Message from Manager

I just wanted to address two items, first please be aware that when we have something as large as the well water to break down we are immediately on it to get it fixed. We are at the mercy of the contractors and their schedules, a little understanding would be appreciated and not the nasty notes that I get.

Second speaking of nasty notes, when you put one in the drop box and do not have the honesty and courage to come and speak to me directly, just know that they get tossed out and disregarded, if you have a problem talk to me directly, don't send these idiotic notes that mean nothing.

Thank You

Activities

We are working on a plan for Fathers Day. We would like to know if you prefer a. Brunch or dinner. Please give Penny or I your thoughts and watch for the sign up sheets in the clubhouse.

It will be held on Fathers Day JUNE 17th !

Joke

"Doc," said the young man lying down on the couch, "You've got to help me! Every night I have the same horrible dream. I'm lying in bed when all of the sudden five women rush in and start tearing off my clothes." The psychiatrist nodded, "And what do you do?" "I push them away." "I see. What do you want me to do?" The patient implored, "PLEASE... Break my arms."

-----

An old man went to his doctor and stated, "Doc, I think I'm getting senile. Several times lately, I have forgotten to zip up." "That's not senility," replied the doctor. "Senility is when you forget to zip down."

Recipe

DUMP CAKE

- Spray 13x9 pan with Pam. Put in one can of crushed pineapple and spread out in pan. (20 oz. Can)
- Spread one can of cherry, or flavor of your choice, pie filling on top. Sprinkle dry yellow cake mix over all.. Cut up pieces of 1/4 lb. of butter or margerine. Place on top.
- Bake in 350 deg. oven for twenty-five minutes or until light golden brown. Serve.

A CELEBRATION OF LIFE

On Friday April 10th, neighbors and friends came together to celebrate the passing of Pat Vogel, lot 145. Pat in her electric scooter and her garden utensils was a welcomed sight for many of residents. She wouldn't hesitate to get out her rake, pick weeds, plant flowers, clean carports, you name it. She was beloved by many. The mother of "thirteen" children ("three sets of twins"), she didn't mind helping anyone. Last summer, during hurricane season, Pat was one of the few who closed down shutters on homes of those residents who had gone north, stored away ceramic figurines to prevent damage, and contributed food to those who needed it. Many of us are grateful for her generosity. She will be missed by many including her husband of the past ten years, Bob. We also celebrated other residents who went to the Lord this past year: Jim Birch, Helen Dellapenna, Chris Lyman, Maxine Lamb, Mauderine Poole, and Wilbur Signor. May they rest in peace.

Wally and Kathy Schultz, Carol and Larry Byrd, arranged a dinner for the party. Many residents attending brought dishes of food to share. Fish, caught by Wally, Larry, Jim Quaile and John O'Brien, coated and deep fried, was the hit of the dinner! Delicious entrees, salads, and deserts were plenty! Pat would have been smiling as she looked down on us gobbling all the good food.

Several residents stood and told various anecdotes regarding Pat and her visits. Among those was a poem written and read by MaryAnn Rogers. As a closing memory here it is:

AN ODE TO PAT

Pat is gone and her hands are still
Oh, how many flower pots she did fill.
Whenever I was out in my yard
She would say, I see you are working hard.
Here let me help you get the job done
together we'll work and it will be light and fun.
So many times we worked together
like two busy lady birds of feather.
Talking and gossiping as women are known
when the job was done, oh how time had flown.
She loved to be outside gardening in the sun
On that chair she traveled fast and got jobs done.
I will miss her coming up to me in her chair
Her baseball hat sitting lopsided on her hair.
She would be tired and her brow covered with sweat.

She would say firmly there is no weed or snake that I haven't met.
Yes, Mary Ann, out there are some big snakes
Then she would tell me stories that would make me shake.
She kept our yards free of weeds, clean and neat.
No weed or unwanted grass dared grow under her feet.
She said that Shangri-La was the place she lived and loved the best.
And I know that her soul has soared and is free and at rest.
God Bless you Pat, Your life was well lived. I shall never forget you.

Jokes

My wife has not spoken to me in three days. I think it has something to do with what happened on Sunday night when she thought she heard a noise downstairs.

She nudged me and whispered, "Wake up, wake up!"

"What's the matter?" I asked.

"There are burglars in the kitchen. I think they're eating the tuna casserole I made tonight."

"That'll teach them!" I replied.

FATHER'S DAY

June 2018

A deal is a deal

---

Ronald made a deal with his dad that if he improved his grades by the end of the school year, pitched in around the house, attended church on Sunday with the rest of the family, and cut his now shoulder-length hair, he could have access to the car throughout the summer. Ronald began to focus on his schoolwork more, took on responsibility in the home, and was the first person in the house ready for church each Sunday.

“I knew you could do it,” his dad said as looked over Ronald’s final grades for the school year. “I’m very proud of how responsible and focused you’ve been these last few months.”

“Hand over those keys, old man,” Ronald said to his father with a laugh.

“Not so fast,” his father said. “Remember our deal? Grades, church, chores, and hair.”

“Do I really have to cut my hair?” Ronald protested.

“That was our deal,” his father said.

“Can’t you cut me some slack this one time? I’ve done everything else you wanted,” Ronald argued. “It took me so long to grow my hair out. Besides, Moses had long hair, and Samson had long hair, and even Jesus had long hair.”

“Good point,” his father agreed. “They walked everywhere.”

Timeless wisdom

---

During the celebration of his 100th birthday, a man was asked about the secret of his longevity.

“I never smoked, drank, or ate fried foods,” replied the man. He continued, “and I exercised every day for 30 minutes.”

“Well, a lot of people observe those same practices but don’t live to be 100,” someone in the crowd observed. “Why do you think that is?”

The old man said, “My guess would be they didn’t keep at it long enough.”

ATTENTION

After 2 years of researching into new cart manufacturers, we have chosen to represent JH Global "Star Cars" line of new vehicles. They have a 14 year proven track record in manufacturing & customer service and all of their major electrical components are US made instead of imported.

Over the years we have seen numerous new carts come and go from the market, leaving customers hanging with useless warranties and no parts available.

Ancient humans cared for others

Popular culture paints our Neanderthal ancestors as brutish and cruel, but that picture is changing, according to the Sci-News website.

Neanderthals are known to have cared for their injured people, and new findings suggest that they took care of individuals who were suffering regardless of whether their peers could repay them in any way.

For example, the remains of one male Neanderthal 25-40 years old at time of death shows that he had a variety of diseases, including tooth loss, periodontal disease, arthritis, and other long-term health conditions. His care would have required fever management, hygiene maintenance, and helping him stay with the group when it moved its camp. For the last 12 months of his life he would have been unable to contribute much to the group, but he was carefully buried after his death.

The evidence suggests that “organized, knowledgeable, and caring health care is not unique to our species but rather has a long evolutionary history,” one scientist states.

A once-in-a billion-year spin

Galaxies rotate, just as Earth and other planets do. However, their spin is remarkably consistent, regardless of size. The Discover Magazine website reports that scientists have determine that all galaxies rotate approximately once every billion years, whether they’re massive spiral galaxies or small irregular dwarfs.

Researchers measured the velocities of hydrogen in the outer discs of a variety of galaxies differing in size. The measurements allowed them to calculate the rotation period of each galaxy. “Discovering such regularity in galaxies really helps us to better understand the mechanics that make them tick,” one scientist says.

Science is the great antidote to the poison of enthusiasm and superstition.

Millennials leading in home purchases

Millennials are buying more homes than Gen Xers, baby boomers, and other age groups, according to the Builder Online website, citing a survey by the National Association of Realtors.

Thirty-four percent of all home purchases in the United States in 2017 were made by millennials, followed by Generation X (28 percent), baby boomers (30 percent), and people born from 1925-1945 (6 percent).

In 2018, the typical millennial home buyer has a higher household income than last year ($88,200 vs. $82,000). He or she bought the same size home, 1,800 square feet, for more money at a higher price—$220,000 versus $205,000 in 2017.

Millennials in 2018 have higher student debt balances than those in previous years, and more of them say that saving for a down payment is the most difficult task in buying a home.

Rentals up in the U.S.

More Americans are living in rented homes than at any point since 1965. That's from the Pew Research Center, which says that the total number of U.S. households increased by 7.6 million from 2006-2016. However, the number of households headed by homeowners has remained flat, partially because of the aftereffects of the housing crisis late in the last decade.

On the other hand, the number of rented households rose during the same time frame, from 31.2 percent in 2006 to 36.6 percent in 2016. In 1965, the rate of rented households was 37 percent.

Yoga pants stretch sales

Yoga pants are in—whether you wear them for yoga or not. According to the Quartz website, imports of yoga pants have grown an average of 25.7 percent a year since 2010. At the same time, imports of jeans have declined by close to 4 percent a year.

Practice food safety during picnics

Picnics are part of the fun of summertime, but thousands of people become ill every year from picnic food that's not safely prepared or stored. Here are some tips for making sure you have a safe picnic in the park:

- Always wash your hands thoroughly—before you prepare food and after you handle raw meats.
- Clean your food. You don't know where fruits and veggies have been.
- Wrap all foods. Keep the foods separate so drippings don't contaminate each other.
- Keep food chilled. Don't take cold foods out of the fridge until it's time to go. Pack them in a cooler as soon as you take them out of the fridge.
- Keep coolers under a tree. When you're packing the car, try keeping the cooler inside the car, rather than in a hot trunk.
- Try to plan just the right amount of food to take. Then you won't have to worry about the storage or safety of leftovers.

Work safely in the heat

As the warm days of summer set in, keep these safety tips in mind to avoid overstressing your body as you work outdoors:

- Perform your heaviest tasks during the morning. If you have work that will require you to exert a lot of energy, it's best to do it in the cooler hours of the morning.
- Build your tolerance. It usually takes a good two weeks for your body to acclimate itself to working in the heat, so give your body time to adjust to higher temps.
- Use the buddy system. That way you can keep an eye out and get help if needed.
- Drink water. Health experts say you should drink a small cup every 15 to 20 minutes when you're working in the heat to stay hydrated and cool.
- Take breaks. Give your body a chance to cool down by heading off to a cool area for a few minutes.
- Eat lightly. Try not to eat heavy or big meals before you have to work in the heat.
