BIRTHDAY PARTY

Twenty-eight residents and guests attended the annual birthday party hosted by Kathy Schultz on January 26. The clubhouse was gaily adorned with banners and flowers wishing all with Happy Birthday greetings. Our interior Decorator, Diane Desrocher, per usual did a great job.

At 4:30 we played Bingo and prizes were won. At 5:30, dinner was served. Several pots of Chili home made by Kathy and Carol Byrd, (yum yum, spicy too!) deviled eggs made by Arlene Sardo, chef salad by Joy Lyman, cornbread by Polly Pifer and brownies by Joyce Cutlip completed the delicious meal along with cake and icecream.

After dinner, Kathy read aloud our special birthday poem called The Exchange Game. The object of the game was to keep one's gift from being taken away. Laughing, enjoying the antics to choose and trade the gifts, eventually everyone took home two or even three gifts. All the gifts were donated by Diane Pelkey, Joyce Cutlip, Bobbie Christian Polly Pifer and Linda Keenan.

Special thanks to the set up crew and clean up people as we all know it takes more than one person to put on a successful party. And, this party was one of the best. Thanks Kathy!!

Joke

Counting Sheep

Once upon a time, a blonde became so sick of hearing blonde jokes that she had her hair cut and died brown. A few days later, as she was driving around the countryside, she stopped her car to let a flock of sheep pass. Admiring the cute woolly creatures, she said to the shepherd, "If I can guess how many sheep you have, can I take one?"

The shepherd, always the gentleman replied, "Of course."

The blonde thought for a moment and for no discernible reason said, "352."

This being the correct number, the shepherd was, understandable, totally amazed and exclaimed, "You're right! O.K., I'll keep to my end of the deal. Take your pick of my flock."

The blonde carefully considered the entire flock and finally picked one that was by far cuter and more playful than any of the others.

When she was done, the shepherd turned to her and said, "O.K., now I have a proposition for you. If I can guess your true hair color, can I have my dog back?"

Football Party

The 54th NFL Championship Game was played between Kansas City Chiefs and San Francisco 49ers on February 2. People arrived about 5:30 for happy hour and all kinds of finger foods to share. Larry ran his usual Super Bowl pool and at the end of each quarter $25.00 was paid to the winners. 1st quarter was Greg Winter; 2nd and 3rd was Diane Pelkey; and 4th was Michell Isabel. Lori in lot 98 also ran a pool.

During the course of the game about 18 people enjoyed watching and socializing.

Kansas City won the game, first time in 50 years. Congratulations.

Shuffleboard

Larry and I are sad to announce that the park does not have enough residents interested in participating in the team that it will probably be our last year in League play. As it is now, we have four full time players from outside the park and several that don't want to play full time. My husband, Larry and I have been members, Captain or President for the last 17 years and want a break from leading the team. At our last meeting it was discussed and no one volunteered to step up and take over leadership.

Most of the team are interested in playing pick up games in this park but the majority does not want to travel to other parks. At our last League Captains meeting it was discussed about not having a team next year. A couple of other teams are willing to pick up players that want to play full time league play.

If anyone is interested with taking over the team as Captain and President, please let me know.

We would like to send special thanks to two of our auxiliary members, Joyce Cutlip and Pat Signor for all the work on our home games.

Larry and Carol Byrd

Thank you Larry and Carol

Editors note

I was very sad to read this. There has been a shuffle team in this park for at least 30 years that I know of. Unfortunately no one wants to step up and help out. The same thing is true with coffee and our parties. If more people don't start doing their share next year we may not have any activities at all.

ELS tournament

Five members of the shuffleboard team participated in the ELS tournament, Larry Byrd, Diane Desorchers, Lou Desorchers, John Holmes and Carol Byrd. It was a all day tournament where you were judged on how many games you won out of six played.

Three players were awarded money, Larry won six of the six games and won forty dollars. John and Carol each won four of six and won five dollars. A fun day by all.

Joke

What Do You Love Most...
"What do you love most about me," a husband asked his wife,
"my great athletic ability or my quick intellect?"

"What I love most about you," responded the wife, "is your enormous sense of humor."

Bingo

There is a possibility we will be starting bingo again. It will be on Tuesday nights. It is contingent on if we get the correct equipment and enough helpers. Keep an eye on the bulletin board for updates.

Valentines Day Party

On February 13 Roberta O'Brien threw one heck of a party. The food was delicious. Some said it was the best we ever had. Roberta was assisted by many people.

Carol Byrd and Joy Lynman helped collecting the money. They also cooked the potatoes and noodles. They also made 2 kinds of coleslaw, one with pineapple and one with crab meat.

Janice made her famous green bean casserole

Bev made the fruit salad

Roberta cooked the Beef Burgandy. She also made the cake pictured below. And she refused to take any money for it. We ate the bottom tier and the top tier was given to Bev and Ken lot 31 because they were celebrating their anniversary.

Linda and Ben Jackman provided the bread and rolls.

Many people helped with the clean up. Pat and Joyce helped with the set up. Arlene put together favors

We were expecting to be entertained by Carlo how ever there was some miscommunication and so Carlo was not there The 25 people who were there had a great time even without entertainment. We also provided 3 take out meals to residents who were ill.

Joke

Email Mix-up

It seems there was this couple from Minneapolis, Minnesota who decided to go to Florida for a few days to thaw out during one particularly cold winter. Since both spouses worked, they had difficulty coordinating their schedules, so the decision was made to have the husband leave for Florida on a certain day, with the wife following him one day later. The man made it down to Florida and arrived at his hotel. Upon getting to his room, he decided to open his laptop and send his wife back in Minneapolis an email. However, he left off one letter in typing his wife's email address and sent the email off without realizing his error.

In another part of the country, a widow had just returned from the funeral of her husband, a pastor of many years who had been called to glory just a few days earlier. She decided to check her email because she was expecting to hear from her husband's relatives and friends. Upon reading the first email she let out a loud scream, fainted and fell to the floor.

The woman's son rushed into the room and found his mother on the floor. He glanced up at the computer screen and saw the following email message:

To My Loving Wife:

I've just been checked in. Everything has been prepared for your arrival here tomorrow. Looking forward to seeing you then.

Your Devoted Husband.

PS: Sure is hot down here

Carlo

We tried to get Carlo to entertain for St Patrick's Day however he is moving to Kentucky. It looks like we have seen the last of Carlo at Shanghai-La

Notes from our HOA President

Can you believe it's March already, where does the time go? The Valentines dinner was a success. Sadly there was a conflict with scheduling for the entertainment. Next up is St. Patricks day dinner March 17th. Sign up in the rec hall and pay who ever is listed on the sign up sheet.

Please stop leaving trash on the stage. Last I looked it doesn't say Goodwill on the front door. Anything left on the stage is being thrown out. And while I'm at it we're not running a food bank either. Unless something is labeled free don't touch it it's not yours to take.

That brings me to trash and the dumpsters. Recycling is pretty easy Bob sent out a list of what can and cannot be recycled. Basicaly if food or beverages came in it or it's something you can read, newspapers, magazines, junk mail, or clean cardboard it can be recycled. Anything else don't put it in the bin. Nothing in bags. The bin is small please crush cardboard to conserve space.

There are two dumpsters they are emptied on Monday, Wednesday and Friday they are for trash generated by residents not for people to bring trash in from the outside. Is it really neccessary to overload them on weekends? It's embarrassing to see them so overfilled on Sundays. Just imagine what a potential resident thinks when they see that or someones trash left on the stage. We keep our residences looking good lets keep the public places looking good as well.

Thanks have a great Month.

St. Patrick's Day

On March 17 we will have our annual St. Patrick's Party. Cost is $3 for residents and $5 for guests. We are doing something different this year, we are serving Shepherds Pie. Roberta O'Brien is also in charge of this party. If it is half as good as Valentines Day it will be amazing. Tammy Tynan is co-chair. Happy Hour will be at 4:30 (BYOB) and dinner is at 5:30. Please remember to bring your own place setting. You must pay Roberta lot 37 by March 11.

March Crossword

March Monthly

Employee Spirit Month. It's that time of year. Raise the bar and make morale the No. 1 priority in your workplace.

National MS Education and Awareness Month. Multiple sclerosis is a chronic neurological condition that affects more than a million people in the United States. Throughout March, organizations such as the Multiple Sclerosis Foundation will be raising awareness of the challenges faced by those diagnosed with MS, the treatments available, and what you can do help. Go to MSFocus.org to learn more.

National Nutrition Month. The Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics wants you to “Eat Right. Bite by Bite” in 2020. It works throughout the year to provide tools and resources that will allow you to make better food choices and lead healthier lives, with the month dedicated to a larger effort of awareness and education. Let's get healthy. Visit <https://www.eatright.org/food/resources/national-nutrition-month> for more info.

National Women's History Month. Museums, galleries, and libraries across the nation will be celebrating the struggles and accomplishments of women throughout history. Make time to attend cultural events in your area to learn stories of these great ladies.

Weekly

National Consumer Protection Week. March 1–7. The Federal Trade Commission devotes this week to consumer education, awareness, and fraud prevention. Learn more at <https://www.consumer.ftc.gov/features/national-consumer-protection-week>

Words Matter Week, March 1–7. The first full week of March has received this designation from the National Association of Independent Writers and Editors (NAIWE), but you don't have to be a professional to participate. Play word games with friends and family members, and find exercises to help strengthen your vocabulary and grammar. Words matter.

Shakespeare Week, March 16–22 (United Kingdom). Our friends across the pond believe that children deserve some time to get acquainted with the literary masterworks of William Shakespeare. They provide online resources for parents, educators, and homeschoolers at <https://www.shakespeareweek.org.uk/>

Welcome to an alternative reality

Fans of the late science fiction writer Robert A. Heinlein have something to be happy about this month. A previously unpublished manuscript will be released in March. The Pursuit of Pankera is an alternative take on the story of parallel universes Heinlein wrote about in his novel The Number of the Beast.

According to the publisher, Arc Manor, the novels mirror each other in the beginning but then diverge along different plot and storylines. This project was years in the making, as the book was created from Heinlein's unedited manuscript and handwritten notes. Along with the new novel, a hardcover reprint of The Number of the Beast will be released as well. Apparently, parallel universes do exist.

It was the worst of times

In March of 1918 the first reports of a flu outbreak began to sweep across the U.S. In a year's time this influenza pandemic had traveled around the globe infecting more than a third of the world population and claiming the lives of 50 million people.

This March, as the flu season continues to linger, let's do what we can to prevent the transmission of this viral threat.

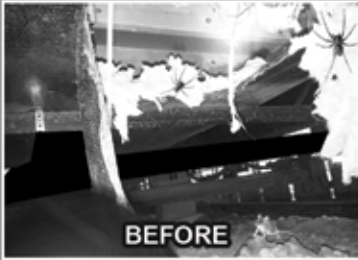

- If you're sick, stay home—and get better.
- Cover your mouth with a tissue or the inside of your elbow when you sneeze or cough.
- • Wash your hands with soap and water, frequently, throughout the day.
- Disinfect surfaces like door handles, landline phones, and countertops that are touched by many people.

An email without clarity is like an annoying mime. Just say what you want or get out of the way.

Monthly Mania: It Pays (Up to $100) To Patronize the Advertisers in Your Newsletter

THOUSANDS manufactured home residents have won over $152,600 since our contest began. It's simple to play ... when you patronize a current advertiser, ask for a Monthly Mania ticket (or a reasonable facsimile) and fill it out completely. Put the ticket in our Monthly Mania drop box in your community or mail your paid receipt to us at Monthly Media • 220 Bahama St. • Venice, FL 34285. That's all you do. At the end of the month the Publishers will pick up the tickets and hold a drawing. If your ticket is drawn, we mail you a check.

(Allow 4-6 weeks for mailing of check). This month's cash winners are:
