President Comments

Susan Grippin

Well, we are now into our Fall/ Autumn months. November is such a beautiful time as we go through many celebrations between now and New Year's Day. It's a time of giving and loving even more than normal, helping those that need help or just a hug full of kindness. By now many of the Northerners are back and we welcome them into our park once again. Everyone enjoy this beautiful month of November and take care and be safe.

Free Breakfast

November's Free Breakfast will be held on Saturday, November 1st at 9am, following the 8 to 9am Koffee Klatch. We welcome all new residents or any existing residents to come join us for good socialization and friendship. This free breakfast is provided by Dedicated Senior Medical Center. See you there!

Food Giveaway

November's food giveaway will be held on Wednesday November 5th from 1:00 to 2:00 p.m. if you know of a neighbor that could use some food and cannot attend this function, you're welcome to pack up a bag of nursing food for them make sure you checked with them to see if they have any food or not allergies. There are usually a large supply of fruits, vegetables, breads, dairy, meats and other staples and goodies.

Veterans Day Celebration

We will have a Veterans Day celebration luncheon at the clubhouse on Tuesday, November 11th. Doors will open at 11:00am and there will be a short Veteran's Day ceremony honoring all those that have served our Country. A luncheon will follow consisting of Angie's roasted wieners, macaroni and cheese, and baked beans. Also, bottled water will be furnished. This is a free event but we are asking everyone to bring an appetizer, a snack such as chips or a dessert to share. Sign-up sheets will be in the Clubhouse dining room as well as the card room. You must sign up before Friday, November 7th to attend this luncheon. No exceptions.

Thanksgiving Day Luncheon Celebration

All BSW residents and guests are invited to come join together to celebrate Thanksgiving Day, Thursday November 27th, 2025. Doors will open at 12:30pm with the luncheon served at 1:00pm. The Social Club will be providing the turkey, mashed potatoes, gravy, dessert and bottled water. Please feel free to bring a beverage of your choice this is a free event but please bring a dish to share. Sign-up sheets will be available in the Clubhouse dining hall as well as the card room. You must sign up in order to attend this event. Cut off to sign up is Monday, November 24th at 6:00 p.m. No exceptions.

Bayside Waters Luncheon

Carolyn Mosser

November luncheon will be at Taco Quila Tuesday November 4th at 1pm, 22996 US Hwy 19. Clearwater, Florida. This is changed to the 4th because of Veteran's Day being the 11th, and it's that time of year when friends and family are booking their favorite places to go.

Taco Quila has been around for a couple years now, and we had a great time in the past. They offer combo plates and we are spot on for Taco Tuesday. Please sign up at the clubhouse for an accurate count. New residents are encouraged to join and dine with the social club members.

Poker Run

Susan Grippin/Jim Rupinski/ Greg Schmidt

November Rob's Poker Run will be held Tuesday November 18th. We will meet at 4:45pm by the pool. The cost is $5 to participate. You do not need to know how to play poker to attend this event. Only one hand per person. Everyone is welcome. If you can host a future stop in 2025, please call Jim, Greg, or Susan.

Karaoke with DJ Tony

Danita Kohlhepp

This month's karaoke will be held Saturday November 15th from 7-10p.m., this is a free event brought to you by your Social Club. Please bring your own snacks and drinks. Ice will be provided. There will be a 50/50 drawing you do not have to sing to have fun. Come support your friends and neighbors who do sing!

Do you belong to ‘Team Coyote’?

In their book, Beep! Beep! Competing in the Age of the Road Runner, Chip R. Bell and Oren Harari discuss the messages we can learn from one of the most recognizable pair of antagonists around: Wile E. Coyote and the Road Runner. The authors describe two different cartoons:

In one, the coyote holds a medicine bottle labeled “Acme Hi-Speed Tonic—Contains vitamins R+P+M.” When he gives a spoonful to a small mouse, the rodent zooms around at jet speed. The coyote drinks the whole bottle and zips off after the Road Runner. But the Road Runner stops suddenly, sticks out his foot, and trips Mr. Coyote.

The second cartoon begins with a close shot on a box labeled: “One Acme Jet-Propelled Pogo Stick.” Wile E. removes the pogo stick from the box, switches it on, mounts it, and waits for the Road Runner. As the Road Runner races by, Wile E. begins bouncing up and down after him. But soon the coyote loses control of the stick and falls backward over a cliff.

“What these scenes show is that you cannot remain a coyote and expect to compete against road runners by simply copying their movements,” write the authors. “Sure, the coyote can buy high-speed tonic or jet-propelled pogo sticks, but his body and soul are still coyote. If you are a coyote team or organization, no matter what fads or quick fixes you jump into, you are just imitating a road runner—and the real thing will beat you every time.”

What is a moment really worth?

On the bulletin board of a California company, someone once posted this sign to remind everyone of how time is relative—but the value of time is priceless:

- To realize the value of one year: Ask the student who has failed his final exam.
- To realize the value of one month: Ask the mother who has given birth to a premature baby.
- To realize the value of one week: Ask the editor of a weekly newspaper.
- To realize the value of one day: Ask the daily wage laborer who has 10 kids to feed.
- To realize the value of an hour: Ask the lovers who are waiting to meet.
- To realize the value of a minute: Ask the person who has missed the train, the bus, or the plane.
- To realize the value of a second: Ask the person who has survived an accident.
- To realize the value of a millisecond: Ask the person who has won a silver medal in the Olympics.

Where do alligator shoes come from?

A lawyer from the big city was visiting Florida. He wanted to take home a pair of genuine alligator loafers in the worst way, but he was reluctant to pay the high prices the local vendors were asking.

He was certain that with all his legal training he could negotiate a better price, but at shop after shop he had no luck. After getting frustrated with one sales associate who wouldn't budge, the lawyer shouted, "Well then, maybe I'll just go out and catch my own alligator!"

The saleswoman smiled. "I'd like to see you try."

The lawyer turned on his heel and headed out toward the swamps, determined to catch an alligator.

Later in the day the saleswoman was driving home, and she spotted the lawyer standing waist deep in the murky swamp water, shotgun in hand, a huge 9-foot gator swimming rapidly toward him. The saleswoman pulled over as the lawyer took aim, shot, and killed the creature. With a great deal of effort, the lawyer hauled it onto the swamp bank—right next to four more dead alligators.

The saleswoman stood on the side of the road, watching the lawyer struggle to flip the gator on its back.

Then, looking up toward the sky in great frustration, the lawyer shouted, "No! This one is barefoot, too!"

A Teachable Moment

A kindergarten teacher was helping one of her students put his boots on. It was quite a struggle, but after a lot of pulling and pushing, they succeeded in getting one boot on, and then the other.

Then the little boy said, "But they're on the wrong feet!" The teacher looked and sure enough, he was right. Pulling the boots off wasn't any easier than putting them on was, but she managed to stay calm as they worked together to get the boots back on—this time on the right feet.

"Why are your boots so hard to get on?" she asked when they were finished.

"But these aren't my boots," the boy said.

"Why didn't you say so? Take them off." And they worked up a sweat getting the boots off again.

"Now, where are your boots?" the teacher asked.

"They're at home. These are my brother's boots. My mom made me wear them."

"OK . . ." the teacher sighed, and again they fought to get the boots back on the little boy's feet. "Now, where are your mittens?"

"I stuffed them in the toes of my boots," the little boy said.

How to carve your turkey successfully

A good Thanksgiving dinner is usually about the turkey. You don’t have to be a surgeon to carve one correctly, but proper carving and slicing techniques will ensure you get the most meat from your bird and enable you to present an attractive meal to your family and friends.

Follow these simple techniques for successfully carving your holiday turkey:

- Let your 10-pound-or-bigger turkey stand at room temperature for 10 to 20 minutes after cooking and before slicing. This allows the juices to distribute evenly throughout the turkey. Netting and cooking bags are also easier to remove after waiting.
- Slice or carve the turkey on a sanitized cutting surface. Knives, pans, and covers should be sanitized, too. Resanitize boards and knives every 30 minutes. Wear disposable food-handling gloves while carving or frequently wash your hands thoroughly.
- Immediately after the 10 to 20 minutes holding time, carve the turkey into major sections (i.e., breasts, thighs, drumsticks, and wings).
- To serve turkey hot, place sections in pans. Cover with foil or plastic film to retain heat and moisture and to minimize the possibility of contamination. Hold at 140° F or higher in a hot holding device (a cabinet, steam table, or bain-arie). Your turkey should be at least 140° F when placed in the holding pans. The heating device will only maintain temperature. A maximum holding time of 20 to 30 minutes is recommended.
- Slice the sections into serving pieces, arrange them on a plate, and add garnish. Enjoy!

Quotes:

If the only prayer you said in your whole life was, “thank you,” that would suffice.

—Meister Eckhart

What we’re really talking about is a wonderful day set aside on the fourth Thursday of November when no one diets. I mean, why else would they call it Thanksgiving?

—Erma Bombeck

A thankful heart is not only the greatest virtue, but the parent of all the other virtues.

—Cicero
