Pointe West: Life is Good

Hey, Pointe West Neighbors!

As summer transitions to fall, September in Florida still brings hot temperatures, humidity, and the tail end of hurricane season. Seniors should stay vigilant by:

- Ensuring prescriptions are refilled and a first-aid kit is stocked in case of storms
- Keeping hydrated and wearing sun protection on late-season outings
- Checking that hurricane preparedness plans, emergency kits, and important documents are up to date and easily accessible

September offers a wonderful opportunity to reconnect with neighbors and friends. Pointe West, and local community centers, host regular activities. Consider:

- Joining weekly game nights, such as Bunco (returning in the fall), which provide fun, laughter, and a chance to win prizes
- Participating in group board games like Team Trivia to stimulate your mind and share stories across eras
- Exploring local clubs, crafting groups, or volunteer opportunities to stay engaged and meet new people

After the heat of summer, September can be a good time to get active:

- Take morning or evening walks to enjoy cooler breezes and our beautiful lake front
- Consider gentle exercise classes, such as our morning water aerobics, or yoga offered at local community centers
- Review and update your wellness routines with your healthcare provider

September often brings early hints of autumn:

- Decorate your home with seasonal touches—think sunflowers, autumn wreaths, or a simple table centerpiece
- Try new recipes featuring Florida's late-summer produce, like tomatoes, okra, and sweet corn
- Attend the Labor Day picnic for good food and great company

With the return of routines after summer vacations, September is ideal for personal enrichment:

- Sign up for a workshop or lecture at a local library or lifelong learning institute
- Start a new hobby, such as painting, crafting, or creative writing
- Join or organize a book club to explore new genres and foster discussion

September is a great time for seniors to look forward and plan:

- Schedule annual checkups, flu shots, and any health screenings recommended for the fall
- Begin thinking about holiday travel arrangements or hosting family gatherings
- Review finances and consider meeting with a financial advisor before the end of the year

With a blend of practical planning and joyful involvement, September can be a month of connection, curiosity, and well-being for seniors in Florida. Whether it's joining a lively game night, prepping for hurricane season, or exploring a new creative pursuit, embrace the opportunities this month brings!

Enjoy the Lake!

Our newly renovated lake front and docks are beautiful! A word of caution ~ be aware of the alligators sunning themselves on the shore. They are lying in the mud and often very difficult to spot. Please do not walk your dogs near the lake and be aware of your surroundings.

Team Trivia

Join Host, Joanne Legare, and your neighbors on Thursday, August 18th at 6:30pm to play "Trivial Pursuit Generations" in the Clubhouse. It is based on the original game of Trivial Pursuit, but with some interesting twists:

- You can have a team set up already or just come without a team and we'll arrange it for you.
- A captain for each team will spin the dice and move the wedge holder and we can pick the questions from whichever generation that team prefers (or mix it up)! The size of the teams will depend on how many people attend.
- The generation choices are: The Greatest, Boomers, Gen-X, Gen-M (millennials), and Gen-Z.
- There are seven categories of questions, including a "Personal Trivia" pack where you write your own question and answer.

Sound interesting? Sound fun? Come in and find out!

Pointe West Crafting

Crafting is more than just a hobby—it is a vibrant avenue for creativity, connection, and well-being, especially for seniors. Whether it's knitting, painting, scrapbooking, or creating seasonal decorations, engaging in crafts offers a wealth of mental, emotional, and social benefits for older adults. Crafting requires focus, concentration, and problem-solving, all of which keep the brain active. Learning new techniques or following patterns can help maintain cognitive functions and may even reduce the risk or delay the onset of memory-related conditions such as dementia. Creativity knows no age limit. Picking up a new craft or experimenting with different materials stimulates the imagination and provides seniors with a sense of accomplishment as they learn and master new skills. Watch for Crafting with Julie to return next month!

SEPTEMBER

Just for Fun

Making a splash

A husband texts his wife on a frosty winter morning:
“Window’s frozen!”

His wife texts back, “Pour lukewarm water over it.”

Five minutes later he replies: “Computer completely messed up now.”

Refresh my drink... Erm, I mean memory

An elderly gentleman walked into an upscale cocktail lounge. Well-dressed, with a flower pinned to his lapel, he cut a suave figure. Seated at the bar was a fine-looking lady of a certain age. The gentleman walked over, sat beside her, ordered a drink, then turned to her to ask, “Tell me, good-looking, do I come here often?”

No refills

A distraught senior citizen dialed her doctor’s office. “Is it true,” she wanted to know, “that the medication you prescribed has to be taken for the rest of my life?”

“Yes, I’m afraid so,” said the doctor.

There was a moment of silence before the woman replied, “I’m wondering, then, just how serious my condition is, because this prescription is marked ‘No Refills.’”

Do you know what that is?

I was in the emergency room when a young male nurse came in to ask routine medical questions.

Nurse: Have you ever had a hysterectomy?

Me: Yes.

Nurse: When?

Me: 2011.

Nurse: Do you think you could be pregnant?

Me: Do you think this is the right career for you?

This is why I don’t exercise

The trouble with jogging is that by the time you realize you’re not in shape for it, it’s too far to walk back.

Underrated musical comedy from the award-winning composer, Andrew Lloyd Webber. Tell Me On a Sunday follows a young English girl who has recently landed in New York. Brimming with optimism, she sets out to seek success, companionship and, of course, love. But as she weaves her way through the maze of the city and her own anxieties, frustrations, and heartaches, she begins to wonder whether—in fact—she's been looking for love in all the wrong places. Show contains some of Andrew Lloyd Webber's most-treasured songs, including "Tell Me On a Sunday," "Come Back with the Same Look in Your Eyes" and "Unexpected Song." <https://freefalltheatre.com/>

When you want to borrow items, please ask a REC member. The sign-up sheet is in the storage room which is normally locked and can be accessed by the REC board members.
