RESIDENTS CLUB

Gisella Michael, President

Merry Christmas neighbors! This is my definitely favorite time of the year. It took quite a while to get used to palm trees at Christmas time, but I'll take those palm trees anytime over a cold northern winter. I am looking forward to our annual Christmas Party on December 20th this year, it is always our most attended event. Activities will have something special planned and it's going to be a celebration to remember. For those who did not attend the November 3rd Residents Club meeting the board had a few accusations brought against them. For those residents that attend the December 8th meeting we are bringing that documentation for your viewing. Also, at the November meeting the current Officers ran for office unopposed. Gisela Michael, President, Deborah Phillips, Secretary, Paula Johnson, Treasurer. Mariane Olson, our current Vice President, decided not to run again this year. We are grateful for her years of service. Kim Peck is our Vice President for the Year 2026. Kim ran unopposed. Congratulations Kim! Laurie Stone was also announced as the new Activities Director, and Barb Ramsey as the new Breakfast Chair at the November 3rd meeting. Congratulations to you both. Mark Zanol, resigned as Secondary Vice President. No one was nominated for that position for 2026. The board did inform the residents at the November 3rd meeting that in 2026 the board will be proposing an amendment to update the current bylaws of the Residents Club. One thing the board has agreed upon in this process is that we will be eliminating that position. I look forward to seeing many of you at the Christmas Party this year. I hope everyone has a wonderful, peaceful, and joyous holiday this year!

BREAKFAST COMMITTEE

Barb Ramsey, Chair

There was a great turnout for November's breakfast. We had 75 plus in attendance. It was the first breakfast with the new hours 9-11 am.

Many snowbirds are back and it so nice to catch up with neighbors that we haven't seen since last spring. This month breakfast will be on December 6th 9-11am.

Can't wait to see everyone there

HOMEOWNERS ASSOCIATION

Bob Campell, President

“We hope everyone is enjoying this cooler weather and are becoming excited over the upcoming Christmas Holiday. We wanted to give you an update on the HOA fundraising activities which are currently ongoing. The tricycle raffle is proceeding nicely. Tickets continue to be sold at $2.00 dollars per ticket with the drawing taking place at our Christmas party in December. The Month’s Free Rent fundraiser continues to generate a lot of interest and a couple of questions which I would like to address. Several residents have asked whether the money must be spent on rent. The answer is no; the money ($872.00) can be used however the winner sees fit. Some folks have also asked what the money generated will be used for. As you will recall, earlier this year we discontinued the dues payment requirement for membership in the HOA in favor of fundraising. All fundraising monies will go into the HOA contingency fund which is a fund used for HOA expenditures and reserved for use to defray costs should the Park be sold and to cover HOA expenditures. Don’t misinterpret this. We have no reason to believe the Park will be sold but we need to prepare as best we can; kind of like preparing for a hurricane before it happens. As of today, we have sold 100+ tickets but are still short of our fundraising goal. So, if you have not purchased a ticket, which costs $10.00, we encourage you to do so before the drawing at the Christmas Party on December 20, 2025. There is no limit on the number of tickets you can purchase. Tickets for both fundraisers are still available from any of your HOA members.

ACTIVITIES COMMITTEE

Laurie Stone, Chair

Welcome to the most wonderful time and month of the year ! I absolutely love this time of year, all the lights, decorations , parties and just overall fun and love . We are all looking forward to the Motor Cycle 12/9 and golf cart 12/14 Parades. Come after the parade to the clubhouse and see the beautifully decorated cycles and carts . For the carts , we will be giving out a cash prize or 2 depending on how many enter . We need you all there to vote on your favorite after the parade . We will once again be giving out 3 prizes for the best decorated house . Info to follow .

We are beyond excited to present this year’s Christmas Party, 12/20. We have booked the band, Uptown funk . Info to follow on this event as well.

From all the activities team, we wish you all a beautiful , blessed and safe Christmas filled with love and Joy. We are looking forward to 2026 with many fun events to come.

2025 CHRISTMAS CARDS

Cathy Hargis

Happy Holidays everyone!

It is a tradition here at Oakcrest/Acorn, for those of you that are new to our community to pass out Christmas cards. This means a lot for some of the people here to receive a card from someone. It is the little things in life that can make someone's day or maybe even someone's Christmas. If you're thinking about sending your usual cards out this year, maybe think of sending an extra one out to that neighbor down the street. November 23rd, I will put a Christmas card box in the clubhouse on the back counter, please put your cards in the box and I will distribute them for you. I will need the name and lot numbers on the front of the envelopes. The deadline to have your Christmas cards in the box is December 1st. Thank you for your participation.

Christmas Window Painting

Yvonne D'Angelo

Calling all residents!! It's that time of year when we paint the clubhouse windows for the holiday season. This year, we will create our festive windows on Friday, December 5th. The fun begins at 8:30 am and we paint until everyone has completed their window. Lunch will be provided for our painters! Coffee will be available or bring your own morning motivator! Please join us for this annual event. Whether you are 'van Gogh' or "paint by numbers".... all are welcome! Stencils, paints, and brushes are provided. Of course, you are welcome to create your own holiday design. Please sign up on the sheet on the Clubhouse bulletin board if you will be painting with us. Any questions, please contact Yvonne D'Angelo at 518-569-4904

The Mysterious Gift Under the Tree

One Christmas Eve, a family gathered around the tree, finishing up the last of the cocoa and carols. As the children were sent off to bed, the parents noticed a small, unmarked gift tucked deep behind the tree. Neither of them had placed it there. Curious, they opened it to find a handmade ornament with the words: “Believe in the magic.” Inside was a note from their late grandmother, written years before she passed, thanking them for keeping the family traditions alive. She had hidden the gift during her last Christmas with them, hoping it would be found when they needed it most. That year, the family had been struggling with grief, and the unexpected message brought comfort and tears—reminding them that love endures, even after loss.

The Christmas Truce of 1914

During World War I, on Christmas Eve 1914, something extraordinary happened. British and German soldiers, entrenched in bitter combat, spontaneously ceased fire. Soldiers from both sides emerged from their trenches, met in no man's land, and exchanged greetings, food, and even played a game of football. They sang carols together and buried their dead with dignity. Though brief, the truce was a powerful reminder of shared humanity—even in the darkest of times. It remains one of the most poignant examples of peace breaking through conflict, if only for a day.

The Turkey That Got Away

One Christmas, a family decided to go all out and buy a fresh turkey from a local farm instead of the usual frozen one. The dad was in charge of picking it up, and he proudly brought home a massive bird. But when it came time to cook it, the oven door wouldn't close—it was too big.

So, they tried trimming it. Still too big. Then they tried rotating it. Still no luck. Eventually, they gave up and decided to cook it on the grill outside. But halfway through, it started raining—hard. The dad, determined not to let Christmas dinner be ruined, stood outside with an umbrella, flipping the turkey like a warrior defending his feast.

Hours later, they finally brought it in, only to discover... it was still raw in the middle. They ended up eating side dishes and pie for dinner, and the turkey became the next day's project. The family now jokes that the turkey was so big it needed its own zip code—and they've gone back to frozen ever since.

The Great Eggnog Explosion

At an office Christmas party, one enthusiastic employee decided to make homemade eggnog to impress everyone. He brought in a giant glass punch bowl filled to the brim, complete with nutmeg sprinkles and cinnamon sticks. It looked amazing.

But what he didn't realize was that the bowl was sitting directly under the heat vent.

As the party went on, the eggnog slowly warmed up... and fermented. By the time people started ladling it into cups, it had developed a surprisingly fizzy texture. One brave soul took a sip and immediately spat it out, yelling, "It's ALIVE!"

Moments later, the bowl cracked from the heat, sending a tidal wave of eggnog across the table, soaking cookies, gifts, and one unfortunate intern's laptop. The smell lingered for days, and the punch bowl was never seen again.

The moral? Never mix dairy, heat, and ambition.

The Cat vs. The Christmas Tree

One family had a beautiful, towering Christmas tree decorated with delicate glass ornaments, shimmering tinsel, and twinkling lights. It was their pride and joy—until their cat, Mittens, decided it was her personal jungle gym.

On the first night, they heard a crash and found Mittens halfway up the tree, dangling from a branch like a furry ornament. She had knocked off several baubles and was batting at the star like it owed her money.

They tried everything: citrus spray, aluminum foil around the base, even a motion-activated air puffer. Nothing worked. Every night, Mittens launched a stealth attack. One morning, they woke up to find the entire tree tipped over, ornaments scattered like confetti, and Mittens sitting triumphantly on top of the fallen pine like she'd conquered Everest.

From then on, they decorated only the top half of the tree and left the bottom bare—except for a sign that read: "Mittens' Zone – Enter at Your Own Risk."

*"Santa Claus has the right idea. Visit people once a year."

Writer's block? Vanquish it with these tips

Writers of all kinds sometimes fall prey to blocks. Whether you're writing a novel, a poem, or a business article, these tips can help you get past those blocks and get back on track:

- Start early. You have more willpower and energy in the morning, so use it to your advantage. You'll also have fewer interruptions and distractions while other people are just pouring their first cup of coffee, and you'll be able to put off less-important tasks for when you have the time to devote to them.
- Select a goal. Challenge yourself to write 5,000 words, work for two hours straight, finish a chapter, or write half your article before you move on. This gives you something concrete to strive for.
- Warm up. Spend a few minutes describing something around you, recreating a conversation from yesterday, writing down a dream, or just recording random thought as they come into your head. The practice of writing something—anything—will help get your mind in gear.
- Leave it unfinished. Some writers make a habit of stopping in the middle of a sentence so they have a natural starting point the next morning. If that doesn't work for you, try leaving what you're working on incomplete once you've reached your daily goal. You'll find it easier to continue when you have a natural jumping-off point.
- Don't push yourself. Sometimes the only thing to do is step away from the keyboard for a while. Let your mind wander without getting lost in another subject. After a few minutes (or hours) you'll be able to return with a fresh perspective.

Quotes

To invent, you need a good imagination and a pile of junk.
—Thomas Edison

Our imagination is stretched to the utmost, not, as in fiction, to imagine things which are not really there, but just to comprehend those things which are there.

—Richard Feynman

Do not be embarrassed by your failures. Learn from them, and start again.

—Richard Branson

You've got to get up every morning with determination if you're going to go to bed with satisfaction.

—George Lorimer

SCAM ALERT

Family Scams

Scammers are good at pretending to be someone that they're not. They try to trick you into thinking a loved one is in trouble.

Once the scammer makes you think they're your grandson and in trouble, they pressure you to quickly send them money. But it's all a scam.

Your family member was never in trouble.

- The scammer will say it's urgent and that you're the only one who can help.
- The scammer might tell you it's important to keep it secret. They don't want you talking to other family members and friends and realizing it's a scam.
- The scammers will play with your emotions. They're counting on you to act quickly to help your family or friend. And they're counting on you to pay without stopping to check out whether there's really an emergency. If you get a call like this, you can be sure this is a scam.

Slow down. Verify.
