From the Editor

Hello! Those FV Olympics sure looked like fun! Kim, what an amazing job you did!

Any committee or group sanctioned by the FSC wanting to help fill some pages over the next few months, please feel free to submit something – pictures, information, articles, etc. All the details are in the “Need to Know” section towards the back of the Flier. Deadlines are mentioned under the Fairway Social Committee section below. If you do submit, please follow up if you have not received an acknowledgement of your email.

If you haven't provided the Office with your email address, please do. The Office Manager and staff do try to keep you up on news and events happening in FV via email. They do not post on Facebook. For example, emails go out entitled “Village News” and provide essential information such as:

Reminder that we have the 911 Call Box at the North Pool on the wall of the clubhouse**

AND

Rule Reminders (We all need a poke about the rules occasionally – it keeps our Village the beautiful, kind Village that we are!)

1. Golf General Rules (see email)
9. Lawn and Landscape Watering (see email and Need to Know at the back of the Flier)

Safety Spotlight – this is worth quoting as it is all about hurricane season –

“We want to start reminding everyone to start preparing for hurricane season, so we are beginning with the following rule for safety:

3.6.1. When not in residence for a period of 30 days or more, or when an immediate mandatory evacuation for a hurricane or tropical storm, all exterior items weighing less than 150 pounds which are not permanently attached to the home must be stored in the home, shed, or enclosed screen room and is the responsibility of the shareholder of the home.”

Not only does this stop items from being thrown around in a storm possibly causing damage to your or a neighbour's property, but they can also clog the drains which causes flooding. If you've left for the season, perhaps have your caretaker take a quick look to make sure that there is nothing under 150 pounds that doesn't comply with rule 3.6.1 that you might have overlooked when closing up.

Waiting for some warm weather up here! Can you send some our way?

Fairway Social Committee

Ronee Patterson

It's officially the start of the offseason. The full-time residents are the only ones left in the Village and it's a much slower pace. They've been keeping busy though.

The Fairway Village Olympics were held in May and were a big success. There was also a newly sanctioned event. We celebrated Mother's Day on Saturday May 9th with brunch. A delicious menu was prepared by Bob and Teresa Hall. Sally Proctor and Patti Kiritsis hosted this new event and did an awesome job along with their team of volunteers. Dom Mazzotta and Dave Supinski treated us to some music and singing while we dined. Hopefully this will be an annual event.

The second of the Summer Series dances is coming up on June 20th.with ticket sales on June 4th, 11th and 18th. Come out to see The Bus Stop Band performing.

One nice constant is Koffee Klatch. On the third Saturday of the month all year long, you will find Sally and her crew serving doughnuts and pastries. June 20th is the date of the Koffee Klatch this month.

Enjoy your summer!!

Please check the website calendar for all updates and other regular weekly events. If you have any questions, please text me at 774-571-0853 or ronneepatterson.fsc@gmail.com.

Remember that the flier is available to read on the FV website. Under the heading of Concierge, you will find the Monthly Media Newsletter.

Koffee Klatch

Sally Proctor

Come join us for a doughnut or fritter and coffee or tea. Meet old and new friends. We always have a great time. Doughnuts this month are compliments of City Wide Aluminum.

Summer Dance Series

Patricia Kirisitis

Get ready!!! June 20th the "Bus Stop Band" is pulling into Fairway Village. The band is a multitalented group of musicians and singers that bring together originals alongside a jaw dropping genre crossing mix of various pop, country, classic rock, smooth jazz and old school R&B favorites from yesterday and today. They pack the house wherever they stop. Don't miss this event. Tickets are $12.00 and go on sale June 4, 11 and 18 (5pm to 6pm).

Bands start playing at 7 p.m. and wrap up at 10 p.m.

2027 LIP SYNC

Kathy Van Oeveren, John Romano and Diana Swales

Our 2027 Lip Sync show is already on the calendar for February 19, 2027, and we are looking forward to another great show. If you wish to perform a song, please get in touch with us to reserve a spot as there will be a limit to the number of acts that can be performed during the show time. And there's always room for volunteers who can help keep the show running smoothly!

Hope to see you all there - performers, volunteers and audience!

Welcome Mat

Let's welcome our newest residents of our Village:
Please join us in welcoming the newest members of our community.

1. Lot 320 — Dale and Janet Dickson (Ontario)

Dale, a retired millwright, and Janet, a retired social worker, are joining us from Ontario. They both enjoy golfing and biking, and Janet also plays pickleball. They have one son.

2. Lot 232 — Jerry and Sue Ruffing (Ohio)

Originally from Ohio, Jerry and Sue Ruffing have purchased Lot 232 as their full-time residence. Jerry is a retired mental health therapist, and Sue is a retired bookkeeper and restaurant manager. They both enjoy bicycling and travel. Jerry is an avid sports fan who also enjoys reading, while Sue likes cooking, gardening, and playing cards. They have one son, Kevin.

Let's make our new residents feel at home by welcoming them warmly and helping them discover the many activities, opportunities, and volunteer roles available in our Village, should they wish to get involved.

Anniversaries

In the past, we have been missing some anniversaries and wishing people happy anniversary who no longer reside in FV. The Office has generously offered to attempt to get the Editor an up-to-date list as soon as their time permits (which will likely be once all of the Northerners have left for the summer).

If a loved one has passed and you haven't let the office know, please do so in order that the Office can update their records. We'll start posting Anniversaries again soon!

2026 LIP SYNC

Kathy Van Oeveren, John Romano and Diana Swales

Well, the 2026 Lip Sync Show has come and gone leaving us with such great memories of the 18 acts performed.

To our incredible performers, thank you for your courage, talent and commitment to entertaining us. You brought the stage to life in ways we'll be talking about for a long time.

And, to our audience, thank you for showing up, cheering loudly and celebrating with us. Your enthusiasm is what makes this event truly special. We were able to sell out all 552 tickets, making this the largest audience ever!

Architectural Review Committee

The ARC Rules and Regulations Governing Document defines and outlines the guidelines for all exterior changes to homes, as well as for placing homes. This document is available from the office or may be downloaded from the FVRA website. Before any work begins, a Home Placement or Modification Request Form must be completed and returned to the FVRA office. The ARC, which meets on Mondays in the Clubhouse, looks forward to working with you to replace your home or planning the changes to the outside of your home. Any questions, contact the ARC Chairperson.

Women Working Wonders (WWW)

Kathy Sturdee

June already! It is easy to spot the changes in the park. Less traffic. It's really quiet. It is like a ghost town!!

We know that soon the heat wave will come. Hurricane season will come! But with the quiet season comes a great opportunity to give KINDNESS. And you can be a part of that KINDNESS this park is known for. It doesn't take a lot of time. It just takes a loving heart.

The remaining 11 WWW volunteers will continue to strive to make life a little easier for our remaining 35 residents. If you know someone in the park that is 90+ years young or is house bound, please let us know. Our Chairperson, Kristy Williams is just a phone call away. (727-218-8121)

If you know of anyone who is in need of free services with the Office of the Aging, now is the time to start the process. The Office of the Aging offers free services like Meals on Wheels, chores, transportation, medical equipment and many other services as well. Call Kathy Sturdee. (727-421-7063) She will be able to give you the information to make this happen. And it is all FREE

Make a point to get to know your neighbor. Maybe just say Hi. Buy one get one?? Go for the sale and give the free one to them. Made too much for supper? Take a plate over to them. It is the KINDNESS we give that we always get back. I promise. I know for a fact because it happens to me all the time.

I want to introduce you to Mike Lowell. This man should have a badge that has the words KINDNESS on it. He is the happiest when he is busy and doing things for other people. He can help you if you have a problem. He is sort of like a handyman. But the difference is that he does it for FREE. Because of his KIND heart. Give him a call. (812-989-3814) This summer Mike and my husband will go to our WWW residents to check their smoke alarms.

Fairway Village is a caring, kind village. You will find kind people here who really care. And I am so proud to be a part of it all.

SPREAD KINDNESS !!

CRIBBAGE

Ida Grondin

Cribbage will resume at 6:30 p.m. on Mondays starting on November 16, 2026, at the clubhouse. Don't forget to bring 50¢.

Monthly

Adopt a Cat Month. Your local shelter has tons of cute, cuddly newborn kittens, mellow older cats, and everything in between. Shelter staffers are ready to help you adopt your very first cat or bring home a friend for another beloved cat.

National Dairy Month. Start the summer with nutrient-rich dairy foods. From calcium to potassium, dairy products such as milk contain essential nutrients that can help you manage your weight and reduce your risk for high blood pressure, osteoporosis, and other health problems.

National Zoo and Aquarium Month. June is an excellent time to explore your local zoo and aquarium as well as the websites of America’s great zoos and aquariums. Many of them have excellent educational resources—photographs, videos, facts, lesson plans, activities, and sounds so real you’ll think you’re there.

PTSD Awareness Month. The purpose of PTSD Awareness Month is to raise public awareness of PTSD and effective treatments and help all those affected by PTSD. Mental health experts aren’t sure why some people develop PTSD and others don’t, but if stress reactions don’t improve over time and disrupt everyday life, seeking help to determine whether PTSD is present is important.

Weekly

National Automotive Service Professionals Week, June 8-14. A weeklong celebration to honor the commitment and dedication of the automotive, truck, collision specialists and parts specialists who keep our vehicles running safely.

Men’s Health Week, June 15-21. The purpose of Men’s Health Week is to heighten the awareness of preventable health problems and encourage early detection and treatment of disease among men and boys. This week gives health care providers, public policy makers, members of the news media, and individuals an opportunity to encourage men and boys to seek regular medical advice and early treatment for disease and injury.

National Nursing Assistant Week, June 11-17. Nursing assistants work in hospitals and nursing homes performing everyday living tasks for the elderly, chronically ill, or rehabilitation patients who cannot care for themselves. This week is set aside to recognize the nursing assistants who dedicate their lives to the well-being of others.

National Mosquito Control Awareness week, June 20-26. During “Mosquito Week,” the American Mosquito Control Association’s goal is to educate the public about the significance of mosquitoes in their daily lives and the important service provided by mosquito control workers throughout the United States and worldwide.

Flying in the face of disaster

In the 1980s and early '90s, Continental Airlines was a disaster. The organization had gone bankrupt twice and was on its way to a third (and final) catastrophe. It had gone through 10 presidents in 10 years, and employees mistrusted management.

Then in 1994 Gordon Bethune stepped in. Instead of running around willy-nilly trying to stamp out the various raging fires, Bethune took a step back to return to the basics. He identified Continental's key goals so that employees' efforts would be concentrated on them rather than diffused by the disaster of the moment. One of his areas of focus was creating a corporate culture. Without the commitment of the employees, the other goals would be impossible.

Drawing on the organization's history of excellence in service, he rallied the workforce. Bethune discovered that the employees weren't bad—they just worked in a dysfunctional organization. So they were quick to get behind his new leadership.

Senior management was a different story. Bethune knew he had to make wholesale changes, and that meant getting rid of the bureaucracy. In a couple of months, Bethune and his top executives replaced 50 of the company's 61 officers with 20 top-notch people.

The changes were dramatic. In one year's time, Continental went from being ranked the worst in customer satisfaction among major airlines to first.

The birth of 'excellence'

Tom Peters didn't exactly give birth to excellence, but he did establish the idea that companies can achieve excellence under the inspiration of a management guru—like himself.

It all began in the spring of 1978. John Larson of McKinsey's San Francisco office was set to give a presentation to a client. But his computer crashed and took with it his notes. He turned to another consultant, Tom Peters, to throw together a presentation that would satisfy the client.

Peters had just returned from traveling the world to compile research on best practices in business. Up until then, his research had been collecting dust after he had presented it to the McKinsey powers that be. With an opportunity to present his findings again, Peters gathered his data. In search of a sexy title to give his presentation, Peters came up with "Excellence." It was a hit.

Eventually, Peters edited the material into a manuscript. Continuing with the idea of excellence, he titled the book The Secrets of Excellence. But the title didn't fly with the McKinsey folks, who feared that clients would think the company was selling the secrets of client operations. In 1982, Peters and co-author Robert Waterman renamed it the more politically astute In Search of Excellence. And thus was excellence born.

Mix these ingredients for cultural creativity

Do you want to nurture a culture of creativity in your organization? Try to build in these essential ingredients:

- Curiosity. Ask people questions that challenge the conventional wisdom. Encourage them to stretch boundaries and take chances on new opportunities.
- Emotion. People who love what they do are better at generating new ideas about their work. Hire and support people who show a real enthusiasm for your organization and its mission.
- Tolerance. People won't suggest ideas if they're afraid of being punished for failure. Encourage risk taking by showing forgiveness when things don't work out, as long as people are giving their best efforts.
- Direction. A clear sense of what you want to achieve will help people focus their ideas. Have a concrete mission statement that tells everyone what you're trying to do, why it's important, and how it will benefit everyone.

What do the instructions say? Creativity expert

Yoram Solomon often conducts workshops that teach people to approach problems with an open mind. In one exercise (recounted on the Inc. magazine website), he asks participants to build a structure out of a sheet of paper. Some cut the paper into smaller pieces, although his instructions don't specifically say they can.

Once everyone is finished, Solomon asks, "Did the instructions allow you to cut the paper?" Most believe they've done something wrong. But one person usually pipes up with, "You didn't say we couldn't, either."

"To be creative," Solomon points out, "don't assume restrictions that don't really exist."

Quote

Imagination is the beginning of creation. You imagine what you desire, you will what you imagine, and at last, you create what you will.

—George Bernard Shaw

Beware these creativity myths

Creativity can seem magical and mysterious, but you shouldn't make assumptions that can hold your imagination back. Watch out for these misconceptions that can impede your efforts to find innovative ideas and solutions:

- The “eureka” moment. Many people believe that creativity is a sudden flash of insight. More often it's the result of research and persistence, immersing yourself in a subject, and then building on what you learn.
- Inborn creativity. You aren't necessarily born with the ability—or inability—to think creatively. You can learn the knack by asking questions, looking at things in new ways, and challenging the status quo.
- Uniqueness. Good ideas don't always spring from something new. Often the best ideas and solutions come from combining separate elements in different ways.
- Lone wolves. The stereotype of the genius working alone in an office or laboratory is misleading at best. Although some mavericks do produce good ideas totally on their own, many of the best ideas and solutions are the result of collaboration by smart, motivated people.
- Brainstorming. Brainstorming sessions can produce results if they're focused on a specific issue. If it's just a free-form session of throwing ideas around, chances are you won't generate practical solutions. Keep the discussion centered on the problem you're trying to solve.
- No limits. Creativity may seem to thrive on the concept of thinking beyond boundaries. In reality, constraints can force your thinking in the right direction. Try setting some limits to what you want to create—size, budget, deadlines—and see how that helps focus your imagination.

Quote

Curiosity about life in all of its aspects, I think, is still the secret of great creative people.

—Leo Burnett

What millennials want when dining out

Millennials are driving more and more of the economy, especially with their food and dining choices. Y-Pulse, a youth marketing and millennial research firm, looked at some of the restaurant trends being pushed by people 18-34 years old, and here's some of what it found:

According to the survey, 71 percent of millennials love to attend food-focused events, and 81 percent enjoy exploring new cultures through food. Memorable dining experiences are also important, with 48 percent saying they seek out new restaurants with famous chefs and 69 percent enjoying eating establishments with chefs' tasting menus.

On the other hand, 61 percent say they wish they could find more restaurant offerings that remind them of their grandmothers' cooking, and 69 percent are looking for food that reminds them of their childhood.

Quote

Mathematics, rightly viewed, possesses not only truth, but supreme beauty—a beauty cold and austere, like that of sculpture, without appeal to any part of our weaker nature, without the gorgeous trappings of painting or music, yet sublimely pure, and capable of a stern perfection such as only the greatest art can show.
