Attention All Veterans

by Bill A.

Southwind HOA will be having a Veterans Day dinner. The Menu includes: Meatloaf, mashed potatoes and gravy, green beans, roll, and dessert.

We ask all veterans and widows/widowers to please sign up on the bulletin board near the mail room, in the Club House.

This event takes place on November 11, 2020. We will prepare the meal and deliver it to you at your lot between 4 and 5 p.m. that day.

The HOA is sponsoring this event and it is free to all veterans and widows/widowers. All we need is your name, lot number and (if you are new to the park since last Veterans Day) please include your military branch on the list.

This is Southwind's 13th Annual Veteran's Day Dinner to Thank and pay tribute to our Veterans for their service.

ANNOUNCEMENTS FOR NOVEMBER 2020

SOUTHWIND POOL – please note that our Pool Service Contractor has informed the Management Office, they are unable to get the chlorine tablets at this time (a Hurricane destroyed the manufacturing company) and are only able to find liquid chlorine right now. This means that when the liquid is used, the pool must remain empty for at least one hour. The schedule for Southwind is every Monday-Wednesday – Friday, between the hours of 8am and 12noon, but with no set time available. They are sorry for any inconvenience to residents and guests.

THANKSGIVING DINNER – is usually held at the Club House, but due to Covid-19 pre-cautions, residents will be able to sign up to have a dinner delivered to their door, for FREE ON THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 26th between 3 – 4pm. Sign-up sheet will be posted.

Dinner is compliments of Management, Staff, Kingsley and the Double D's and includes: 3 slices of turkey breast with stuffing and cranberry sauce, mashed potatoes with gravy, mixed vegetables, dinner roll and pumpkin pie with a choice of beverage – reg or diet soda or bottled water.

DID YOU KNOW..?

Does apple cider vinegar help muscle cramps?

Apple cider vinegar has many uses because it contains two minerals, calcium and potassium that are known to help prevent and relieve muscle cramps. Both are found in apple cider vinegar and diluting it with warm water and a teaspoon of honey can relieve or even prevent those nighttime flare ups

Drinking plenty of water is essential, since cramps are often caused by dehydration.

Southwind Residents – HOA Update Report

Lyle Neumann, HOA President

By the time you receive this issue of the Breezes, many of you will be back or on your way to another winter in paradise. As you can imagine, you will arrive finding things much different. The club house is still closed, most activities are postponed, however there will be a Veteran’s Day dinner but only for Veterans and their family, furnished by your HOA.

We are also planning, in conjunction with Kingsley, a Thanksgiving Day take out/delivered dinner. Please see the bulletin board for sign-up.

Your HOA is also planning to begin our Thursday Koffee Klatch morning coffee in some kind of an outdoor venue. We are looking for ways to provide a means to provide events, activities and gatherings while always following the strict Pinellas County Covid-19 guidelines. Please note that Pinellas County is allowing all auditoriums and clubhouses to open at 50% capacity while abiding by the required guidelines. However, Kingsley is adamant that the club house will remain closed. This of course is a reduction of another amenity, yet we have never received any reduction in rent which of course, is written into Florida Statutes.

Your HOA board will continue to fight for everyone’s rights and privileges according to the Southwind Covenants and Bylaws. I will fill everyone in at our November HOA membership meeting on November 17th.

Lyle Neumann
HOA President

HELPFUL HOUSEHOLD HINTS

There is a lid for every pot with the hole in the handle to hang it and hold the stir spoon:

JOKE OF ART

CHURCH HYMNS

One Sunday morning, a minister decided to do something a little different.

He addressed his congregation and said, “Today, folks, I want you to help me preach. I will call out a single word, and I want you to sing whatever hymn that comes to mind.”

First he called out, “CROSS,” and the congregation started singing in unison, “The Old Rugged Cross”. He then called out “ POWER,” and they began to sing, “Amazing Grace”. Then he call out, “SEX”, and the congregation fell into complete silence.

Everyone was shocked that a minister would use that word. They all nervously began to look around at each other, afraid to say anything. All of a sudden, from the rear of the church, a little 87 year old grandmother stood up and began to sing, “Precious Memories”.

“Now is the time for all good men to come to the aid of their country.”
– Charles E. Weller

August 3, 2015

by Chad J. Davis

The original quote ended ‘come to the aid of their party’. Charles E. Weller was a teacher, a typing teacher. He changed the quote to end ‘come to the aid of their country’. It turns out that his change with the period made the sentence exactly 70 characters long, which was the entire length of one complete line on a typewriter. So many of you who took typing in school might be familiar with this quote.

I had always thought the quote was meant to be a recruiting rally for WWII.

But I have a special connection to this quote. When I was in the sixth grade, I got a “D” in handwriting. My Dad was not impressed. So I had to write that quote one hundred times and have it reviewed by my Dad, talk about pressure.

Handwriting is still important. Many in my office believe I have only improved to a “C+”. I do hope children today still are taught cursive writing and not just tapping a keyboard for their Game Boys.

Have a great day, and do come to the aid of your country.

At the top of the page is this phrase in shorthand from Art Temple

“If not us, who? If not now, when?” - John F Kennedy

ELECTORAL COLLEGE FACTS

According to livingfacts.org, the framers of the Constitution established the Electoral College in the Constitution to forge a compromise between those who wanted the president to be elected by members of Congress and those who wanted a president elected by a popular vote.

Today, 538 electors constitute the Electoral College. Each state is allocated electors equal to its number of representatives in the U.S. House of Representatives (currently a total of 435) plus its two senators (a total of 100). The District of Columbia is also allocated three electors. These numbers can change every 10 years, based on the results of the census. State laws differ on how electors are chosen.

Forty-eight states and the District of Columbia have a winner-take-all policy that the Electoral College must follow. That means that a candidate who wins, say, 51% of the state's popular vote is awarded 100% of the state's electors. Maine and Nebraska allow electors to be split between parties, proportionally to how their candidates won in different parts of the state.

There are 5 times when a president has been elected by winning the Electoral College vote but not the popular vote. This happened in 1824, 1876, 1888, 2000, and 2016.

The state with the highest number of Electoral College Votes is California with 55, followed by Texas with 38. New York and Florida have 29 each. Illinois and Pennsylvania each have 20, Ohio has 18. Michigan and Georgia each have 16 votes in the Electoral College.

In March 2020, a Pew Research Center study found that a majority of U.S. adults (58%) were in favor of amending the Constitution so the presidential candidate who receives the most votes nationwide wins, while 40% preferred to keep the current system in which the candidate who receives the most Electoral College votes declares victory.

HISTORY OF U.S. PRESIDENTS

Compiled by Terri C.

*Note – many of our Nation’s Presidents were Military Veterans who fought to protect and defend our country. They demonstrated leadership skills and the willingness to put their life on the line for our freedom, independence and the preservation of our safety.

1. The man who refused to be King, became our first “Mr. President”– GEORGE WASHINGTON

Shortly after the close of the Revolutionary War, it became clear that he had the spirit and leadership qualities needed for this untested office. He had guided America’s first Army to victory with his strategy, served as Chairman of the Constitutional Convention and as a Federalist; he worked to have the Constitution ratified by all states. He served from 1789 to 1797.

2. Also a Federalist (the party of colonial aristocracy) JOHN ADAMS became our 2nd President. Although the founding fathers had hoped for an election along nonpartisan lines, separate two-man tickets evolved. His opponent (Thomas Jefferson) automatically served as Vice President.

He was the first to live in the White House, even though it was drafty, unfinished and only partly furnished. He served from 1797 – 1801.

3. An aristocrat, who fearlessly favored the common man, was THOMAS JEFFERSON. He stood for an equal chance for all on merit and for education of the masses and favored a small, decentralized inexpensive government. He was a Democrat-Republican, whose greatest achievement was the purchase of the vast Louisiana Territory from Napoleon. His tombstone reads “Author of Declaration of American Independence, of the statute of Virginia for Religious Freedom and Father of the University of Virginia. He served from 1801 – 1809.

4. When Jefferson followed Washington’s precedent and declined a third term, he chose his Secretary of State JAMES MADISON to succeed him. Madison was famous and well known for his work at the Constitutional Convention of 1787. His wife, Dolley, was one of the most famous White House hostesses. The landowners of the South and the new Western States re-elected him in 1812. In the War of 1812, he had to flee from the White House when the British burned Washington. History holds him high as the Father of the Constitution. He served from 1809-1817

5. To demonstrate that he was the head of a united nation, JAMES MONROE toured the North and the West. He bought Florida from Spain. In 1820, he was re-elected without opposition. His name is on the Doctrine that the US would hold its own safety endangered by colonization or intrusion of foreign authority. He served from 1817 – 1825.

6. JOHN QUINCY ADAMS – nonpartisan, son of President John Adams, became the first President to receive fewer popular and electoral votes than an opponent, but was selected by the House of Representatives, as none of the candidates received a majority of the electoral votes. He served from 1825 – 1829

7. ANDREW JACKSON – known as “Old Hickory” symbolized the common man. He entered the White House as a war hero, leading 6,000 backwoodsmen in defeating 12,000 British at New Orleans in 1815 and put down a Seminole Indian uprising in Florida in 1818. His election marked the founding of the Democratic party He served from 1829 – 1837

8. MARTIN VAN BUREN, who had just served as Jackson’s Vice President won with 170 electoral votes. During the panic of 1837, banks closed across the nation. He refused to interfere with the country’s economics and was defeated. He served from 1837 – 1841

9. WILLIAM HENRY HARRISON was a member of the newly formed Whig party (dissident Democrats). A war hero and veteran of the War of 1812, he was an Indian fighter and a Treaty maker. He died from pneumonia after one month in office in 1841

10. JOHN TYLER became the first Vice-President to become President through the law of succession. Tyler's rift with his (Whig) party grew so intense that in 1843, impeachment resolutions were introduced, but later dismissed. Marks of his stormy administration were a treaty with China, a bill admitting Florida to the union, and a resolution leading to the admission of Texas. He served from 1841 – 1845.

11. JAMES K POLK was successful in an era of expansion. He achieved his 4 goals: reduction of the tariff, establishment of an independent treasury, settlement of the Oregon boundary dispute and the acquisition of California. He died 3 months after leaving office and served from 1845 – 1849.

12. ZACHARY TAYLOR knew very little about politics, had never run for office before and had never voted. He was a national hero through his Mexican victories, and his popularity got him into office. Taylor died suddenly after 16 months in office, leaving a legacy of inflexible faith in the Union. He served from 1849 – 1850

13. MILLARD FILLMORE was the 2nd Vice President to become President by succession. Known as the last of the Whigs, he had risen from a farm in upstate New York, with humble beginnings and held moderate views. Though a Northerner, he stood behind the Compromise of 1850 and signed the Fugitive Slave Act, which enabled slave owners to seize runaway slaves in the North without recourse to law. His signature on the Act marked the end of his political career. He served from 1850-1853.

14. FRANKLIN PIERCE didn't like politics and didn't want to be President, Although he ran as a "dark horse" candidate for the Democrats, he made no speeches during the campaign but he overwhelmingly defeated Gen Winfield Scott with 254 electoral votes to 42. The Gadsden Purchase secured from Mexico parts of Arizona and New Mexico and signed the US-Japanese trade treaty. He served from 1853 – 1857.

15. JAMES BUCHANAN came into office at a time when States' rights over slavery were a bitter issue. Two days after his inauguration the Supreme Court ruled in the Dred Scott case that Congress had no right to exclude slavery in a new territory. Now the divide between the North and South was clear. Before his term ended, South Carolina and 10 other states seceded from the Union and the Confederacy was formed. He took no vigorous action to prevent Civil War. He served from 1857 – 1861.

16. ABRAHAM LINCOLN won the election in 1860, with his opposition to the extension of slavery being firm and his debates with Stephen A. Douglas on the issue brought him national attention. He called for 75,000 volunteers to suppress the rebellion and before it ended some 600,000 men died in battle. Lincoln's patience and determination saved the Union. For 2 years, he watched one inept General after another fail against the genius of Robert E Lee, until he picked Ulysses S. Grant to lead the command. This nation was grief stricken upon his assassination in 1865 at Ford's Theater in Washington, DC. He served from 1861 – 1865.

17. ANDREW JOHNSON was Vice President when Lincoln died and was sworn in to succeed him. He faced a hostile Congress when he vetoed radical Republican legislation, it was passed over his head. He was impeached on 11 charges and tried by the Senate. The vote was one short of the 2/3 required and the charges were dropped. He served from 1865 – 1869.

18. ULYSSES S GRANT was a West Point graduate who served in the Mexican War and won the Civil War for the North. With no political experience, he chose friends and (unfit) favorites for his cabinet, a bribe to his brother caused him to order the Treasury to sell gold which resulted in the stock market panic of 1869. He served from 1869-1877

19. RUTHERFORD B HAYES answered the call for the need to reform from Grant's scandals. He was honest, capable and beyond reproach as the politically impeccable Governor of Ohio. He began civil service reforms and enforced a sound money policy. He served from 1877-1881

20. JAMES A GARFIELD was a Civil War brigadier general who had served for four months when he was fatally shot by a disgruntled office worker, in 1881.

21. CHESTER A ARTHUR – Vice President who became President after Garfield was shot, he stood solidly for civil service reform and passed the Civil Service Act into law. He prosecuted (other) Republicans involved in a post office scandal and supported the tariff of 1883. He served from 1881 - 1885

22. GROVER CLEVELAND brought the Democratic Party back into power after one of the dirtiest campaigns in US political history split the Republicans and cost them the Catholic vote. He was the only President to succeed his successor. He served from 1885-1889, and 1893–1897.

23. BENJAMIN HARRISON - grandson of the 9th President, who under the influence of industrial giants, signed the McKinley Tariff Act, the highest tariff enacted. He served from 1889 – 1893

24. GROVER CLEVELAND - served his second term from 1893–1897

WHEN TREATING A HEART ATTACK OR STROKE, TIME IS OF THE ESSENCE. EVEN DURING THESE TIMES.

Don't hesitate when it comes to getting emergency treatment.

Even during a pandemic, you still need to be treated immediately if you have an emergency. Debating whether or not to risk going to an emergency room during a heart attack, stroke or other health emergency—waiting even a few extra minutes—could be harmful. That's why in all BayCare hospital emergency rooms, patients who have symptoms of COVID-19 are isolated from other patients. This helps keep emergency room patients and our team members safe. So if it's an emergency, don't wait. For more information: BayCareEmergencyCare.org

33. HARRY S TRUMAN faced a monumental job when FDR died. A former soldier, his was the decision to stop the Pacific fighting with the atom bomb. During his term, the United Nations came into being and he generated the Marshall Plan and the Four Point program to aid distressed nations. He served from 1945 – 1953

34. DWIGHT D EISENHOWER (former WWII Supreme Commander) won 2 elections with both popular and electoral votes (442 in 1952, and 457 in 1956). “Ike’s ” first act was to end the Korean War with a cease fire negotiation. His world tour was to convince the world of America’s peaceful intent. He served from 1953 – 1961.

35. JOHN F KENNEDY found a new dimension to politics – television, which helped bring him victory in 1960. In WWII, he commanded a PT boat in the Pacific. He witnessed the nation’s triumphs in space, and proposed Civil Rights Act. His assassination shocked the world in 1963.

36. LYNDON B JOHNSON was sworn in 1 hour and 38 minutes after JFK died aboard the plane carrying the body of the late President. During his term there were major tax cuts, the Clean Air Act and Civil Rights Act of 1964 were signed and the Social Security Administration created Medicare and Medicaid in 1965. He served from 1963 – 1969.

37. RICHARD M NIXON ended the war in Vietnam in 1973 and also the military draft. He established the Environmental Protection Agency and presided over the Apollo 11 moon landing. He was the first and only American President to resign the office, after the Watergate scandal in 1974. He served from 1969 – 1974 and was pardoned by his successor in 1974.

38. GERALD FORD has the distinction of being the first, and to date the only person to serve as president without being elected to either the presidency or the vice presidency. He served as Vice President of the United States since December 6, 1973, following Spiro Agnew's resignation from that office and as President since August 9, 1974 following Nixon’s resignation. He pardoned Nixon and also created a conditional clemency program for Vietnam War draft dodgers. Ford's focus in domestic policy was on the economy, which experienced a recession during his tenure. He served from 1974 – 1977

39. JAMES E “JIMMY” CARTER aspired to make Government “competent and compassionate” and responsive to the American people. Under his Administration, the Department of Energy and the Department of Education, were established. He established a national energy policy that included conservation, price control, and new technology. He was awarded the 2002 Nobel Peace Prize for his work to advance democracy, Human Rights and promote economic and social development. He appointed record numbers of women, blacks and Hispanics to Government jobs. He served as President from 1977 – 1981.

*On March 22, 2019, he also became the nation's longest-lived president, surpassing the lifespan of George H. W. Bush, who died at the age of 94 years.

To this day, at his age of 96, the Carters still support Habitat for Humanity (since 1984). Habitat is the largest not-for-profit builder in the world.

And this summer of 2020, when police killed George Floyd and reignited protests against racism and police brutality, Carter spoke out in support of those peacefully protesting.

"People of power, privilege, and moral conscience must stand up and say 'no more' to a racially discriminatory police and justice system, immoral economic disparities between whites and blacks, and government actions that undermine our unified democracy. We are responsible for creating a world of peace and equality for ourselves and future generations," he said.
