HAPPY VALENTINE'S DAY

FROM THE DESK OF THE SOCIAL CLUB PRESIDENT:

I hope everyone is looking forward to a better New Year!! Our park has made some progress and hopefully will continue to go forward. As we do, I want to ask our old and new residents to make sure we do.

If there is any event or activity that you would like, please let me know. You don't have to be a member of the board to chair an event.

I am asking for help to keep our park enjoyable for everyone!

Let's make this community the BEST!!!

RANDOM THOUGHTS FROM A CONFUSED SENIOR:

- Weight Loss goal: To be able to clip my toenails and breathe at the same time.
- For those of you that don't want Alexa or Siri listening in on your conversations, they are making a male version...it doesn't listen to anything.
- We celebrated last night with a couple of adult beverages....Metamucil and Ensure.
- When a kid says "Daddy, I want Mommy" that's the kid version of "I'd like to speak to your supervisor."

TO EXERCISE OR NOT TO EXERCISE:

If You Exercise:

- The inventor of the treadmill had died at the age of 42.
- The inventor of gymnastics died at the age of 57.
- The world bodybuilder champion died at the age of 41.
- The best footballer in the world, Diego Maradona, died at the age of 60.

But If You Don't Exercise:

- The KFC inventor died at 94.
- Inventor of Nutella brand died at the age of 88.
- Imagine, cigarette maker Winston died at the age of 102.
- Hennessey inventor dies at 98.
- The inventor of opium died at the age of 126 in an earthquake.

The rabbit is always jumping up and down, but it lives for only 2 years, and the turtle that doesn't exercise at all lives 400 years.

SO, get some rest, chill, stay cool, eat, drink and enjoy your life!

HERE'S WHAT'S COOKIN:

Beef 'n' Biscuit Casserole:

Ingredients: 1 pound ground beef, $\frac{1}{2}$ cup chopped onion, $\frac{1}{4}$ cup diced green bell pepper, 1 can (8 ounces) tomato sauce chili powder, $\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoon garlic salt, 1 can (8 ounces) refrigerator buttermilk biscuits

1 $\frac{1}{2}$ cups shredded cheddar cheese, divided, $\frac{1}{2}$ cup sour cream, 1 egg, beaten.

Directions: Preheat oven to 375 degrees F. Use an 8x8 or 9x9 inch baking dish. In a nonstick skillet, brown ground beef with onions and peppers. Drain grease. Stir in tomato sauce, chili powder, and garlic salt. Let simmer.

Separate biscuit dough into 10 biscuits; split each in half. Press 10 biscuit halves over the bottom of the baking dish.

In a bowl, mix $\frac{1}{2}$ cup of cheddar with sour cream and egg. Remove meat from heat and stir in sour cream mixture. Spoon over biscuit halves in baking dish. Arrange remaining biscuit halves on top. Sprinkle with remaining 1 cup of cheddar.

Bake for 25 to 30 minutes, or until golden brown.

Makes 4 to 5 servings.

Monthly

African American History Month. An annual observance to recognize and commemorate African American culture, African American History Month (or Black History Month) is celebrated annually in the United States and Canada in February, and in the United Kingdom in October.

Dog Training Education Month. Every day of the month, perform one training activity with your dog: jumping, herding, racing, etc. By the end of the month, you'll notice an improvement in your dog's temperament, and you'll share a closer bond.

National Haiku Writing Month. Write one haiku a day throughout February—the shortest month for the world's shortest genre of poetry. Don't think writing a good haiku is easy, though. As French philosopher and literary theorist Roland Barthes once observed, "Haiku has this rather fantasmagorical property: That we always suppose we ourselves can write such things easily."

Teen Dating Violence Awareness Month. A national effort to raise awareness about abuse in teen and 20-something relationships and promote programs that prevent it. One in three teens in the United States will experience physical, sexual, or emotional abuse by a partner in a relationship before they become adults. Spread awareness, and stop dating abuse before it starts.

Weekly

Burn Awareness Week, Feb. 1-7. Observed the first full week in February, Burn Awareness Week is intended to provide an opportunity for burn, fire, and life safety educators to share the message of burn awareness and prevention in communities around the nation.

National School Counseling Week, Feb. 1-5. This year's theme, "School Counseling: Helping Students Realize Their Potential," will focus public attention on the unique contribution of school counselors and highlight the tremendous impact they can have in helping students achieve school success and plan for a career.

Children of Alcoholics Week, Feb. 8-14. A campaign led by the National Association for Children of Alcoholics (NACOA) to raise awareness of children affected by parental alcohol problems. Children of Alcoholics Week is celebrated internationally each year during the week in which Valentine's Day falls.

National Invasive Species Awareness Week, Feb. 23-27. Raise awareness and identify solutions to invasive species issues at local, state, tribal, regional, international, and national levels. Participating organizations include the Association of Fish and Wildlife Agencies, the Environmental Law Institute, and the Nature Conservancy.

Meeting of minds

The famous movie actor/director Charlie Chaplin once met the world-renowned physicist Albert Einstein at a public event. According to the Storypick website, Einstein told the comedian: “What I most admire about your art is your universality. You don’t say a word, yet the world understands you.”

To which Chaplin replied, “True. But your glory is even greater. The whole world admires you, even though they don’t understand a word of what you say.”

Mistaken identity

Even Queen Elizabeth II sometimes goes unrecognized. A story from the Hello magazine website tells of a time when the queen’s car drove up to the Royal Windsor Horse Show in 1991. A guard walked up and told her, “Sorry, love, you can’t come in without a sticker.”

Unfazed, her majesty answered, “I think if you check, I will be allowed to come in.”

He did, and she was. The guard admitted later that he’d thought the queen was just “some old dear” who was lost.

Penalty box

Gordie Howe was one of the greatest hockey players of all time. One night his team, the Detroit Red Wings, was playing the Toronto Maple Leafs at Maple Leaf Gardens. Howe believed one referee was favoring the home team, so he skated over and asked, “Hey, refer, what would you do if I called you a homer?” (a sports official who makes obvious calls for the home team.)

“I’d have to give you two minutes in the penalty box,” the ref replied.

“What would you do if I only thought you were a homer?”

“I couldn’t do anything. Your thoughts are your own.”

“Good, because I think you’re a ----ing homer!”

And yes, Howe got two minutes in the penalty box.

A little praise

As a speechwriter for presidents Ronald Reagan and George H.W. Bush, Peggy Noonan introduced such phrases as “a thousand points of light” into the vernacular. But she derived her greatest personal satisfaction from a simple note of praise.

As recounted in her book, What I Saw at the Revolution (Ivy Books), four months into her job as Reagan’s speechwriter, Noonan had yet to meet the boss. Then he returned the draft of one of her speeches bearing the hand-scrawled words “Very Good.”

Noonan was overjoyed—so overjoyed that she cut out the note, taped it to her blouse, and walked the halls beaming with the pride of a schoolgirl who’d suddenly discovered she was teacher’s pet.

Handling the press

Rock star David Bowie knew how to charm reporters. According to the Digital Spy website, when a magazine ran a series on some of the journalists who’d interviewed him over the years, they discovered that he’d played the same trick on them over and over again:

Bowie would schedule a 45-minute interview. When his aide came in to show the reporter out, he’d say, “Look, I know we’re on a schedule, but we’re having such fun here, could we do an extra 15 minutes?” Every journalist felt flattered by the attention, which usually resulted in a positive review of whatever album Bowie was publicizing. Only years later did they realize that he’d scheduled them for a full hour all along.
