PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Submitted by Wally Schultz

Hopefully everyone rang in the new year safely and it continues throughout the year. As you all know we live in a unique kind of park, small by Florida standards. We all come from different geographical areas and ethnic backgrounds. The thing that I can't understand is that why do we have so much "drama" in our park. Why can't we all just get along with each other? We have a great place to live, great weather, relatively inexpensive living, close to beaches and shopping, it doesn't get any better than this. So come on folks, let's overlook our neighbor's differences and make 2016 a happy and prosperous new Year. Let's give it a shot, what do we have to lose?

Wally and Kathy

RULES AND MISC

Be it for any of us to be judge and jury but the rule in the park has always been when attending a party and a sign up sheet for tables is posted on the Bulletin board, If you have a preference to sit at a particular table when you sign your name to sit at that table no one should erase or remove your name from that spot. This is rude and uncalled for.

NEIGHBORHOOD WATCH UPDATE

I survived a near fatal hit and run incident earlier in the month of December, while stepping out at the end of my driveway onto 5th St North. A vehicle which was parked at the end of 5th St began driving in reverse at a high rate of speed. Due to my screams the driver diverted causing him to hit the end of my home instead of me, causing damage and then fled the scene. The Police were contacted and this information was relayed to them. The driver appeared to be a young male, the vehicle seemed to be a small SUV, silver in color and the first three characters of a partial license plate number is believed to be CQT. Please contact the Largo PD at 727.587.6730 if you have any further information. Please be careful of guests while out and about.

On the same note, please keep your speed down while driving in the park. We should be aware that our residents and neighbors may be walking their animals at any given time. Please be respectful and obey the posted speed limits. We all want to live in a safe neighborhood.

ACTS OF KINDNESS

I have to say it is very nice living in a close knit community, especially when a child's illness is involved. Our grandson Dorian is going to heaven soon because the cancer he has is not curable. I have had many days of sadness, but so many people in Shangri-La have listened to me, prayed for him and have just been so kind. We wish to thank you for being there for us in more ways than one. Special thanks to Bobbi Christian for following our journey on FaceBook and Porsha Mills for listening to me. Thank you to so many of you with all our hearts. Bob and Cheryl Doty, #59

RECIPES OF THE MONTH

Hash

- Leftover cooked meats (Ham, Pork, or Beef)
- Leftover cooked Potatoes, carrots, onions

Grind all leftovers in a food processor. Heat Oil in a skillet with minced garlic. Add the ground leftovers. If it is too dry, add a little chicken broth a little at a time to moisten. Turn with Spatula to brown on both sides.

Apricot Jam

Cover 16 ounces of dried apricots with water, bring to a boil, let simmer, adding water as needed. When cooked, mash or put into a food processor, adding one package of sugar free jello (strawberry or Raspberry). Put into jars, refrigerate. Makes (4) ½ pints.

CHRISTMAS DINNER 2015

A Christmas Dinner was held at the clubhouse on December 25th. It was free for all residents and guests paid $5.00. This was another social event that was free this past year because of the money we get from Management.

We had 43 residents and 18 guests registered for dinner. 8 of our residents could not come to the hall, so we delivered their meals to them.

We would like to thank all the volunteers who helped prepare all the food, set-up the table and deliver meals, the servers, the clean up crew and anyone else who helped during the day.

We also had a Christmas draw for gifts that were either made or purchased by Diane Pelkey, Sylvia Disotell and Barbara McGerrigle. This act of kindness was really appreciated by all.

Like all the events, without the help of volunteers, we would not have been able to hold this dinner.

NEWS FROM THE EDITOR

Submitted by Cheryl "CC" Doty

Thank you for all the submissions this month! I was delayed in doing the interviews of our Board of Directors, with luck they will be in March's newsletters.

From the Editor

Thanks, CC

A simple favor

A man taking a walk one day noticed a small boy trying to use the doorbell on a house across the street. The boy was very short, and the doorbell was too high for him to reach.

After watching the boy's efforts for a minute, the man crossed the street to help. "Hello there," he said, ringing the bell. "What do we do now?"

The boy looked up at him. "Run!"

ACTIVITIES

Submitted by Serena Libby

New Year's Eve

The New Year's Eve Party was a big hit! The Beach Billies were great and will be back next year. I want to Thank everyone that helped make it a great party!

The Santa Parade and Christmas Eve

The parade with Santa and all our furry friends in the park was great! All the dogs behaved themselves. We had two Santa's this year, what a treat! And thanks to the Grand Marshall (Wally Shultz) for leading the parade. Christmas Eve we sang carols, had homemade cookies and drank eggnog. Everyone had a great time.

Garage Sale

On Feb 5th we need volunteers to help set up the sale and price items. Please see Wally or Larry. The garage sale will be held on Feb 6th from 8:00a.m. to 3:00 p.m. We also need volunteers for the sale and clean up. All items that are left will be donated to charity. Wally and Larry are hosting the event.

BIG GAME Sunday

We will be having a soup supper with a variety of soups and bread. Bring a lawn chair to watch the game. BYOB and your own snacks and root for your team!

Valentine's Day Dance

We will be having a Valentine's Day dinner and dance on Feb 11th. Carlo will be our entertainment, drinks at 5:00 p.m. and dinner at 6:00 p.m. Following dinner dancing will be from 7:00 p.m. to 10:00 p.m. Bring your sweetheart and have some fun! Free to Residents, $5.00 for Guests.

JOKES

Submitted by various residents

A Senior couple decides to Viagra for the first time ever. They have an incredible night together. In the morning, the wife asks her husband at breakfast, “Would you like some bacon and eggs, a slice of toast, and maybe some grapefruit juice and coffee?” He declines, “Thanks for asking, but, I’m not hungry right now. It’s this Viagra,” he says. “It’s really taken the edge off my appetite”. At lunch time she asks if he wants something. “How about a bowl of soup, homemade muffins, or a cheese sandwich?” He declines, “The Viagra,” he says, “really trashes my desire for food”. Come dinner time, she asks if he wants anything to eat. “Would you like a juicy rib eye steak and some scrumptious apple pie? Or maybe a rotisserie chicken or tasty stir fry?” He declines again, “No,” he says, its got to be the Viagra, I’m still not hungry.” “Well” she says, “Would you mind letting me up? I’m starving!”

A couple was celebrating 50 years together. Their three kids, all very successful, agreed to a Sunday dinner in their honor. “Happy Anniversary, Mom and Dad” gushed son #1. “Sorry I’m running late. I had an emergency at the hospital with a patient, you know how it is, and I didn’t have time to get you a gift.” “Not to worry” the father said. “The important thing is we are all together today”. Son #2 arrived and announced “You and Mom look great Dad. I just flew in from Los Angeles, between depositions and didn’t have time to shop for you”. “It’s nothing” said the father “We are glad you were able to come.” Just then the daughter arrived “Hello and Happy Anniversary! I’m sorry but my boss is sending me out of town and I was really busy packing so I didn’t have time to get you anything”. After they had finished dessert the father said “There something your mother and I have wanted to tell you for a long time. You see we were very poor. Despite this we were able to send each of you to college. Throughout the years your mother and I knew that we loved each other very much, but we just never found the time to get married. The three children gasped and said “You mean we are bastards?” “Yep” said the father, “And cheap ones too”.

February Is...

American Heart Month. Heart disease kills an estimated 630,000 Americans each year. February has been celebrated as American Heart Month since 1963 as part of the effort to urge Americans to join the battle against heart disease. Learn how to reduce your risk through lifestyle changes and, in some cases, medication.

Black History Month. An annual observance in the United States, Canada, and the United Kingdom to commemorate the history and contributions of black people. Black History Month was officially recognized by the U.S. government in 1976, with President Gerald R. Ford urging Americans to “seize the opportunity to honor the too-often neglected accomplishments of black Americans in every area of endeavor throughout our history.”

Grapefruit Month. Rediscover the naturally invigorating grapefruit. Loaded with vitamin C, grapefruit helps boost the immune system during these winter months when colds and flu are at their peak. Whether you enjoy it fresh from its golden skin or straight from a glass, there’s nothing quite like the bold taste and healthy goodness of grapefruit.

Library Lovers’ Month. Library Lovers’ Month is a month-long celebration of school, public, and private libraries of all types. This is a time for everyone, especially library support groups, to recognize the value of libraries and to work to assure that the nation’s libraries will continue to serve.

Weekly

National School Counseling Week, Feb. 1-5. Sponsored by American School Counselor Association, National School Counseling Week highlights the impact school counselors can have in helping students achieve school success and plan for a career.

Burn Awareness Week, Feb. 1-7. Designed to provide an opportunity for burn, fire, and life safety educators to unite in sharing burn awareness and prevention messages in communities, and to kick off a year full of burn awareness education.

National Entrepreneurship Week, Feb. 20-27. National Entrepreneurship Week is a celebration of a lifelong learning challenge for youths and adults interested in finding exciting career opportunities. Teachers and students can get involved at all levels, as well as entrepreneurs, policy makers, community leaders, and parents.

National Engineers Week, Feb. 21-27. Dedicated to ensuring a diverse and well-educated future engineering workforce by increasing understanding of and interest in engineering and technology careers.

The history of Black History Month

We owe much of our greater understanding of black history to Carter G. Woodson. Born to former slaves, Woodson worked hard and against the tide of prejudice to obtain his own education. In earning his doctorate from Harvard, Woodson was disturbed to find that during his studies, history books virtually ignored the black American population. So he decided to take on the challenge of writing black Americans into the history books.

He established the Association for the Study of Negro Life and History (now called the Association for the Study of Afro-American Life and History) in 1915, and a year later founded the widely respected Journal of Negro History. Then in 1926, he launched Negro History Week, the precursor to Black History Month, as an initiative to bring national attention to the contributions of black people throughout American history.

February was chosen as Black History Month for the significant events and people who figured prominently in black American history. For example:

- Feb. 23, 1868: Civil rights leader and co-founder of the NAACP, W.E.B. DuBois, was born.
- Feb. 3, 1870: The 15th Amendment was passed, granting blacks the right to vote.
- Feb. 25, 1870: The first black U.S. senator, Hiram R. Revels (1822-1901), took his oath of office.
- Feb. 12, 1909: The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People was founded by a group of concerned black and white citizens in New York City.
- Feb. 1, 1960: A group of black Greensboro, North Carolina, college students began a sit-in at a segregated Woolworth's lunch counter. The event marks a watershed moment in the civil-rights movement.

Valentine's Day doesn't have to break the bank

Looking for something to do with your sweetheart on Valentine's Day that's not too expensive? Try these ideas:

- Read a story together. Buy two copies of your favorite book or story (or borrow them from your library) and spend the evening discussing it. You may both learn things you didn't know about the story (and each other).
- Team up on a new recipe. Instead of going out to a restaurant, delve into your cookbooks and find a meal to collaborate on. Choose something different and challenging, and enjoy the results.
- Visit a museum. Your town probably has a museum (or two) that you've never been to. Or a landmark you haven't seen yet. Select someplace new and check it out together.

Multiply Your Monthly Mania!

As you probably already know; patronizing the advertisers in this newsletter also pays YOU with our Monthly Mania Cash Give-a-Way. We pay out $400 every month to residents who submit tickets they have received from using the businesses in the newsletter. Winning is easy, just patronize any advertiser in the newsletter, then submit either the ticket or a paid receipt to us for your chance to win!

Now You Have More Chances to Win!

We are now offering unlimited entries into our Monthly Mania drawing by just SUGGESTING a business to advertise.

Here is how it works:

1. Call our office and suggest a business to advertise in the newsletter
2. We will take down your information (name, address, phone number) and enter you into the next month's drawing for over $400 in cash prizes
3. The more businesses you suggest, the more chances you have to win.
(To qualify each resident can only suggest a business once)

What businesses would you like to see advertising?

We have spots available in the following categories:

- | | | |
|-------------------------------------|--------------------------------------|-------------------------------|

"...I am so happy with my new windows...I'd like to commend your work crew. Earbie and Larry were fantastic! I couldn't believe the clean-up EVERYDAY! The whole job took just a week even with all the rain delays. I would and WILL highly recommend your company to my friends and neighbors. Of course I won't need to say a word - the house is doing all the talking! Thank you so much for my beautiful new house."

How TB changed our culture

Tuberculosis once ravaged the nation, and although it's relatively rare in the U.S. now, its impact is still felt today. Here are few ways, according to "The Forgotten Plague," a PBS television series, it continues to influence U.S. culture:

- Ice cream cones. Waffle cones to hold ice cream were developed to replace the small glass containers vendors served ice cream in at the beginning of the 20th century. Customers would return the bowls for reuse, but concern about germs generated the need for something that would reduce the possibility of contagion.

- Short skirts. Long women's skirts that dragged on the ground could easily pick up germs from the streets, especially since spitting was once considered socially acceptable until concerns about disease rose. Women quickly adopted skirts and dresses with shorter hemlines that reduced the danger of picking up unwanted germs and bacteria.

- Shaving. Long beards and mustaches for men were considered stylish, but again, worries about the germs they could carry changed people's minds. The clean-shaven look caught on and became a symbol of the rising middle class.

Start your day with a breakfast that counts

Breakfast is the most important meal of the day, many experts (and moms) say, so nutrition and good choices in the morning are key to a healthy lifestyle. Keep these tips in mind to start your day off right:

- Don't skip it. You may think you're too busy or you'll save on calories. In reality, you may not have the energy you need to get going, and you'll probably be more tempted by snacks later in the day.

- Watch the sugar. A food labeled "low fat" may be high in sugar content (yogurt, for example). Juices and coffee drinks can be loaded with extra sugar as well. Keep an eye on unwanted sugar so you don't absorb needless calories—and crash later in the day.

- Get lots of protein. If you put milk on your cereal, remember to drink all of it instead of dumping it in the sink when you're finished eating. Otherwise, try a hard-boiled egg, or spread some peanut butter on your toast.

- Get plenty of fiber. Fiber makes you feel full longer. Bran flakes or an oat bran muffin (without too much sugar) can give you what you need. You can also add chia seeds or ground flax seeds to your cereal.

Pay Dirt

Two young boys decided to dig a deep hole behind their house. As they were working, their parents came out on the porch to watch.

“What are you doing?” asked the mother.

“We’re going to dig a hole all the way to the other side of the world!” said one of the boys excitedly.

The father began telling them that digging a hole all the way through the earth was impossible. After a moment, though, one of the boys picked up a jar full of spiders, worms and a wide assortment of insects. He removed the lid and showed the wonderful contents to his parents. “Even if we don’t dig all the way to the other side, look what we found along the way!”

You may not reach all your goals and make all your dreams come true. But when you fall short, remember all the good things you picked up along the way.

The job’s not done until everything’s done

We all learn important lessons in our first jobs. Jay Chiat, co-founder of the advertising firm Chiat/Day, told Inc. magazine once about working as a short-order cook at his family’s drive-through Long Island restaurant. The worst part of the job, Chiat recalled, was cleaning up after the restaurant closed at 1 a.m.—scraping the grill, mopping the floors, and everything else despite being exhausted and wanting nothing more than to go home and get to bed.

But the experience taught him at least one lesson that proved helpful in his later career: “You learn that you’re not done with a project until it’s completely ready for inspection.”

Taking leave of a saint

Two brothers in a small town had a reputation for bad behavior. But they were rich enough to avoid the consequences all the time.

The pastor of the local church knew them well and tried to find the good in both of them, although this was next to impossible.

One day one of the brothers died suddenly. The other came to the church and asked the pastor to speak at his funeral.

“To be honest, I wouldn’t know what to say,” the pastor replied.

“Here.” The brother took out his checkbook. “I’m writing you a check for $10,000 for the church renovations you’re always talking about. All you have to do is tell everyone at the funeral that my brother was a saint.”

The pastor thought for a moment, then accepted the check.

At the funeral, the pastor stood before the townspeople come to see the last of one of their disliked neighbors. “I didn’t know this man well,” he said. “I do know that he cheated on his wife, and cheated everyone he did business with. But I can say one thing about him: Compared to his brother, he was a saint.”
