PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Submitted by Bob Doty

Greetings to everyone. Well, the holiday season has come and gone. The Christmas meal was a great success. Many thanks to everyone who helped prepare, cook, serve and clean up afterwards. The New Year's Eve party was a big success and well attended. Again, many thanks to all who helped make this event possible.

The Park Horse Racing/Pizza party was great fun any a good time was had by all who attended. Thank you to everyone who participated. It is events like these that really highlight this wonderful community.

Our Negotiation Committee met with ELS's Regional Manager and our Park Manager concerning the proposed rent increase. While the committee did express our concerns over services lost and lack of improvements during 2016, ELS stated that they felt comfortable with the proposed increase and would move forward with the increase taking effect 4/1/2017.

I will try to keep you all posted on Park issues as they arise and all remedies sought.

Also, please slow down when driving through the park. Several residents have complained. Please be aware, we have grandchildren, bike riders and pets to watch out for.

As of 2/13 our outside reclaimed water has been restored.

As always, stay safe and God Bless.

Bob Doty

Feel free to submit your letters!

New Residents:

Hi everyone!!! If you have a new neighbor, please let Jenny Combs, lot 25, know so we can welcome them to their new neighborhood.
Welcome to our new residents and we look forward to you becoming and joining in our activities. Take a walk to the Clubhouse, there is a lot of info on upcoming events!

If anyone has a neighbor that is ill, needs sympathy or may need a card for some reason, please contact Helen DellaPenna @ 727.518.1865.

Caroling and Egg Nog Party: The Party went off without a hitch, except we couldn't find the caroling papers! So, we sang along with Andy Williams and other artists on CD. We had about 15 people partying from 6. We had an abundance of cookies and the leftovers were used for part of Christmas dessert. David Mayo brought his own mistletoe and went around and kissed everyone. He got a round of applause for his efforts! Merry Christmas.... Sylvia and Gloria

KNOW YOUR NEIGHBOR

Submitted by Jenny Combs

Welcome to Lisa Friedland, lot 26! Lisa likes to celebrate her Birthday on April 30th every year. Lisa was born and raised in Massapequa Park, New York. Lisa has 1 older brother and 1 older sister who reside in New Jersey. She also has 1 niece and 1 nephew as well as a great-nephew. She has no children herself but does have a cat that she named Minnie. Yes, Lisa named her cat after Mickey Mouse's girlfriend!
Before coming to Largo, Lisa lived in New Jersey working as a finance Manager in the auto business. While living in New Jersey, Lisa met the love of her life, Karen, and they have been together since 8/18/2013. Family matters brought Karen to Clearwater and Lisa followed soon after.
Lisa enjoys Karaoke, home improvement projects and dancing. Although she hasn't been able to dance since a car accident in 2010. Lisa also enjoys giving her neighbor, Tony, a hard time.
Welcome Lisa!! Hope to see you around the Neighborhood.
Coming to a Neighbor near you! Jenny Combs

ACTS OF KINDNESS

Submitted by Polly Pifer

I would like to take this time to thank my neighbors Peter Bachelor and John Guarno for being good neighbors while I was in Ohio this summer. Peter called to tell me there was a large hole under my mobile where the ground had sunk in. It was determined the hole was due to erosion caused by so much rain this summer. Between the two of them, they got the materials needed, filled the hole, replaced the bricks, and today the site looks better than it ever did. Thank you, guys, I'm so glad I live near you both!

Best Dog Breeds For Seniors

Thinking of getting a companion? There are some dogs that are much easier to care for than others, and some breeds that are just too high strung to live in an environment without a ton of exercise. As many of you know, especially if you walk by my house on 6th street, I have two Chihuahuas. I love them dearly. They are smart, clean and so loyal. However, they do think that they are Rottweilers and need to save me from other dogs and people. They are great lapdogs, though, and love nothing more than to sit in my lap while I read a book, so that makes them a nice companion dog.

Shit Tzus are also a good choice for older people. They are laid back and loyal, and also good around the grand kids. However, you need to keep in mind that they will need to be groomed approximately every six weeks. That can get expensive. Most groomers in the area charge around $40 to $50 for a grooming.

Lhaso Apso. They love to snuggle with their person, but can be more wary of strangers. They are smart and can be quite the comedians. Again, with any long-haired breed, these dogs will need to be groomed regularly.

Toy Poodle. Poodles of all sizes are extremely smart. One of the smartest dog breeds out there, along with the Border Collie and German Shepherd. They love a good walk, but don't need a ton of exercise. They don't shed and normally are not big barkers. They do need to be groomed. However, a nice short "puppy cut" will last a little while and keep them from getting matted.

Schnauzer. Schnauzers come in various sizes, including miniature, so they are good for someone in a community with pet size restrictions. They are energetic, playful, trainable, and good with children, Pomeranian. The Pomeranian is a smart dog who is eager to please. Although they can be energetic, they are easy to handle. Also, if brushed regularly, they don't require regular professional grooming. Greyhound. If you know of someone who doesn't live in a community with size requirements, greyhounds make amazing pets. People think that because they are racers that they are high strung. Just the opposite. They are soooo mellow. They are clean, quiet, gentle and sleep 18 hours a day. Even though they are approximately 60lbs, they are easy to walk on a leash. This is just a short list of great companion animals.

Mutts also make great pets. And please remember. Don't shop. . . adopt. If you buy a dog from a pet store, they are more than likely to have come from a puppy mill. Puppy mills are horrible breeding facilities for the dogs, and the dogs that come from them tend to have health issues, which can get very expensive. There are lots and lots of pure breeds in shelters just waiting for their forever home. Check out petfinder.com to see what dogs are available here in Largo. Submitted

VALENTINE DAY DINNER AND DANCE

If you didn't attend the valentine dance Feb. 13th, you missed a great party. Sixty-four residents and guests danced and sang to the music of Carlo. His guitar and singing brought many smiles of listening contentment. Carlo has been entertaining us annually for the past fifteen years and promises to return next year. It's a fact that his performances entice many a guest to attend also. A delicious sandwich array of beef, ham and cheese were served with sides of various salads. Cupcakes iced in red and white contained a heart ring on the top. Joy Lyman and Carol Byrd hosted the party. Assisting were Joyce Cutlip, Chris Lynam, Larry Byrd, Kathy and Wally Schultz. Linda Keenen and CC Doty were in charge of the desserts. Thanks also goes to the two people who continue to keep our clubhouse decorated with current party themes: David and Jewel Mayo.

Prizes donated by Joy Lynam and Sylvia Disotell were awarded to Vince Malorni, Wayne Covert, and Helen DellaPenna's guest. Fifty-Fifty tickets were sold by Vicki Dasco and Wally Schultz. Polly Pifer won the pot!

As pictured above, residents gathered around Carlo to send an email message to Ethel Byrd, past resident and mother of Larry Byrd. Carlo has been a favorite for Ethel in the past. Ethel is 96 yrs old and living in a nursing home in Vermont.

The delightful evening ended with Carlo playing the National Anthems of America and Canada while we stood and sang with him. Happy Valentine Day!

Polly Pifer

Help for Severe Aortic Stenosis

Severe aortic stenosis is a narrowed aortic heart valve that doesn't open and close properly, reducing blood flow to the rest of the body.

Morton Plant Hospital is now enrolling eligible patients in the Medtronic Evolut R low-risk trial, which investigates the safety and effectiveness of a transcatheter aortic valve replacement (TAVR) system in patients with severe aortic stenosis who are at a low surgical mortality risk. TAVR is a minimally invasive alternative to open-heart surgery used to treat failing aortic heart valves in patients with severe aortic stenosis. Morton Plant Hospital was chosen as the first hospital in Tampa Bay to offer the TAVR procedure for patients with severe aortic stenosis who were at an intermediate or high surgical mortality risk. Our team has completed more than 700 TAVR procedures over the last five years.

To see if you or a loved one with severe aortic stenosis may be eligible for this trial, or for more information on the trial, call the Center for Advanced Valve and Structural Heart Care at Morton Plant Hospital at (855) 44-VALVE (855-448-2583) or visit MortonPlantValveTrial.org.

A lawyer and an engineer were fishing at an expensive resort in the Caribbean. The lawyer cast his line. "I only have the money to be here because my house burned down, and everything I owned was destroyed by the fire. Fortunately, the insurance company paid for everything."

"What a coincidence!" The engineer cast his own line. "I'm here because my house and everything else were destroyed in an earthquake, and my insurance company also paid for everything."

Fresh or frozen? The choice is yours

Mom may tell you over and over again to eat fruits and vegetables that are fresh, but nutrition experts say that frozen produce isn't necessarily inferior. According to The New York Times, most nutrients are surprisingly hardy: Iron, for example, stands up to freezing quite well, and fiber does its job whether it's frozen or fresh.

Scientists at the University of California-Davis analyzed the vitamin content in several different varieties of fresh and frozen produce, including blueberries, broccoli, carrots, spinach, and strawberries. They found no significant differences between fresh and frozen items, and even discovered that frozen broccoli contains more riboflavin—a B vitamin—than the fresh selection. Similarly, frozen blueberries have more vitamin C than fresh.

Experts recommend looking for produce frozen using the IQF process—individually quick frozen—for the highest quality.

Watch for these sources of illness while traveling

Traveling has enough hassles—check-in lines, lost luggage, bad airline food—without adding germs to the mix. Be safe by watching out for these common sources of germs and bacteria that can make you sick when you travel (from the CNN website):

- Washroom stall locks. In one test, airport stall locks were found to have an average of 70 colony-forming units (CFUs) per square inch. Use soap and water or a good hand sanitizer after touching them.
- Seatbelt buckles. Clean your hands after buckling up. Airplane belt buckles can have up to 230 CFUs per square inch.
- Lavatory flush buttons. These can get pretty nasty, containing 265 CFUs per square inch (although overhead vents and tray tables have more).
- Drinking fountains. Thirsty? Maybe buy a bottle of water instead. The buttons on airport drinking fountains have been found to hold 1,240 CFUs per square inch.

Ancient gold belt dug up in U.K.

Archeologists in the U.K. have dug up a 3,000-year-old gold belt in Cambridgeshire, and it's now on display at the British Museum in London.

The object, known as a torc, is the largest ever unearthed. Torcs were usually worn around the neck, but this one measures 49.6 inches, suggesting it was worn as a belt between 1300 and 1100 B.C., or that it was worn by a sacred animal slated for sacrifice. The torc, made of 20 karat gold, weighs 1.6 pounds.

British scientists examining the artifact have found little sign of use or wear on the links used to fasten the torc together, so its original function remains a mystery.

Astronomers discover the sky's smallest asteroid

The universe is full of objects large and small: Sharp-eyed astronomers have recently discovered a near-Earth asteroid just 6 feet in diameter.

The asteroid, named 2015 TC25, was discovered in October 2015 by scientists working with the Catalina Sky Survey. It's one of the brightest of its kind ever observed, reflecting about 60 percent of the sunlight that hits it, and it's one of the fastest spinning. Astronomers speculate 2015 TC25 was chipped off another asteroid, (44) Nysa, a large bright object in the main asteroid belt that's about 44 miles in diameter.

The small rock is about the size of many meteorites that fall to Earth, but astronomers believe there's little likelihood of 2015 TC25 dropping on our planet very soon.

New light on our oldest ancestor, Lucy

The remains of "Lucy," the name given to the oldest human ancestor yet discovered, were found 42 years ago, and ever since scientists have debated whether she spent most of her time walking on the ground or climbing through the trees. The journal PLOS One reports that new evidence suggests the three-million-year-old woman had muscular arms, indicating that she may have been a tree dweller, at least some of the time.

A CT analysis of Lucy's fossilized skeleton shows that her arms were heavily built and similar to those of chimpanzees. Scientists speculate that Lucy may have slept up in the trees to avoid predators at night, spending as much of one-third of her life above the ground. The fact that Lucy may have died from falling out of a tree adds weight to the theory.

Tough interview

Singer/songwriter and Nobel Prize winner Bob Dylan is known for his idiosyncratic and iconoclastic ways. His sometime guitar partner Bruce Langhorne tells a story of one time the two were being interviewed on a talk show in 1965.

Les Crane, the interviewer, was getting frustrated with Dylan's brief, uninformative answers to his questions. So at one point, when Dylan joked, "That's a nice tie, though," Crane pointed out that Dylan never wore neckties, and then gave the musician his tie to calm the tension.

Dylan responded by saying he liked Crane's boots. Crane didn't turn them over. Instead he said, "Hey, Bob, that's a nice harmonica." But Dylan refused to give it up.

Hotel concierges go above and beyond

Hotel concierges have to deal with some pretty unusual situations sometimes. Here are some of their most outlandish stories, from the Huffington Post website:

- One guest in a London hotel requested wild goat's milk for his bath. The concierge had to take a cab to Wales (£600) to buy the milk (£50). Then the milk had to be heated for the bath, and the concierge also had to supply 50 bottles of Evian water to wash the milk off after the bath.
- A bride-to-be spilled coffee on her satin wedding dress, and the concierge spent hours washing the stain out and then drying the dress with a hand dryer, consoling the bride all the while.
- One guest asked for 20 pounds of ice to be delivered to his room for his penguins.
- A couple checking into a luxury hotel in New York for their wedding asked for a life-size chocolate statue of themselves.
- A crew of commercial filmmakers asked the concierge to find them a trained monkey for their shoot when the monkey they had originally arranged for didn't show up.
