FROM THE EDITOR'S DESK

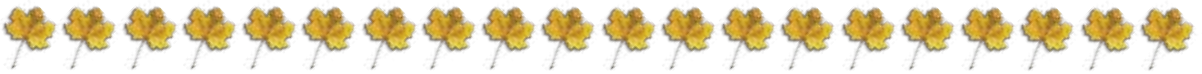

Terri Walls, #89 gammawtj@gmail.com

Unbelievable! November is here and where has time gone? This year just seemed to fly by. I cannot believe how close Thanksgiving and Christmas are. I am in high gear, making my cookie doughs and freezing them; same with candies. Also busy making gifts as usual. So that tells you what I am engrossed in. But, the exciting and most happy thing is our northerners are returning to our little community. It is very exciting seeing them arrive and begin the process of getting all things cleaned and ready for the winter season. Welcome Back!!! You have been missed. Things will be getting underway real quickly, I am guessing that the usual games and gatherings will begin right away. EVERYONE IN CHARGE OF A GAME OR FUNCTION PLEASE LET ME KNOW SO THAT I AM CORRECTLY REPORTING YOUR ACTIVITY. Thank you. Also, any info and schedules you can get to me on the Shuffleboard would be greatly appreciated. I was not able to report the matches, etc. last year because I never received the information. So we are getting ready for the fun and activities. We will be having a Welcome Back party which is tentatively scheduled for November 19th on our agenda. Please watch the bulletin board for additional information. The Thanksgiving Dinner is also on the agenda for Nov. 24th, so watch the bulletin boards for that information also. Plus, attend Koffee Klatch on Saturday mornings to keep up with all that is going on. That is the best place to obtain your information.

So, besides the activities going on, what else happens in November? Well, the calendar tells me that course, Nov. 8th is Election Day, so please VOTE. Not voting is not an option in my opinion. But then, that is my feeling. The 11th is Veteran's Day, and we need to be sure to honor our Veterans for their service and for keeping us safe and free. If you are a veteran, many restaurants will be offering free meals for you, and there are all kinds of things being done to thank you for your extreme love of our country and the actions you took for us. Please watch the newspaper for this information, and residents PLEASE do something in honor of them; let them know you appreciate all that they have done. November 19th is the tentative date for a great celebration and Welcome Back Party. We are in the process of planning a fun party to welcome our northern snow birds back into the fold of Riviera Estates living. We miss them when they are "up north" and we welcome them back with a nice get together. November 24th is of course, Thanksgiving Day, the day many families gather together to share a huge Turkey Dinner and celebrate all that we are thankful for, the harvest time in our country and the founding of it. If you do not have family in the area, or are not planning on cooking, please look for information on our Community Thanksgiving Dinner. It is a very delicious, successful celebration and you should plan to attend. Watch for additional information such as cost and times on the bulletin board and at Koffee Klatch.

So what are you thankful for? This past year my grand daughter had a serious health issue and I am so thankful for the specialists at John Hopkins All Children's Hospital in St. Pete, for their undying determination to find out what was wrong, how to fix it and to get it done. So surgery was done and the issue was resolved and she is doing wonderfully well. She has some restrictions, and future surgeries, but we are so very thankful that she is doing so well and the heart issue has been taken care of. A lot for a little 10 year old to go through. But I think the parents and grandparents suffered more stress than she did. LOL. I thank God everyday for the fact that it has been taken care of. I am also thankful that I finally had my gall bladder removed in July, as I feel so very much better. I am thankful that my hubby and I celebrated our 40th anniversary on October 1st. I am amazed we have made it together that long and are both still alive. I am thankful that Ed Mitchell is doing well after going through intensive health struggles and has finished his treatments. Congratulations Ed, I am looking forward to giving you a hard time as usual. We have much to be thankful for, so celebrate with gusto and enjoy the day. And then before we know it the Christmas holiday and New Year's will be here. Time is flying by. I need to close out, but as usual, please keep in touch with your neighbors and friends here in the park and make certain they are doing well. Help them out if they need anything, and always try to pay it forward. I am extremely grateful for my friends and neighbors who certainly helped me when I needed it. Have a great month, hopefully this weather will settle down a bit and we will get back to nice winter Florida weather. Have a great month!

From the Co-Editor's Desk

Larry Dunnett #171 mindfarms@gmail.com

Trees? This is a true story. One that taught me a little bit about my communication skills. My youngest son and I had a conversation (over 26 years ago) when he was about 5 years old.

He had received a toy for his birthday that was battery powered. One of those little Remote Control Trucks. After playing with it for a while the battery ran down so we had to put it on the charger.

While it was being re-charged he and I talked. I told him "When I was little, like you, there weren't Remote Control Cars and Trucks to play with." And he asked "What did you play with Daddy?" so I began to tell him.

I told him about my Sand Box, I had built him one and he had spent many hours in it and he also enjoyed climbing on a small tree we had in the back yard.

Anyway, I began to describe the toys I had back then. My favorite were the ones I could take outside to my sand box. Nothing technologically shocking but to me they were fantastic. They were called Tonka Toys and I still remember the joy of playing with the Bulldozer and the Crane. Those he could understand because I had bought him a few Tonka Toys and similar products for him to use in his sand box.

Then I talked about the games we had... card games like Go Fish and Memory. I also said a few words about the games Grown-ups played with "real" cards and board games like Monopoly.

I told him we didn't have games like Nintendo or the Sony Play Station. Also the TV was only black and white. I showed him a picture in the newspaper that was black and white when he asked what that meant.

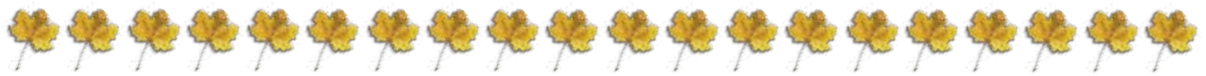

We talked about playing ball, "hide and seek", and "Your It" type of games with other kids too. Plus I explained that I didn't get to play in the snow because where I lived when I was little it never snowed. He liked playing in the snow so that seemed amazing to him... that I never got to play in snow. I was raised in Florida.

Anyway, after about 30 minutes of us talking he looked up at me with an almost sad expression (I can still see that look on his face) and asked "Daddy, did you have trees back then?"

I laughed and said "Yes, we had trees." Then I explained that there wasn't one in my yard and I wasn't supposed to leave my yard so I didn't get to climb a tree like he had in his yard. A look of relief came over his face and then we put the charged battery in his Truck and played with technology again.

Now, every time I see a "blank" look on someone's face when I say something, when I didn't communicate clearly enough for some reason, in my mind's eye, I see that little face and hear the words... "Daddy, did you have trees back then?"

Enjoy, Larry D.

Thanks for your input in the magazine, and the humor you bring.

Riviera Estates - From the Manager's Desk

Susan Worden, Community Manager

Susan is here on Tuesdays and Fridays., 9: 00-3:30. Remember to contact her via email (best) if you need to talk with her when she is not here. Her email address is riviera@arcinvestments.com. Our assistant manager, Ginetta Mathis is here Monday through Friday, 9:00 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.

Riviera Estates Homeowner's Association

Alan Hennigar, President

The next meeting of the Homeowner's Association will be November 3rd at 9:30 am. which is the first meeting after our northerners return. There will be a lot to catch up on and the nomination and election of new officers in November and December, so please be sure to attend.

ACTIVITIES AND REMINDERS

POOL AND PET OWNER REMINDERS

FYI: Riviera Estates MHP would like to remind our residents that NO one is allowed to touch the temperature settings on the pool heater and/or the clubhouse air conditioner. Our manager and the Homeowner's Association Executive Board have insisted on this. Pool hours are 9:00 a.m. until dusk daily. Pool is heated in winter, the months of November through March.

Please remember when leaving the pool, to CLOSE DOWN THE UMBRELLAS, pick up your trash and close the gates. If you are going by the pool, and see the umbrellas are open, please go in and close them. A wind gust can pick them right up and they become a missile and could damage or injure, along with the umbrella itself getting damaged. Treat our community pool as if it were your own. Thank you.

ATTENTION PET OWNERS: Please be a responsible pet owner and a RESPECTIBLE pet owner as well. When walking your pets, please do not allow them to "potty" in other people's yards. Some are not pet lovers as we are.

Your dogs must be leashed at all times, and there are plenty of areas where your dog can go. There is a pet cleanup station in the storage field for your use.

Please be sure to clean up after your pet. Also, please try to keep your pet from barking or making loud disturbing noise that can bother a neighbor.

Complaints are being received by the office on a constant basis of pet problems in the park. So, at this time, our pet rule policy should be noted. Pets are allowed in park, UP TO attend the Koffee Klatch on Saturday morning or come to my coach prior to 2 p.m. that day. At the last Good Neighbors meeting it was decided to switch to the FLORIDA Lotto instead of Power Ball. The odds are much better, and we aren't competing with gamblers from other states as in Powerball.

20 POUNDS weight restriction. Copies of pet inoculation certificate must be given to the office as proof the pet has been vaccinated. There is a LIMIT OF TWO PETS PER COACH. Fences for the pets are not allowed to be installed. All pets must be leashed at all times when outside the coach. Make certain when you leave your pet, they are not barking the entire time you are gone and bothering your neighbors. If this is the case, please make some type of arrangements that will alter this situation, such as a pet sitter, taking pet with you, or if the problem continues, and complaints continue in the office from residents being bothered by the barking, the park is forced to take steps in resolving the issue, such as requiring you to get rid of the dog, or face eviction procedures. Please be a responsible pet owner and obey the rules concerning them. It is IMPERATIVE THAT YOU CLEAN UP AFTER YOUR PET EVERYWHERE, INCLUDING THE DOG WALKING AREA. Please do not ignore these pet owner rules, so that we all can continue to love and enjoy our pets. But at all times we must be respectful of all the residents that live here, that they are not bothered by our pets in any way. Not by hearing them all the time, or stepping in their waste when out walking etc. Thank you for adherence to the policies and rules.

Good Neighbors Club: Good Neighbor's Club Meetings are held the 2nd Thursday of the month for the membership. Our next meeting will be on November 10th, at 9:30 a.m. Contact Claudette Lusignan at 223-5228 or email the Good Neighbors executive board with questions, suggestions, etc at gnclubre@gmail.com. We also have a new website, where event calendar is posted and pictures etc. It is www.rivieraestates-goodneighbors.com, Please check it out.

Pot Luck Dinner: This is held on the third Sunday of each month, when we bring a dish, our drinks, table ware and silverware, and all sit down together enjoying everyone's dishes and socializing with everyone. Starts at 6:00 p.m. sharp and we do provide coffee, tea, hot cocoa etc. Sign up sheets are on bulletin board.

Welcome Back Party: Good Neighbors Executive Board is planning a Welcome Back Party tentatively on November 19th. Please watch the bulletin boards, and come to Koffee Klatch to learn the details as they are revealed and plan to come and enjoy yourselves and reconnecting with our snow bird residents.

Ladies Luncheon: Ro Moll is in charge of this event, and there are sign up sheets in the clubhouse on the bulletin boards. It is held at noon on the third Thursday of the month. Different restaurants are chosen each month and there is usually a large turn out. Guests are welcome.

Men's Luncheon: While the ladies are out with the gals, the guys go out together at the same time. Their luncheon is also the 3rd Thursday of each month, at noon, and they go to different restaurants also. Sign up sheets are on the clubhouse bulletin board.

A troubling trend: Americans overdoing antibiotics

Antibiotics are a boon to doctors and their patients, but they pose dangers if they're overused. That makes this news especially concerning: A Texas study reported on the UPI website found that about one in 20 adults have stockpiled supplies of antibiotics in their homes and use them without a physician's advice.

The study of 400 adults in the Houston area found that 14 percent of adults have a stash of antibiotic medications in their home, and 5 percent have used them without a doctor's guidance in the past year. The medications come from a variety of sources: 40 percent came from a store or pharmacy, 24 percent were purchased outside the United States, 20 percent came from family or friends, and 12 percent were left over from past prescriptions.

In 4 percent of cases, the drugs obtained without a prescription were intended for use on animals, not humans.

Millennials worry about debt

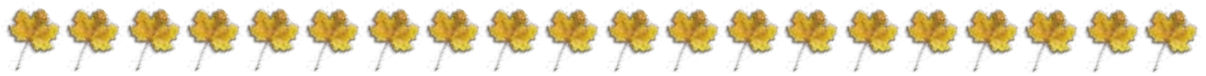

Millennials aren't the carefree kids you might think they are. A FICO survey found that they're concerned about debt—with good reason. According to FICO's online survey of approximately 1,000 Americans over 17, 32 percent of millennials owe $20,000 or more in student loans, and 45 percent owe at least $7,000 on car loans.

In all, 37 percent of millennials ages 25-34 say they're concerned about their level of debt, and 33 percent would like assistance in managing their debt. For example, 65 percent would like to receive an email alert when their student loan payments are overdue by less than 90 days, and 35 percent want to be notified by app when their mortgage payments are less than 90 days late (but they'd prefer a phone call if their payments are more than 90 days overdue).

These tiny robots may save your life

The newest medical robots look and move like bacteria, and they can deliver medications to specific locations within the human body and perform intricate surgeries like clearing clogged arteries.

According to the Science Daily website, a team of scientists is working to develop a selection of biological robots that are soft, flexible, and move through bodies under the control of an electromagnetic field. Once they reach their destination, they're heated to change shape, mimicking—for example—the bacterium that causes African trypanosomiasis, or sleeping sickness. Although still in development, these microrobots could revolutionize the way patients are treated in the not-so-distant future.

Get more creativity with a clear focus

Creativity and innovation aren't always accidental. A consistent focus will produce better results, so you don't have to wait for lightning to strike. Try these techniques to spur your imagination as you work:

- Start your day with a purpose. Instead of rushing out the door without a plan, spend a few minutes in the morning thinking about what you want to accomplish that day. Do this before checking your cell phone or email. You'll be less likely to get distracted by other demands.
- Shake up your routine. Get out of your comfort zone so you aren't always surrounded by what's familiar. Get up earlier than normal, take a new route to work, do your tasks in a different order, try something new and exciting—anything to shake your mind free of its preconceptions and look at your work in a different light.
- Be mindful. Don't go on autopilot. Pay attention to everything around you—the people you work with, the tasks you work on, the environment you work in, and so forth. The more aware you are of what's going on, the more likely you'll see a new connection or find an idea where you least expect it.

Don't be afraid to ask questions

Alyssa Mastromonaco was deputy chief of staff in the Obama White House until 2014. She told a radio station an important lesson she learned early on about the importance of asking questions:

During an Oval Office meeting on the economic crisis, she was close to panic, worried that the president would ask her a question about issues she knew nothing about, such as quantitative easing. She began quickly writing down key words and phrases to look up later.

Economic adviser Larry Summers noticed and tapped her on the shoulder. "Come to my office later," he said.

Worried that Summers was mad at her, Mastromonaco went to his office after the meeting. Summers asked about her list.

When she told him what she'd written down and why, Summers said, "I'll tell you anything you need to know." He proceeded to give her a quick lesson on economics. She left the office feeling relieved—and better informed than before. Nowadays she knows that admitting you don't know something is better informed than pretending you do—and she never thinks asking for information is stupid.

A lesson in determination

British runner Derek Redmond was one of the favorites for a gold medal in the 400-meter spring at the 1992 Olympics in Barcelona. But halfway through the race, Redmond—in the lead—collapsed on the track with a hamstring injury.

Medical staff rushed to help him, but Redmond waved them away. He somehow got to his feet and started staggering down the track. With thousands watching, and officials unsure of what to do, Redmond's father ran out to him.

"You don't have to do this, son," he said.

"Yes, I do," Redmond replied.

His father helped Redmond down the track, tears streaming down both their faces, waving away anyone who tried to stop them.

The crowd roared when Redmond finally crossed the finish line. The feat is considered by many to be the defining moment of the Barcelona Olympics.

Keep learning at any age

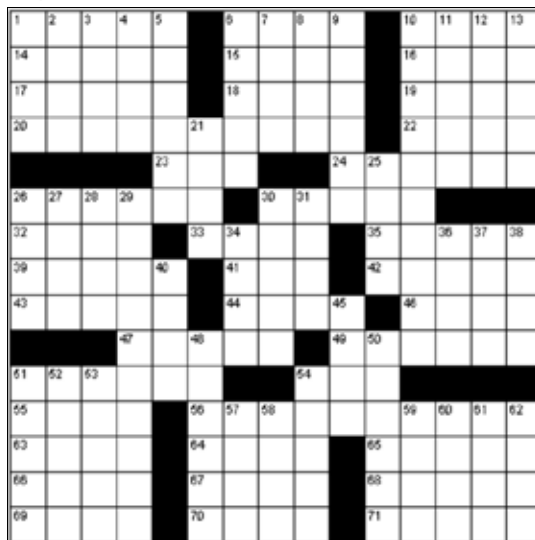

As you and your family members age, you may find you have more difficulty remembering things. Try to help you stay on top of the knowledge game and keep you learning as you age:

- Visualize. Mentally rehearse an event, conversation or activity before it actually happens. This visualization helps eliminate the stress you may feel over the unknown. Plus, when you're more relaxed, you're better able to learn.
- Take a break and exercise. If you're trying to remember information you're reading, take frequent breaks. Don't just sit around, though. Engage in some kind of activity to keep your mind alert and your blood flowing.
- Focus on concentrating. Distractions are the bane of any learning attempt. If you're attending a class or lecture, sit near the instructor and maintain eye contact with him or her. Try not to fidget; simply relax into the session and let your focused attention do the job.
- Say it out loud. Read aloud the material you're trying to learn and repeat out loud the facts you want to retain. This way, both your mind and your ears are taking in information.
- Tame frustration. If you grow frustrated over material you're trying to learn, remind yourself that getting emotional will only hamper your ability to retain information. If you have to, step back and take a long break.
