YOU CAN'T TELL A VET JUST BY LOOKING

He is the cop on the beat who spent six months in Saudi Arabia sweating two gallons a day making sure the armored personnel carrier didn't run out of fuel. He is the barroom loudmouth whose behavior is outweighed in the cosmic scales by four hours of unparalleled bravery near the 38th Parallel in Korea. She is the nurse who fought against futility In Da Nang and went to sleep sobbing every night for two solid years. He is the POW who left one person and came back another. He is the drill instructor who has never been in combat, but has saved countless lives by turning no-accounts into Marines. He is the parade-riding legionnaire who pins on his ribbons and medals with a prosthetic hand. He is the white-haired guy bagging groceries at the supermarket, aggravatingly slow, who helped liberate a Nazi death camp. A vet is an ordinary and extraordinary human being - someone who offered his life's vital years in the service of his country. He is a soldier and a savior and a sword against the darkness, and nothing more than the finest, greatest testimony on behalf of the finest, greatest nation ever known. We will never be able to repay the debt of gratitude we owe.

HAPPY VETERANS DAY

REMEMBERING OUR BRAVEST THROUGH POETRY

THE BRAVEST MAN I KNOW

by Amanda Whitney

The bravest man I know.
Is a man I've never met.
He's a man who risks his life
To save a friend,
Not only to save a friend,
But to save a nation.
Risking his life
For those he does not know.
Stepping up
Leaving loved ones behind,
So that somewhere,
Someone else won't have to.
He is a man who follows orders
Even though he knows he might die.
The bravest man I know.
Is the man who would rather die,
So one more person could go home

To see his family again.
The man who stares death in the face,
But never blinks.
The bravest man I know.
Is the man who risks his life
So one day the world may be a better place for his children.
Or any man who goes against his biggest fear. DEATH
Just to save someone he loves.
The bravest man I know.
Is the man who fights
So another man can have the taste of sweet freedom.
Not fighting only for his own benefit,
But for many others all over the world,
Fighting to make this world a better place.
That's the bravest man I know.

REMEMBER

by Brittany Vigoreaux

American soldiers sacrifice so much,
All for the freedom of our country.
Leaving their families and heading off to war,
Not knowing what the future holds.
Working day and night
Determined to stay strong.
Watching friends be killed every day
Letters from home inspiring them to keep fighting
So little is given to them
Although there is little to do,
For those who have died in war
We can still remember
Remember all the men who have died.
Remember all the battles fought
Remember all the tears families cried
Remember it was freedom the soldiers brought
To this very day soldiers are under-appreciated
Veterans Day is the day
For the dead, living, and fighting soldiers
To be remembered

FREEDOM IS NOT FREE

by Ashley Persyn

There is a price we pay for freedom
For it is not truly free
But rather paid for by the contributions of veterans
To buy our liberty
As their blood drains from their body and runs like a river through the grass
Over the years it's forgotten, war is placed in our past
I don't think we all realize the importance veterans play
as they voluntarily serve America each and every day
We should honor the veterans for they act like a shield
Protecting us from danger, keeping America healed.
So if you would take a second to commemorate
You will instantly see
We owe veterans our gratitude
For they are the reason we are free

TOO MUCH 'CUTE' FOR THE OLD COOT

By: Merlin Lessler

Is it just me or has "cute" taken over our society? Not a day goes by without getting a "cute" picture or video on e-mail, Facebook or some other social media. A "cute" little kid singing an opera. Off key! A "cute" little puppy, looking into the camera with a big grin on his puss. A "cute" tiny kitten, riding around on the back of a Great Dane. Cute, Cute, Cute! You can't escape it.

It's bad enough when you get a barrage of "cute" images on your private communication systems (phones or PC's), but now they've taken over public media too. It started with "soft" news shows: The Today Show, Good Morning America, Entertainment Tonight and the like. Now it's embedded in "serious" news shows. Tune in to CBS, NBC, ABC FOX, CNN to find out what's going on in the world and interspersed between troubles in the mid-east and a hurricane gaining force in the Caribbean, you get a "cute" bull dog, skate boarding in Los Angeles, a "cute" little girl yodeling in church and a "cute" sad faced basset hound, gently holding a mouse in his paws. That is TV news today!

They've cut the reporting staff, writing staff and copy editors and replaced them with a handful of tech savvy computer geeks who scour social media and You Tube for "cute" stories. Most "cute" stories are just plain lame! Almost as bad as listening to old coots like me talk about the good old days.

But "cute" is here to stay. In fact, it's unavoidable, with a populace that is equipped with high tech video and photography capabilities on their smart phones. Cute and weather, that's eventually all we'll get on the evening news. Weather is leading the charge right now, but "cute" is coming up fast. It's like watching a tennis match. Look left and get scared to death by the dire prediction of heavy rain, local flooding, dangerous lightning, high winds, the possibility of large hailstones and tornados. Look right, and watch the "cute" video that's gone viral today. What's my beef? No "cute" old guy videos!

Chocolate Rice Krispie Balls

Ingredients

- ½ cup peanut butter
- 3 Tbs. soft butter
- 1 tsp vanilla

Mix together, refrigerate for a half hour and form into balls. Return to fridge and let chill at least an hour.

Melt the following together in a double-boiler:

- 1 package chocolate chips
- 1 square sweet chocolate

Keep on low so that chocolate remains soft.

Drop balls into chocolate mixture one at a time using a fork to roll them so that the chocolate will cover. Let set on parchment paper in fridge.

THE OLD COOT KNOWS WHICH WAY THE WIND BLOWS

By: Merlin Lessler

I did it! I broke my record. I went one year and eleven months without going into a rant over the weather alerts on TV. My old record was one year, two months. It was the Antiques Road show that put me over the edge this time. The appraiser on the show was examining a Red Ryder BB gun from the 1940's. It looked just like the one hanging in my garage that I've had since I was a kid. Just as he got to the good part, the thousands of dollars I could get for it, he was drowned out by a horrible squawk, followed by a robotic voice warning of a thunderstorm headed our way. Not a tornado! Not a hurricane! Not a tsunami! But, a common, garden-variety thunderstorm.

Now I'll never know if my Red Ryder will put me on easy street. More than likely, it will get me thrown in jail because I feel like charging into the US Weather Service headquarters and shooting up the place with it. Chicken Little (my name for the US Weather Service) is in control of the airwaves, and the sky is falling in their world. It started innocently enough, like most bureaucratic programs do, with the introduction of the Emergency Broadcasting System in 1963. It gave the president the power to interrupt TV and radio broadcasts in case of war, threat of war or a grave national crisis. Then the bureaucrats got involved and expanded it to cover weather hazards and civil emergencies. The name of the system was changed in 1997 to the Emergency Alert System. Several agencies fought for control and it ended up in the hands of three of them: FEMA, the Federal Communication Commission and the National Weather Service. It's a horrible way to run things, by committee. It's as bad as trying to get three old coots to decide where to go for the early bird special.

The power to control TV has proved too much for the Weather service; they treat every anomaly as an emergency and come marching across our screens, a white knight on a horse to the rescue. The slightest hot spell, cold snap, snow fall or thunder rumble is enough to get them going. And, they treat us as though we are too stupid to know what to do. Too stupid to come in out of the rain.

What's the big deal," you ask. "They are just trying to keep us safe." It is a big deal. Giving them control of TV and radio was just the beginning. The next step is underway in the Washington D.C. and New York City areas. They have gained control of the cell phone systems there and plan to expand across the country over the next several years. The big three wireless networks handed over the reins without a peep. Even if Chicken Little starts out by just warning of tornados and violent weather, she will eventually alert us to everyday things. "Put on your sun screen!" "Watch those calories!" "Don't Jay-walk." It will turn us into Pavlov dogs, cowering in fear every time we hear that awful squawk. Chicken Little is getting louder!

ZUCCHINI CARROT CUPCAKES

Ingredients

- 1 cup all-purpose flour
- 1/4 cup whole-wheat flour
- 1 tsp. Baking soda
- 1 tsp. Baking powder
- 1 tsp. Cinnamon
- 1/2 tsp. Salt
- 3/4 cup sugar
- 2 eggs
- 1/2 cup canola oil
- 1 1/2 tsp. vanilla extract
- 1 cup grated zucchini
- 1 cup grated carrot
- 1 1/4 cup chopped walnuts
- (optional) Cream cheese icing

Directions

1. Preheat oven to 350 degrees.
2. Line a cupcake pan with 12 paper muffin liners.
3. In a medium bowl, combine flours, baking soda, baking powder, cinnamon, and salt.
4. In a large bowl, beat sugar, eggs, canola oil, and vanilla extract for 1 minute.
5. Beat together wet and dry ingredients by hand until no traces of flour remain.
6. Stir in zucchini, carrot, and walnuts.
7. Spoon batter into paper liners.
8. Bake cupcakes for 15 minutes or until a cake tester indicates they are done.
9. Cool on a wire rack.
10. Frost with cream cheese icing. Top with sprinkles, mini chocolate chips, or raisins.

RETIRED HUSBAND

After I retired, my wife insisted that I accompany her on her trips to Target. Unfortunately, like most men, I found shopping boring and preferred to get in and get out. Equally unfortunate, my wife is like most women- she loves to browse. Yesterday my dear wife received the following letter from the local Target:

Dear Mrs. Harris,

Over the past six months, your husband has caused quite a commotion in our store. We cannot tolerate this behavior and have been forced to ban both of you from the store. Our complaints against your husband, Mr. Harris, are listed below and are documented by our video surveillance cameras:

1. June 15: He took 24 boxes of condoms and randomly put them in other people's carts when they weren't looking.
2. July 2: Set all the alarm clocks in Housewares to go off at 5-minute intervals.

3. July 7: He made a trail of tomato juice on the floor leading to the women's restroom.
4. July 19: Walked up to an employee and told her in an official voice, 'Code 3 in Housewares. Get on it right away'. This caused the employee to leave her assigned station and receive a reprimand from her Supervisor that in turn resulted with a union grievance, causing management to lose time and costing the company money.
5. August 4: Went to the Service Desk and tried to put a bag of M&Ms on layaway.
6. August 14: Moved a 'CAUTION- WET FLOOR' sign to a carpeted area.
7. August 15: Set up a tent in the camping department and told the children shoppers he'd invite them in if they would bring pillows and blankets from the bedding department to which twenty children obliged.
8. August 23: When a clerk asked if they could help him he began crying and screamed, 'Why can't you people just leave me alone?' EMTs were called.
9. September 4: Looked right into the security camera and used it as a mirror while he picked his nose.
10. September 10: While handling guns in the hunting department, he asked the clerk where the antidepressants were.
11. October 3: Darted around the store suspiciously while loudly humming the 'Mission Impossible' theme.
12. October 6: In the auto department, he practiced his 'Madonna look' by using different sizes of funnels.
13. October 18: Hid in a clothing rack and when people browsed through, yelled 'PICK ME! PICK ME!'
14. October 21: When an announcement came over the loud speaker, he assumed a fetal position and screamed 'OH NO! IT'S THOSE VOICES AGAIN!'

And last, but not least:

15. October 23: Went into a fitting room, shut the door, waited awhile, then yelled very loudly,

'Hey! There's no toilet paper in here.' One of the clerks passed out.

PEANUT BUTTER, in my opinion, is one of the "Basic Food Groups". Here are a couple of my favorite ways to use Peanut Butter... enjoy!

PEANUT BUTTER BALLS

Makes 12. These are an easy-to-make fun snack for any gathering.

Ingredients

- ½ cup peanut butter
- 2 Tbsp. Honey
- 4 Tbsp. Nonfat milk powder
- 1/4 cup raisins (optional)
- ½ cup mini chocolate chips, coconut, sunflower seeds, or chopped peanuts

Direction

1. In a large bowl, combine peanut butter, honey, and milk powder. Mix well. If you're using raisins, add them now.
2. Form into small balls with your hands (hint...put powdered sugar on the palms of your hands to help prevent sticking) and roll in mini chocolate chips, coconut, sunflower seeds, or chopped peanuts.
3. Place on a layer of waxed paper and refrigerate.

PEANUT BUTTER FROSTING

This is awesome on chocolate cake!

With an electric mixer, beat ½ cup of peanut butter with ½ cup softened butter and 1 tsp. Vanilla. Add a 1 pound box of confectioners' sugar and beat until creamy. Mix in a little milk if the frosting is too dry.

CROCK POT CHRISTMAS CLUSTERS

Serves: a LOT

Prep Time: 15 Min

Cook Time: 2 Hr 30 Min

Cooking Method: Slow-Cooker/Crock Pot

Ingredients

- 1(16 oz) jar(s) unsalted peanuts
- 1(16 oz.) jar(s) salted peanuts
- 1(12 oz.) bag(s) semi-sweet chocolate chips
- 1(12 oz.) bag(s) milk chocolate chips
- 2(10 oz.) bag(s) peanut butter chips
- 2(1 lb) pkg. white almond bark or vanilla candy coating

Directions:

1. Layer all ingredients in a large crackpot (starting with peanuts).
2. Turn the pot on low, cover with lid, and leave sitting for 2 hours.
3. Remove lid and stir to combine.
4. Replace lid and leave sitting for another 30 minutes.
5. Stir again and then spoon mixture on to wax paper or non-stick aluminum foil.
6. Allow to harden for at least 1 hour.
7. Enjoy!

Smoking declines, but cigarettes still embedded in U.S. culture

Americans seem to be getting the message about the dangers of smoking, but cigarettes don't seem likely to vanish anytime soon. According to a recent Wall Street Journal article, although the U.S. adult smoking rate has decreased from 40 percent to 20 percent in the last 50 years, 40 million Americans still smoke today.

One possible reason for smoking's persistence? Menthol cigarettes, which make up 31.4 percent of the market, up from 28.7 percent in 2008. Scientists say that menthol has a cooling effect on the throat and mouth which makes starting easier—and quitting more difficult.

THE OLD COOT GOES THE WRONG WAY

By: Merlin Lessler

I'm a criminal! I'm socially incorrect! A criminal, because I ride my bike on the wrong side of the road. Socially incorrect, because I don't wear a helmet. Half the pleasure of riding a bike is being outside with nature and moseying along at a pace slow enough to enjoy the scenery with the wind blowing through your hair, or what's left of it. I grew up in a helmetless world-climbing trees, playing football, baseball and yes, riding bikes and soap box racers down hills and through sharp curves without head protection. All kids did. Our mothers said good-bye as we charged out the back door to play and then added, "Watch your head." And, we did! We learned to duck; we learned to take the brunt of a fall on our shoulder, not our head. Besides, protecting one's head is a survival instinct built into the human genetic code. It's one of the reasons our species has survived for eons.

I don't, or quite often don't, ride with traffic, as required by Section 1234 (A) of the NYS Vehicle and Traffic law. I ride facing traffic. It's criminal behavior. But, I stand a chance of surviving, to jump to safety when a distracted driver wanders into the bike lane. I was taught, my whole generation was taught, to face traffic when walking or biking. And for good reason! You can see what's coming at you and save your life. But bikers and in-line skaters are not allowed to do this in New York State. The authors of the vehicle and traffic law claim that bicycling and skating against traffic are the leading cause of crashes. Pure hogwash! Nearly all bicyclers and pedestrians hit by vehicles, get it from behind. These cockamamie laws and opinions come from state bureaucrats and legislators that haven't ridden a bike along a public road in decades, if ever. Most of them grew up in New York City. Us outlaw bikers know better. Facing traffic saves lives. It's the cyclists that follow the rules that get run down by errant drivers.

My crowd, of criminal and socially incorrect bicycle riders are easy to spot. We're the people in street clothes, not spandex ballet outfits, bareheaded, making our way at a leisurely pace on inexpensive bikes, enjoying the fresh air, the scenery and low level exercise on a vehicle that weighs three times as much as true (law abiding) biking enthusiasts. We go through red lights. We ride on sidewalks when the road is too dangerous (carefully) and follow our survival instincts, rather than the vehicle and traffic laws. Join us in our civil disobedience. You'll be a lot safer! And, have more fun! (You don't even have to be an old coot.)

November

Monthly

- National Epilepsy Awareness Month. Epilepsy, characterized by recurrent, unprovoked seizures, affects about 2 million people in the United States. Delayed recognition of these seizures and inadequate treatment increase the risk for additional seizures, disability, decreased quality of life, and, in rare instances, death.
- National Novel Writing Month. You can write a novel in only a month, along with the 600,000+ people who've already done so. Go to www.nanowrimo.org for advice, support, and a network of fellow authors working diligently on the next Great American (or any other nationality) Novel.
- National Runaway Prevention Month. A campaign by the National Network for Youth to increase public awareness of the issues facing runaways and to educate the public about the solutions, and about the role they can play in preventing youth from running away.
- Manatee Awareness Month. The manatee is the official marine mammal of Florida, a gentle, slow-moving animal protected by the Federal Endangered Species Act as well as Florida state law. But manatees face the risk of extinction due to human activity, including the loss of their warm water winter habitat. For more information, go to the Save the Manatee Club website at www.savethemanatee.org.

Daily

- Veterans Day, Nov. 11. Held on the date of the end of World War I, this day honors all those who have served in the U.S. armed forces.
- World Diabetes Day, Nov. 14. Led by the International Diabetes Federation to engage millions of people worldwide in diabetes advocacy and awareness.
- International Games Day, Nov. 15. More than 1,000 libraries around the world will showcase gaming programs and services.
- International Hat Day, Nov. 25. Whatever your style, wear your favorite hat with pride.
- Thanksgiving, Nov. 27. Gather together with your family and friends to enjoy some turkey and show your gratitude.
- Square Dancing Day, Nov. 29. Swing a little on this day celebrating the traditional dance, popular in the U.S., with roots in 15th-century Europe.

It Pays (Up to $100.00) To Patronize The Advertisers In Your Newsletter
EVERY TICKET is a WINNER! - 50¢ Goes to American Red Cross for Every Ticket

Not only will you be letting the advertisers know you appreciate their supporting your newsletter but you may also become eligible to win up to $100 in cash prizes! And Now Monthly Media will donate 50¢ for every ticket submitted for the Monthly Mania Contest to...

Even if your contest ticket is not a winner for you... 50¢ will go to American Red Cross for your ticket and every ticket turned in. This Month $73⁰⁰ Went to The American Red Cross Because of Your Tickets

14,492 manufactured home residents have won over 124,374 since our contest began. It's simple to play ... when you patronize a current advertiser, ask for a Monthly Mania ticket (or a reasonable facsimile) and fill it out completely. Put the ticket in our Monthly Mania drop box in your community or mail your paid receipt to us at Monthly Media • PO Box 1023 • Venice, FL 34284. That's all you do. At the end of the month the Publishers will pick up the tickets and hold a drawing. If your ticket is drawn, we mail you a check.
