A LERT: Because of the evolving situation with the Coronavirus, and both Clubhouses having been closed, please watch for email messages from the Webmaster and Management, and announcements on the website and Channel 732 for critical information, and updates for any events that are listed in The May LINK.

All are subject to cancellation if the Clubhouses should remain closed throughout May.

EDITOR'S CORNER: Unity Matters

Perhaps – and hopefully – the following Editor's Corner will describe a situation that is behind us by the time the May LINK reaches your hands in late April or early May.

As of mid-April, we are – or should be – Staying Safer at Home.

That is what we are doing for ourselves and for each other. In doing this, we are helping to stop or at least slow the Coronavirus spread. Scientists estimate that one person infected with the new Coronavirus will infect another 3.3 people, on average. One report indicated that first contact could extrapolate to 59,000 people potentially infected or exposed. Models may not always be right, but they can be useful.

Social distancing can interrupt that chain of events, can stop the virus from jumping from one person to three, and then on and on. Our demographic at Palm Hill is considered to be the highest risk category for the most severe consequences of Coronavirus. Our demographic is always mentioned in reports about protecting the most vulnerable groups in our society. We are in a better position than some communities because many of us are retired and don't have to interact with the public on a daily basis. That reduces our exposure and risk.

This distancing behavior has been documented to work in some states that showed the virus spread weeks before Florida, and in other countries that have slowed the rate of Coronavirus, a virus that is more transmissible and more fatal than the flu. How well social distancing works is documented in data about how the flu epidemic in 1918 decimated different cities according to data about which cities did not close events and enforce social distancing – Philadelphia vs. St. Louis is an example. How well it works is also shown through the numbers of deaths in nursing homes and aboard cruise ships, where distancing was not always possible early on.

We are slowing the virus through social isolation and keeping our six-foot distance from others while out on an essential trip, which is defined in the Pinellas County Stay Safer at Home order. In doing this, we are doing our part in staying healthy to avoid using health care resources. We are thus preserving the health system's resources – including the front-line medical workers – to help those in dire need.

In slowing the virus, we are giving more time to the efforts around the world to tackle the current pandemic, and to analyze data, and test and develop new diagnostic tools, treatments, and perhaps a vaccine.

The research shared in pursuit of this common goal will improve the world's response to emerging infectious diseases in the future. It will push innovations and technology, and advance the world's knowledge to solve a common challenge in the fight against a disease that is uncommon in its potential destructive power – both to our health and to economic stability.

The experience has and will continue to unite people in the understanding of the power of one person to make a difference, and what will happen when the power of one is multiplied across a community.

We are all coping in different ways, trying to stay safe, while staying in our homes with time on our hands.

Some residents have shared their stories with the LINK and those stories are contained in pages to follow.

Some stories will give you ideas, some will make you smile, all will provide a connection among us, knowing how we are all finding new ways to spend our time – alone, together.

ON THE COVER

It wasn't so long ago when Palm Hill was abuzz with activities and social interaction. Those days will return. The Cover Photo this month shows the Palm Hill pickle ball players celebrating at their end-of-season party – reminding us of the Good (not so) Old Days!

CORONAVIRUS NEWS and RESOURCES

Public Health and Medical Experts say:

- If you are sick do not go to your doctor's office or the hospital.
- First, call your doctor for advice on next steps.

Information on what to do if you are sick: type the following into your internet browser:
<http://www.pinellascounty.org/emergency/covid19/default.htm#sick>

Pinellas County Citizen's Information: 727-464-4333 (Only activated during emergencies or disasters. Now activated for Coronavirus pandemic.)

Florida call center on Coronavirus (24/7): 866-779-6121

Personal Planning: As you have a Hurricane Plan, consider creating a Coronavirus Plan.

An example:

- A one-page document can contain: Selfie of you, contact info/phone number or email for family or personal emergency contact info, your medical conditions info, your medication list, your doctor's name and number. Share with your family members.

- Insert this document in an envelope marked with large bold letters: “EMERGENCY MEDICAL INFO/RX LIST”.
- Consider putting it in a conspicuous place, perhaps taped to your refrigerator door, which will make a handy grab if you have to leave your home for medical care or are ordered to evacuate your home in an emergency.
- Email the document as an attachment to your own email so you always have accessible in your cell-phone.
- (Hurricane plans would include quick access to critical documents/information that you may need for any extended relocation.)

Palm Hill Website:

The website administrators have added links to federal, state and local sites that offer information about the evolving Coronavirus situation. This information is now posted on the new External Links page.

Links are also posted below (you must type these addresses into your internet browser).

Updates on the Stay at Home Order and Palm Hill restrictions are being sent out via the email blasts. (If you are not getting email blasts, see story later in the LINK with instructions.)

Website addresses below must be typed into your browser. On the Palm Hill website, they are clickable.

- Centers for Disease Control (CDC): <https://www.cdc.gov>

- NEWS: Florida Department of Public Health: <http://pinellas.floridahealth.gov/>
- Florida Coronavirus update site: <http://www.floridahealth.gov/diseases-and-conditions/COVID-19/> (Offers latest information, including case tracking by county)
- Florida Governor Ron DeSantis (FLGov.com)
- https://www.largo.com/news_detail_T27_R467.php (Coronavirus information)

Watching out for neighbors:

- Ted Silva, coordinator for Georgeanne’s Helping Hands at Palm Hill, is putting together a list of residents who live alone so that volunteers can check in with them. He asks that anyone who lives alone, or knows someone who lives alone at Palm Hill, to please email him at tedsilva@comcast.net or Hope Barina at hopebar107@gmail.com. The program was to launch in late April.

Mr. Silva said due to the Coronavirus, the usual assistance offered through Helping Hands is being curtailed to protect volunteers and residents, in compliance with the Centers for Disease Control recommendations. He said those who require assistance may still call him at 508-965-6072 to discuss possible safe solutions.

STAYING APART, TOGETHER – Coping in a time of physical/social distancing

From serenading neighbors and dancing in the street to music heard from a porch on a solo walk around the park, to shoveling snow from a roof in New Brunswick, tackling spring cleaning and household upgrades, sewing masks for neighbors or crocheting blankets for loved ones, Palm hill residents are keeping busy and maintaining social connections even during social and physical distancing.

Cathy Caputo

Palm Hill seamstresses came to the rescue making cloth masks for family and neighbors in Palm Hill. Cathy Caputo sewed masks for neighbors as did Wilna Varney, Dolores Johnson and Marilyn Gleason made and distributed more than 100 masks through messaging on the Palm Hill email blasts.

Seamstresses bring a valuable skill to society. According to the website whip-stitch.com (<http://whip-stitch.com/great-women-in-sewing/>) seamstresses have “left a legacy behind with their needles. They’ve influenced civil rights, women’s rights, worker’s rights. They’ve impacted

- Jane and Al Garner spent time doing crossword puzzles together, called old friends just to say hello and check on them, sat in a friend’s driveway (six feet apart) and had a drink and conversation, had groceries delivered and a meal once in a while. “Staying Happy and Healthy!”
- Deane Fink refreshed her Spanish language skills by texting with a friend in Puerto Rico. She experimented with menus using food on hand, learned new chords and tunes on her ukulele, reviewed and memorized Luther’s Catechism, researched family history and shared with cousins, organized drawers, spices and telephone book, caught up with On Demand movies, continued her fitness routine to maintain health and contacted longtime friends to check on their welfare. “These are a few things I have been doing; looks like a month won’t be enough time! Stay Safe.”
- Linda Grommoll made quilts to donate to a shelter for abused women and nursing homes and made hats to send north.

- Nicole and Yves Theriault drove back to New Brunswick, Canada on March 22, then spent 14 days inside without going out for essentials. “We had all that we needed and more without having to buy excess. What a shock leaving Florida with gorgeous hot weather and hot sunshine and feet in the sand to come home to snow. We had a big bank of snow about seven feet high. Had to clean the driveway (see photo) to get to the garage. First priority was to shovel the snow to the driveway so we could get the snow removed.

In the 14 days inside, we did snow-shoeing in the woods behind the house, caught up with cleaning. Everyone here seemed to be very aware of the severity of the Coronavirus. Staying home was our priority. The world will never be the same. We hope to be back in Florida next year!”

- Peggy and Frank Novara

“Singing Happy Birthday each time we washed our hands (for 20 seconds) was beginning to make us feel older every day. So, we quickly switched to saying the Lord's Prayer. Keeps us focused on what is important as well as keeping our hands washed. We end each prayer with praise for our good health and a remembrance for family members.”

• The Bees Blanket

“My Mother made an afghan in school colors for each of my sons when they went to college, and our grandson, Cole is graduating from high school soon and heading to the Savannah College of Arts and Design. Their sports teams’ mascot is a Bee. So, I dug out my crochet hook and re-taught myself how to crochet. I gathered my husband and sister and we all went to Michael's before they closed and bought them out of black and yellow gold yarn. Cole is 6'1" so this afghan was going to take all the yarn they had. Since isolating and watching TV and movies, I have been able to get his afghan done ahead of time. I'm just finishing the border but will have it completed soon and out in the mail before graduation mid-May.”

• Golf Course Discovery (The Novaras live on the golf course.)

“We have met many new people who have now ventured out on the golf course to walk or ride bikes. Such a healthy way to socially distance but still be able to be out and wave to neighbors. Several mentioned they had never even seen our beautiful golf course before and of course are very impressed.”

- Cathy Caputo knitted a blanket for a new baby relative and participated in Zoom conversations with relatives. She and husband John got busy on home repairs: installing new windows (“nothing was square!”), painting the ceiling in the lanai and completing other home projects.

- Carolyn Story, Thatch Palm West, didn’t have a mask and so assembled her own shopping ensemble. “This was my “Go-to-Publix” outfit. As I entered the store, an employee said I was the most stylish shopper he had seen all day!”

- Dan Hannafin emerged from his Jiggles the Clown retirement for a remote video with three grandchildren in northern Maine. Since he had already donned the costume, wife Judi drove Jiggles around Palm Hill, honking, waving and cheering neighbors on Easter Sunday.

• Tom and Cecilia Schermaul: Cecilia said she got antsy just sitting around the first week. “But there was a little voice, (loud really), telling me well, you wanted to paint the bedroom... Now, no excuses. I had a wall that matched the old color I had painted at the wall behind the bed, like a deep muted pinky red. Our master bath was done in the same color. So that’s what I did – corrected all past mistakes. I painted the master bedroom in a rich cream with white wood trim. Very nice if I do say so. Now, all the doors need painting. Our Blessing to all our friends in this Park.”

• Rich and Mariann Viel, like many people, wondered how they could help. They decided to donate blood – “a small sacrifice” compared to the contributions of the medical professionals on the front lines, Mariann wrote. The couple helped neighbors in small projects or grocery purchases. Mariann kept up exercise and logged 60 miles jogging in March alone.

“Books, books, books! Luckily, I loaded up on reading material prior to the libraries in Palm Hill shutting down. And, of course all those little projects that were sidelined by the beach, golf, shopping, and the many Palm Hill activities. So, Palm Hill take this time to enjoy your loved ones, the beautiful weather and LIFE.”

AND WHEN THIS IS OVER – What do you most look forward to doing when the stay safer at home order is lifted?

Send us your answer to be published in next month’s LINK – send to linktopalmhill@gmail.com

NEWS AS CLOSE AS NEXTDOOR

By Chuck Silcox, Palm Hill lead for Nextdoor

Palm Hill has a private social network app called Nextdoor that is very easy to use. We have had it in use for more than two years and more than 465 people have signed up to use it.

Here are some useful applications:

1. Secure. You can set it up so your newsfeed only contains inside the fence of Palm Hill and Nextdoor does not share any of your info.
2. Everyone likes to message different people but with so many choices of apps it is difficult to find people. With Nextdoor you can easily find anybody by first or last name.
3. If you have just two or 10 people in a common group you can create a group to send notes to without having to email two, text three and messenger the rest. It is a safe way to converse.

Some users search for anybody that has a like interest, like woodworking or scrapbooking. One user said she used it like an instant message to alert people to a suspicious person in the neighborhood, and another was alerted to coyotes running on their street.

For an invitation to join from me, (Chuck Silcox) type this into your internet browser: nextdoor.com/!HGHWFE.

SPREAD YOUR NEWS: TV ANNOUNCEMENTS

To get the latest Palm Hill announcements, tune your TV to Channel 732 (must be keyed in; not listed in the channel guide).

To submit information for posting, e-mail it to PHCCTVCOMMUNICATIONS@GMAIL.COM.

If you are unable to e-mail your notice, hand deliver it to the person responsible for updating the channel. That person varies from time to time, but the current name always appears on the channel.

ENSURING YOU GET ALL PALM HILL COMMUNICATIONS

Since the closure of the Clubhouses and cancelling of events and activities, almost 60 people have contacted the webmaster to request website access so they can get the email blasts and keep abreast of what is happening in the Park.

For those who are not getting the email blasts, website administrator Jean Stjernstrom offers the following.

- Verify your email address is correct in our website member directory (palmhillcountryclub.net). If it is not correct, email the Palm Hill web administrator at palmhillcc18@gmail.com or the webmaster at palmhill.webmaster@gmail.com for assistance.
- Check your junk or spam mail and if there, mark the email blast as “not junk”
- If everything is correct on the Palm Hill website most likely the shareholder’s email provider is blocking Palm Hill blasts.
- The Palm Hill website uses four servers to send email blasts:
- palmhillcountryclub.net, mailgun.org, onnetserver.com, onnetserver3.com. To ensure your email provider will not block incoming email blasts, each of these servers will need to be added per instructions below.
- If all fails, the shareholder should provide a different email address in their profile on the website.

Instructions, according to your provider:

Gmail

Add to your Gmail Contacts List:

Click “Contacts” on the left side of any Gmail page.

Then Click “Create Contact”.

Copy and paste palmhillcountryclub.net into the primary email address dialog box.

Click “Save”. Repeat for each server.

Yahoo

Set up a filter to our email address in your inbox:

Open your mailbox and click on “Mail Options” (upper right-hand corner).

Select “Filters” under the Management column. Click on the “Add” button.

In the “From header:” row, pick “contains” in the drop-down, and enter the email address palmhillcountryclub.net in the box.

At the bottom of the page Click the “Choose Folder” and select “Inbox”.

Click the “Add Filter” button. Repeat for each server.

Outlook 2003/2007/2010

Add our email address to your Safe Senders list:

Go to the Tools menu, click “Options”.

Then on the Preferences tab, click “Junk E-mail”.

And, within the Safe Senders tab, click “Add”.

In the Add address box, copy and paste support@bsf.io. Click OK.

Outlook also considers email IDs added to contacts to be safe. You can add support@bsf.io to your contact list in Outlook. This can be done by opening the email you received from us, right-clicking the From address, and selecting “Add To Contacts”. You can also access your Address Book via the tools drop-down menu. Repeat for each server.

Hotmail

Add our email address to your Hotmail Safe List:

Open your mailbox and click “Options” (upper right-hand corner).

Click the “Junk E-Mail Protection” link.

Select the “Safe List” link.

Copy and paste palmhillcountryclub.net into the dialog box titled “Type an address or domain”.

Click the “Add” button next to the dialog box.

If the mailing is in your “Junk E-Mail Folder”, open the email and click the “Not Junk” button.

Please check that palmhillcountryclub.net is not in your Blocked Senders list. You can access the Blocked Senders list by moving to Options, Junk E-Mail Protection and then Blocked Senders List. If you see an email address that shouldn't be a part of this list, select it and click the Remove button.

Others

The most common ways to allow an email address to send email to you is by adding it to the address book, white list or safe list in the email application. However, there is no standard method and it might differ from application to application.

If you do not find such an option, you will need to contact the support team of your email application and they'll surely be able to help you with this.

We hope these hints will help you whitelist our email address in your email application, so you can see our messages in your inbox directly!

GENERATIONS LIST

Carolyn Story: 727-585-1579

Palm Hill continues to attract generation after generation of residents. Check the Generations List in both clubhouses -- and on the Palm Hill website -- to see how true that is. There are 81 people currently on the list, including six families of 3rd Generation and one family of 4th Generation. If you are a descendant of someone who lived in Palm Hill previously, or who is a current resident, please contact Carolyn Story at 727-585-1579. This list is updated periodically and it would be good to have you included.

DEATHS:

We extend condolences to the loved ones and families of the Palm Hill residents who have passed.

Lawn ornaments that make us smile

Walking around Palm Hill in all seasons can feel like wandering around a botanical garden: the trees, the flowers, and the variety of colorful plants. A constant surprise are the many lawn and yard ornaments that reveal residents' creativity and sense of humor.

The Link editor counted more than 70 different animals during two walks – even a flying pig! In addition to ducks, gnomes, elves, bees, alligators, fish, herons, eagles, cranes, peacocks, and pelicans of all sizes, Palm Hill also harbors lions, a buffalo, elephants, a cow, a dragon sign, Woody Woodpecker, classical statues, including Pan, and several statues of St. Francis of Assisi. Lately, a pair of (real live) mallards has been seen dawdling around one neighborhood in the South area of the Park, and bathing in street puddles after the rain.

BOOK CLUB

Susan Fisher, Chairperson, 813-312-3872, susantfisher11@aol.com

At the March 2020 meeting, the book club picked their books for next season. With social distancing and the clubhouses being closed, we were not able to do the April 2020 book discussion on “Eleanor Oliphant Is Completely Fine”. It will be worked into the schedule listed below, or the book and discussion will be substituted for one of the dates listed.

We are listing these for next season with the great hope they will give you reading enjoyment during your extra time in isolation and that things will be back to normal by the time this schedule goes into effect in November. You can get these books free from the Largo Library as an e-book with a free app on your smart phone or tablet and a library card.

HELPING SERVICES AT PALM HILL

Ted Silva, 508-965-6072

GEORGEANNE'S HELPING HANDS – Services Curtailed During Coronavirus Pandemic Orders. Summer Volunteers Still Needed.

During the Coronavirus pandemic, the services usually offered are being curtailed temporarily to keep volunteers and residents safe. Those needing help may still call me to discuss safe solutions. We are creating a data base of residents who live alone. Please email me at tedsilva@comcast.net with your information or the name of someone you may know who lives alone in Palm Hill.

In the summer when the Snowbirds head back north the number of volunteers here diminishes significantly. And, even though there are fewer residents, hopefully we will get back to normal during the summer and provide the services that have been traditional since Georganne Donegan (and Wayne Marshall) started this Helping Hands program in 2011.

When we resume our normal services, we will need more volunteers to transport residents to doctors' appointments, grocery stores and other places they need to go. It is a “no pressure” job, the pay is the same whether you work or not, and time and a half on weekends. If you think you might be interested or just want a few more details, please call me: 508-965-6072.

MESCO

Linda Simon, 727-559-0164

There will no volunteers for May because of the Coronavirus restrictions. If you have an emergency concerning medical equipment, call 727-559-0164 and arrangements will be made to help you.

NEIGHBORHOOD WATCH

Peggy Novara, 716-903-2844 and 727-581-6739

Call Largo Police at 727-587-6730 to report suspicious activity. Dial 911 for an emergency or a crime in progress. Also: Leave outdoor lights on at night, keep doors and cars locked at all times and always be alert. Palm Hill is a very safe community – and with everyone's continued help it will stay that way.

RSC Food Drive News

Charlotte Ernest, 727-585-5845

We collected 1,472 lbs. of food, believe it or not, exactly the same as last year's food pick-up drive!

I want to thank everyone who helped but I especially want to mention Peter Dougall and Rick Gregorio for organizing and leading the 2020 Park-wide food pickup drive. We couldn't have done it without you!!

We are in a different time now and sometimes I feel a different place with all the health issues our country is enduring. Hopefully, by the time you read this the curve will have peaked and things will be on the brighter side.

In the meantime, keep taking precautions and soon we'll be together again and asking you to bring more food to Palm Hill events and food barrels for RCS, located in the two clubhouses.

For the benefit of those who may not know: RCS stands for the Religious Community Services of Pinellas County. It was founded by several churches many years ago to help feed the needy. Former Palm Hill residents Ellen Jensen and her husband organized the collection in our community.

MORTON PLANT TRANSPORTATION SERVICE –

Recorded message on the reservation line: As of April 10 this volunteer transportation service was still suspended.

For the following services or a special circumstance, call the reservation line and leave a message at 727-461-8548: chemo infusion, radiation therapy or active wound therapy.

When the service resumes: Morton Plant's free Care Van Services Mondays through Fridays 8 a.m. to 3 p.m. is available to Palm Hill residents.

No charge for transportation to the following Morton Plant-related medical facilities:

Axelrod Pavilion, BayCare Laboratories, Cheek-Powell Heart and Vascular Institute, Morton Plant Hospital Campus, Ptak Orthopaedic and Neuroscience Institute, Turley Family Health Center.
