Message from Manager

If you have guests at the pool please know that if they act rowdy, loud or are drinking too much they will be asked to leave, this pool is for residents n

I just wanted to send a reminder of two items:

Please do not give me pre dated checks, the check needs to be delivered on the date that is on the check, if I receive a check with a post date it will be ignored and scanned on the day I receive it.

A reminder that rent has to be received by the 10th of the month to avoid a late fee, after that time a late fee is due, also if the rent is not paid by the last day of the month, then on the 1st of the next month two months are due, we will not accept the one month rent it will be returned. Please remember these are ELS policies that I have to follow.

If you have any questions, please let me know.

If you have guests at the pool please know that if they act rowdy, loud or are drinking too much they will be asked to leave, this pool is for residents not guests. I would please ask all residents when you see people in the pool you don't recognize please ask who they are, if they refuse to answer please call Largo Police, we have had too many incidents on the weekends where guests are really not guests but people from the outside coming in.

Message from Vicki

As this newsletter arrives the sign up sheets for the 4th of July will be posted. PLEASE make sure you sign up so we purchase the appropriate amount of food.

Just a reminder that we are still having Events/Parties AND Wednesday Morning Coffee throughout the summer. Wednesday Morning Coffee during the summer is at 9 instead of 9:30.

For NEW RESIDENTS; The parties are open for ALL residents are are free for residents and a small nominal fee for guests. At this time it's $5 for parties, if there is entertainment/band it is $10. We try to give you a great meal and good social gathering to meet with your neighbors.

INFORMATION: During the Hurricane we created a Shangri-la Messenger Group.

We use this to give you information about the park, parties, etc. The blasts usually only go out once or twice a month. If you would like to be included on the blast please friend me (Vicki Coon-Dasco) on Facebook and I will add you. I do again ask please DO NOT COMMENT ON THIS BLAST. YOUR REPLIES GO TO EVERYONE ON THE LIST.

I have had several residents take themselves off the list because of too many messages coming across. If you wish to respond with a prayer for someone has passed PLEASE do it on your Facebook page. This was a useful tool during the hurricane and it can still serve us well if we use it properly. I know y'all are waiting to hear when the outside water will be back on and I WILL check with Marilyn and let you all know when that happens. Have a great day and come join us !

MEMORIAL DAY

Thirty-eight residents and guests gathered together to celebrate the holiday at the clubhouse. Acknowledging those veterans attending, Stan Thomas read the “Memorial Day” poem by Joyce Kilmer. “Taps” was read while the music played. Peter Batchlor led us singing “God Bless America”. Opening prayer was given by Stan, and everyone enjoyed the delicious meal. BBQ ribs and chicken, supplied partly by the Els owners, was surrounded by side dishes of appetizers, salads of potato, coleslaw, macaroni; vegetables: broccoli, German Potatoes, baked beans, bread and multiple deserts. All of which were brought to pass by those in attendance.

50/50 drawing was won by guest Nancy Lovitt. Door prizes were awarded.

Sondra Thomas and Polly Pifer were hostesses. As we all know it takes a village to produce a successful party. Thanks go to all these “villagers”: Stan Thomas and his family, Peter Batchlor and Bob Vogel set up the event, plus cleaned up post party. Thank you Diane Desrochers for the beautiful decorations. Please note: Three of Thomas men served as shown below.

Joke

The Easterner had always dreamed of owning his own cattle ranch, and finally made enough money to buy himself the spread of his dreams in Wyoming.

“So, what did you name the ranch?” asked his best friend when he flew out to visit.

“We had a heck of a time,” admitted the new cowboy. “Couldn’t agree on anything. We finally settled on the Double R Lazy L Triple Horseshoe Bar-7 Lucky Diamond Ranch.”

“Wow!” his friend was impressed. But looking around he saw no cattle. “So... where are all the cows?”

“None of ‘em survived the branding.”

Did you know that July is also...

National Blueberry Month. This yummy fruit is packed with antioxidants and in season during July. They're great in muffins, pancakes, and pies, or on their own as a low-calorie snack. Head to a farmer's market or you-pick, and take some home today.

National Cell Phone Courtesy Month. For the next 31 days, exercise common sense when it comes to cell phone use. Keep your phone turned off when you're having dinner, taking a yoga class, or at the theater. If you are in a workplace or public setting, move to a more private location if you need to take a call.

National Recreation and Parks Month. There are 417 parks in the National Park System, as well as a multitude of historic landmarks and places, rivers, trails, and heritage areas. Go to NPS.org and find one for camping, hiking, and exploration.

Social Wellness Month. Now is the time to take stock of your quality of life. Develop daily practices that support your health and well-being. Commit to having loving and supportive relationship with family, friends, and colleagues. Make your home a clean, organized, and peaceful environment.

Everybody Deserves a Massage Week, July 15-21. The third week of July has been designated to promote the benefits of therapeutic massage and bodywork. Find a licensed professional, and book your next appointment.

Quilt Odyssey Week (Pennsylvania), July 19-22. Quilters from across the country will gather to learn techniques from the pros, network, and show off their creations.

International Plastic Bag Free Day, July 3. Only 1 percent of the 100 billion plastic bags Americans consume are recycled during the year. The rest add to the pollution of our planet and threaten all sorts of ecosystems. Let today be the day you become part of the solution to ending the waste.

National Fried Chicken Day, July 6. We will never agree on which fast-food joint does it right, but one thing is certain: Anyone who loves fried chicken will tell you that "momma" makes the best. If you're lucky, she's in the kitchen right now and the cast iron skillet is on the stove.

Simplicity Day, July 12. Celebrated on the birthday of Henry David Thoreau, this day is observed to raise awareness regarding the need for sustainable living. Find ways to live in harmony with your environment and reduce your ecological footprint.

Reduce arthritis pain without surgery

Arthritis is the leading cause of disability among U.S. adults over 55, in many cases requiring surgery to replace troubled joints. You don't have to resort to joint replacement all at once, though. These simple steps from Dr. Victor Romano, an orthopedist and author of Finding The Source: Maximizing Your Results—With and Without Orthopaedic Surgery, can help you deal with arthritis before surgery becomes necessary:

- Wear good shoes with arch supports. Over time, the arches in feet tend to fail. Arch supports can help with the alignment of your feet and improve the alignment of your knees, letting your feet better serve as shock absorbers for the knees.
- Exercise daily. Try at least a 20-minute program that includes stretching, aerobic activity, strength training, and balance.
- Wear a hinged knee brace for better support. You don't have to wear it all the time, but it can help during sports or other strenuous activity.
- Watch your weight. Lower weight decreases the stress on your joints and helps with mobility. Eat nutritious foods and cut your intake of sugar, which can cause inflammation of your arteries and joints.
- Take care of your bones. Calcium, vitamin D, and weight-bearing exercises can reduce arthritis pain and build up your bone density. Should you need replacement surgery, greater bone density will help your artificial joint last longer.

Staying up late may damage your health

Benjamin Franklin's advice, "Early to bed and early to rise makes a man healthy, wealthy, and wise," turns out to be true—at least the "healthy" part. A British study of genes and health that analyzed surveys of more than 400,000 people found that night owls have a 10 percent higher risk of death over a 6½-year period than early risers, according to an article on the NBC News website.

The negative impact of burning the midnight oil doesn't depend on how much sleep you actually get—both night owls and early risers reported getting the same amount—but on the fact that it throws the body's natural rhythms off track. Also, the study found that people who stay up late tend to eat fattier foods, drink more alcohol, and use recreational drugs. In addition, staying up late at night has been shown to increase depression and mood disorders, especially among people 50 and older.

Consumers nervous about online data

If you're worried about how well businesses are protecting the data they collect from you, you're far from alone. A survey from IBM found that 77 percent of consumers say that an organization's ability to keep their personal data secure is a factor in their buying decisions—and only 20 percent say they “completely trust” businesses to ensure their privacy.

The survey also found that 75 percent of buyers refuse to purchase from organizations they don't trust, regardless of the quality of their products. Another finding: Almost three-fourths of consumers believe that sellers are more concerned about profits than about privacy and data protection.

Retirement: Golden years or a fading dream?

Americans these days are worried about their retirement—and whether they'll even be able to retire.

A Willis Towers Watson survey of approximately 5,000 U.S. workers found that 37 percent expect to keep working to age 70 or longer, up from 30 percent two years ago. Only 26 percent believe they'll be able to retire before they're 65, a drop from 29 percent in 2015.

Minimum wage: What should it be?

Debates about the minimum wage have been heating up for years. To find out what Americans think it should be, CreditLoan surveyed 2,669 people across the country. The results? People in every state said it should be higher than the current federal level of $7.25 an hour. On average, Americans support a minimum wage of $11.56 an hour, allowing employees working 40 hours a week 52 weeks a year to earn $24,044 for the year.

Most Americans, though, don't even know what the minimum wage is. Just 35.5 percent identified the actual amount correctly. The average estimate was $8.09 an hour.

ATTENTION

After 2 years of researching into new cart manufacturers, we have chosen to represent JH Global "Star Cars" line of new vehicles. They have a 14 year proven track record in manufacturing & customer service and all of their major electrical components are US made instead of imported.

Over the years we have seen numerous new carts come and go from the market, leaving customers hanging with useless warranties and no parts available.

Fun factoids for a festive Fourth

Do you know your U.S. history? Here are some Fourth of July facts to ponder and share:

- Three presidents died on July 4: Thomas Jefferson and John Adams in 1826, and James Monroe, in 1831. Calvin Coolidge was the only president born on July 4, in 1872.
- The Massachusetts General Court was the first state legislature to recognize July 4 as a state celebration, in 1781.
- The first recorded use of the name “Independence Day” occurred in 1791.
- The U.S. Congress established Independence Day as an unpaid holiday for federal employees in 1870. They changed it to a federal paid holiday in 1931.
- The Declaration of Independence was approved in a closed session of the Second Continental Congress on July 2, 1776, but most of the delegates didn’t sign it until Aug. 2. Although John Adams expected Americans would celebrate July 2, the date on the publicized copies of the document was July 4, which became the day Americans have commonly observed.

True colors

Most of us imagine that successful people have all the confidence in the world. Often, though, being successful is about having the courage to take your shot even when you doubt your own abilities. Here some highly successful individuals express their inner doubts:

- Jack Paar, entertainer and early host of The Tonight Show: “Looking back, my life seems like one long obstacle race, with me as its chief obstacle.”
- Julie Andrews, Oscar-winning actress: “Sometimes I’m so sweet even I can’t stand it.”
- Berkeley Breathed, Bloom County cartoonist: “I know my limitations. I could never make it as a writer, and I could never make it as a fine artist.”
- Harlan Ellison, award-winning science-fiction writer: “I don’t remember anyone who could stand being in my company for more than five hours without running into the street.”
- Bob Dylan, singer/songwriter: “I feel like I fall short in just about everything.”

A story about loss and luck

There once lived a farmer who took pride in only two things in life: his son and his horse.

One day his horse kicked out the stall door of the stable and ran off. When the neighbors heard of what happened they said to the man, “What a loss,” and, “What bad luck.”

The man contemplated these words and asked the question, “How do we know this is a loss or bad luck?”

Most people were confused by this response until a few days later. The horse returned, at that time, trailed by a dozen wild stallions. The man now had 13 magnificent horses.

“What good luck you have,” the neighbors remarked.

To which the man said, “How do we know this is good luck?”

No sooner had the neighbors began to mutter about this strange remark when the man’s son was trampled while attempting to corral one of the wild stallions. His injuries were severe, but not fatal. The young man would need surgery and a long recovery. In time he could resume his life.

“How horrible,” the neighbors said. “Such bad luck.”

“How do we know it’s bad luck?” asked the man.

By now the neighbors were beginning to grumble. The son was the star player football team at the local university. He was expected to go pro after graduation. Now he’d have to create a new future for himself.

Though the man never thought of his son’s injuries in terms of loss or luck, the prevailing opinion was otherwise.

Until ...

There was a horrible accident on the interstate involving the bus carrying the members of the university football team. No one on board survived. It was a tragedy mourned by the entire town.

The man sat at his son’s bedside. The young man grew stronger with each new day while his father felt grateful for the mysteries of life and also its blessings.

Does practice make perfect?

There's a theory that it takes 10,000 hours of practice in any given subject to develop one's expertise in that area, regardless of familiarity with it.

The theory intrigued Dan McLaughlin, so he decided to put it to the test. In April 2010, at age 30, McLaughlin quit his job and devoted his time to learning how to play golf—a sport for which he had no interest or aptitude.

He practiced for hours each day and soon realized time was just one of many factors that would aide in his development. The quality of the time spent in practice was equally important, as was his strategy for learning the fundamentals of the sport.

This prompted his correspondence with some of the leading researchers in the field of cognitive psychology and neuroscience. Their advice guided him to fine-tune his practice methods. It turns out that the most effective manner of learning requires you to work with material in a certain way and also challenge yourself with it.

After seven years and 6,003 hours of high-quality practice, McLaughlin achieved a handicap of 2.6. According the United States Golf Association, fewer than 6 percent of golfers have attained this level of mastery in the sport. Not bad, considering that the guys who win the green jackets and tour the pro circuit are part of an exclusive group that accounts for an even smaller percentage of players, albeit ones who have been playing the game a lot longer.

Unfortunately, we will never know if McLaughlin could've developed the skills to be a pro golfer. Beseet by back injuries, he abandoned his experiment. Still, the progress he made is encouraging. It is proof that a certain level of success is possible if you commit wholeheartedly to an objective, develop a solid plan, and put in the work.

The purpose of learning is growth, and our minds, unlike our bodies, can continue growing as we continue to live.

—Mortimer Adler
