FROM THE EDITOR'S DESK

LARRY DUNNETT #171 mindfarms@gmail.com

It's November 6th and...By all rights, I should be either resuming my duties as Editor or be 6 feet down but neither is the case. A little over a month ago I was admitted to the Hospital with what was diagnosed as Colitis. They put me on antibiotics and sent me home.

The Saga begins. Three days later I was back in the Hospital because what the real problem turned out to be was a blockage in the bowels (Intestines) so let me take you through all that transpired. Colitis is apparently serious enough to cause death, sometimes through what they call "bleeding out" therefore they called my Son in Alaska and he flew down. From here on out I am simply going to describe the events that followed. My response to them and feelings about them may be enlightening.

One thing I discovered is that even if one is in a situation that makes it impossible for you to respond, a firm Hug from someone that sincerely loves you is felt, truly felt. I am not saying that hugs from those that wish you well and like you aren't felt also it's just those hugs don't have the same intensity.

Another thing I discovered is that there are levels of pain that makes one just want to end it any way possible. In other words either let me die or stop the pain.

I discovered these things because I experienced them.

Part of the treatment they (Doctors, aids, etc.) was to shove a tube that seemed to be as big as One and a half inch PVC pipe down my throat. At that point in the treatment process, I actually begged them to let me die. The pain was that intense. I've heard Burn Victims describe the same level of pain. Some of them the pain never really goes away. Mine did... kinda.

Once they discovered that it was NOT Colitis but a blockage they started cutting on me. They by-passed the blockage and as a result I am stuck with a colostomy. It is inconvenient, makes one choose clothes that try to hide it, a pain in the butt to empty, and smelly when it vents.

In addition to that there is what they call a "prolapse" commonly associated with a colostomy that protrudes from the area. In my case one of considerable size. That makes the whole containment device want to pull away from the skin. The reason I mention that is they cut a hole in my stomach for the colostomy.

Maintaining the colostomy takes away from the "quality" of life perspective. It takes time away from my self and Sue, too much time.

In order to eliminate this thing, it will take two operations. One to reconnect the bypass and another to what they call "re-birth" the stoma (that part of my intestines that is exposed). Those operations cannot be done at the same time.

I don't believe that we cease to exist when we leave the body. Therefore I am not too thrilled about hanging around in this condition.

Can it be fixed? Yes.

Here is what I told my Surgeon... Let's do the operations, if they work, good. Sue and I won't have to deal with it anymore. If it fails (I don't survive) that's good too. Sue won't have to worry about dealing with it anymore and I won't either

So...

That's where it is at right now, waiting for approval for the operation.

Happy 2018!!! Can you believe that it is here already? All the hustle and bustle of the holidays is over for another year. Now we move on to Pasta Night and Western Night and more great parties to look forward to. There is a Yard Sale being planned for the 13th from 8 a.m. to 2 p.m. There will be a bake sale and coffee, and a raffle. Donations to be taken to the clubhouse on Friday the 12th. Diana McNiven is in charge of this and you should contact her with any questions. She needs volunteers to help set up, tear down and manage the sale. Please consider helping out.

Print deadline for this issue is earlier than usual due to the holidays, so I will have to get all caught up next month. Any changes or new information on your activity or agenda, please let me know by sending me an email or dropping the info in the folder for media articles so I can keep informed everyone informed as correctly as possible. Thank you.

Winter is definately here in Florida. It got pretty chilly in December and it was different to wear long pants and sweaters or sweat shirts. Sure was nice to turn the a/c off for a bit, so I am not complaining.

Every month I mention paying it forward. December is a wonderful month, as you see all kinds of businesses and individuals donating to veterans, homeless, Toys for Tots, and many many other programs given with heartfelt love. I wonder what happens the other 11 months of the year? It is very important that during holiday time, we share our thoughts and love with those less fortunate than we are, no one wants anyone to have nothing on Christmas morning. But what happens to these less fortunate the other 364 days of the year? It absolutely breaks my heart to think of the ones hungry, homeless, jobless, etc. and the suffering they do. My hubby and I are on social security and a very limited income, but are fortunate enough to be able to have a roof over our heads and have a freezer and cabinets full of food and able to afford our utilities etc. Even have a bit left over to share with others that are struggling. It may be as little as a tube of toothpaste, mouthwash and other hygenic products or as wonderful as a bag of groceries. It is just something I feel is genuinly needed to be done and it soothes my heart to know maybe one person is a little less miserable than they were. I don't care for cons or freeloaders, and am not so gullible to think they are not out there, but there truly are people who suffer that cannot change their situation right now. A veteran, who gave his best to keep this country free, whether injured or not, should not be homeless; hungry or without a job. They have had enough broken promises. There will be people without insurance and ways to pay for it if the subsidies are taken away, which looks like they will be. When a child will not have medicines to keep him well or even alive, what does a parent do? So I know there is a real need out there, and we are all that stands between them and disaster, and possibly death. Let's make a new year resolution to do what we can at least once a month even if it is paying for a cup of coffee for someone who needs a lift. Once you begin, you will not believe how good it makes you feel. So please consider making this a new year resolution for you and your family.

This month we have Martin Luther King day on the 15th, and Chinese New Year is the 28th. Frank Rigerio's wonderful Pasta Night is in the works for January 19th. Please watch the bulletin boards for costs, times etc.

Have a great month, get in touch with me with new information about your activity or chairmanship, and remember to pay it forward.

Hoping for a healthy new year for all of us here at Riviera Estates. Have a great month.

Terri

Friday Night Movie Night: This is a free movie with free popcorn at the clubhouse usually held on Friday nights. The bulletin board will post what movie will be featured. If the chairs are uncomfortable for you, please bring one that is so you can enjoy the movie. Tina Moll is in charge of this activity who can be reached at 727-784-8871.

Euchre: Anybody interested in playing Euchre? Last year we had difficulty getting enough people to occupy the tables. Please make your questions heard on Saturday morning at coffee to get this going again. Contact Steve Walaski, President of Good Neighbors if you are interested in "chairing" this event. We need to get this popular card game going again.

Golf: Ed Mitchell is in charge of Golf, which is on Wednesday mornings at 10:30 a.m. at Countryway Golf Course. Please contact Ed to advise if you are planning on golfing so he can reserve the tee times, etc. The golfers enjoy this activity quite a bit, and there may even be a side bet or two going on.....-

Poker: Some residents enjoy playing poker once a week, and they play on Thursday evenings at 6:00 p.m. Albert Dominie is in charge of this activity and he can be reached at 727-953-3464.

Tai Chi: Tai Chi is a balance exercise that helps get rid of that stiff, old feeling many of us suffer from. We have in the past had several enjoy attending this class. Will have additional information as soon as possible, but believe it will be held on Tuesdays.

Line Dancing: We have had line dancing on Thursdays for several years. Will advise as soon as possible if this will continue and the info you will need.

RELIC - Riviera Estates Lotto International Club - Spoke to Frank and he advises lotto began the end of November. Frank collects money from all who want to be in the Lotto drawing and purchases the tickets for Saturday and Wednesdays drawing. We participate in the Florida Lottery, not Power Ball. Any questions, contact Frank Rigiero. 727-785-2781. It is $4.00 a week, which includes both Wed and Sat night drawings.

Homeowner's Association: referred to as the HOA, this group works with management of the park as our representatives to keep things going smoothly with the management and the homeowners. There is a fee to join, and you must own your coach to be able to join this group. They also work with issues for mobile homeowners that the state is dealing with, through the FMO, to keep us informed as to what is trying to be done with laws etc. regarding mobile homeowners. This is a group of officers that work hard to keep things rolling along smoothly in the park. If you own your coach, please plan to join this group to keep informed. We all received notice of the rent increase in November and the officers of the HOA will be addressing this with the management. Ed Mitchell is President. No meeting in January, next meeting will be first Thursday in February.

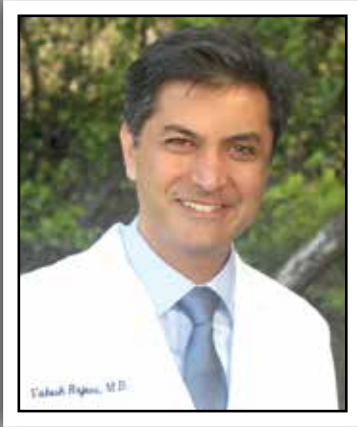

Good Neighbor's Club: The Good Neighbor's club meetings are held on the 2nd Friday of each month at 9:00 a.m. . Contact President Steve Walaski at 953-6248 or email the Good Neighbors executive board with questions, suggestions, etc at gnclubre@gmail.com. We also have a website where an event calendar is posted and pictures, etc. It is www.rivieraestates-

The dues pay for the whole year from Jan 1 through Dec. 31st. Being a member gives you cheaper tickets etc. for the parties. Well worth the cost.

Cruises: The club is looking into some ocean cruises that may spark your interest. They are looking at t 10 Night Cruise starting Dec. 4th and also another one around Christmas. If you are interested in more information on this, please contact Irena Winkowski at 608-432-2043.

"...I am so happy with my new windows...I'd like to commend your work crew. Earbie and Larry were fantastic! I couldn't believe the clean-up EVERYDAY! The whole job took just a week even with all the rain delays. I would and WILL highly recommend your company to my friends and neighbors. Of course I won't need to say a word - the house is doing all the talking! Thank you so much for my beautiful new house."

Carol Zapiecki, Clearwater, FL

"Just a short note to express my appreciation for the work done on my mobile home. The crews that worked here...were gentlemen at all times, efficient, knowledgeable and prompt. You can be sure if I run into anybody who needs your type of work, I will surely recommend your company. It has been a very satisfying experience!"
