Message from Park Manager

Violations:

If you receive a Violation notice and you do not comply or reach out to the Office, we will correct the non-compliance and charge the owner up to $200.00 for labor/supplies to correct non-compliances. You are given thirty (30) days to correct violations. If you are away from the Park for any extended time, please be sure you hire someone to take care of your Unit and surrounding areas. Please be sure to put away any loose objects that can be caught in a hurricane, storm or high winds. It is your responsibility to care for your Unit and surroundings; weeding, bushes trimmed, painting, power washing, carport, etc... We send out numerous violation letters at once and it can take Park Management time to address the Units that do not comply with the violation. If anyone would like to volunteer to help out a neighbor who is physically unable to address their violations, please let us know. I'm sure your neighbor would be appreciative.

Park Communication: VOLO Village has been passed. It will tentatively start January 1st. If you wish to sign up for VOLO Village please reach out to the Office, via phone or email. We would need your name, phone number and/or email address. The Office will set you up but it will be your responsibility to let us know of any changes to your phone number or email address.

VOLO Village is a messaging service that will allow Park Management to send out Announcements or Alerts to all Residents that wish to sign up. VOLO can send you an email, text message or phone call when Park Management has an important announcement or an emergency alert.

Clubhouse: Due to the increase in COVID cases in Florida, the Clubhouse will remain closed until further notice.

Cameras/Speeding: Reminder: you are on Camera! We have numerous cameras set up in the Park with night vision. If you are caught speeding in the Park you will receive a warning. If it continues you can be banned from driving in the Park. If you see someone speeding, please don't hesitate to call the office with the date, time and color of the vehicle. We will view the cameras and get the license plate number. If it is a non-resident that uses our Park to cut through to Seminole or Ulmerton we can call the Largo Police and turn over camera footage.

Payments for Rent/Maintenance: Any Resident who drops their checks off at the office must mail them directly to BB&T (with coupon only) or Qualified Property Management (without coupon).

Starting January 1, 2020, we will no longer accept checks at the Office. If you do not have a coupon book you must send your checks directly to QPM Office, 5901 US-19 #7-Q, New Port Richey, FL 34652. We will only accept checks from brand new owners as it takes time to set up a new account. If you have any questions please call or email the Office.

Complaints/Concerns/Suggestions: Reminder: If you have a complaint it must be in writing. You can fill out a form (located outside the office on railing) or email the Office. The email address is pointewestoffice@gmail.com.

Thank you!

Happy Holidays!

I know a few people who get upset at that greeting. I never have, personally. Let me explain why.

The month of December is chock full of celebrations. To most of us at Pointe West, Christmas is our main holiday. Not everyone would agree. World AIDS Day (highlighting efforts to end this disease) is on the 1st, Saint Nicholas' Day is on the 6th and Human Rights Day is the 10th. Winter Solstice is on the 21st, Hanukkah begins December 22nd this year and Christmas Day is always on the 25th. On December 26th, it's Boxing Day and Kwanzaa begins as well. New Year's Eve wraps up the month. We acknowledge and enjoy each one of these, depending on our beliefs. Therefore, "Happy Holidays" covers them all! It's inclusive, not meant to be anti any other holiday in any way. With all the wonderful diversity in the US, shouldn't that be our goal?

I've never heard of anyone actually saying we aren't allowed to say "Merry Christmas" — even though every year that claim seems to pop up everywhere. I just shake my head when I hear it and go on to use whatever greeting I choose! But who can fault those working in/with the public for being inclusive? Not me. Personally I'm appreciative of a smile (even though we can't see them this year) and any friendly greeting. Maybe my perspective isn't yours. That's okay, too.

So: Happy Hanukkah
Merry Winter Solstice
Happy Boxing Day
Merry Christmas
Happy Kwanzaa

Celebrate all month! Miss you all this holiday season—
From Joanne Kiefer - REC President

December Holidays

Christmas – Christmas is an annual festival commemorating the birth of Jesus Christ, observed primarily on December 25th as a religious and cultural celebration among billions of people around the world. Christmas Day is a public holiday in many of the world's nations, is celebrated religiously by a majority of Christians, as well as culturally by many non-Christians, and forms an integral part of the holiday season centered around it.

The traditional Christmas narrative, the Nativity of Jesus, delineated in the New Testament says that Jesus was born in Bethlehem, in accordance with messianic prophecies. When Joseph and Mary arrived in the city, the inn had no room and so they were offered a stable where the Christ Child was soon born, with angels proclaiming this news to shepherds who then further disseminated the information.

The gospels of Luke and Matthew describe Jesus as being born in Bethlehem to the Virgin Mary. In Luke, Joseph and Mary travel from Nazareth to Bethlehem for the census, and Jesus is born there and laid in a manger. Angels proclaimed him a savior for all people, and shepherds came to adore him.

Hanukkah – The festival is observed by lighting the candles of a candelabrum with nine branches, called a menorah (or hanukkiyah). One branch is typically placed above or below the others and its candle is used to light the other eight candles. Each night, one additional candle is lit until all eight candles are lit together on the final night of the festival. Other Hanukkah festivities include playing the game of dreidel and eating oil-based foods, such as latkes and sufganiyot, and dairy foods. Although a relatively minor holiday in strictly religious terms, Hanukkah has attained major cultural significance in North America and elsewhere among secular Jews as a Jewish alternative to Christmas, and is often celebrated correspondingly fervently.

Boxing Day - Boxing Day is traditionally celebrated on 26 December, the day after Christmas Day, though many people hold - and there is documentary assertion - that it would not fall on a Sunday and consequently Monday 27 December would be Boxing Day.

In Canada, Boxing Day is a federal holiday. Government offices, banks and post offices/delivery are closed. In some Canadian provinces, Boxing Day is a statutory holiday that is always celebrated on 26 December. In Canadian provinces where Boxing Day is a statutory holiday and it falls on a Saturday or Sunday, compensation days are given in the following week.

The European tradition of giving money and other gifts to those in need, or in service positions, has been dated to the Middle Ages, but the exact origin is unknown. It is sometimes believed to be in reference to the Alms Box placed in the narthex of Christian churches to collect donations to the poor. The tradition may come from a custom in the late Roman/early Christian era wherein alms boxes placed in churches were used to collect special offerings tied to the Feast of Saint Stephen, which in the Western Christian Churches falls on the same day as Boxing Day, the second day of Christmastide. On this day, it is customary in some localities for the alms boxes to be opened and distributed to the poor.

Kwanzaa - Kwanzaa is celebrated from December 26 to January 1. Each of the seven days of Kwanzaa is dedicated to one of the following principles, as follows:

- ❖ Umoja (Unity): To strive for and to maintain unity in the family, community, nation, and race.
- ❖ Kujichagulia (Self-Determination): To define and name ourselves, as well as to create and speak for ourselves.
- ❖ Ujima (Collective Work and Responsibility): To build and maintain our community together and make our brothers' and sisters' problems our problems and to solve them together.
- ❖ Ujamaa (Cooperative economics): To build and maintain our own stores, shops, and other businesses and to profit from them together.
- ❖ Nia (Purpose): To make our collective vocation the building and developing of our community in order to restore our people to their traditional greatness.
- ❖ Kuumba (Creativity): To do always as much as we can, in the way we can, in order to leave our community more beautiful and beneficial than we inherited it.
- ❖ Imani (Faith): To believe with all our hearts in our people, our parents, our teachers, our leaders, and the righteousness and victory of our struggle.

Without prayer, no faith;
Without faith, no love;
Without love, nonservice;
Without service, no joy;
Without joy, no peace.”

Recipe Roundup

Peppermint Bark

Peppermint bark is a candy we cannot wait to get our hands on every holiday season. Luckily for you, you can make a batch in 10 minutes flat with just 4 ingredients. It's a holiday treat made of two types of chocolate—either semisweet or dark and white—and chopped candy canes.

Ingredients

- 12 oz. semisweet chocolate, chopped
- 12 oz. white chocolate, chopped
- 1/2 tsp. peppermint extract
- 8 candy canes, crushed

Directions

Line a baking sheet with parchment paper. Fill the bottom of a large pot with 3” water and bring to simmer over medium heat. Reduce heat to low, then place a large heatproof bowl on top. Add semi-sweet chocolate and stir occasionally until chocolate has melted. Stir in extract. Pour into prepared baking sheet and spread into an even layer with an offset spatula. Refrigerate until set, about 20 minutes.

Over the same pot of barely simmering water, place another large heatproof bowl. Add white chocolate and stir until melted. Pour over set semi-sweet chocolate then top immediately with candy canes. Refrigerate until set, about 20 minutes.

That's it!

A Visit From St. Nicholas

'Twas the night before Christmas, when all through the house
Not a creature was stirring, not even a mouse;
The stockings were hung by the chimney with care,
In hopes that St. Nicholas soon would be there;

The children were nestled all snug in their beds;
While visions of sugar-plums danced in their heads;
And mamma in her 'kerchief, and I in my cap,
Had just settled our brains for a long winter's nap,

When out on the lawn there arose such a clatter,
I sprang from my bed to see what was the matter.
Away to the window I flew like a flash,
Tore open the shutters and threw up the sash.

The moon on the breast of the new-fallen snow,
Gave a luster of midday to objects below,
When what to my wondering eyes did appear,
But a miniature sleigh and eight tiny rein-deer,
With a little old driver so lively and quick,
I knew in a moment he must be St. Nick.

More rapid than eagles his coursers they came,
And he whistled, and shouted, and called them by name:
"Now, Dasher! now, Dancer! now Prancer and Vixen!
On, Comet! on, Cupid! on, Donner and Blitzen!
To the top of the porch! to the top of the wall!
Now dash away! dash away! dash away all!"

As leaves that before the wild hurricane fly,
When they meet with an obstacle, mount to the sky;
So up to the housetop the coursers they flew
With the sleigh full of toys, and St. Nicholas too—
And then, in a twinkling, I heard on the roof
The prancing and pawing of each little hoof.
As I drew in my head, and was turning around,
Down the chimney St. Nicholas came with a bound.
He was dressed all in fur, from his head to his foot,

And his clothes were all tarnished with ashes and soot;
A bundle of toys he had flung on his back,
And he looked like a peddler just opening his pack.

Ask About Our Other Cleaning Services

His eyes—how they twinkled! his dimples, how merry!
 His cheeks were like roses, his nose like a cherry!
 His droll little mouth was drawn up like a bow,
 And the beard on his chin was as white as the snow;

The stump of a pipe he held tight in his teeth,
 And the smoke, it encircled his head like a wreath;
 He had a broad face and a little round belly
 That shook when he laughed, like a bowl full of jelly.
 He was chubby and plump, a right jolly old elf,
 And I laughed when I saw him, in spite of myself;

A wink of his eye and a twist of his head
 Soon gave me to know I had nothing to dread;
 He spoke not a word, but went straight to his work,
 And filled all the stockings; then turned with a jerk,
 And laying his finger aside of his nose,
 And giving a nod, up the chimney he rose;

He sprang to his sleigh, to his team gave a whistle,
 And away they all flew like the down of a thistle.
 But I heard him exclaim, ere he drove out of sight—
 “Happy Christmas to all, and to all a good night!”

Calm your ocean

A master and his disciple were strolling on the beach by the ocean. It was a cold day and the wind was blowing strongly over the ocean, raising very high waves.

After walking for some time, the master stopped and asked: “What does the choppy ocean remind you of?”

“It reminds me of my mind and my rushing and restless thoughts,” answered the disciple

“Yes, the stormy ocean is like the mind, and the waves are the thoughts,” the master agreed. “The mind is neutral like the water. It is neither good nor bad. The wind is creating the waves, as desires and fears produce thoughts.”

“How can I calm the waves of my mind?” the disciple asked.

The master smiled. “You don’t calm the ocean by holding the water and not letting it move. What is necessary is to stop the wind. Your thoughts, desires and fears are like the wind, and you need to calm them down, and not let them rule your life. You learn to control them by controlling your attention and focus, and then the ocean of your mind would become calm.”

“And how do I do that?”

“First, learn to calm down the wind in your mind,” the master explained. “When you can control your mind and make it peaceful, you will have more control of your life. However, don’t focus on changing the outside world. Focus on changing and calming your inner world. After you are able to control your inner world, you would be able to control the world around you.”

Build the road

Born on the lowest rung of India’s caste system, Dashrath Manjhi worked in the coal mines of Gehlaur village.

One day his wife was injured. The nearest doctor was in a town 34 miles away, and Manjhi’s wife died.

Because of this, Manjhi decided to make a new roadway through a ridge of hills to make his village more accessible.

For 22 years, using only a hammer and chisel, Manjhi worked until he completed the road, which reduced the distance between the start and finish areas from 34 miles to 9.3 miles.

That’s a sign of dedication.

If a child is to keep alive his inborn sense of wonder, he needs the companionship of at least one adult who can share it, rediscovering with him the joy, excitement, and mystery of the world we live in.
