News and Notes from the Pool Improvement Club

How nice it is to get into the pool with the tropical sun and breezes beaming all around you! We will still face the task of resurfacing the pool deck and adding a new fence around the pool. The Board of Governors received bids during the summer. These tasks are scheduled to be completed during the month of October. Please watch the bulletin and website for updates on when the pool will be closed.

Please remember, we do not have Spa workers at our pool. When using the facilities for you and your GUESTS, go over all the Pool rules with them, always shower upon entering and exiting, rinse off any noodles or barbell after use and return to the utility chest. Use a towel on the lounges and chairs, always replace them to their corrected positions, straighten and remove all articles you carried in (towels, goggles, sunglasses, water bottles, etc.) Never bring in anything but plastic water containers. We do not wish to have any glass broken causing an interruption with the use of the pool. No cans of soda or alcoholic drinks enticing bees and flies and gnats to join us in our fun. Always be respectful to the property and other swimmers.

We had some issues at the pool this Spring, involving someone with a cut and bleeding and a child throwing up in the pool. Because of these instances we now have commanding rules to adhere to. If there is bleeding on the grounds or other bodily fluids rendered, YOU need to immediately close the pool and call a member of the governing board to conduct the proper cleaning. It may involve the Pool closing for a day or so, depending on the matter.

Safety First: Please if anyone has an open wound or feeling ill; do not come into the pool area. We need to have respect and protect our fellow Ranchers from infection and disease. We all need to keep the Pool clean and safe and follow the rules listed next to the shower area.

Needed New Board Members:

Looking to the future of the Pool Improvement Club, we are seeking new board members to take on an active role in the Club. We would like to have new blood to forge ahead, with their input and impact. Please see one of the board members and enter your heat. We would love to have you.

We are also looking to get Ranchers that are willing to sign up to volunteer to help with the dinners we sponsor during the year. We need a cooking crew, setup crew, kitchen cleanup crew, and take down crew helpers. Maybe you could get some of your close friends together and help as a group. If we get enough help we could rotate through the different dinners and then no one is constantly burdened. Think about it and give us a call.

There are many members on the RMPIC Board that want to retire from their chairs. We need new folks to step up and give some energy to lead on. If anyone could come forward please contact me at 412-721-4896 or email sjb2301@yahoo.com.

We need President, Vice President, Secretary, and two At Large to help organize our functions. I hate to beg, it involves attending the monthly board meeting, first Thursday of the month, October through April. Selling tickets and supporting the Pork Dinner in November, Spaghetti Dinner in January and the Splash Party in April. The PIC is also heading the January Ranch White Elephant Sale. We front the monies needed and forge the schedule for pickups and setup, food, cash boxes, and all things helpful. We do need a strong team! This really involves the entire park.

How can we contact you? Phone is a nice source, however it is often a game of phone tag.

Apurva Shah, M.D., M.P.H.

Board Certified in Internal Medicine

Dr. Shah is a board-certified MD in Internal Medicine and has been in practice for twelve years. He received internal medicine training from New York Medical College and also holds a Master's in public health from the University of South Florida.

Dr. Shah specializes in geriatric care. With his training and experience, he has been very successful in managing and treating high blood pressure, diabetes, back pain, heart problems, respiratory problems, and obesity.

The practice of Dr. Shah and Jill Coots, ARNP strives to remain open minded when building relationships with patients. A trusting relationship with atients and their families enables them to provide the most comprehensive and compassionate care. Emphasis is placed on preventive medicine, screening tests, timely interventions, and follow-up care. Dr. Shah and Jill have been successful with managing acute and chronic medical problems, reducing hospitalization and emergency room visits, and helping patients maintain a healthy and productive lifestyle.

We strongly believe patients are the biggest asset of our practice and customer service is the main motto of our practice. Patient feedback is extremely valuable and has helped us over the years to provide high quality and compassionate care. Dr. Shah does make personal rounds for his hospitalized patients and believes in continuity of care.

Dr. Seuss Quotes

"You have brains in your head. You have feet in your shoes, You can steer yourself in any direction you choose. You're on your own. And you know what you know. And YOU are the one who'll decide where to go..."

"The more that you read, the more things you will know. The more that you learn, the more places you'll go."

"There's no limit to how much you'll know, depending on how far beyond zebra you go."

"It's not about what it is, it's about what it can become."

"Only you can control your future."

"Think left and think right and think low and think high. Oh, the things you can think if only you try."

"Think and wonder, wonder and think."

Today you are You, that is truer than true. There is no one alive who is Youer than you."

"You're off to Great Places!

Today is your day!

Your mountain is waiting,

So ... get on your way!"

"I know, up on top you are seeing great sights, but down here at the bottom we, too, should have rights.!"

"You'll be on your way up!

You'll be seeing great sights!

You'll join the high fliers

Who soar to high heights.!"

"Why fit in when you were born to stand put."

"Don't cry because it's over, Smile because it happened."

"It has often been said
there's so much to read,
You never can cram
All those words in your head.
So the writer who breeds
more words than he needs
is making a chore
for the reader who reads.

Three Senior Pals

---

Three seniors are out for a stroll.
One of them remarks, "It's windy."
Another replies "No way. It's Thursday."
The last one says, "Me too. Let's have a soda."

The Game

On an overseas flight, a lawyer and an older man were in adjoining seats.
The lawyer asked the senior if he's like to play a little game. The older man was tired, and he told the lawyer he only wanted to sleep.

But the lawyer insisted the game was a lot of fun.

"Here's how it works," he said. "I'll ask you a question. If you can't come up with the answer, you have to give me a dollar. Then it's your turn to ask me one. But if I can't answer it,
I have to give you $20."

The senior figured if he just got this over with, maybe he could get some sleep. So he agreed to play.

The first question from the lawyer was "How far apart are the earth and the moon?"

The senior stayed completely silent, reached for a dollar, and gave it to the lawyer. Then he said, "My turn. What walks upstairs backward and comes downstairs forward?"

The lawyer was stumped. He thought and thought. He tried to remember all the riddles he knew. He searched every corner of his brain.

He even cheated and asked the flight attendants and other passengers.

Finally he gave up. He woke up the older man and said, "I have to know. What walks upstairs backward and comes downstairs forward?"

The senior got out his wallet, gave the lawyer a dollar, and went back to sleep.

15 Cream-Filled Facts About Oreos

Everyone's favorite treat with the 71 percent to 9 percent cookie-to-cream ratio has more layers than you might think. Here are just a few of the things you probably didn't know about the Oreo.

1. HYDROX WAS THE ORIGINAL

Hydrox might seem like an Oreo knock-off, but these cookies actually came first, debuting in 1908 - four years before the Oreo.

2. DOUBLE-STUF MIGHT BE A MISNOMER

They're actually only 1.86 times bigger than regular Oreos. You can thank a high school math class in upstate New York for the detective work - though following the revelation, a spokesperson for the cookie insisted they do in fact contain "double the stuff."

3. OREO O'S CEREAL WAS A THING

The cereal was launched in 1998 and discontinued in 2007. It's not totally extinct, though: It's still being produced in South Korea.

4. THERE'S A TOOL FOR EASY DIPPING

Those who love to enjoy Oreos dunked in milk should invest in The Dipr. The hook-like (or reaper-like) utensil is perfectly designed to snugly cup an Oreo cookie, allowing for easy dunking - and ensuring that none of the cookie gets lost in the liquid. There's even a shallow, color-coordinated dish to combat the classic problem of not being able to fit your hand in a slim glass of milk.

5. PIGS HATE OREOS

We have the folks over at Ben & Jerry's to thank for this discovery. When the company started giving its milky water waste to a local pig farmer in 1985, the farmer reported that his hogs loved every flavor except for Mint and Oreo Cookies. Guess every man (and hog) has his limits.

6. THEY'RE DIFFERENT IN CHINA

While beloved in the United States, Oreos didn't do so well when they were introduced in China in 1996. They were almost pulled from the market, but then Kraft decided to ask Chinese consumers for their input. As a result of that research, eventually created an Oreo that looks nothing like the one we know: It's essentially a tube-shaped treat with four layers of crispy wafer and vanilla or chocolate filling

7. OREO CREAM MAKES FOR GREAT ART

Artist Tisha Cherry makes incredible tiny pieces of artwork on the canvas of Golden Oreos, using novelty Oreo cookies from over the years for color and a toothpick as yer tool. Her Instagram has everything from Oreo-d Frida Kahlo to American Gothic and lots of other food art in between.

8. THE NAME IS A MYSTERY

The origin of the word "Oreo" might be from the French work for gold (or) because the packaging in the beginning was gold, but no one knows for sure.

9. THEY'RE THE WORLD'S BEST-SELLING COOKIE

More than 450 billion Oreo cookies have been sold since their debut in 1912.

10. THEY'RE AVAILABLE IN MORE THAN 100 COUNTRIES

Flavors around the world include Green Tea Ice Cream (Japan), Dulce de Leche (Argentina), Blueberry Ice Cream (Indonesia), Raspberry/Blueberry (China), and Orange/Mango (China).

11. ONE OF THE ORIGINAL FLAVORS WAS LEMON MERINGUE

The flavor was discontinued in the 1920s. Since then, Oreo has branched out to a world of other flavors including Creamsicle, Banana Split Cream, Neapolitan, Triple Double, Candy Corn, Coconut Fudge, and so many more.

12. THEY HAVE A BUILT-IN PERSONALITY TEST

The way that you eat an Oreo might say something about your personality. In 2004, Kraft Foods surveyed 2000 Oreo eaters and found that dunkers tend to be energetic, adventurous, and social; twisters are sensitive, emotional, artistic, and trendy; and biters are easy-going, self-confident, and optimistic. They also found that more women dunk, while more men bite. And Republicans tend to dunk, while Democrats are twisters.

13. THEY MEET CERTAIN DIETARY STANDARDS

While no one would recommend Oreos as a diet food, they are considered accidentally vegan (though there is some cross contact with milk during production, so buyer beware). And while the original recipe called for pig lard, Oreos officially became kosher in 1997.

14. OREO KNOWS HOW TO CELEBRATE ITS BIRTHDAY

For its 100th birthday, Oreo rolled out a limited -edition Birthday Cake cookie with cake-flavored filling and sprinkles, along with a massive marketing campaign - just like your friend who insists on a birthday month.

15. THERE WAS ONCE A COOKIE NAMED BIG STUF

In 1984, Big Stuf Oreos landed on the scene and the world was never the same. Big Stufs were about 10 times larger than a regular Oreo. They were discontinued in 1991; the mourning continues to this day.

The Old Coot Is a Dunker

By: Merlin Lessler

It was a symphony. The players lined up on swivel stools, a steaming mug of coffee on the counter in front of them, a "plain" donut clutched in their right hand, posed above their mug (except for Lefty). Then, like instruments in an orchestra, the donuts were dunked on cue, "Plunk, plunk, plunk - Dunk, dunk, dunk." That unfinished symphony is now finished. The diner-donut-dunkers are gone. as are the toast-in-cocoa dunkers and the crumpet-in-tea dippers. An era has come to an end.

Oh sure, there are dunkers out there. Of the ketchup and French-fry ilk or the Oreos and milk variety. Here and there a grilled cheese gets dunked in tomato soup. But, the legion of donut dunkers that lined the silver diners vanished a decade or two ago. The Seinfeld TV show made the last mention of dunking in public on Season 3, episode 7, when the camera panned to a well-dressed gentleman dunking a donut in Dinky Donuts. Kramer claimed it was Joe DiMaggio. (We'll never know for sure.)

People buy donuts by the dozen and consume them in private at home these days. No one hops on a bar stool, executes a 360 degree swivel and orders a cup of Joe and 2 plain donuts. And dunks! Even the company that took the dunking process as their namesake (Dunkin Donut) backed away from their heritage and discontinued the "dunkin" donut with its little dunking handle. It no longer has a home on the racks that line the back wall. Coffee comes in a Styrofoam container with a lid. Who can dunk in that atmosphere?

Old coot dunkers like me are extinct, exiled to society's attic, right next to the barrel makers and lamplighters. Coffee was 10 cents in my early dunking days. Two plain donuts were a quarter. So were sugar donuts, but none of us bought them; we didn't want to be seen walking around town with a frosty white mustache. Plain donuts were safe. Sugar donuts were for kids.

Now that I've got that out of my system, I forgot my point. that's what you get from an old coot. A long rant about the good old days and then nothing. I don't even know what got me started. Probably that trip to the dentist last week so Pam could fix yet another tooth that started to come apart (an "old age" thing). It must have got me looking into the future, to a time when I'll only be able to eat a donut if I can dunk it. Sitting on a stool in the diner and saying, "Hi," to someone who greets me with, "How you doing Gummy?" That's even worse than being called, :Old Coot!"

Caramel Apple Crisp Bars

Makes about 16

INGREDIENTS

- 3 large Granny Smith apples, peeled, halved, and sliced 1/4 inch thick
- 3 large Honeycrisp apples, peeled, halved, and sliced 1/4 inch thick
- 1 cup granulated sugar, divided
- 3-2/3 cups all purpose flour, divided
- 1-1/2 cups plus 2/3 cup firmly packed light brown sugar, divided
- 2 tablespoons cornstarch
- 1 tablespoon ground cinnamon
- 2-1/2 teaspoons kosher salt, divided
- 2 teaspoons vanilla extract
- 1/2 teaspoon ground nutmeg
- 3 cups old-fashioned oats
- 1-3/4 cups unsalted butter, softened
- 1-1/4 teaspoons baking soda
- 1 cup chopped pecans
- 1 (11 ounce) bag individually wrapped caramel candies, unwrapped
- 2 tablespoon heavy whipping cream

DIRECTIONS

1. In a large bowl, stir together apples and 1/2 cup of granulated sugar. Let stand for 30 minutes.
2. Preheat oven to 350 degrees. Line a 13x9" pan with foil and then parchment paper, letting excess extend over the sides.
3. Drain apples, discarding liquid. Stir 2/3 cup each of flour and brown sugar, cornstarch, cinnamon, 1 teaspoon salt, vanilla, and nutmeg into apples until well combined..
4. In a large bowl, beat oats, butter, baking soda, remaining 3 cups flour, remaining 1-1/2 cups brown sugar and remaining 1-1/2 teaspoons salt with a mixer at medium speed until well combined and crumbly. Press 4 cups of mixture into the bottom of the prepared pan. Stir pecans into the remaining mixture, and reserve.
5. Bake rust for 20 minutes. Let cool 5 minutes.
6. Spread apple mixture onto hot crust, and sprinkle with reserve oat mixture. Bake 40 minutes more. Remove from oven, and let cook completely in pan on a wire rack. Refrigerate until firm, 2 to 3 hours.
7. Using excess foil and parchment as handles, remove from pan, and cut into bars. In a medium microwave-safe bowl, heat the caramels and cream on high in 14 second intervals, stirring between each, until melted and smooth, about 1 minute. Drizzle bars with caramel, and let stand until set, about 3 minutes. Cover and refrigerate for up to 3 days.
