Tail-Wagging Treasures of Honeymoon Park

This month, we're thrilled to shine the spotlight on a very special resident—Einstein, our Park Pet of the Month! At 10 years young, this charismatic Mini Schnauzer proves that age is just a number when you've got personality, charm, and a whole lot of heart.

Einstein is super smart and incredibly lovable. He knows an impressive list of tricks, including rolling over and even dancing! He'll happily show off his skills for a tasty reward—especially if that reward happens to be his all-time favorite snack: Cheerios. (Who can blame him?)

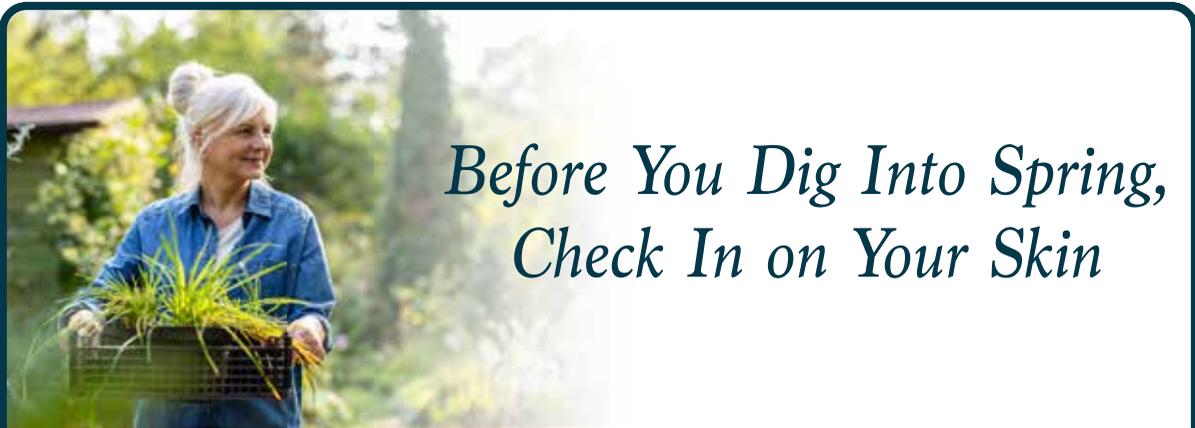

When he's not performing tricks, Einstein loves going for walks and spending time with park residents and his furry friends. He's especially fond of one special pup—his girlfriend, Sophie. From the moment they met, it was truly love at first sight, and the two are often spotted enjoying each other's company.

Einstein's journey began in Ohio, where Cindy and Bruce found him and knew right away he was meant to be part of their family. They brought him home, and ever since, Einstein has been making their lives complete with his companionship, loyalty, and endless affection.

An adventurer at heart, Einstein is also a fantastic travel companion. Whether riding in the car or flying on a plane, he's always ready for the next journey—just as happy to explore new places as he is to relax with his favorite people.

With his intelligence, sweet nature, and undeniable charm, it's easy to see why Einstein is so loved by everyone who meets him. Congratulations to Einstein—our Park Pet of the Month and a true four-legged star! ★

Community ★ Super Stars ★ of the Month

This month, we are honored to celebrate two truly special people who make our community feel like home—Bud and Pam Newman, our Resident Superstars of the Month. Their kindness, generosity, and genuine love for their neighbors shine through in everything they do, and our community is better because of them.

Bud and Pam are the heart of this neighborhood. They are always ready with a smile, a kind word, or a helping hand, and they never hesitate to show up for others. Whether it's helping a neighbor in need or simply taking the time to make someone feel seen and welcomed, they have a way of making everyone feel like they truly belong.

Their passion for bringing people together is nothing short of inspiring. From the free pancake breakfast, they so generously hosted, where neighbors gathered, laughed, and connected, to Bud's park fishing trips, which create meaningful memories and shared experiences, their efforts go far beyond events. They create moments. Bud also hosts Cornhole every Sunday evening, a weekly tradition that has become a highlight for many, turning ordinary evenings into opportunities for friendship and fun.

And then there's the beloved "Bud's BBQ", an annual celebration that everyone looks forward to. It's more than just great food, it's laughter, togetherness, and the unmistakable feeling of community that Bud and Pam cultivate all year long.

Bud and Pam Newman represent the very best of what it means to be neighbors. Their selflessness, warmth, and dedication to others have left a lasting impact on our community and on the people who call it home. We are deeply grateful for all they do and are incredibly proud to recognize them as our Resident Superstars of the Month.

IRISH SODA BREAD

YIELDS:
12 serving(s)

PREP TIME:
10 mins

COOK TIME:
55 mins

TOTAL TIME:
1 hr

Ingredients

- 4 cups all-purpose flour
- 1/4 cup sugar
- 1 tsp. baking soda
- 1 tsp. kosher salt
- 6 Tbsp. cold salted butter, diced and divided, plus more for the pan
- 1/2 cup golden raisins
- 1/2 cup dried cranberries
- 1 large egg
- 1 3/4 cups buttermilk

Directions

- 1 | Preheat the oven to 400°F. In a large bowl whisk together the flour, sugar, baking soda, and salt. Using a pastry blender or fingers, work 4 tablespoons of the cold butter into the flour until the butter is in small bits. Stir in the raisins and cranberries. Make a well in the center of the flour mixture.
- 2 | In a separate small bowl, whisk together the egg and the buttermilk, then pour it into the flour mixture. Using a wooden spoon, stir it together until the dough is barely incorporated (there will still be some dry flour in the bowl). Turn the dough out onto a lightly floured surface. Bring the dough together with your hands, kneading gently about 4 or 5 times, until a rough shaggy ball forms and no dry bits of flour remain.
- 3 | Butter a 10-inch cast-iron skillet. Place the dough in the skillet and press to form a 7-inch round loaf, about 1 1/4 inches tall. With a sharp knife dusted with flour, cut a large "X" on the top of the dough, about 1 inch deep and 6 1/2 inches long. Bake until golden brown and the center is set, 50 to 55 minutes, tenting with foil after 35 to 40 minutes if the top is getting too dark. A toothpick inserted in the center should come out clean.
- 4 | Melt the remaining 2 tablespoons of butter. Brush the top of the bread with the melted butter. Let cool for 10 minutes in the skillet before moving to a cooling rack. Let cool for 10 minutes more before slicing and serving warm.

Tip: Serve alongside softened butter, fruit jam, or even cream cheese.

Families growing in size as remarriage rises

Family relationships can be complicated these days. The Bloomberg website reports that almost a third of U.S. households headed by adults under 55 have at least one stepchild, and among couples over 55 with adult children, 33 percent have at least one stepchild. Counting stepchildren boosts the size of a family by 55 percent among Americans with grown children.

Divorce and remarriage are driving the growth. The divorce rate for older Americans has almost doubled in the last 20 years, with almost 30 percent of people over 50 having been married more than once.

Quotes

Life it is not just a series of calculations and a sum total of statistics, it's about experience, it's about participation, it is something more complex and more interesting than what is obvious.
