk can. The audience found that hilarious. Irv looked out at the audience and quipped, "Somebody sat on this thing." He did a superb job anyway.

Mary Ellen Cole

Joe Visco played the role of Motel, the tailor, who was to marry Teyva's daughter. During the ceremony Joe wore a tape measure around his neck, and he forgot to remove it before the wedding. Yes, it was funny!

We also had about five men doing an Israeli dance. My father was one of them. They did a fine job, prayer shawls and yarmulkes as well.

There were many shows and many stories over the years. These are but a few. I could write a book!

"...I am so happy with my new windows...I'd like to commend your work crew. Earbie and Larry were fantastic! I couldn't believe the clean-up EVERYDAY! The whole job took just a week even with all the rain delays. I would and WILL highly recommend your company to my friends and neighbors. Of course I won't need to say a word – the house is doing all the talking! Thank you so much for my beautiful new house."

Carol Zapiecki, Clearwater, FL

"Just a short note to express my appreciation for the work done on my mobile home. The crews that worked here...were gentlemen at all times, efficient, knowledgeable and prompt. You can be sure if I run into anybody who needs your type of work, I will surely recommend your company. It has been a very satisfying experience!"

HELPING HANDS

Ted Silva 508-965-6072

Helping Hands has added a new service: Transportation to activities within Palm Hill!
Want to go to bingo...pot luck...meetings...social events...shuffleboard...whatever?
If it's a Palm Hill event, we'll pick you up, take you to the site, and return you to your home.

We'll need as much advance notice as you can give, but no less than two days.

This new service is in addition to our traditional role of providing transportation to locations outside Palm Hill for doctor visits, eye exams, bank trips, grocery shopping, beauty parlor appointments, etc.

In addition, we try to arrange for "comfort visits" to residents who live alone, or maybe can't get out and might just like to have someone come by to visit. If you want someone to stop by occasionally, or know someone who would like to have a visit, please call.

Helping Hands does not charge for any service, and volunteers do not accept any "tips" of any kind.

If there's no answer when you call, leave a message. If you don't get a response in a reasonable time, please call Carl Simon at 727-475-0489.

We're always looking for volunteers. If you want to help, please call Ted Silva at 508-965-6072.

MORTON PLANT TRANSPORTATION SERVICE

Morton Plant's free Care Van Services is available to Palm Hill residents.

The service provides transportation to the following Morton Plant-related medical facilities:

Axelrod Pavilion, BayCare Laboratories, Cheek-Powell Heart and Vascular Institute, Morton Plant Hospital Campus, Ptak Orthopaedic and Neuroscience Institute, Turley Family Health Center

The service is available Monday through Friday from 8 a.m. to 3 p.m. Those using it must be able to get in and out of the van without assistance. Reservations can be made by telephoning 727-461-8548.

MESCO

Linda Simon 727-559-0164

Our volunteers for August are:

Herb Leslie	727-584-4628
Charlotte Ernest	727-585-5845

Any resident of Palm Hill who needs medical equipment should contact one of this month's MESCO volunteers to see whether what is needed is available. If it is, the use of the equipment is free of charge. The borrowed item should be returned when it no longer is needed.

RCS

Charlotte Ernest 727-585-5845

We are really in the dog days of summer now, and the RCS barrels are not getting many donations. It's important that we remember there are fewer people here to contribute this time of year and we need to pick up the slack as much as we can.

Please try to remember to bring a cup for your coffee and a donation for the barrel when you come for coffee on Mondays and Wednesdays in the clubhouses. Thanks for your continued support for this project.
