The secret to peace

A teacher and his student were walking through the forest. The student asked: “Why are most people’s minds restless, and only few possess a calm mind? What can one do to still the mind?”

The teacher smiled and told his student a story:

On one beautiful day, an elephant was standing by the shade of a tree, eating leaves. Suddenly, a small fly came buzzing and landed on the elephant’s ear. The elephant stayed calm and continued to eat, not heeding the fly.

The fly flew around the elephant’s ear, buzzing noisily, but the elephant seemed to be unaffected. This bewildered the fly, and it asked, “Are you deaf?”

“No,” the elephant answered.

“Then why aren’t you bothered by my buzz?”

“Why are you so restless and noisy? Why can’t you stay still just for a few moments?”

The fly replied, “Everything I see, hear and feel attracts my attention, and all noises and movements around me affect my behavior. What is your secret? How can you stay so calm and still?”

The elephant stopped eating and said, “My five senses do not disturb my peace, because they do not rule my attention. I am in control of my mind and my thoughts, and therefore, I can direct my attention where I want, and ignore any disturbances, including your buzz. Therefore I can stay peaceful.”

At the end of the story, the student’s eyes opened wide, and a smile appeared on his face. “Now I understand! My mind will always be in constant unrest if my five senses, and whatever is happening in the world around me, are in control. On the other hand, if I am in command of my five senses, able to disregard sense impressions, and able to control my thoughts, my mind will become calm, and I will be able to disregard its restlessness.”

“That’s right,” answered the teacher. “The mind is restless and goes wherever the attention goes. Control your attention, and you control your mind.”

Fuel your creativity with optimism

It's hard to be optimistic these days, but you can't be creative with a negative attitude. Investor's Business Daily has these tips for creativity even in dark times:

- Broaden your horizons. Think big. Look for ideas that will shake things up. Vast ambitions have more power to inspire than shallow ideas.
- Engage your curiosity. Question everything. Ask the reporter's questions—who, what, when, where, why, and how? Don't be satisfied with superficial answers. Dig deeper.
- Visualize success. Think about what your project will do, how it will feel, and what it will say to other people.
- Move on from failure. Every idea won't succeed. Don't let that stop you. Learn what you can and apply the lessons to your next creative project.
- Control your ego. You want to be the best, but you can't do everything yourself. Seek out other creative, talented people for their ideas and support. Incorporate their thoughts into your own efforts (giving due credit, of course). Concentrate on the achievement, not your own personal glory.
- Learn from others. You're not the only creative, ambitious person out there. Associate with people who've done what you want to do. Find out how they created success and emulate their tactics.

What feeds your inspiration?

Where do you find your inspiration? The Refinery29 website surveyed its readers on where and when they feel most creative. Here's what they said:

- | | | | |
|----------------------|-----|-----------------|-----|
| • At night | 62% | • Nature sounds | 33% |
| • Daytime | 38% | • Salty snacks | 52% |

A kindly gesture

A man was walking down the street one day when he noticed a boy trying to press a doorbell on a house across the street. However, the boy was very small, and the doorbell was too high for him to reach.

After watching the boy's efforts for some time, the man walked up onto the porch behind the little fellow and, placing his hand kindly on the child's shoulder, leaned over and gave the doorbell a solid ring.

Crouching down to the child's level, the man smiled kindly and asked, "And now what, my little man?"

The boy laughed. "Now we run!"

Afraid of the dark

A little boy was afraid of the dark. One night his mother told him to go out to the back porch and bring her the broom. The little boy turned to his mother and said, "Mama, I don't want to go out there. It's dark."

The mother smiled reassuringly at her son. "You don't have to be afraid of the dark," she explained. "God is out there. He'll look after you and protect you."

The little boy looked at his mother very hard and asked, "Are you sure He's out there?"

"Yes, I'm sure. He is everywhere, and He is always ready to help you when you need Him," she said.

The little boy thought about that for a minute and then went to the back door and cracked it a little. Peering out into the darkness, he called, "God? If you're out there, would you please hand me the broom?"

Life is worth living as long as there's a laugh in it.
