Irish Sayings

- Being Irish is very much a part of who I am. I take it everywhere with me.
- He who is not strong must needs be cunning.
- If you are lucky enough to be Irish, then you are lucky enough.
- May you both live as long as you want, And never want as long as you live.
- What's the use of being Irish if the world doesn't break your heart?
- Bless your little Irish heart and every other Irish part.
- A man is often a bad adviser of himself and a good adviser to another.
- As you slide down the banister of life, may the splinters never point in the wrong direction.
- May the blessings of each day be the blessings you need most.
- The Irish ignore anything they can't drink or punch.
- When anyone asks me about the Irish character, I say look at the trees. Maimed, stark and misshapen, but ferociously tenacious.
- You never miss the water till the well has run dry.
- The longest road out is the shortest road home.
- Remember even if you loose all, keep your good name; for if you loose that you are worthless.
- The Irish are very fair people, they never speak well for one another.
- Good laugh and long sleep are the best cures in a doctor's book.
- May you get all your wishes but one so you always have something to strive for.
- Wherever you go and whatever you do, May the luck of the Irish be there with you.
- He is bad that will not take advice, but he is a thousand times worse that takes every advice.
- Only Irish coffee provides all main essential food groups: alcohol, caffeine, sugar, and fat.
- May the Lord keep you in his hand and never close his fist too tight.

White Elephant Sale

We have set a new record in raising money for numerous Ranch Mobile Clubs. The Annual White Elephant Sale, held on January 31st, was another success. All those who participated did a great job, those who donated goods, those who purchased the hidden treasures and those who donated their time to help run the sale.

The White Elephant Sale is a big event here at Ranch Mobile and requires dozens of helpers. Participants are drawn from the Shuffleboard Club, Pool Improvement Club, Billiard Club and Dance Club. The proceeds from the sale are divided between the aforementioned clubs and used for various activities here in the park.

Without the kind support of our fellow Ranchers, who donate all the hidden treasures, we could never be able to have such a sale. We also have to mention all the support from the Board of Governors.

A special thanks to Shirley Higbie (vice-president of the Shuffleboard Club), Jean Cahill (Treasurer of the Shuffleboard Club) and Lou Lowery (President of the Pool Improvement Club). Shirley for her great job of organizing everything, Jean Cahill for her great job making sure we had sufficient change on hand to start the sale and then controlling, counting and dealing with all of the money collected throughout the day, and Lou Lowery for a great job in looking after and setting a new record for the furniture department.

On behalf of the Shuffleboard Club, the Pool Improvement Club, the Billiard Club and the Dance Club, we wish to thank all residents of the park.

2015 Mid-February Arboretum Report

By: Lois Bircher

Thank you! To the 115 homeowners holding “Two Thumbs Up” membership cards given in January. Your financial support provides new plantings for the Arboretum.

More thanks to Volunteer Gardeners planting the new flowers: Becky & Dennis MacPhee for the deep rose Kalanchoes in circle along Ranch Ave., and Marilyn & Charlie McCartney for the Geraniums in the Patriotic Garden by the Palm Park.

‘Tis Spring on the calendar. Our little violas and pansies planted in memory of loved Ranchers are busy re-seeding and showing their many colors. The summer Caladiums are sleeping while Easter Lily bulbs are sprouting above them. With Easter being April 5th, expect to see lily blooms closer to Mother’s Day.

Meanwhile, there are yellow, red and orange Hibiscus blooming.

2015 is our 20th year. The Arboretum is ever changing. If you have questions, suggestions, and maybe enjoy it, please let me know!

How Much Do You Know About The Month of March?

March is named after the Roman God of War, Mars. Most people know this one; I just had to start from the obvious. But did you know March was originally the first month of the Roman calendar until Julius Caesar changed it to number 3?

March has 2 Saint Day celebrations. Everyone knows St. Patrick’s Day on March 17th, but St. David’s Day is celebrated on March 1st. St. David’s Day is the national day of Wales. The day is commemorated by the wearing of daffodils or leeks. [Both plants are traditionally regarded as national emblems].

The first St. Patrick’s Day Parade was held in New York City on March 17, 1762. The flower for March is a violet.

In the month of March we experience an equinox. This is when day and night are the same length of time and in the northern hemisphere the vernal equinox occurs in March; in the southern hemisphere it is the autumnal equinox. It happens on March 19, 20, or 21.

The month of March gave rise to some strange sayings, such as:

“Mad as a March Hare,” which comes from the behavior of rabbits during their breeding season which begins in March. The male rabbits act crazy at this season dashing wildly around and often have “boxing” matches with each other over a female that has caught their fancy (hmmmm, sounds quite familiar).

“Beware of the Ides of March” comes from the days of Julius Caesar so many say. It signifies that someone is about to betray you or do you harm. The date that Caesar was killed by his friend Brutus in a “coup t’at” was March 15th, The Ides of March!

A very common superstition held by many farmers about March is if there is rain for the first 3 days of the month, this predicts a bad harvest later in the year.

Purim is a Jewish festival usually celebrated in March in remembrance of the time the Jews escaped destruction during the reign of the Persian King Xerxes.

March 1st is National Pig Day! This was started in Texas in 1972.

March 1st is celebrated by Bosnia - Herzegovina as their Independence Day [March 1, 1992].

The third week in March is National Brain Awareness Week in the USA.

March is also considered National Umbrella Month!

March is also National Peanut Month and celebrations are held the entire month across America (it all began in 1941).

IRISH BLESSINGS

May luck be our companion
May friends stand by our side
May history remind us all
Of Ireland’s faith and pride.
May God bless us with happiness
May love and faith abide.

May your neighbors respect you,
Troubles neglect you,
The angels protect us,
And Heaven accept you.

May you have:
A world of wishes at your command
God and his angels close at hand
Friends and family their love impart,
And Irish blessings in your heart.

_____
May your pockets be heavy and your heart be light,
May good luck pursue you each morning and night.

_____
May you live as long as you want,
And never want as long as you live.

_____
If you’re enough lucky to be Irish ...
You’re lucky enough!

Piggy Bank Bunco

By: Lois Bircher

Now Birds arrived to play Piggy Bank Bunco on January 23rd. Shirley Harwood smiled with her HI score of 43 while Lucy Jungkind's count was only 24. But, Lucy smiled too! When she claimed the nightly Bunco prize.

February 6th fourteen players watched Helga Frank count her HI of 47. carole Weisent and Joyce Larsen tied for LO of 20. Visitor, Mary Anne Ursic carried away the Bunco prize.

Games on March 20th will conclude the current season. Piggy Bank will be opened then and proceeds divided. All Ranchers and guests of all ages are welcome to play. Admission is a smile and one dollar bill. Refreshments follow play. Banks are given out after 6:00 p.m. on Friday evenings. Play begins at 6:30 p.m.

Bunco is a dice game of luck. No skill! Few rules, just FUN and conversation. Come and meet your Ranchers from throughout the Park.

Irish Recipes

Sausage and Potato Coddle

- 1 pound pork sausage links
- 1/2 pound thick-sliced bacon, cut in 2" pieces
- 4 large potatoes (2 pounds)
- 2 large onions, sliced
- 1/4 cup chopped fresh parsley
- Salt and pepper to taste
- 2 cups water

In a skillet cook the bacon pieces until they turn golden, and then drain on paper towels. Brown sausages (prick in several places with fork) in bacon fat; drain on paper towels and slice into 1/4-inch pieces. Peel and slice potatoes about 1/4-inch thick. In a casserole dish, alternate layers of bacon, sausage, onion, and potato, seasoning the potatoes with salt and pepper. Sprinkle each layer with a little parsley. Pour off all but 2 tablespoons of fat from the skillet. Add water and bring to a boil. Pour over potato casserole, cover and bake at 350 degrees for 45 minutes. Remove the cover and cook for an additional 15 minutes, until the top is browned and potatoes become tender.

The Old Coot Can't Say, "I'm Sorry"

By: Merlin Lessler

Tom and Ray, better known as Click and Clack, the Tappet brothers, took a call from a listener on a Car-Talk "Classic" broadcast a few weeks back. The caller asked if there was a good way to apologize after making an "oops" on the highway. Pulling back into the travel lane too soon after passing for example. Did they have suggestion? They didn't, though it took 10 minutes of laughter and chatter to arrive at that conclusion.

I pull back too fast sometimes, and commit a few other "oops" when I'm behind the wheel. In spite of having a buzzer and a light on the side view mirror that warns me when a car is in my blind spot. In spite of a back-up camera that keeps me from denting a fender in a parking lot or doing something even worse to a pedestrian pushing a shopping cart. In spite of having a co-pilot next to me, watching my every move like a hawk and letting me know when I'm headed for trouble with a loud thunk on an imaginary brake, accompanied by a series of progressively louder gasps that communicate the seriousness of my error.

It doesn't work! I still move from the passing lane to the travel lane too soon, usually because an even worse driver than me is on my tail. When I do pull over, I find myself fighting for the same space as the guy who decided to charge past on the right. I thought I taught myself to be on the alert for this when I did a lot of driving in Connecticut, where everyone passes on the right. When there isn't a lane to do it, they use the shoulder. I guess I really didn't get used to it because I'm always startled when someone whizzes by on my right. It also evokes an extremely loud gasp from my co-pilot. I try to apologize with a shoulder shrug, a slap to my forehead or by making the peace sign, but none of these gestures are effective. Not if you judge it by the number of times I receive the international hand signal of displeasure in return.

I need a “sorry” flag, or something similar. I blame the auto industry for my dilemma; they’ve equipped cars with an uncountable number of devices and functions we didn’t ask for and don’t want. Like a key that isn’t a key; it’s a square box the size of a bar of soap. Try and put one of those things in a hide-a-key container. My dash is loaded with screens and controls, but nothing that says, “I’m sorry!” The horn is incapable of giving a friendly toot. You have to push it so hard because of the airbag behind it that it’s only good for blasting an angry message. It alone is responsible for half the road rage on today’s highways. You mess up on the road, try to give a little toot of apology and end up making the situation worse. I desperately need a button that waves a white flag from the roof and a mechanism that sends an, “Oops, I’m sorry,” message to the radios in the cars around me. And, while they’re at it, they might consider adding a brake pedal on the passenger side of the car for my co-pilot. If you encounter me on the road and I do something to irk you, I apologize in advance, “I’m really sorry! I just don’t know how to tell you.”

Cinnamon Glazed Almonds

Ingredients

- 1/3 cup butter
- 2 egg whites
- Up to 2 teaspoons salt
- 1 cup granulated white sugar
- 4 teaspoons cinnamon
- 16 ounces whole almonds

Directions

Preheat oven to 325°. Melt butter in oven-safe bowl or cup, about 10 minutes. Meanwhile, beat egg whites with an electric mixer with salt until frothy. Gradually add sugar and beat vigorously until the mixture is thickened and stiff peaks form. Add cinnamon and beat until fully blended. Fold in almonds. Pour in butter and stir.

Gently pour mixture onto foil-lined cookie sheet and spread the mixture to a single layer of nuts. Bake for 10 minutes, stir, and return to oven for another 10 minutes. Repeat 4–5 times, for a total cooking time of 40–50 minutes, or until mixture has glazed onto almonds and almonds are crisp. Mixture will froth and foam during the early stages of baking, but will bake onto the nuts towards the end of the baking time.

The Country & Western Dance was a great success and enjoyed by all, especially Lillian Noseworthy, Linda Raimondi, Elaine Herchock & Victoria Graham, who all won door prizes.

Share the wealth prizes of $20 each went to Pete Pigeau, Anne Craig, Donna Butts, Pat Peever, Steve Szumita and Ivan Thurlow.

Our next dance, which will have come and gone by the time this goes to press, is the Valentine Dance on Feb. 14th with music by “Reno.” Tickets to our ‘regular’ dances are $5 each.

The Dance Club Elections will be held on March 12th from 8:00 a.m. to 9:30 a.m. at the clubhouse. Four positions are coming vacant. If you would like to be a candidate, please call Pam Katterheinrich, Sandy Barrow or Leanne Lowry.
