PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Submitted by Wally Schultz

Hopefully everyone rang in the new year safely and it continues throughout the year. As you all know we live in a unique kind of park, small by Florida standards. We all come from different geographical areas and ethnic backgrounds. The thing that I can't understand is that why do we have so much "drama" in our park. Why can't we all just get along with each other? We have a great place to live, great weather, relatively inexpensive living, close to beaches and shopping, it doesn't get any better than this. So come on folks, let's overlook our neighbor's differences and make 2016 a happy and prosperous new Year. Let's give it a shot, what do we have to lose?

Wally and Kathy

RULES AND MISC

Be it for any of us to be judge and jury but the rule in the park has always been when attending a party and a sign up sheet for tables is posted on the Bulletin board, If you have a preference to sit at a particular table when you sign your name to sit at that table no one should erase or remove your name from that spot. This is rude and uncalled for.

ACTS OF KINDNESS

I have to say it is very nice living in a close knit community, especially when a child's illness is involved. Our grandson Dorian is going to heaven soon because the cancer he has is not curable. I have had many days of sadness, but so many people in Shangri-La have listened to me, prayed for him and have just been so kind. We wish to thank you for being there for us in more ways than one. Special thanks to Bobbi Christian for following our journey on FaceBook and Porsha Mills for listening to me. Thank you to so many of you with all our hearts. Bob and Cheryl Doty, #59

NEIGHBORHOOD WATCH UPDATE

I survived a near fatal hit and run incident earlier in the month of December, while stepping out at the end of my driveway onto 5th St North. A vehicle which was parked at the end of 5th St began driving in reverse at a high rate of speed. Due to my screams the driver diverted causing him to hit the end of my home instead of me, causing damage and then fled the scene. The Police were contacted and this information was relayed to them. The driver appeared to be a young male, the vehicle seemed to be a small SUV, silver in color and the first three characters of a partial license plate number is believed to be CQT. Please contact the Largo PD at 727.587.6730 if you have any further information. Please be careful of guests while out and about.

On the same note, please keep your speed down while driving in the park. We should be aware that our residents and neighbors may be walking their animals at any given time. Please be respectful and obey the posted speed limits. We all want to live in a safe neighborhood.

RECIPES OF THE MONTH

Hash

Leftover cooked meats (Ham, Pork, or Beef)
Leftover cooked Potatoes, carrots, onions

Grind all leftovers in a food processor. Heat Oil in a skillet with minced garlic. Add the ground leftovers. If it is too dry, add a little chicken broth a little at a time to moisten. Turn with Spatula to brown on both sides.

Apricot Jam

Cover 16 ounces of dried apricots with water, bring to a boil, let simmer, adding water as needed. When cooked, mash or put into a food processor, adding one package of sugar free jello (strawberry or Raspberry). Put into jars, refrigerate. Makes (4) ½ pints.

CHRISTMAS DINNER 2016

A Christmas Dinner was held at the clubhouse on December 25th. It was free for all residents and guests paid $5.00. This was another social event that was free this past year because of the money we get from Management.

We had 43 residents and 18 guests registered for dinner. 8 of our residents could not come to the hall, so we delivered their meals to them.

We would like to thank all the volunteers who helped prepare all the food, set-up the table and deliver meals, the servers, the clean up crew and anyone else who helped during the day.

We also had a Christmas draw for gifts that were either made or purchased by Diane Pelkey, Sylvia Disotell and Barbara McGerrigle. This act of kindness was really appreciated by all.

Like all the events, without the help of volunteers, we would not have been able to hold this dinner.

New Year's Eve

The New Year's Eve Party was a big hit! The Beach Billies were great and will be back next year. I want to Thank everyone that helped make it a great party!

The Santa Parade and Christmas Eve

The parade with Santa and all our furry friends in the park was great! All the dogs behaved themselves. We had two Santa's this year, what a treat! And thanks to the Grand Marshall (Wally Shultz) for leading the parade. Christmas Eve we sang carols, had homemade cookies and drank eggnog. Everyone had a great time.

Garage Sale

On Feb 5th we need volunteers to help set up the sale and price items. Please see Wally or Larry. The garage sale will be held on Feb 6th from 8:00a.m. to 3:00 p.m. We also need volunteers for the sale and clean up. All items that are left will be donated to charity. Wally and Larry are hosting the event.

Football Championship Sunday

We will be having a soup supper with a variety of soups and bread. Bring a lawn chair to watch the game. BYOB and your own snacks and root for your team!

Valentine's Day Dance

We will be having a Valentine's Day dinner and dance on Feb 11th. Carlo will be our entertainment, drinks at 5:00 p.m. and dinner at 6:00 p.m. Following dinner dancing will be from 7:00 p.m. to 10:00 p.m. Bring your sweetheart and have some fun! Free to Residents, $5.00 for Guests.

JOKES

Submitted by various residents

A Senior couple decides to Viagra for the first time ever. They have an incredible night together. In the morning, the wife asks her husband at breakfast, "Would you like some bacon and eggs, a slice of toast, and maybe some grapefruit juice and coffee?" He declines, "Thanks for asking, but, I'm not hungry right now. It's this Viagra," he says. "It's really taken the edge off my appetite". At lunch time she asks if he wants something. "How about a bowl of soup, homemade muffins, or a cheese sandwich?" He declines, "The Viagra," he says, "really trashes my desire for food". Come dinner time, she asks if he wants anything to eat. "Would you like a juicy rib eye steak and some scrumptious apple pie? Or maybe a rotisserie chicken or tasty stir fry?" He declines again, "No," he says, its got to be the Viagra, I'm still not hungry." "Well" she says, "Would you mind letting me up? I'm starving!"

A couple was celebrating 50 years together. Their three kids, all very successful, agreed to a Sunday dinner in their honor. "Happy Anniversary, Mom and Dad" gushed son #1. "Sorry I'm running late. I had an emergency at the hospital with a patient, you know how it is, and I didn't have time to get you a gift." "Not to worry" the father said. "The important thing is we are all together today". Son #2 arrived and announced "You and Mom look great Dad. I just flew in from Los Angeles, between depositions and didn't have time to shop for you". "It's nothing" said the father "We are glad you were able to come." Just then the daughter arrived "Hello and Happy Anniversary! I'm sorry but my boss is sending me out of town and I was really busy packing so I didn't have time to get you anything". After they had finished dessert the father said "There something your mother and I have wanted to tell you for a long time. You see we were very poor. Despite this we were able to send each of you to college. Throughout the years your mother and I knew that we loved each other very much, but we just never found the time to get married. The three children gasped and said "You mean we are bastards?" "Yep" said the father, "And cheap ones too".

What chapter was that?

A minister told his congregation, “For next week’s sermon, I would like everyone to read the 17th chapter of Mark from your Bible. This will help you fully understand my topic on an important sin.”

The following Sunday, the minister opened his sermon with, “Now, how many of you have read Mark 17 this week as I asked?” Nearly all the hands went up.

The minister smiled. “Mark has only 16 chapters. I will now proceed with my sermon on the subject of lying.”

How many cats?

Teacher: “If I gave you two cats, and another two cats, and then another two, how many would you have?”

Johnny: “Seven.”

Teacher: “No, listen carefully. If I gave you two cats, and another two cats and another two, how many would you have?”

Johnny: “Seven.”

Teacher: “Let me put it to you differently. If I gave you two apples, and another two apples and another two, how many would you have?”

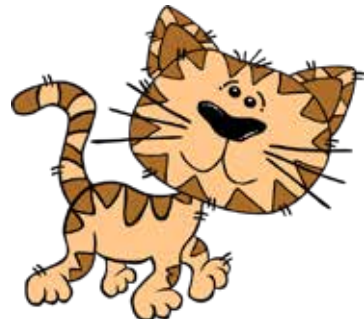

Johnny: “Six.”

Teacher: “Good. Now if I gave you two cats, and another two cats, and another two, how many would you have?”

Johnny: “Seven!”

Teacher: “Johnny, where do you get seven from?”

Johnny: “Because I’ve already got a cat!”

Cities encourage healthy lifestyles

Cities are doing their part to help people stay healthy and physically fit, adding bike paths, parks, public transportation options, and “walkability.” According to Healthways, which uses scientific means to measure and encourage healthy behavior, the cities with the highest “active living environments” are:

- Boston
- San Francisco
- Chicago
- New York
- Washington, D.C.

The lowest scoring cities include Fort Wayne, Indiana; Indianapolis; Oklahoma City; and Tulsa.

Get up and work out

The alarm rings. Do you leap out of bed to head for the gym? Or hit snooze and tell yourself you’ll work out tomorrow? Motivating yourself to get up and start exercising can be tough. If you give in to temptation to skip the health club more than you’d like, try these tips to get moving:

- Watch what you eat before bedtime. A heavy snack right before you hit the mattress will make you feel lethargic in the morning. Stick to fruit, vegetables, and lean, protein-rich foods, and don’t eat anything for at least 90 minutes before you go to bed.
- Go to bed early. You’ll wake up feeling refreshed and ready to work out if you get enough sleep—seven to eight hours. Limit your TV, computer, and cellphone use before bedtime so you can get to sleep easier.
- Look forward to something. Don’t think of exercise as drudgery. Find something you enjoy about it so you wake up excited about hitting the gym, or give yourself a reward for working out once you’re finished.
- Find a workout buddy. Exercising alone can be boring. Ask around your neighborhood, workplace, or health club and find someone who works out on the same schedule you do. When you know you’ve got someone waiting for you, you’ll be more motivated to show up.

VINYL IS FINAL

"...I am so happy with my new windows...I'd like to commend your work crew. Earbie and Larry were fantastic! I couldn't believe the clean-up EVERYDAY! The whole job took just a week even with all the rain delays. I would and WILL highly recommend your company to my friends and neighbors. Of course I won't need to say a word – the house is doing all the talking! Thank you so much for my beautiful new house."

Carol Zapiecki, Clearwater, FL

"Just a short note to express my appreciation for the work done on my mobile home. The crews that worked here...were gentlemen at all times, efficient, knowledgeable and prompt. You can be sure if I run into anybody who needs your type of work, I will surely recommend your company. It has been a very satisfying experience!"

George Lordstrom, Saint Petersburg, FL

Daydreaming can be good for you

Daydreams aren't necessarily a waste of time. We daydream for different reasons, but it can have a positive affect on your life and career. Consider these facts about daydreaming from the LiveScience website:

- Daydreaming can be controlled—up to a point. Most people daydream intentionally because they're bored or working on something simple. When tasks require more concentration, drifting off is less frequent, but still happens.
- Blinking is a clue. Wonder if someone is daydreaming while you're talking? Look closely at their eyes. Studies show that people blink more often and more rapidly when they daydream.
- Daydreaming can help with problem solving. Let your mind wander when you're working on a tough problem. Scientists have observed that the areas of the brain involved in problem solving turn more active when we daydream.

Sharpen your mind with these puzzles

Brainteasers are good for honing your creative thinking. Try these to stretch your mind:

1. You are driving a bus with nine passengers. At the first stop, three people get off and five get on. At the second stop, seven people get off and four get on. At the first stop, six people get off and two get on. How old is the bus driver?
2. You have to choose to enter one of three rooms. Inside the first room is a team of ninjas hired to kill you. Inside the second is a tiger that hasn't eaten for three months. Inside the third is a raging inferno. Which room do you enter?
3. Harry is a butcher. He started his career at age 19. He worked for nine years in Boise, Idaho, and then moved to Duluth, Minnesota, where he's been in the same line of work for 14 years. What does Harry weigh?
4. Imagine you're in a leaky rowboat that's sinking. Great white sharks are circling your boat. How do you get out of this predicament?

Answers:

1. Whatever you own age is, since you are the bus driver.
2. Room No. 2. A tiger that hasn't eaten in three months is dead.
3. Meat.
4. Stop imagining.

Meeting of minds

The famous movie actor/director Charlie Chaplin once met the world-renowned physicist Albert Einstein at a public event. According to the Storypick website, Einstein told the comedian: “What I most admire about your art is your universality. You don’t say a word, yet the world understands you.”

To which Chaplin replied, “True. But your glory is even greater. The whole world admires you, even though they don’t understand a word of what you say.”

Mistaken identity

Even Queen Elizabeth II sometimes goes unrecognized. A story from the Hello magazine website tells of a time when the queen’s car drove up to the Royal Windsor Horse Show in 1991. A guard walked up and told her, “Sorry, love, you can’t come in without a sticker.”

Unfazed, her majesty answered, “I think if you check, I will be allowed to come in.”

He did, and she was. The guard admitted later that he’d thought the queen was just “some old dear” who was lost.

A little praise

As a speechwriter for presidents Ronald Reagan and George H.W. Bush, Peggy Noonan introduced such phrases as “a thousand points of light” into the vernacular. But she derived her greatest personal satisfaction from a simple note of praise.

As recounted in her book, What I Saw at the Revolution (Ivy Books), four months into her job as Reagan’s speechwriter, Noonan had yet to meet the boss. Then he returned the draft of one of her speeches bearing the hand-scrawled words “Very Good.”

Noonan was overjoyed—so overjoyed that she cut out the note, taped it to her blouse, and walked the halls beaming with the pride of a schoolgirl who’d suddenly discovered she was teacher’s pet.

Monthly

African American History Month. An annual observance to recognize and commemorate African American culture, African American History Month (or Black History Month) is celebrated annually in the United States and Canada in February, and in the United Kingdom in October.

Dog Training Education Month. Every day of the month, perform one training activity with your dog: jumping, herding, racing, etc. By the end of the month, you'll notice an improvement in your dog's temperament, and you'll share a closer bond.

National Haiku Writing Month. Write one haiku a day throughout February—the shortest month for the world's shortest genre of poetry. Don't think writing a good haiku is easy, though. As French philosopher and literary theorist Roland Barthes once observed, "Haiku has this rather fantasmagorical property: That we always suppose we ourselves can write such things easily."

Teen Dating Violence Awareness Month. A national effort to raise awareness about abuse in teen and 20-something relationships and promote programs that prevent it. One in three teens in the United States will experience physical, sexual, or emotional abuse by a partner in a relationship before they become adults. Spread awareness, and stop dating abuse before it starts.

Weekly

Burn Awareness Week, Feb. 5-11. Observed the first full week in February, Burn Awareness Week is intended to provide an opportunity for burn, fire, and life safety educators to share the message of burn awareness and prevention in communities around the nation.

National School Counseling Week, Feb. 6-10. This year's theme, "School Counseling: Helping Students Realize Their Potential," will focus public attention on the unique contribution of school counselors and highlight the tremendous impact they can have in helping students achieve school success and plan for a career.

Children of Alcoholics Week, Feb. 12-18. A campaign led by the National Association for Children of Alcoholics (NACOA) to raise awareness of children affected by parental alcohol problems. Children of Alcoholics Week is celebrated internationally each year during the week in which Valentine's Day falls.

National Invasive Species Awareness Week, Feb. 19-26. Raise awareness and identify solutions to invasive species issues at local, state, tribal, regional, international, and national levels. Participating organizations include the Association of Fish and Wildlife Agencies, the Environmental Law Institute, and the Nature Conservancy.

An ancient mystery: How old are Saturn's rings?

The rings of Saturn have dazzled humans ever since they were found in the sky, but they contain many unexplained mysteries. One is how old they are. One theory states that they date back approximately 4.6 billion years; another suggests that they're just 100 million years old.

Scientists backing the younger theory contend that the rings should show more evidence of space debris from the Kuiper Belt, which would make them darker than they appear today. Proponents of the older view note that the rings were probably created by a moon or some other icy object falling apart as it passed close by Saturn, an event which doesn't seem to have happened in recent times ("recent" in astronomical terms, at any rate).

Some of the trouble comes from not knowing precisely how massive the rings are—a lighter series of rings could have formed more recently than a heavy-scale one.

The case may be solved by the Cassini space probe, which is scheduled to fly between Saturn and its rings in September 2017 on the last leg of its mission. Inside the rings, researchers can measure the gravitational pull on Cassini from both directions and compare those figures with earlier data from orbits farther out, when Saturn and the rings tugged the probe together from the same direction. Scientists are eager to know—according to the Science News website, researchers have a betting pool on the findings.

One more reason to fear spiders? Their hearing

Spiders can't "hear" exactly, but they can sense and respond to vibrations in the air over relatively long distances. Until recently, scientists believed they were only sensitive to sounds from a few inches away. However, the Sci-News website reports that researchers at Cornell University have found that jumping spiders (Phidippus audax) can pick up low-frequency sounds from up to 10 feet away.

The spiders apparently sense vibrations through the hairs on their forelegs, which produce a response in acoustically sensitive neurons. Physically probing a single hair produced the same type of response. The jumping spiders are most sensitive to frequencies produced by the wingbeats of wasps, one of their natural enemies. Scientists plan to examine the brains of fishing spiders and wolf spiders for similar abilities.
