Regency Heights Bowling League

Marilyn Christian

Calling All Bowlers!!!!

Our bowling season began on Thursday, November 9, 2017 and goes until March 22, 2018 at Dunedin Lanes. The weekly bowling fee is $11.00 per bowler per week, with $7.00 lane fees and $4.00 prize fund. We will continue selling 50/50 raffle tickets each week which is added to our prize fund.

Our league consists of 11 teams with 4 bowlers per team. Several of our regular bowlers have decided not to bowl this year. Therefore, we encourage all, new and not-so new, residents to come and join in the fun as we always need substitutes for bowlers who are unable to compete.

‘Bark in the Park’ Doggy Social

Chris Stones

January 16th @ 10am

Many of you know I used to run a dog behavior company called The Dog Listener. We primarily worked with dog rescue groups to rehabilitate abused, abandoned and stressed animals. Dogs who exhibited bad behavior. Dogs are pack animals and every once in a while need to be reintroduced to what it means to be a dog – especially dogs coming from a 1 dog household. If your dog barks excessively, pulls on its lead when seeing other dogs, lunges at other dogs, nips or bites – these are all signs that your dog just wishes to investigate its’ natural dog behavior.

On Tuesday January 16th at 10am we will be holding a Doggy Social program at our dog park. Small dogs will be from 10 to 11 with larger dogs from 11 to 12. This is primarily for your benefit as dogs do not recognize size – they recognize energy level. Dogs can be present for the full 2 hours as long as the owner is cool with it. The event will be sponsored by Woof Gang Bakery and we are looking into having a nail clipping station set up.

The rules will be simple ...

1. All dogs must be leashed until they are led into the park.
2. All dogs must be leash free while in the park
3. All dogs must have an owner present
4. All owners must pick up after their own dog and any other dog they observe
5. All owners must have fun – no hovering over your dog – let them be dogs
6. Observe the rule – No Talk, No Touch, No Eye Contact – respect your dog and allow it to be a dog
7. Please ensure all vaccinations are up to date

Recipe of the Month

Chris Stones

We are starting a new feature – the Recipe of the Month. If you have a favourite recipe please submit it to chrisstones48@gmail.com. While your recipe may not be chosen for the publication ALL recipes will be added to the RH Cookbook library and will be made available twice a year.

This month's recipe comes to us from Gary Eckhoff and it is one many of us have enjoyed

Grandma's Old Fashioned Apple Pie Moonshine Ala Mode

1 gallon Apple Cider
½ gallon Apple Juice (if Apple Cider is not available you can use all Apple Juice)
6 Cinnamon Sticks
1 cup White Sugar
1 cup Brown Sugar
5 cups more or less 190 proof pure grain Alcohol (Everclear)
3 cups Vanilla Vodka

In a large pot combine the cider, juice, sugars and cinnamon sticks.
Bring to a boil. Reduce heat and simmer for 20 minutes.
Remove from heat and cool completely.
When cool stir in the booze.
Bottle and refrigerate.
Enjoy in moderation or not in moderation.

VINYL IS FINAL

"...I am so happy with my new windows...I'd like to commend your work crew. Earbie and Larry were fantastic! I couldn't believe the clean-up EVERYDAY! The whole job took just a week even with all the rain delays. I would and WILL highly recommend your company to my friends and neighbors. Of course I won't need to say a word - the house is doing all the talking! Thank you so much for my beautiful new house."

Carol Zapiecki, Clearwater, FL

"Just a short note to express my appreciation for the work done on my mobile home. The crews that worked here...were gentlemen at all times, efficient, knowledgeable and prompt. Facts about Christmas

Chris Stones

Tis the season to be...well informed. We all love Christmas, but how much do any of us actually know about why Christmas is the way it is? Here are 31 facts about Christmas trees, Santa Claus, and Rudolph that you (probably) didn't know. Smarten up!

1. Christmas supposedly marks the birth of Jesus Christ on December 25. But there is no mention of December 25 in the Bible and most historians actually believe he was born in the spring.
2. December 25 was probably chosen because it coincided with the ancient pagan festival Saturnalia, which celebrated the agricultural god Saturn with partying, gambling, and gift-giving.
3. Many of the popular Christmas traditions today found their roots in Saturnalia: Branches from evergreen trees were used during winter solstice as a reminder of the green plants that would grow in spring when the sun gods grew strong.
4. These evergreen branches became the foundation of our Christmas tree. Germans are thought to be the first to bring "Christmas trees" into their homes at the holidays and decorate them with cookies and lights.
5. The Christmas tree made its way to America in the 1830s but wasn't popular until 1846, after Germany's Prince Albert brought it to England when he married Queen Victoria. The two were sketched in front of a Christmas tree and the tradition instantly became popular. Royal fever was real even back then.
6. The well-known reason we give presents at Christmas is to symbolize the gifts given to baby Jesus by the three wise men. But it may also stem from the Saturnalia tradition that required revelers to offer up rituals to the gods.
7. Because of its roots in pagan festivals, Christmas was not immediately accepted by the religious. In fact, from 1659 to 1681, it was illegal to celebrate Christmas in Boston. You were fined if you were caught celebrating.
8. Santa Claus comes from St. Nicholas, a Christian bishop living in (what is now) Turkey in the fourth century AD. St. Nicholas had inherited a great deal of wealth and was known for giving it away to help the needy. When sainted, he became the protector of children.
9. After his death, the legend of St. Nicholas spread. St. Nick's name became Sint-Nicolaas in Dutch, or Sinter Klaas for short. Which is only a hop, skip, and jump to Santa Claus.
10. Santa Claus delivering presents comes from Holland's celebration of St. Nicholas' feast day on December 6. Children would leave shoes out the night before and, in the morning, would find little gifts that St. Nicholas would leave them.
11. And stockings come from this story: A poor man with three daughters couldn't afford the dowry to have them married. One night, St. Nicholas dropped a bag of gold down the man's chimney so that his oldest daughter would be able to get married, and the bag fell into a stocking that was drying by the fire.
12. One of the reasons we leave milk and cookies for Santa is because Dutch kids would leave food and drink for St. Nicholas on his feast day.

13. And we leave carrots for Santa Claus' reindeer because, in Norse mythology, people left hay and treats for Odin's eight-legged horse Sleipnir "in hopes the god would stop by their home during his Yule hunting adventures." Dutch children adopted this tradition too, and would treats for St. Nick's horse.
14. The look of Santa Claus we have today was created at an 1804 meeting of the New York Historical Society, where member John Pintard handed out wooden cutouts of jolly old St. Nick in front of stockings filled with toys.
15. Though Santa Claus has worn blue and white and green in the past, his traditional red suit came from a 1930s ad by Coca Cola.
16. And the image of him Santa Claus flying in a sleigh started in 1819...and was dreamt up by the same author who created the Headless Horseman, Washington Irving.
17. Rudolph was actually conceived by a department store, Montgomery Ward, as a marketing gimmick to get kids to buy holiday coloring books.
18. Rudolph almost didn't have a red nose either: At the time, a red nose was a sign of chronic alcoholism and Montgomery Ward thought he would look like a drunkard.
19. Rudolph was almost named Rollo or Reginald. Reginald the Red-Nosed Reindeer doesn't quite have the same ring to it.
20. The poem that introduced us to the other eight reindeer, "A Visit from St. Nicholas," actually named dropped Dasher, Dancer, Prancer, Vixen, Comet, Cupid, Duner and Blixem. (Which, like Donner and Blitzen, come from the German words for thunder and lightning.)
21. Over the years, other reindeer have been name checked on Santa's sleigh team, such as: Flossie, Glossie, Racer, Pacer, Scratcher, Feckless, Ready, Steady, and Fireball (no relation to the whiskey).
22. The first batch of eggnog in America was crafted at Captain John Smith's Jameston settlement in 1607, and the name eggnog comes from the word "grog," which refers to any drink made with rum.
23. "Silent Night" is the most recorded Christmas song in history, with over 733 different versions copyrighted since 1978.
24. Legend has it that "Silent Night" was written by a Father Joseph Mohr in Austria, who was determined to have music at his Christmas service after his organ broke. In reality, a priest wrote it while stationed at a pilgrim church in Austria.
25. Meanwhile, "White Christmas" is the best-selling song of all time.
26. "Santa Claus Is Coming to Town" actually has a truly depressing back-story: songwriter James "Haven" Gillespie was broke, jobless, and his brother had just died when he was asked to write a Christmas song. He was originally too overcome with grief, but eventually found inspiration in his brother's death and the Christmas memories they had together.
27. The original lyrics to "Hark! The Herald Angel Sings" were "Hark! How the Welkin rings!" Welkin is an old, English term for Heaven. A preacher later tweaked the lyric.
28. "Jingle Bells" was originally supposed to be a Thanksgiving song.
29. Boston church leaders tried to have the song "I Saw Mommy Kissing Santa Claus" banned in the 1950s because they thought it "promoted physical intimacy." Singer Jimmy Boyd had to fly to Boston and explain to them why it wasn't obscene.

30. Mariah Carey's "All I Want for Christmas Is You" is considered to be the most popular Christmas song now. In the music video, Santa is played by Mariah's then-husband, Tommy Mottola.

31. And the highest-grossing Christmas movie of all time is How the Grinch Stole Christmas. The Jim Carrey version. Who knew?

Now you know. Or at least have a bunch of random facts to rattle off to your family when you run out of things to talk about. Merry (almost) Christmas!

Little Johnny

Chris Stones

Mrs. Richards was going around her Grade 2 classroom challenging the students with certain words ...

“Dorothy, use the word ‘challenge’ in a sentence”

Dorothy replied “Chess is very difficult and therefore a challenge”

“Very good” said Mrs. Richards

... and so it went as she challenged each student until she came too little Johnny ...

“Johnny, use the word ‘definitely’ in a sentence”

Little Johnny thought about it for a moment and then said ... “May I ask you a question first?”

Mrs. Richards replied “Sure” to which Little Johnny asked “Are farts normally lumpy”

“Uh, no” said Mrs. Richards ... to which Little Johnny replied ... “Then I’ve definitely pooped my pants”
