10 FUN FACTS ABOUT DUNEDIN

Dunedin has some truly quirky and unusual facts that make it stand out from other Florida towns. Here are a few you might not know:

1. A Secret 1920s Speakeasy 🕵️

Dunedin is home to a hidden gem with some serious Prohibition-era charm—the Flamingo Lounge. While it may seem like a regular bar today, it's said to have been a speakeasy during the Prohibition era when alcohol was illegal. Some locals still speculate that the place hides remnants of its secret past!

2. Dunedin is the "Cycling Capital" of Florida 🚲

It's not just the Pinellas Trail that makes Dunedin bike-friendly. The town has been recognized as one of Florida's Best Bike-Friendly Cities due to its vast network of biking paths, scenic routes, and bike racks everywhere. It's even home to one of the oldest bicycle shops in Florida, The Bicycle Shop, which has been serving the community for over 50 years!

3. Scottish Roots

Dunedin was originally called "Pennekamp," but it was later renamed to reflect its Scottish heritage. The name "Dunedin" comes from the Scottish Gaelic name for Edinburgh, the capital of Scotland. You'll even find a Scottish-American Society here and a Dunedin Highland Games every year.

4. Dunedin's Underground History

Did you know there's a hidden underground chamber in Dunedin? It's part of a mystery surrounding the Dunedin Bottle House, which is rumored to be linked to an old underground network used during Prohibition for hiding illegal booze. While some details remain vague, the idea of secret tunnels under Dunedin has made it a subject of local folklore.

5. The Haunted Historic District 👻

Dunedin is rumored to have some of the spookiest spots in Florida, especially in its historic district. From ghostly apparitions to mysterious sounds, places like the Pioneer Park and The Fenway Hotel have long been a part of local ghost lore. Some say the hotel, which dates back to the 1920s, is haunted by former guests—with reports of strange noises, flickering lights, and ghostly sightings.

6. A Town With a "Cat" and "Dog" Park 🐶🐱

Dunedin has two unique animal parks: The "Doggie Park", and its lesser-known but equally interesting neighbor, the "Cat Park"! Yes, there's a small, unofficial space in town dedicated to stray cats where they can hang out and roam freely, with locals keeping it stocked with food and water for the feline visitors. Dunedin's commitment to its animals is legendary, but this one's definitely offbeat!

7. Dunedin's Own Microclimate

Dunedin enjoys a bit of a microclimate compared to other areas in Florida. It tends to be slightly cooler and less humid, especially during the hot summer months, making it a bit of a hidden gem for those looking to escape the heat.

8. A Hotspot for Craft Breweries

Dunedin has quickly become a craft beer lover's dream! The town is home to several award-winning breweries like Dunedin Brewery, Florida's oldest craft brewery. It's also where you can find the 3 Daughters Brewing taproom!

9. Dunedin's Historic Homes

The city is home to many historic homes that date back to the early 20th century, including charming bungalows and Mediterranean Revival-style homes. Many of these homes are nestled along the waterfront, offering stunning views of the Gulf of Mexico.

10. The World's Largest Collection of Tiki Mugs 🍹

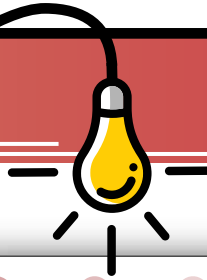

If you're a fan of tiki culture, Dunedin is home to one of the largest tiki mug collections in the world, displayed at the Tiki Cove Restaurant. There, you can find a treasure trove of vintage mugs, many of which are rare or no longer in production. Tiki lovers and collectors from around the globe stop by to admire the extensive display!

So, Dunedin is definitely not your average Florida town! With its hidden histories, quirky spots, and fun surprises, it's a place that's both charming and full of surprises!

Identity Theft

Warning signs of identity theft

- Bills for items you did not buy
- Debt collection calls for accounts you did not open
- Information on your credit report for accounts you did not open
- Denials of loan applications
- Mail stops coming to, or is missing from, your mailbox

How to report identity theft

- To report identity theft, contact:
 - The Federal Trade Commission (FTC) online at IdentityTheft.gov or call 1-877-438-4338
 - The three major credit reporting agencies. Ask them to place fraud alerts and a credit freeze on your accounts.
 - The fraud department at your credit card issuers, bank, and other places where you have accounts

How to protect yourself from identity theft

- Do not answer phone calls, texts, social media messages, or email from numbers or people you do not know.
- Do not share personal information like your bank account number, Social Security number, or date of birth.
- Collect your mail every day and place a hold on your mail when you will be on vacation or away from your home.
- Review credit card and bank account statements. Watch for and report unauthorized or suspicious transactions.
- Understand how ATM skimming works and how to protect yourself
 - Learn when it is safe to use a public Wi-Fi network
 - Store personal information, including your Social Security card, in a safe place. Do not carry it in your wallet.

Imposter Scam

The top types of imposter scams:

An imposter scammer may call, text, or email to convince you they are someone in authority. They may even use caller ID to make it look like they are calling from an official government or business' number. To commit identity theft, they try to get you to send money or a gift card or share personal information.

- Government imposter scams - Unless you contact them first, government agencies typically initiate communication with you by letter. Unexpected contact or demands through any other method may be a scam.
- IRS imposter scams - scammers pretend you owe the IRS money for taxes and may threaten legal action
- Social Security imposter scams - scammers claim there is a problem with your Social Security account or promise to increase your benefits
- Charity scams - scammers pretend to be from a real or fake charity and try to get you to contribute
- Grandparent scams - scammers pretend to be a grandchild or other relative who needs emergency financial help
- Tech support scams - scammers tell you your computer's security is at risk and try to remotely access your device and steal personal information or ask for payment
- Scammers may also pretend to be from your bank or a company you do business with. You might be told you owe money or there is a problem with your account.

Walk for Whiskers Fundraiser & Festival: 🐾🐾🐾

Where: John R. Lawrence Pioneer Park, Downtown Dunedin

On September 20th, join the Humane Society of Pinellas for the most paw-some event of the year—Walk for Whiskers! This fun-filled charity walk and festival is a celebration of compassion, community, and our four-legged friends. Every step you take supports Second Chances for homeless pets in our community. 🐾

We're bringing the bark to downtown Dunedin with a paw-ty at John R. Lawrence Pioneer Park that's packed with activities for the whole family (fur-kids included)!

- Meet & Greet with adorable adoptable Whisker Wigglers 🐾
- A doggie costume contest with fun prizes
- Tail-wagging vendors, giveaways, and live entertainment
- The PAWsport PAWtner Walk—stroll through Downtown Dunedin 🎵
- collect stamps at local businesses for a chance to win cool prizes 🏆

Shake, WAGGLE & Roll through a day full of excitement, support, and giving back to our furry friends in need. Every dollar raised goes directly to the Humane Society of Pinellas, helping provide medical care, daily support, and new beginnings for animals who need it most. 🐾

👉 Ready to make a difference? Register today and be part of the fun! Just $25 gets you a comfy commemorative T-shirt and access to all the fun-filled activities.

Register Now: <https://runsignup.com/Race/FL/Dunedin/WalkforWhiskers>

Let's make this year's Walk for Whiskers the biggest and best yet!

Tail-Wagging Treasure of Honeymoon Park

At Honeymoon Park, we're lucky to share our community with some truly wonderful four-legged friends. This month, we're shining the spotlight on one very special pup—meet Tug, our Pet of the Month!

Home for Tug is Lot 142, Tug is a 4-year-old Shar Pei with a heart as big as his paws and a zest for life that's absolutely contagious. His snack of choice? Steak bones—because nothing less will do! Playtime is when Tug really comes alive, especially at the dog park, where he loves sprinting around with his friends.

Tug's story is more than just playful moments. In his earlier years, he served as a devoted service dog to his late owner, offering unwavering companionship and support. After his owner's passing, Tug's journey took a heartwarming turn—when he met Jeff, he leapt straight into his arms, as if to say, "I'm home." From that day forward, Tug has had the loving forever home he deserves.

We couldn't be happier for Tug and are so proud to have him as part of our Honeymoon Park family. His joyful spirit and boundless affection brighten our community, and we can't wait to see what adventures lie ahead for him!

Community Super Stars of the Month

Ruth & Rich Cote – True Honeymoon Park Superstars!

At Lot 80, you'll find two of Honeymoon MHP's most cherished residents, Ruth and Rich Cote. Originally from Connecticut, this dynamic duo traded snowy winters for Florida sunshine and have since become full-time residents who embody the very spirit of our community.

Ruth and Rich have been part of Honeymoon MHP for many years, and in that time, they've become more than just neighbors—they've become an essential part of the park's heartbeat. Their dedication, kindness, and willingness to lend a helping hand have made them true pillars of our community.

Ruth's leadership shone brightly during her many years on the board, where her thoughtful guidance helped shape the park we know and love today. Together, she and Rich have been the driving force behind countless park activities, from flipping pancakes at our famous pancake breakfasts to lending their time and energy to events that bring our residents together.

For many years, they also served as our warm and friendly Welcoming Committee, greeting new residents with open arms and helping them feel right at home from day one. That same spirit of connection continues in another important way—Ruth and Rich have faithfully delivered the Honeymoon Gazette since its very first issue, ensuring every household stays informed and connected.

Their tireless contributions, warm personalities, and deep love for Honeymoon MHP have left a lasting mark on our community. Simply put, Ruth and Rich are part of what makes this place feel like home. We are so grateful for everything they've done—and continue to do—for all of us here at Honeymoon MHP.

If you know someone who deserves to be recognized as a Honeymoon Park Superstar, please email a photo and a little description of all they do to Tracey at tgariano14@yahoo.com. We'd love to spotlight them!

Honeymoon Park Home of the Month

Each month, we're proud to spotlight one outstanding home in Honeymoon Park that goes above and beyond with beautiful landscaping, decorations, and overall curb appeal. These residents are helping make our community even more special and we want to celebrate their efforts! 🌻 🌻

September 2025: Lot #5

A big thank you to the owners of this lovely home for keeping the exterior looking so beautiful! Your care and attention to detail really shine through, from the stunning pavers to the charming shake siding that gives the home such a welcoming, coastal feel. The landscaping is a true work of art — those palms and grasses add the perfect tropical touch.

The thoughtful additions, like the flower box and the cheerful butterfly display, bring so much personality and warmth to the space. It's clear you've put a lot of love into your home, and it doesn't go unnoticed. Thank you for contributing to the beauty of the neighborhood and helping make Honeymoon MHP such a special place to live!

 Know a home you'd like to nominate for next month? Please let me know!
