Crosswinds Residential Community Association (RCA)

Dear Neighbors,

Good Neighbors Food Pantry has added our community to their regular delivery schedule! From now on, we will get deliveries on the 4th Friday of each month. Our September date is September 26th at 1:00pm. If you are unable to participate, we have volunteers to pack a bag and deliver it to you. Reach out to me or Kim DiMauro (openarms1517@gmail.com) to set up delivery.

I have good news to share! Lakeshore has approved the use of space to start the Happy Hoe's Community Garden which will be located in the grassy area in the back of the Clubhouse. The approved plans will consist of 4 raised garden beds. If all goes well, we will request to expand. While Lakeshore provided a token gift, we will need to do some fundraising to cover start up costs. During the month of September, the Spaghetti Dinner, Musical Bingo and Moonlight and Margaritas events have been set up to benefit the garden. Thank you to Chris and Elsa Martin for volunteering to run Music Bingo! I encourage all to attend these events. It's our goal to raise enough to start planting in September. The food we grow will provide much needed fresh vegetables to the community. If anyone would like to volunteer to help in the garden or help with fundraising, please contact me or Kim DiMauro.

Sincerely,
Beverly Moody
RCA president

What Is Labor Day?

Labor Day honors the American labor movement and the contributions of workers to the strength, prosperity, and well-being of the country. It's a day to recognize the social and economic achievements of American workers.

History

- Origin: The holiday originated during the late 19th century, a time of growing industrialization and labor unrest.
- First Celebration: The first Labor Day was celebrated on September 5, 1882, in New York City, organized by the Central Labor Union.
- Federal Recognition: It became a federal holiday in 1894, following the Pullman Strike—a nationwide railroad strike that led to significant unrest and prompted President Grover Cleveland to make peace with the labor movement.

How It's Celebrated

- Parades: Many cities host parades showcasing labor unions, workers, and community organizations.
- Barbecues & Picnics: It's also seen as the unofficial end of summer, so families often gather for cookouts and outdoor fun.
- Retail Sales: Major sales events happen over Labor Day weekend, especially for back-to-school shopping.
- Sports: College football season often kicks off around Labor Day weekend.

Fun Fact

Labor Day is sometimes confused with May Day (International Workers' Day), which is celebrated on May 1 in many countries. The U.S. chose September to distance itself from the more politically charged May Day.

"Without labor, nothing prospers."
— Sophocles

"The reward of a thing well done is having done it."
— Ralph Waldo Emerson

"Choose a job you love, and you will never have to work a day in your life."
— Confucius

"Work is no disgrace; the disgrace is idleness."
— Greek Proverb

Snow birds

The Early Bird Shuffle

In Port Charlotte, a local diner owner shared how snowbirds would start lining up at 4:30 p.m. for the early bird special. “It’s like clock-work,” he said. “They come in, order the fish fry, and are out before sunset. One couple even brought their own salt shaker because they said ours wasn’t ‘zesty enough.’”

Gator Misunderstanding

A snowbird from New Jersey staying near the Everglades mistook a sunbathing alligator for a “weird-looking log” and tried to take a selfie with it. A neighbor quickly intervened. “I thought Florida wildlife was just flamingos and pelicans,” she said later. “Now I know better—and I zoom in from a safe distance!”

Laundry Room Diplomacy

In a Sarasota condo complex, the shared laundry room became a hub of snowbird diplomacy. One Canadian retiree recalled, “We had a sign-up sheet, but it turned into a social calendar. You’d go to do laundry and end up chatting for an hour about hockey, grandkids, and the best place for grouper sandwiches.”

Golf Course GPS

A Michigan couple new to The Villages got lost on their golf cart trying to find the right course. “We ended up at a pickleball court, then a dog park,” the husband said. “Eventually, someone gave us a paper map. It felt like a treasure hunt—but with sunscreen.”

Community Theater Surprise

In Naples, a snowbird from Ohio auditioned for a local play “just for fun” and ended up landing the lead role. “I hadn’t acted since high school,” she said. “But the director said I had the perfect ‘retired librarian energy.’ Now I’m a star every winter!”

The License Plate Parade

In Florida, locals often joke that you can tell winter has arrived not by the weather, but by the sudden influx of out-of-state license plates. One resident recalled how their quiet street turned into a mini United Nations of vehicles—New York, Ontario, Michigan, and even a few from Alaska. “It’s like a car show for snowbirds,” they said, “except everyone’s driving a beige Buick.”

The Bingo Showdown

At a community center in Arizona, a long-time snowbird from Minnesota shared how competitive bingo nights became the highlight of her winter. “You’d think we were playing for gold bars,” she laughed. “One lady brought her own lucky dauber and wore a visor like she was at a poker table in Vegas.”

The Great Thermostat Debate

A couple from Quebec who wintered in Naples, Florida, had a running disagreement: the husband wanted the AC blasting, while the wife insisted on keeping windows open to “feel the tropical air.” Their compromise? Alternating days of climate control. “We called it the thermostat truce,” they joked.

Golf Cart Culture

In many snowbird communities, golf carts are the preferred mode of transport. One retiree from Michigan recounted how he customized his cart with fuzzy dice, a mini fridge, and even a horn that played “La Cucaracha.” “It’s not just a ride,” he said, “it’s a lifestyle.”
