THEATER CLUB

Happy February everyone! It's hard to believe we're already this far into the new year! Time passes so quickly. I've heard it said that the older we get the faster time goes by. Whoever said that was right.

So, getting to the point, it's time for another monthly Theatre Club meeting. I hope to see some new faces on Tuesday Feb. 3 at 10:00AM in the clubhouse. This is a fun-loving group that doesn't require expertise. We do what we do for fun not only for ourselves but for you.

We have a great line-up for the Spring Show this year. Acts are being rehearsed and perfected, and the excitement is growing. It's not too late if you are interested in being part of the show. Please contact Linda Davis at 145 4th. Ave or call 207-598-6991 for more info. I would love to hear from you. The Spring Show will take place on Sunday, March 8 at 7:00PM.

This is the month of Love. Happy Valentine's Day! Reach out and tell someone how much you appreciate them and maybe even give them a hug.

So, until next time, be blessed and take care,
Linda Davis

NUGGET'S CLUB

Welcome to our Golden Gate community on behalf of the Nugget's Club.
We are the "Social Events club" of our community and membership is made up of all residents. Those who participate. We enjoy many events!

The Nugget's Club is the "Umbrella," consisting of four volunteer board members. Our monthly meetings are on the third Tuesday of the month at 6:30 pm in the clubhouse. All are welcome. The board plans, discusses and sponsors monthly events. Under our "umbrella" are volunteers who organize our events, which include Dances, Pot Luck Suppers and Social Sundays.

Our events are marked on the monthly community calendar in the Nuggets newsletter, announced on the Golden Gate Facebook page and in the E-mail "Blasts" from our management company, along with word of mouth!

As with all the clubs in our community, our success depends on YOU. Support us at meetings, volunteer at events, PARTICIPATE in all the FUN!

SHUFFLEBOARD CLUB NOTICE

Thanks and kudos to Bill Fournier who used his skill and expertise to run a successful Winter FUN Tournament on January 21st. Congratulations to the winners.

Meanwhile, our competitive Shuffleboard travel teams - SEMINOLE, BLUE SKY and NOVA are all in full swing in an effort to retain their winning titles. Regular team practice takes place on Mondays at 10 am, while team captains may schedule additional practices. Come watch the competitive FUN. HOME games for Seminole are Tuesdays at 10, Nova Thursdays at 10 and Blue Sky Fridays at 10.

Residents not familiar with Shuffleboard are encouraged to check out the Horsecollar FUN on Saturdays at 10 am. Simply arrive before 10 am with 50 cents and wearing closed toe shoes. Chances are that you'll get your money back. A selection of sticks/cues are provided for free.

The Open Doubles Shuffle play continues Thursdays at 1 pm for anyone interested in playing without the long term commitment.

Our thanks and appreciation to Frank Poirier for installing the genuine white boards - easy to mark and much easier to erase. Great job! Another fine addition to our outstanding facility.

Please plan to attend our monthly meeting on Tuesday February 10th at 6:30 pm. This meeting will include elections, if necessary, for the positions of President and Secretary. Any member interested in putting their name forward should inform Randy Purcell, Charleen Socca, Bill Fourier or Denise Poirier.

Your ongoing support is appreciated.

Hope to see you at the courts!
Paul Hamel

JUST A THOUGHT.....

“Value those who give you their time. It’s not just their time; they’re sharing a part of their life with you.”

Golden Gate is very fortunate to have passionate individuals whose dedication goes above and beyond the call of duty. Among the most invaluable members of our community are the volunteer directors of our clubs and activities, our volunteers that deliver our Nugget Magazine, all the members of the Labor of Love and all the volunteers that work behind the scenes. Their energy, creativity, and unwavering commitment help shape a vibrant environment where everyone can thrive. By generously sharing their time and expertise they inspire others to get involved and set an example of selfless service. Their efforts create lasting memories and positive experiences that enrich our association as a whole. To all our club, activity and delivery volunteers with passion and dedication: thank you. Your leadership is the backbone of our association, and your impact is felt by every member. We appreciate everything you do to make our community a better, more connected place.

Monthly

African American History Month. An annual observance to recognize and commemorate African American culture, African American History Month (or Black History Month) is celebrated annually in the United States and Canada in February, and in the United Kingdom in October.

Dog Training Education Month. Every day of the month, perform one training activity with your dog: jumping, herding, racing, etc. By the end of the month, you'll notice an improvement in your dog's temperament, and you'll share a closer bond.

National Haiku Writing Month. Write one haiku a day throughout February—the shortest month for the world's shortest genre of poetry. Don't think writing a good haiku is easy, though. As French philosopher and literary theorist Roland Barthes once observed, "Haiku has this rather fantasmagorical property: That we always suppose we ourselves can write such things easily."

Teen Dating Violence Awareness Month. A national effort to raise awareness about abuse in teen and 20-something relationships and promote programs that prevent it. One in three teens in the United States will experience physical, sexual, or emotional abuse by a partner in a relationship before they become adults. Spread awareness, and stop dating abuse before it starts.

Weekly

Burn Awareness Week, Feb. 1-7. Observed the first full week in February, Burn Awareness Week is intended to provide an opportunity for burn, fire, and life safety educators to share the message of burn awareness and prevention in communities around the nation.

National School Counseling Week, Feb. 1-5. This year's theme, "School Counseling: Helping Students Realize Their Potential," will focus public attention on the unique contribution of school counselors and highlight the tremendous impact they can have in helping students achieve school success and plan for a career.

Children of Alcoholics Week, Feb. 8-14. A campaign led by the National Association for Children of Alcoholics (NACOA) to raise awareness of children affected by parental alcohol problems. Children of Alcoholics Week is celebrated internationally each year during the week in which Valentine's Day falls.

National Invasive Species Awareness Week, Feb. 23-27. Raise awareness and identify solutions to invasive species issues at local, state, tribal, regional, international, and national levels. Participating organizations include the Association of Fish and Wildlife Agencies, the Environmental Law Institute, and the Nature Conservancy.

Meeting of minds

The famous movie actor/director Charlie Chaplin once met the world-renowned physicist Albert Einstein at a public event. According to the Storypick website, Einstein told the comedian: “What I most admire about your art is your universality. You don’t say a word, yet the world understands you.”

To which Chaplin replied, “True. But your glory is even greater. The whole world admires you, even though they don’t understand a word of what you say.”

Mistaken identity

Even Queen Elizabeth II sometimes goes unrecognized. A story from the Hello magazine website tells of a time when the queen’s car drove up to the Royal Windsor Horse Show in 1991. A guard walked up and told her, “Sorry, love, you can’t come in without a sticker.”

Unfazed, her majesty answered, “I think if you check, I will be allowed to come in.”

He did, and she was. The guard admitted later that he’d thought the queen was just “some old dear” who was lost.

Penalty box

Gordie Howe was one of the greatest hockey players of all time. One night his team, the Detroit Red Wings, was playing the Toronto Maple Leafs at Maple Leaf Gardens. Howe believed one referee was favoring the home team, so he skated over and asked, “Hey, refer, what would you do if I called you a homer?” (a sports official who makes obvious calls for the home team.)

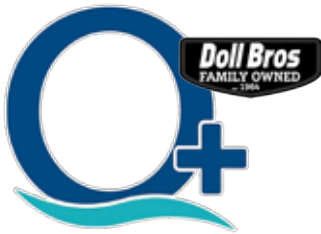

“I’d have to give you two minutes in the penalty box,” the ref replied.

“What would you do if I only thought you were a homer?”

“I couldn’t do anything. Your thoughts are your own.”

“Good, because I think you’re a ----ing homer!”

And yes, Howe got two minutes in the penalty box.

Daydreaming can be good for you

Daydreams aren't necessarily a waste of time. We daydream for different reasons, but it can have a positive affect on your life and career. Consider these facts about daydreaming from the LiveScience website:

- Daydreaming can be controlled—up to a point. Most people daydream intentionally because they're bored or working on something simple. When tasks require more concentration, drifting off is less frequent, but still happens.
- Blinking is a clue. Wonder if someone is daydreaming while you're talking? Look closely at their eyes. Studies show that people blink more often and more rapidly when they daydream.
- Daydreaming can help with problem solving. Let your mind wander when you're working on a tough problem. Scientists have observed that the areas of the brain involved in problem solving turn more active when we daydream.

These thoughtful habits can spark your imagination

Even if you don't think of yourself as the creative type, you can always amp your imagination up with a little effort. Keep this advice in mind when you're searching for an original idea or an innovative solution:

- Meditate. Spend some time each day visualizing something pleasant and peaceful. It doesn't have to relate to anything you're working on—just picture a lake, a forest, or even a loved one. You'll relax your brain and body while creating a mental environment that attracts fresh thinking.
- Pretend. Look at ordinary objects around you and pretend they're something different. Your pen is a magic wand, for example, or a pair of scissors is a spaceship. Explore the premise, and you'll teach your mind to look at everything a little differently.
- Try something new. Break out of your routine on a regular basis. Read a book on a subject you're unfamiliar with, try a new sport, talk to someone you don't know well. Different experiences can help loosen up stiff ways of thinking about things.
- Commit some art. Try sketching a picture or writing a poem. It doesn't have to be a masterpiece. Just give yourself mind and body space to roam in a fresh direction. You may see and hear the world differently later.

Quotes:

Every child is an artist; the problem is staying an artist when you grow up.
—Pablo Picasso

It is better to fail in originality than to succeed in imitation.

A little praise

As a speechwriter for presidents Ronald Reagan and George H.W. Bush, Peggy Noonan introduced such phrases as “a thousand points of light” into the vernacular. But she derived her greatest personal satisfaction from a simple note of praise.

As recounted in her book, What I Saw at the Revolution (Ivy Books), four months into her job as Reagan’s speechwriter, Noonan had yet to meet the boss. Then he returned the draft of one of her speeches bearing the hand-scrawled words “Very Good.”

Noonan was overjoyed—so overjoyed that she cut out the note, taped it to her blouse, and walked the halls beaming with the pride of a schoolgirl who’d suddenly discovered she was teacher’s pet.

Handling the press

Rock star David Bowie knew how to charm reporters. According to the Digital Spy website, when a magazine ran a series on some of the journalists who’d interviewed him over the years, they discovered that he’d played the same trick on them over and over again:

Bowie would schedule a 45-minute interview. When his aide came in to show the reporter out, he’d say, “Look, I know we’re on a schedule, but we’re having such fun here, could we do an extra 15 minutes?” Every journalist felt flattered by the attention, which usually resulted in a positive review of whatever album Bowie was publicizing. Only years later did they realize that he’d scheduled them for a full hour all along.
