Fairway Social Committee

Ronnee Patterson

The one thing you won't find in my car right now is an ice scraper. It's one of those things that I always kept all year in the trunk of my car. I knew I was going to need it when the winter came around and God help me if I parked my car outside and returned to a snow- and ice-covered windshield and couldn't find my ice scraper. I bet a lot of the snowbirds who drove down have one tucked away. Hopefully we won't be needing one here in sunny Florida. You're going to want to check out these December events. Check the calendar for any other card games, shuffleboard, ping pong, golf leagues, scrambles, bingo, art and exercise classes.

This season is kicking off in Fairway Village with the Eagle Wings motorcycle Christmas light parade Friday, December 12. Any questions contact the ARC Chairperson.

Ladies Golf League

Michele Lumadue

Membership for the winter season as of November 1st is 62 members, which includes 9 honorary and 5 new members. We have some new members joining us – Kathy Gustafson, Cheryl Cotton and Joann Jessey.

The Ladies Golf League has a strong history in Fairway Village. If we each brought in one new member it would be even stronger! Remember, ladies are grouped according to their established handicap, so beginners compete against those with a similar handicap. Handicaps are posted at the golf information board at the golf shack.

If you would like to join the league please contact anyone from the Executive Team. There are envelopes at the golf shack that you can fill out also. It is only $15 to join. Up to date information on events can be found on the golf information board at the Golf Shack.

Everyone enjoy the holidays and see you in 2026!

SCAM

Family Scams

Scammers are good at pretending to be someone that they're not. They try to trick you into thinking a loved one is in trouble.

Once the scammer makes you think they're your grandson and in trouble, they pressure you to quickly send them money. But it's all a scam. Your family member was never in trouble.

- The scammer will say it's urgent and that you're the only one who can help.
- The scammer might tell you it's important to keep it secret. They don't want you talking to other family members and friends and realizing it's a scam.
- The scammers will play with your emotions. They're counting on you to act quickly to help your family or friend. And they're counting on you to pay without stopping to check out whether there's really an emergency. If you get a call like this, you can be sure this is a scam.

Slow down. Verify.

Welcome Shufflers!!!!

We are looking forward to a robust 2025/2026 shuffle season here at Fairway Village and we want you to be a part of it. There are 2 traveling teams you can play on, the Sunshine League on Wed. and the Blue Sky League on Fridays. The Sunshine league starts on Nov. 12th here at 930am and Blue Sky begins on Dec. 12th. The traveling teams are a lot of fun and allow you to test your skills against players from other parks. We also have Social Shuffle for residents on Tuesdays and Thursdays at 9am with practice starting at 830am. Social Shuffle is very casual and a great way to get a little exercise and socialize with fellow Fairway Shufflers.

For any info contact Mel Ascott for Wed. league, Brian Beaton for Fri. League and Eric Ford for Social shuffle, all numbers are in the book and schedules are on the board in The Shuffle Shack. If you are a returning league player please reach out to Mel Ascott or Brian Beaton for any info.

The courts have just been washed and waxed with sealer so they are ready for play. A Thank You to Kris Wechter, Mel Ascott and Bill Beckman for the hard work to keep our courts in tip top shape. SO, Everything is ready for a busy Shuffle season here in Fairway, so COME OUT AND PLAY!!!! There will also be posting in the Shuffle Shack as to outside the park tournaments and other shuffle related info. SEE YA ON THE COURTS!!!

The Great Eggnog Explosion

At an office Christmas party, one enthusiastic employee decided to make homemade eggnog to impress everyone. He brought in a giant glass punch bowl filled to the brim, complete with nutmeg sprinkles and cinnamon sticks. It looked amazing.

But what he didn't realize was that the bowl was sitting directly under the heat vent.

As the party went on, the eggnog slowly warmed up... and fermented. By the time people started ladling it into cups, it had developed a surprisingly fizzy texture. One brave soul took a sip and immediately spat it out, yelling, "It's ALIVE!"

Moments later, the bowl cracked from the heat, sending a tidal wave of eggnog across the table, soaking cookies, gifts, and one unfortunate intern's laptop. The smell lingered for days, and the punch bowl was never seen again.

The moral? Never mix dairy, heat, and ambition.

The Cat vs. The Christmas Tree

One family had a beautiful, towering Christmas tree decorated with delicate glass ornaments, shimmering tinsel, and twinkling lights. It was their pride and joy—until their cat, Mittens, decided it was her personal jungle gym.

On the first night, they heard a crash and found Mittens halfway up the tree, dangling from a branch like a furry ornament. She had knocked off several baubles and was batting at the star like it owed her money.

They tried everything: citrus spray, aluminum foil around the base, even a motion-activated air puffer. Nothing worked. Every night, Mittens launched a stealth attack. One morning, they woke up to find the entire tree tipped over, ornaments scattered like confetti, and Mittens sitting triumphantly on top of the fallen pine like she'd conquered Everest.

From then on, they decorated only the top half of the tree and left the bottom bare—except for a sign that read: "Mittens' Zone – Enter at Your Own Risk."

*"Santa Claus has the right idea. Visit people once a year."
— Victor Borge*

Raising Strong Grandkids

Help your grandchildren to become more resilient by focusing on these three areas:

1. Negative thoughts. If you were ever the last one picked for a team in P.E. or someone whose accomplishments were compared against those of an older sibling or a prodigy neighbor kid, then you'll know firsthand the doubt, dread and lack of confidence that can overtake a young mind. Don't allow your children to fall victim to a spirit of defeat.
2. Encourage them to share their thoughts. Then help them improve their outlook by exploring strategies and solutions that will empower their thinking and inspire a willingness to strive for more.
3. Feelings. Sometimes as parents we're too quick to step in and say, "Don't worry. Everything will work out." Yet this approach doesn't allow your children to recognize and process how they are feeling, nor understand how their feelings can influence behavior.
5. Give youngsters a judgment-free forum for exploring their emotions, and offer insight and constructive feedback for dealing with those emotions.
6. Fears. Confronting adversity helps to develop problem-solving skills and gives us the confidence to make better choices.
7. Don't allow children to give up when times are tough. Encourage kids to face their fears with positive actions and perseverance. They may not always come out on top, but they will be able to hold their heads up knowing they did their best.
