The HOA Board

By Cole Akins

Can you believe how fast this year is going? Rumor has it they only speed up as we slow down; Does not seem fair, does it.

Your HOA bingo made it through the summer months in good shape. We maintained over a hundred players each week but one thing is missing, one person that has been here from day one. Let's all wish John Medick a speedy recovery, " You are missed John". The first fall HOA meeting was a big success. We had more member's in attendance than normal and it is good to see so much interest. Hopefully more will come out for the next meeting. The call is going out to anyone that would be interested in running for the HOA board. Remember you must pick up and return election forms no later than the October meeting to be considered. You may have noticed the sidewalk replacement project on going due in a small part to the monies paid to the CO-OP by your HOA. Let's all applaud the work by both parties. We need each other to succeed. You do not have to agree with someone but you can agree to disagree in a civil manner. And that my friend is the only way to move on. HOA and CO-OP keep up the good work.

SAVE TIME AND MONEY BY CALLING US TODAY TO GET YOUR PROJECT STARTED!

“Hello, the reason for this call is to inform you the IRS is filing lawsuit against you. To get more information about this case file, please call immediately on our Department number: ###-###-####”.

Don't panic. And don't return the call. It's a scam.

Here are a few facts about the IRS to keep in mind if you get a similar call:

- If the IRS needs to contact you, they'll do it by mail first.
- The IRS won't demand personal information like credit card or Social Security numbers over the phone.
- The IRS won't threaten to arrest or sue you, or demand that you pay right away. The IRS also won't tell you to use a specific form of payment like a money transfer from Money Gram or Western Union, a cash reload from Money Pak or Reload-it, or a gift card from iTunes or Amazon. Scammers ask you to use those ways to pay because they're hard to track or cancel payments.

If you or someone you know receives a call like this, report it the FTC and the Treasury Inspector General for Tax Administration (TIGTA). Include the caller's phone number, along with any details you have. If you're not sure whether a call is really from the IRS, you can double-check by calling the IRS directly at 1-800-829-1040. For more, check out this IRS imposter scams info-graphic. Share with friends and family. They may get the call next.

From our family to your family

Morton Plant Hospital got its start in 1914 when several local women asked railroad magnate Morton F. Plant to fund a hospital. He agreed, if the community would also make a substantial contribution. They took the challenge and the hospital opened in 1916. Throughout the years, the hospital and its physicians served the community, and the community gave back, ensuring that generations of families would be able to count on the compassionate, quality care provided by Morton Plant Hospital.

One of the most noteworthy hospitals in the nation, Morton Plant Hospital was founded because a community cared. And 100 years later, one thing remains the same — our commitment to caring for your family.

The new Doyle Tower at Morton Plant Hospital, scheduled to be completed in 2017. Another example of how the community gave back.

The annual Craft Fair will be held on November 5th from 9am to 1pm at the clubhouse. We will be offering many different handmade items for sale. We have crafters that offer items from cards to household items and so much more.

Mark your calendars and plan to join us and start your Holiday Shopping with us. We offer so many one of kind items, at reasonable prices, that you can't find anywhere else. Your friends and family will be very happy with the items you choose for them at our fair.

For anyone wanting to join us and sell your items please contact me at 727-474-2660 or sammyses@msn.com for your application. Tables are $15 for wall space and only $10 for internal space. What you sell is what you keep once you pay for your tables. Starting in Sept. we will be advertising in all media's for the entire bay area. We also advertise in the Tampa Bay Times the weekend of the show. I will respond to all inquiries within 48 hours. Please indicate your preference for communication.

Hope to see you at the fair.

Holiday Craft Fair Bake Sale

By Marcia White

We need bakers for the Bake Sale at the Craft Fair. This is just a reminder for those of you who normally bake for us, and a request for those of you who might be new to our community.

The sale is on Saturday Nov. 5th and you can drop off your goodies at the clubhouse on Friday evening between 6-9 pm. We have a sell out every year and your contribution helps us to fund all of our free activities in the community. Thank you in advance for your generous donations and help. Your baked goods are always so yummy.....

Barbara Morin has graciously volunteered to chair the sale for us. "Thank You Barbara".

Monthly Dances for the new season

By Nancy Sullivan

As the cooler weather returns, so do our Northern friends and with them our 'winter activities' recommence. The dance schedule for the coming season is very exciting and we look forward to seeing you at each of the dances ahead. Dances will start at 8pm (doors open at 7:30). Admission for each is $8 per person (except New Years). Please bring your own drinks and snacks to make it a festive outing.

Dance Schedule Summary For 2016-2017

1. Saturday October 29 Halloween Dance with DJ Jeff Redd
2. Saturday November 19 The Joint Venture Beach Band
3. Saturday December 31 NEW YEARS EVE with Level Three Band
4. Saturday January 21 TBD
5. Saturday February 18 with George and Company
6. Saturday March 18 Beach Party with The Joint Venture Beach Band
7. Saturday April 8 with Tangent

All dances are $8 and sold at the door except New Years Eve Dance which are $20 and will be sold in advance. Dances are from 8PM-11PM

We'll kick off the season with our Halloween Dance on Saturday, October 29th. 'DJ Jeff Red' will be spinning tunes and singing for our entertainment. Costumes are encouraged but not obligatory and prizes will be given in a number of categories - most original, funniest, scariest, etc. Start thinking of your outfit now and plan to have a great time catching up with old friends and new.

Saturday November 19 we'll be treat to The Joint Venture Beach Band, who will impress you with their fun and lively style.

Our New Years Eve dance on December 31 will be another sensational celebration to round out 2016 and welcome in 2017. We've scheduled 'Level Three' for the evening and they'll keep us bopping til after midnight. Tickets for this celebration will be sold in the clubhouse in advance on Monday evenings from 1 November at a cost of $20 per person. This ticket price will include party hats and noise makers and a light supper of sandwiches and festive cookies mid-evening.

There will be no dance in January but we'll be ready to hit the floor again on February 18 with the return of favorite 'George & Co' - a wonderful keyboard player plus two amazing musicians who each sing and play multiple instruments, from violin and guitar to saxophone, clarinet and steel drum. Don't miss these guys!

March 18 is our Tropical Beach Party and you'll be dancing to the 'Joint Venture Beach Band' (you'll recall this four piece band delighted audiences for our 10th Anniversary Party). This is your opportunity to dress in your most outrageous Hawaiian shirts and floral frocks and celebrate everything our Florida sunshine offers.

Finally our Farewell Dance on April 8th will be our last of the season and we'll bid adieu to our snowbird friends who will be heading north once again. "Tangent" (a pair of lively, fun ladies) will lead us with DJ-ing, singing, line dancing and more to wrap up another great season of gathering friends, music and dance.

So put these dates in your calendar to be sure you won't miss any of these Paradise Island dance parties. See you on the dance floor!

Decorations & Thanksgiving dinner

By Carol DelleChiaie

Hi everyone. It's that time of year again where we get ready to celebrate the holidays. Mark your calendar for Tues. Nov 1st as we will decorate for Thanksgiving and on Tues. Nov. 29th we do Xmas. I need a lot of help & ideas for this one. I want to thank everyone ahead of time for all your help. This is a fun day, as we get to meet lots of new friends.

Jumping ahead to our Thanksgiving dinner, I will be at the clubhouse starting Monday Oct. 24th to Nov. 14th 6 to 7pm giving out tickets and planning the tables. Remember you pick your table and do your own decoration. This event is free but we do need a head count. This helps us to plan for food.

By Delores Wagner

I want to thank all of the volunteers who have already signed up to help us with Paradise Island's Annual Community Christmas Party. Our entertainment will be Nick Knowlton, who is going to be entertaining us for the evening. There will also be room for dancing to your favorite songs.

We still have plenty of room for people who would like to lend us a helping hand. Please give me a call on my cell (908) 377-3521. I would love to hear from you and any ideas you might have in order to make this a fantastic event!

If you would like to submit a door prize, we would love to get any items you would like to donate. All submissions are due by December 5 -- unless they are cooked items.

Calling all bakers! Sign up to bring your best desserts to share with your community. We will have a dessert table set up for all your delicious goods.

Call for more details or suggestions. Look forward to hearing from you!

Tips and Tricks for Selling at Arts and Craft Shows

Craft Show Tool Box By: Vicki O'Dell the Creative Goddess - "Creative Income from Crafts".

Heading out to your first few craft shows can be a little intimidating. My worst fear when I started out was that I would forget something important and not having it would wreck the show for me. I would have to tell customers all day, "I'm sorry, I forgot to bring that with me today" and they would walk away without buying from me. Today I'm sharing my personal Toolbox checklist so you feel more prepared and relaxed as you head out the door. And if being prepared allows you an extra 20-30 minutes of sleep that is even better. One thing that makes this toolbox idea work for me is that I keep everything in a tote bag and that tote bag is ONLY for the craft show toolbox. You could designate a briefcase, a plastic tote or an actual toolbox for your craft show items. The trick is to keep everything in that one container and keep it fully stocked at all times.

- Bag or box for money – Be sure to include plenty of change for the entire show. The bank won't be open Saturday night or Sunday morning so you can get more change so make sure you have plenty on hand to last the entire show.
- Some sort of log for tracking sales. I like to write down each sale on a separate piece of paper and occasionally I'll log the time on the same sheet. This helps me to see high traffic times when I go to the same shows over and over. I know that at the XYZ show I don't want to take a break at 11:00 because that was my highest volume of sales for the day
- Credit Card processor. There are a wide array of credit card processing services, be sure to do your homework and find a service that fits your needs. You don't HAVE to accept credit cards but you might lose a sale or 10 without offering that service. In today's plastic based society fewer and fewer people carry cash.
- Pens and extra paper. You never know when an idea will hit and you'll need to write it down or sketch it out. Someone may tell you about a nearby restaurant that you want to write down or you may simply need to write a note to remind yourself to take care of something when you get home. It pays to have paper and a pen at hand when you need it. And yes, many smart phones have a notepad type feature but if you are writing a note for a customer or trying to sketch out an idea, nothing works like a piece of paper.

- Vendor information for the show. This is different for each show but it's good to have all forms and other information available just in case. This way, if you have a question about when tear down begins or if one of your customers wants to know where the bathroom is you can look it all up in your paperwork.
- Business cards, brochures and other printed material. Even if someone can't buy from you at the show they may wish to look you up later – or feature you on their blog. You may meet a vendor or two who lives not so far away from you and you might want to invite them to join a local community you have built. Sometimes, a local boutique or retailer may be walking the show looking for new product for their brick and mortar stores, websites or catalogs. They may not be there to buy right now but they wish to contact you later for wholesale orders. One can always hope – and be prepared for such occurrences.
- A small first aid kit. I don't know about you but I manage to scratch myself or break a nail down to the quick nearly every time I set up a show. Having a small first aid kit with band aids and first aid cream on hand is nice. You might also include hand lotion, chap stick, sunblock for outdoor shows and hand sanitizer. You might also wish to include a couple of snack bars, water, mints and any other small items that will make your day more comfortable.
- An actual tool kit. A kit with tape, scissors, blank price tags, clothes pins, safety pins, calculator, a multiple use tool (think Swiss Army Knife), wire and wire cutter and any smaller tools related to your craft that might help you make last minute repairs. You might also include a phone charger (if you are provided electricity) especially if you are using your phone for credit card processing.

Having my craft show tote stocked and waiting helps me to feel a little more at ease before a show. I know that I won't be able to control things like the weather, the traffic, or sales, but I can make sure I can be as prepared as possible.

Paradise Island Flea Market Updates

By Marcia White

Jim and I want to Thank all of the residents that have so generously donated items to the Flea Market. We have had the most donations we have ever had since we have been chairing this event. We now have 2 full sheds of donations and we are still 6 months away from the Flea Market.

We would like to ask that when calling for pick-ups you take a few minutes to look at your items before making the call. If they are not saleable please just throw them out. We are not a removal business and we can only accept items that we can sell at the Flea Mkt. Just ask yourself would I buy this and if the answer is no then please just donate it elsewhere or throw it out.

We are very grateful for your donations but we have limited storage space and can only store items that we know will sell and in turn will benefit the community.

The Pick Up Schedule is working terrific and we appreciate everyone getting on board. We expect to have a great Flea Market this year and the park table donations make up a very large part of the profit.

Thanks for your continued support.

Warmly, Jim & Marcia White

Paradise Island Flea Market Donations

By Marcia White

Thank you to all who have called us regarding pick-ups for the Flea Market. The new schedule seems to be working out for all, and Jim and I are very thankful that you can hold your donations until we are able to make arrangements for storage. We have already received many furniture donations and we are looking forward to another great year. Please continue your generosity and our community will once again benefit from your help. All proceeds go back to the community in the form of the Social Committee being able to sponsor so many free amenities. Keep up the good work!

Did you know that October is also...

Italian-American Heritage Month. The goal of Italian-American Heritage Month is to inform the public about the contributions made by Italians and Italian-Americans, especially in the arts, the humanities, and the sciences, and to celebrate the impact that Italian culture and language have had on the United States.

National Bullying Prevention Month. A campaign held during October, uniting communities nationwide to educate about and raise awareness of bullying prevention, National Bullying Prevention Month is recognized in communities across the United States, with hundreds of schools and organizations signing on as partners.

National Cybersecurity Awareness Month. The internet touches almost all aspects of everyone's daily life, whether we realize it or not. National Cybersecurity Awareness Month is intended to engage and educate public and private sector partners through events and initiatives with the goal of raising awareness about cybersecurity and increasing the resiliency of the nation in the event of a cyber incident.

National Walk Your Dog Week, Oct. 1-7. According to the American Veterinary Medical Association, more than 40 percent of dogs—a total of about 17 million—in the United States are overweight. Walking your dog just 30 minutes a day helps both of you maintain a healthy weight and a good heart.

Earth Science Week, Oct. 9-16. This year's Earth Science Week celebrates the theme, "Our Shared Geoheritage"—the collection of natural wonders, landforms, and resources that have formed over eons and come to this generation to manage, use, and conserve effectively.

Free Speech Week, Oct. 16-22. A yearly event to raise public awareness of the importance of free speech in our democracy and to celebrate that freedom. Express your right to free speech by posting a message online, composing a poem, writing a letter to the editor, or whatever works best for you.

National Massage Therapy Awareness Week, Oct. 23-29. Research suggests that symptoms of stress, anxiety and depression may be ameliorated with massage therapy. Athletes at all stages have also benefited from massage therapy. By combining your exercise routine with a massage therapy treatment, you will be able to train longer and harder and make the most of your workout.

World Animal Day, Oct. 4. An international day of action for animal rights and welfare, celebrated annually on the feast day of Francis of Assisi, the patron saint of animals.

National Chess Day, Oct. 8. Play a game that sharpens your mind, challenges your intellect, and brings you closer together with other people.

Columbus Day, Oct. 10. Observed on the second Monday of October to commemorate Christopher Columbus's arrival on the North American continent on Oct. 12, 1492.

Ada Lovelace Day, Oct. 18. Considered one of the world's first female computer programmers, Ada Lovelace helped develop an early predecessor of the modern computer in the 19th century.

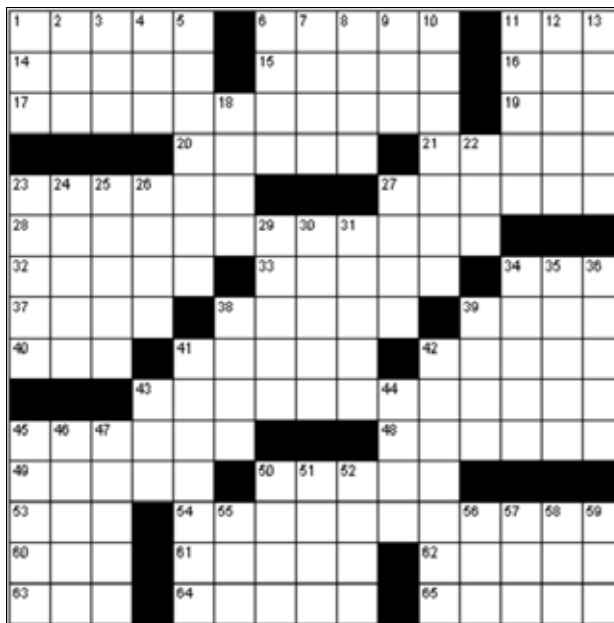

Halloween, Oct. 31. Trick or treat!
