PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Submitted by Wally Schultz

From your president

Well another 6 months in paradise has come and gone for some of us. Over the past 6 months we've had our ups and downs, which I guess is normal. Thanks to our social committee, we had some great parties and a lot of laughs. And our shuffleboard team, with our seasoned players and our new ones we ended up in 5th place (1point out of 4th), lookout friendly league WE'LL BE BACK!!! Even though the weather wasn't the greatest at times, we made it through mainly because us northerners kept a close watch on the weather at home (brr) and appreciated what we had here. We lost some great friends either through moving or passing away, they will always be missed by all of us; we had one who left for medical reasons and after going through some tough times we're happy to report that he is doing just fine. So as we snowbirds head north to our northern nests we bid a fond farewell to our southern friends until this coming November and wishing you all a happy and healthy summer. Wally flowers and having your pet use the restroom on them is extremely disrespectful.

Again I want to reiterate that the only items that you can throw in the dumpster are food or trash, no mattresses, TV's, electronics, air conditioners, lumber or any other building materials. If we discover who is doing this the items will be brought back to their homes. You need to find a way to dispose of these items yourself, if you have anything like a refrigerator, or a/c unit, there are phone numbers of people who will pick them up for free on the clubhouse board.

No overnight parking on the street or on the grass in front of your home. There are vacant lots with no homes on them that you can park at. If a visitor stays over two weeks they need a background check, you will need to come to the office for an application

As always if you have any questions or concerns please let me know.

ACTS OF KINDNESS

Submitted by Marylou Justason

Joyce Cutlip is the kind of friend and neighbor we all want living near us.

Although I have never known her to hold office or take charge of an event, it doesn't matter. She needs no accolades. She is always found working quietly in the background, preparing food, cleaning up, and doing whatever needs to be done to contribute to our community. She brings home little treasures from her trips to garage sales or thrift stores to provide gifts at parties.

THANK YOU

I was especially grateful when Joyce came down from West Virginia after Christmas. I knew we would have help setting up for the shuffleboard lunch, where cake and coffee is provided when we entertain teams here. And of course, she is there to clean up after the players go out to play the second half.

What more faithful cheerleader than Joyce when we have the In Park Tournament or the Turkey Shoot at the courts? Will she take part? May-be not, but she's there when others leave.

Thank you, Joyce, from your grateful friends.

RECIPE OF THE MONTH

Submitted by Kathy Schultz

SHUFFLEBOARD

Submitted by Don Justason

Our closing banquet was held at the Fat Cat Tavern with over 20 in at-tendance. We had a short meeting prior to dinner.

Thank you to Carol and Larry Byrd for the team pictures which were distributed to all members. Thanks, also, to Helen DellaPenna for selling our 50-50 tickets all season.

After dinner we concluded our season by giving out plaques to deserving winners.

Presentations of awards were made by our new captain, Wally Schultz, assisted by the retiring captain, Don Justason.

Friendly League: Vince Malorni, David Mayo and Don Justason

In-Park Tournament: Main event: David Mayo, Larry Byrd, Vince Malorni and Linda Keenan Consolation event: Wilbur Signor, Bob Vogel, Kathy Gerber and Mary Lou Justason

Carol Byrd presented Mary Lou with a bouquet of red roses in appreciation for what she has done over the years to assist Don and, lately, for organizing the Diners' Club which has evolved over the years. Mary Lou expressed her gratitude.

IN-PARK TOURNAMENT, SHANGRI-LA MHP

The annual In-Park-Tournament was held Tuesday, March 24, 2015 at our shuffle courts. Twenty-five residents had signed up and by some miracle, everyone showed up. After the draw had been made the previous afternoon and competitors' names were drawn, we had one extra player, this was Kathy Schultz. We thank her for graciously being there to fill in if needed.

Our captain, Don Justason, had spent several hours preparing the courts by washing them, waxing discs and making everything ready for the day. Wally Schultz, his co-captain, got up early and had everything set up for 9 am.

Competition was keen and as the morning went on, some players were eliminated and some went on to the Main Event or the Consolation Event.

The winners were:

Main Event: 1st -David Mayo, 2nd – Larry Byrd, 3rd -Vince Malorni, 4th -Linda Keenan.

Consolation Event: 1st -Wilber Signor, 2nd -Bob Vogel, 3rd -Kathy Gerber, 4th-- Mary Lou Justason

Six of the winners were team members of the Shuffleboard Club and two were not.

Plaques which are paid for by ELS will be awarded at our closing ban-quet, Monday, April 6, 2015 at 5 pm at The Fat Cat Tavern. Anyone who would like to join us for a fun evening may sign up no later than April 4.

Thank you to everyone who showed an interest in the completion by staying to the very end or who returned to see the final games being played.

Sex at 73

I just took a leaflet out of my mailbox, informing me that I can have sex at 73. I'm so happy, because I live at number 71. So it's not too far to walk home afterwards. And it's the same side of the street. I don't even have to cross the road!

Answering machine message, "I am not available right now, but thank you for caring enough to call. I am making some changes in my life. Please leave a message after the beep. If I do not return your call, you are one of the changes."

My wife and I had words, but I didn't get to use mine.

Frustration is trying to find your glasses without your glasses.

The irony of life is that, by the time you're old enough to know your way around, you're not going anywhere.

God made man before woman so as to give him time to think of an answer for her first question.

I was always taught to respect my elders, but it keeps getting harder to find one.

A seafood restaurant had a sign in the window that read, “Big Lobster Tales, $5 each.” Amazed at the great value, a man stopped in and asked the waitress, “Five dollars each for lobster tails -- is that correct?” “Yes,” she said. “It’s our special just for today.” “Well,” he said, “they must be little lobster tails.” “No,” she replied, “it’s the really big lobster.” “Big red lobster tails, $5 each?” he said, amazed. “They must be old lobster tails!” “No, they’re definitely today’s.” “Today’s big red lobster tails -- $5 each?” he repeated, astounded. “Yes,” she insisted. “Well, here’s my five dollars,” he said. “I’ll take one.” She took the money and led him to a table where she invited him to sit down. She then sat down next to him, put her hand on his shoulder, leaned over close to him, and said, “Once upon a time there was a really big, red lobster...”
